ELIZA S. BROADUS

ELDEST DAUGHTER OF JOHN A. BROADUS AN ELECT LADY BELOVED IN MANY LANDS

PREFACE

It is now just thirty years since one day his young assistant suggested to Dr. John A. Broadus that he prepare a harmony of the Gospels that should depart from the old plan of following the feasts as the turning points in the life of Jesus. He acted on the hint and led the way that all modern harmonies have followed. The book has gone through a dozen large editions and has become the standard harmony for many thousands of students all over the world. Broadus was concerned to bring out "the inner movements of the history, towards that long-delayed, but foreseen and inevitable collision, in which, beyond all other instances, the wrath of man was made to praise God." This he succeeded in doing with marvelous power.

A generation has passed by and it is meet that the work of Broadus should be reviewed in the light of modern synoptic criticism and research into every phase of the life of Christ. So I have made a new analysis that preserves Broadus's real purpose, but with new sections and new notes. The notes at the end of the old volume, written by me for the first edition, have been thoroughly revised and brought up to date. The Old Testament passages referred to in the Gospels are given in the text. The Gospel of Mark appears in the first column, then Matthew, Luke, and John. It is now known that Matthew and Luke made use of Mark for the framework of their Gospels. This change simplifies amazingly the unfolding of the narrative.

There is still dispute concerning the historical worth of the Gospel of John, but the Johannine authorship is not disproved. It still holds the field in my opinion. Dr. C. F. Burney's theory of an Aramaic original is already giving a new turn to Johannine criticism.

A harmony of the Gospels cannot meet every phase of modern criticism. The data are given, as free from bias as circumstances allow, so that all students can use the book and interpret the facts according to their various theories. Numerous historical items call for notes of various kinds that throw light on the passage in question. No effort is made to reconcile all the divergent statements of various details in the different Gospels. The differences challenge the student's interest as much as the correspondences and are natural marks of individual work. The notes and appendices at the end of the volume are meant for students who wish help for historical study of the life of Christ. A harmony cannot give all the aid that one needs, but it is the one essential book for the serious study of the life of Jesus. Students in colleges, theological seminaries, Young Men's Christian Association and Young Women's Christian Association classes, Sunday School teachers and pupils, preachers, all who read the Gospels intelligently must have a modern harmony of the Gospels. One who has never read a harmony will be amazed at the flood of light that flashes from the parallel and progressive records of the life of Jesus Christ.

Broadus began teaching the life of Jesus in 1859 and kept it up till his death in 1895. I began like work in 1888 and have kept on without a break till now. I count it one of the crowning mercies of my life that I have led so many successive classes of young ministers and young women (some five thousand in all) through the study of Christ's life. If only one can pass on to others in all their freshness and power the teachings of Jesus, he cannot fail. There was a time when men hung in wonder upon the words of Jesus, listening with awe and rapture as he spoke. The Figure of Christ fills the world today as never before. Back to Christ the world has come, the Christ of Faith and of Experience, the Jesus of History, the Man of Galilee, the Hope of Today, the Jesus Christ of the Four Gospels in the full blaze of modern critical and historical study.

A HARMONY OF THE GOSPELS FOR STUDENTS OF THE LIFE OF CHRIST

PART I

THE SOURCES OF THE GOSPELS

§ 1. IN THE DEDICATION LUKE EXPLAINS HIS METHOD OF RESEARCH*

Luke 1:1–4

1 Forasmuch as many have taken in hand to draw up a narrative con-2 cerning those matters which have been [1]fulfilled among us, even as they delivered them unto us, which from the beginning were eyewitnesses 3 and ministers of the word, it seemed good to me also, having traced the course of all things accurately from the first, to write unto thee in order, 4 most excellent Theophilus;† that thou mightest know the certainty concerning the [2]things [3]wherein thou wast instructed.

[1] Or, fully established. [2] Gr. words. [3] Or, which thou wast taught by word of mouth.

* Luke is the first critic of the life of Christ whose criticism has been preserved to us. Others had drawn up narratives of certain portions of Christ's work. Others still had been eyewitnesses of the ministry of Jesus and gave Luke their oral testimony. Luke sifted it all with care and produced an orderly and reasonably full narrative of the earthly ministry of Jesus. We cannot reproduce all the sources that Luke had at his command, but it is clear that he followed in the main our Gospel of Mark, as any one can see for himself by comparing the two Gospels in this Harmony. Both Matthew and Luke made use of Mark. But they had other sources also. See note 2 on Synoptic Criticism at the close of the Harmony. See also Chapter IV, "Luke's Method of Research" in my Luke the Historian in the Light of Research.

† Luke alone follows the method of ancient historians in dedicating his Gospel, as also the Acts (1:1), to a patron who probably met the expense of publication. So Luke as a Gentile Christian writes an historical introduction in literary (Koinê) Greek after the fashion of Thucydides and Plutarch. Mark had no formal introduction. Matthew's introduction is genealogical because he is writing for Jewish readers to prove that Jesus is the Messiah of Jewish hope. John, writing last of all, has a theological introduction to meet the Gnostic and philosophical misconceptions concerning the Person of Christ. Thus he pictures Christ as the Eternal Logos, with God in his pre-incarnate state, who became flesh and thus revealed the Father to men.

PART II

THE PRE-EXISTENT STATE OF CHRIST AND HIS INCARNATION

§ 2. IN HIS INTRODUCTION JOHN PICTURES CHRIST AS THE WORD (LOGOS)

John 1:1–18

1 In the beginning was the Word,* and the Word was with God, and 2 the Word was God. The same was in the beginning with God. All
3 things were made [1]by him; and without him [2]was not anything made 4 that hath been made. In him was life; and the life was the light of men.
5 And the light shineth in the darkness; and the darkness [3]apprehended 6 it not. There came a man, sent from God, whose name was John. The 7 same came for witness, that he might bear witness of the light, that all 8 might believe through him. He was not the light, but came that he 9 might bear witness of the light. [4]There was the true light, even the light
10 which lighteth [5]every man, coming into the world. He was in the world, and the world was made [1]by him, and the world knew him not. He 11 came unto [6]his own, and they that were his own received him not. But 12 as many as received him, to them gave he the right to become children 13 of God, even to them that believe on his name: which were [7]born, not of [8]blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God.
14 And the Word* became flesh, and [9]dwelt among us (and we beheld his glory, glory as of [10]the only begotten from the Father), full of grace and 15 truth. John beareth witness of him, and crieth, saying, [11]This was he of whom I said, He that cometh after me is become before me: for he 16 was [12]before me. For of his fulness we all received, and grace for grace.
17 For the law was given [1]by Moses; grace and truth came [1]by Jesus Christ.
18 No man hath seen God at any time; [13]the only begotten Son, which is in the bosom of the Father, he hath declared him.

[1] Or, through. [2] Or, was not anything made. That which hath been made was life in him; and the life, &c. [3] Or, overcame. [4] Or, The true light, which lighteth every man, was coming. [5] Or, every man as he cometh. [6] Gr. his own things. [7] Or, begotten. [8] Gr. bloods. [9] Gr. tabernacled. [10] Or, an only begotten from a father. [11] Some ancient authorities read this was he that said. [12] Gr. first in regard of me. [13] Many very ancient authorities read God only begotten.

* The Fourth Gospel makes no further use of the term Logos (Word) for Christ. No other Gospel employs the term, but in 1 John 1:1 we find "the Word of life" in this sense and in Rev. 19:14 we have: "and his name is called the Word of God." The Greek word has a double sense (reason and speech) and John seems to have both ideas in mind (1:18). Christ is the Idea of God and the Expression of God. The Stoics followed Plato in the philosophical use of Logos. Philo took it up and made it familiar to Jewish readers who were already used to the Hebrew Mêmra (Word) in a personal sense. But John carried the term further than any of his predecessors and placed it on a par with Messiah, Son of God, Son of Man, and other phrases that portray aspects of the Person of Christ. John writes his Gospel to prove the deity of Jesus (John 20:31) against Gnostics (Cerinthian) who denied it, as he wrote his First Epistle (1 John 1:1–4) to prove the humanity of Jesus against Docetic Gnostics who disclaimed it. See note 3 at end of Harmony.

* The Sinaitic Syriac, against all the early Greek manuscripts, reads in Matt. 1:16: "But Joseph, to whom the Virgin Mary was betrothed, begat Jesus." This ancient Ebionitic text is followed by Von Soden in his Griechisches Neues Testament and by Moffatt in his New Translation of the New Testament, but it is difficult to believe it genuine, for in Matt. 1:18–22 the writer pictures Joseph as on the point of putting Mary away privily. The two reports in the Sinaitic Syriac flatly contradict each other. Those who accept it say that the writer of the Virgin Birth view in 1:18–20 overlooked 1:16 (certainly a serious oversight). It is easier to think that an Ebionitic scribe in copying altered 1:16, but passed by 1:18–20. The Ebionites denied the deity of Jesus. Both Matthew and Luke (1:26–38) give the Virgin Birth of Jesus, but they preserve separate traditions on the subject.

† Observe that Matthew's three divisions of the genealogy represent three great periods in the history of Israel. See note 5 at end of Harmony for discussion of the differences between the genealogies in Matthew and in Luke.

PART IV

THE BIRTH AND CHILDHOOD OF THE BAPTIST AND OF JESUS

Probably B.C. 7 to A.D. 7

§§ 4–19. These sections include the annunciations, the birth, infancy, and childhood of both John and Jesus.

§ 4. THE ANNUNCIATION* OF THE BIRTH OF THE BAPTIST TO ZACHARIAS

Jerusalem, in the Temple. Probably B.C. 7

Luke 1:5–25†

5 There was in the days of Herod, king of Judea, a certain priest named Zacharias, of the course of Abijah: and he had a wife of the daughters 6 of Aaron, and her name was Elisabeth. And they were both righteous before God, walking in all the commandments and ordinances of the 7 Lord blameless. And they had no child, because that Elisabeth was barren, and they both were now [1]well stricken in years.
8 Now it came to pass, while he executed the priest's office before God 9 in the order of his course, according to the custom of the priest's office, 10 his lot was to enter into the [2]temple of the Lord and burn incense. And the whole multitude of the people were praying without at the hour of 11 incense. And there appeared unto him an angel of the Lord standing 12 on the right side of the altar of incense. And Zacharias was troubled 13 when he saw him, and fear fell upon him. But the angel said unto him, Fear not, Zacharias: because thy supplication is heard, and thy wife 14 Elisabeth shall bear thee a son, and thou shalt call his name John. And 15 thou shalt have joy and gladness; and many shall rejoice at his birth. For he shall be great in the sight of the Lord, and he shall drink no wine nor [3]strong drink [see Num. 6:3; Judg. 13:4–6; 1 Sam. 1:11]; and he shall 16 be filled with the [4]Holy Ghost, even from his mother's womb. And many 17 of the children of Israel shall he turn unto the Lord their God. And he shall [5]go before his face in the spirit and power of Elijah, to turn the hearts of the fathers to the children [see Mal. 3:1; 4:5–6], and the disobedient

* There are three annunciations: (1) to Zacharias § 4, (2) to Mary § 5, (3) to Joseph § 9. Luke gives the first two and Matthew the third. The Angel Gabriel is named by Luke (1:19, 26), but Matthew simply has "an angel of the Lord" (1:20).

† It is certain that Luke tells the infancy stories from the standpoint of Mary while Matthew writes from the standpoint of Joseph. Matthew gives the public account while Luke tells the private story from Mary herself (Ramsay, Was Christ Born at Bethlehem? p. 79). Luke could have seen Mary, if still alive, or could have obtained it from one of Mary's circle either orally or in manuscript form. Some scholars even suggest "Gospel of Mary" and even, "Gospel of the Baptist" as a written source for Luke in 1:5–2:52. Sanday (The Life of Christ in Recent Research, p. 166) says: "These two chapters—whatever the date at which they were first committed to writing—are essentially the most archaic thing in the whole New Testament." Certainly Luke reveals the use of Aramaic or Hebrew sources by the sudden changes in his style from 1:1–4. Luke, if familiar with the current account as seen in Matthew, apparently felt that he owed it to Mary to record her story of her great experience.

to walk in the wisdom of the just; to make ready for the Lord a people pre-18 pared for him. And Zacharias said unto the angel, Whereby shall I know this? for I am an old man, and my wife [6]well stricken in years.
19 And the angel answering said unto him, I am Gabriel, that stand in the presence of God [see Dan. 8:16; 9:21]; and I was sent to speak unto thee, 20 and to bring thee these good tidings. And behold, thou shalt be silent and not able to speak, until the day that these things shall come to pass, because thou believedst not my words, which shall be fulfilled in their 21 season. And the people were waiting for Zacharias, and they marvelled 22 [7]while he tarried in the [2]temple. And when he came out, he could not speak unto them: and they perceived that he had seen a vision in the [2]temple: and he continued making signs unto them, and remained dumb.
23 And it came to pass, when the days of his ministration were fulfilled, he departed unto his house.
24 And after these days Elisabeth his wife conceived; and she hid her-25 self five months, saying, Thus hath the Lord done unto me in the days wherein he looked upon me, to take away my reproach among men.

§ 5. THE ANNUNCIATION TO THE VIRGIN MARY OF THE BIRTH OF JESUS

Nazareth. Probably B.C. 7 or 6

Luke 1:26–38

26 Now in the sixth month the angel Gabriel was sent from God unto 27 a city of Galilee, named Nazareth, to a virgin betrothed to a man whose name was Joseph, of the house of David; and the virgin's name was Mary.
28 And he came in unto her, and said, Hail, thou that art [1]highly favoured, 29 the Lord is with thee.[2] But she was greatly troubled at the saying, and 30 cast in her mind what manner of salutation this might be. And the angel said unto her, Fear not, Mary: for thou hast found [3]favour with 31 God. And behold, thou shalt conceive in thy womb, and bring forth a 32 son, and shalt call his name Jesus [see Isa. 7:14]. He shall be great, and shall be called the Son of the Most High: and the Lord God shall give unto 33 him the throne of his father David [see 2 Sam. 7:12–17]: and he shall reign over the house of Jacob [4]forever; and of his kingdom there shall be no end.
34 And Mary said unto the angel, How shall this be, seeing I know not a 35 man? And the angel answered and said unto her, The Holy Ghost shall come upon thee, and the power of the Most High shall overshadow thee:
wherefore also [5]that which [6]is to be born [7]shall be called holy [see Ex. 13:12], 36 the Son of God. And behold, Elisabeth thy kinswoman, she also hath 37 conceived a son in her old age: and this is the sixth month with her that 38 [8]was called barren. For no word from God shall be void of power [see Gen. 18:14]. And Mary said, Behold, the [9]handmaid of the Lord; be it unto me according to thy word. And the angel departed from her.

[1] Or, endued with grace. [2] Many ancient authorities add blessed art thou among women. (See ver. 42.) [3] Or, grace. [4] Gr. unto the ages. [5] Or, the holy thing which is to be born shall be called the son of God. [6] Or, is begotten. [7] Some ancient authorities insert of thee. [8] Or, is. [9] Gr. bondmaid.

§6. THE SONG* OF ELISABETH TO MARY UPON HER VISIT

Hill Country of Judea

Luke 1:39–45

39 And Mary arose in these days and went into the hill country with 40 haste, into a city of Judah; and entered into the house of Zacharias and 41 saluted Elisabeth. And it came to pass, when Elisabeth heard the salutation of Mary, the babe leaped in her womb; and Elisabeth was filled 42 with the Holy Ghost; and she lifted up her voice with a loud cry, and said, Blessed art thou among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy womb 43 And whence is this to me, that the mother of my Lord should come unto 44 me? For behold, when the voice of thy salutation came into mine ears, 45 the babe leaped in my womb for joy. And blessed is she that [1]believed; for there shall be a fulfilment of the things which have been spoken to her from the Lord.

[1] Or, believed that there shall be.

§7. THE MAGNIFICAT OF MARY

Hill Country of Judea

Luke 1:46–56

And Mary said,

46 My soul doth magnify the Lord [see 1 Sam. 2:1–10], 47 And my spirit hath rejoiced in God my Saviour.
48 For he hath looked upon the low estate of his [1]handmaiden:
For behold, from henceforth all generations shall call me blessed [see 1 Sam 1:11].
49 For he that is mighty hath done to me great things;
And holy is his name [see 1 Sam. 2:2].
50 And his mercy is unto generations and generations
On them that fear him [see Ps. 103:17].
51 He hath shewed strength with his arm;
He hath scattered the proud [2]in the imagination of their heart [*see 1 Sam.
2:4; Ps. 89:10*].
52 He hath put down princes from their thrones,
And hath exalted them of low degree [see Job 5:11; 12:19].
53 The hungry he hath filled with good things;
And the rich he hath sent empty away [see Ps. 107:9].
54 He hath holpen Israel his servant,
That he might remember mercy [see Isa. 41:8–9].
55 (As he spake unto our fathers)
Toward Abraham and his seed for ever [see Gen. 17:7; Mic. 7:20].
56 And Mary abode with her about three months, and returned unto her house.

[1] Gr. bondmaiden. [2] Or, by.

* This hymn or psalm springs from the omen to Elisabeth.

§8. THE BIRTH AND CHILDHOOD OF THE BAPTIST, AND HIS DESERT LIFE

Hill Country of Judea. B.C. 7 or 6

Luke 1:57–80

57 Now Elisabeth's time was fulfilled that she should be delivered; and 58 she brought forth a son. And her neighbors and her kinsfolk heard that the Lord had magnified his mercy toward her; and they rejoiced 59 with her. And it came to pass on the eighth day, that they came to circumcise the child; and they would have called him Zacharias, after 60 the name of his father. And his mother answered and said, Not so; 61 but he shall be called John. And they said unto her, There is none of 62 thy kindred that is called by this name. And they made signs to his 63 father, what he would have him called. And he asked for a writing 64 tablet, and wrote, saying, His name is John. And they marvelled all.
And his mouth was opened immediately, and his tongue loosed, and he 65 spake, blessing God. And fear came on all that dwelt round about them:
and all these sayings were noised abroad throughout all the hill country 66 of Judea. And all that heard them laid them up in their heart, saying,
What then shall this child be? For the hand of the Lord was with him.
67 And his father Zacharias was filled with the Holy Ghost, and prophesied, saying,
68 Blessed be the Lord, the God of Israel;
For he hath visited and wrought redemption for his people [see Ps. 72:18; 111:9], 69 And hath raised up a horn of salvation for us
In the house of his servant David [see 1 Sam. 2:10; Ps. 18:3], 70 (As he spake by the mouth of his holy prophets which have been since the world began),
71 Salvation from our enemies, and from the hand of all that hate us [see Ps. 106:10];
72 To show mercy towards our fathers,
And to remember his holy covenant;
73 The oath which he sware unto Abraham our father [see Gen. 17:7; Lev. 26:42; Ps. 105:8; Mic. 7:20], 74 To grant unto us that we being delivered out of the hand of our enemies
Should serve him without fear,
75 In holiness and righteousness before him all our days.
76 Yea and thou, child, shalt be called the prophet of the Most High:
For thou shalt go before the face of the Lord to make ready his ways [see Mal. 3:1];
77 To give knowledge of salvation unto his people
In the remission of their sins,
78 Because of the [1]tender mercy of our God,
[2]Whereby the dayspring from on high [3]shall visit us [see Mal. 4:2], 79 To shine upon them that sit in darkness and the shadow of death;
To guide our feet into the way of peace [see Isa. 8:22; 9:2].
80 And the child grew, and waxed strong in spirit, and was in the deserts till the day of his shewing unto Israel.*

[1] Or, heart of mercy. [2] Or, Wherein. [3] Many ancient authorities read hath visited us.

* Dwell on this summary statement as to John's retired life in the wild regions of Judea, whence he will come forth thirty years later.

§ 9. THE ANNUNCIATION TO JOSEPH OF THE BIRTH OF JESUS

Nazareth

Matt. 1:18–25

18 Now the [1]birth [2]of Jesus Christ was on this wise: When his mother Mary had been betrothed to Joseph, before they came together she was 19 found with child of the [3]Holy Ghost. And Joseph her husband, being a righteous man, and not willing to make her a public example, was 20 minded to put her away privily. But when he thought on these things, behold, an angel of the Lord appeared unto him in a dream, saying,
Joseph, thou son of David, fear not to take unto thee Mary thy wife: 21 for that which is [4]conceived in her is of the Holy Ghost. And she shall bring forth a son; and thou shalt call his name JESUS; for it is he that shall 22 save his people from their sins. Now all this is come to pass, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the Lord through the prophet, saying,
23 Behold, the virgin shall be with child, and shall bring forth a son [*see
Isa. 7:14], And they shall call his name [5]Immanuel; 24 which is, being interpreted, God with us. And Joseph arose from his sleep, and did as the angel of the Lord commanded him, and took unto 25 him his wife; and knew her not till she had brought forth a son: and he called his name Jesus.

[1] Or, generation: as in ver. 1 in § 3 [2] Some ancient authorities read of the Christ. [3] Or, Holy Spirit. [4] Gr. begotten. [5] Gr. Emmanuel.

§ 10. THE BIRTH OF JESUS

Bethlehem. Próbably B.C. 6 or 5

Luke 2:1–7

1 Now it came to pass in those days, there went out a decree from Cæsar
2 Augustus, that all the [1]world should be enrolled. This was the first 3 enrolment made when Quirinius was governor of Syria. And all went to enrol themselves, every one to his own city.* And Joseph also went 4 up from Galilee, out of the city of Nazareth, into Judea, to the city of 5 David, which is called Bethlehem, because he was of the house and family of David; to enrol himself with Mary, who was betrothed to him, being 6 great with child. And it came to pass, while they were there, the days 7 were fulfilled that she should be delivered. And she brought forth her firstborn son; and she wrapped him in swaddling clothes and laid him in a manger, because there was no room for them in the inn.

[1] Gr. inhabited earth.

*Observe how the ruler of the civilized world is unconsciously bringing it about that the Messiah, the son of David, shall be born at Bethlehem, though his mother's home was Nazareth. All the previous history of Rome and of Israel gathers about this manger. As to Quirinius, and as to the probable time of the Saviour's birth, see note 6 at the end of the book. The vindication of Luke's historical statements in these verses is one of the triumphs of modern research, as is shown in that note.

§ 11. THE PRAISE OF THE ANGELS AND THE HOMAGE OF THE SHEPHERDS

Near Bethlehem

Luke 2:8–20

8 And there were shepherds in the same country abiding in the field, 9 and keeping [1]watch by night over their flock. And an angel of the Lord stood by them, and the glory of the Lord shone round about them, and 10 they were sore afraid. And the angel said unto them, Be not afraid; 11 for behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy which shall be to all the people: for there is born to you this day in the city of David, a Saviour 12 which is [2]Christ the Lord. And this is the sign unto you; Ye shall find a 13 babe wrapped in swaddling clothes, and lying in a manger. And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host praising* God, and saying,
14 Glory to God in the highest,
And on earth [3]peace among [4]men in whom he is well pleased.
15 And it came to pass, when the angels went away from them into heaven, the shepherds said one to another, Let us now go even unto Bethlehem, and see this [5]thing that is come to pass, which the Lord hath made known 16 unto us. And they came with haste, and found both Mary and Joseph, 17 and the babe lying in the manger. And when they saw it, they made known concerning the saying which was spoken to them about this child.
18 And all that heard it wondered at the things which were spoken unto 19 them by the shepherds. But Mary kept all these [6]sayings, pondering 20 them in her heart. And the shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all the things that they had heard and seen, even as it was spoken unto them.

[1] Or, night-watches. [2] Or, Anointed Lord. [3] Many ancient authorities read peace, good pleasure among men. [4] Gr. men of good pleasure. [5] Or, saying. [6] Or, things.

§ 12. THE CIRCUMCISION OF JESUS

Bethlehem

Luke 2:21

21 And when eight days were fulfilled for circumcising him [see Gen. 17:12; Lev. 12:3], his name was called JESUS, which was so called by the angel before he was conceived in the womb.

§ 13. THE PRESENTATION IN THE TEMPLE WITH THE HOMAGE OF SIMEON AND ANNA

Jerusalem

Luke 2:22–38

22 And when the days of their purification according to the law of Moses 23 were fulfilled, they brought him up to Jerusalem, to present him to the Lord (as it is written in the law of the Lord, Every male that openeth the womb, shall be called holy to the Lord) [see Ex. 13:2, 12, 15; Lev. 12:1–8], 24 and to offer a sacrifice according to that which is said in the law of the 25 Lord, A pair of turtledoves, or two young pigeons. And behold, there was a man in Jerusalem, whose name was Simeon; and this man was righteous and devout, looking for the consolation of Israel: and the Holy Spirit 26 was upon him. And it had been revealed unto him by the Holy Spirit, 27 that he should not see death, before he had seen the Lord's Christ. And he came in the Spirit into the temple: and when the parents brought in the child Jesus, that they might do concerning him after the custom of the 28 law, then he received him into his arms, and blessed God and said,* 29 Now lettest thou thy [1]servant depart, O [2]Lord,

According to thy word, in peace;
30 For mine eyes have seen thy salvation [see Isa. 52:10].
31 Which thou hast prepared before the face of all the peoples;
32 A light for [3]revelation to the Gentiles,
And the glory of thy people Israel [see Isa. 42:6; 49:6].
33 And his father and his mother were marvelling at the things which 34 were spoken concerning him; and Simeon blessed them, and said unto Mary his mother, Behold, this child is set for the falling and rising up 35 of many in Israel; and for a sign which is spoken against; yea and a sword shall pierce through thine own soul; that thoughts out of many hearts 36 may be revealed. And there was one Anna, a prophetess, the daughter of Phanuel, of the tribe of Asher (she was [4]of a great age, having lived 37 with a husband seven years from her virginity, and she had been a widow even for four-score and four years), which departed not from the temple, 38 worshipping with fastings and supplications night and day. And coming up at that very hour she gave thanks unto God, and spake of him to all them that were looking for the redemption of Jerusalem.

§ 14. MAGI VISIT THE NEW-BORN KING OF THE JEWS

Jerusalem and Bethlehem

Matt. 2:1–12

1 Now when Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea in the days of Herod
2 the king, behold, [1]wise men from the east [see Num. 24:17] came to Jerusalem, saying, [2]Where is he that is born King of the Jews? for we saw 3 his star in the east, and are come to worship him. And when Herod the 4 king heard it, he was troubled, and all Jerusalem with him. And gathering together all the chief priests and scribes of the people, he inquired 5 of them where the Christ should be born. And they said unto him, In Bethlehem of Judea: for thus it is written [3]by the prophet,

* The four New Testament psalms, given by Luke, breathe the atmosphere of Old Testament piety, quite in contrast to the formalism of the Pharisees and yet thoroughly Jewish in background and Christian in sentiment. But it is primitive Christian feeling. Section 7 gives the Magnificat of Mary in response to the song of Elisabeth in § 6. In § 8 we have the Benedictus of Zacharias and in § 13 The Nunc Dimittis of Simeon.

Matt. 2:1–12

6 And thou Bethlehem, land of Judah,
Art in no wise least among the princes of Judah;
For out of thee shall come forth a governor [see Mic. 5:1–2],
Which shall be shepherd of my people Israel.
7 Then Herod privily called the [1]wise men, and learned of them carefully
8 [4]what time the star appeared. And he sent them to Bethlehem, and said, Go and search out carefully concerning the young child; and when ye have found him, bring me word, that I also may come and worship him.
9 And they, having heard the king, went their way; and lo, the star, which they saw in the east, went before them, till it came and stood over where 10 the young child was. And when they saw the star, they rejoiced with 11 exceeding great joy. And they came into the house and saw the young child with Mary his mother; and they fell down and worshipped him; and opening their treasures they offered unto him gifts, gold and frankincense 12 and myrrh. And being warned of God in a dream that they should not return to Herod, they departed into their own country another way.

[1] Gr. Magi. Compare Esther 1:13; Dan. 2:12. [2] Or, Where is the King of the Jews that is born? [3] Or, through. [4] Or, the time of the star that appeared.

§ 15. THE CHILD JESUS CARRIED TO EGYPT, AND THE CHILDREN AT BETHLEHEM SLAIN

Probably B.C. 5

Matt. 2:13–18

13 Now when they were departed, behold, an angel of the Lord appeareth to Joseph in a dream, saying, Arise and take the young child and his mother, and flee into Egypt, and be thou there until I tell thee: for Herod 14 will seek the young child to destroy him. And he arose and took the young child by night, and departed into Egypt; and was there until the 15 death of Herod: that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the Lord through the prophet, saying, Out of Egypt did I call my son [see Hos. 11:1].
16 Then Herod, when he saw that he was mocked of the [1]wise men, was exceeding wroth, and sent forth, and slew all the male children that were in Bethlehem, and in all the borders thereof, from two years old and under, according to the time which he had carefully learned of the [1]wise men.
17 Then was fulfilled that which was spoken [2]by Jeremiah the prophet, saying [see Jer. 31:15], 18 A voice was heard in Ramah,
Weeping and great mourning
Rachel weeping for her children;
And she would not be comforted, because they are not.

§ 16. THE CHILD BROUGHT FROM EGYPT TO NAZARETH

Probably B.C. 4

Matt. 2:19–23

19 But when Herod was dead, behold, an angel of the Lord appeareth in a dream to Joseph in 20 Egypt, saying, Arise and take the young child and his mother, and go into the land of Israel: 21 for they are dead that sought the young child's life. And he arose and took the young child and his mother, and came into the land of Is-22 rael. But when he heard that Archelaus was reigning over Judea in the room of his father Herod, he was afraid to go thither; and being 23 warned of God in a dream, he withdrew into the parts of Galilee, and came and dwelt in a city called Nazareth; that it might be fulfilled which was spoken [1]by the prophets,* that he should be called a Nazarene.

Luke 2:39

39 And when they had accomplished all things that were according to the law of the Lord, they returned into Galilee, to their own city Nazareth.

§ 18. THE VISIT OF THE BOY JESUS TO JERUSALEM WHEN TWELVE YEARS OLD

Probably A.D. 7 or 8

Luke 2:41–50

41 And his parents went every year to Jerusalem at the feast of the pass-42 over [see Ex. 23:14–17; Deut. 16:1–8]. And when he was twelve years old, 43 they went up after the custom of the feast; and when they had fulfilled the days, as they were returning, the boy Jesus tarried behind in Jerusalem; 44 and his parents knew it not; but supposing him to be in the company they went a day's journey; and they sought for him among their kinsfolk him in the temple, sitting in the midst of the [1]doctors, both hearing them, unto them: and his mother kept all these [1]sayings in her heart.

* After the return to Nazareth, we know nothing of Jesus' life at that place beyond the general statements of Luke 2:52, with the knowledge and dispositions indicated in the narrative of § 18 and the fact that he was a carpenter, until he comes forth to be baptized by John, his forerunner. The social and political conditions of this period in Galilee are described by Edersheim, D. Smith, and other writers on the Life of Jesus, and briefly stated in Broadus's Commentary on Matthew, p. 30 f. Dwell on the general statement of Luke 2:52. Other passages throw light on the life in Nazareth as to habits of worship (Luke 4:16), the family group of brothers and sisters (Mark 6:3 = Matt. 13:55 f.), work as carpenter (ibid.). A helpful book on this obscure period is Ramsay's The Education of Christ.

of him, Ye offspring of vipers, who warned you to flee from the wrath fruits worthy of [1]repentance; and begin not to say within yourselves,

We have Abraham to our father:
for I say unto you, that God is

Matt. 3:11–12

11 I indeed baptize you [1]with water unto repentance: but he that cometh after me is mightier than I, whose shoes I am not [2]worthy to bear: he shall baptize you [3]with the Holy Ghost

* One can easily put together all that we are told of John the Baptist in John 1:6-15 and in Sections 4, 6, 8, 20, 21, 22, 23, 24, 26, 27, 28, 33, 34, 49, 57, 71, 86, 132. See also Acts 1:5, 22; 10:37; 13:24; 18:25; 19:1-7. For a full discussion of the Baptist see my John the Loyal. These months of John's ministry prepared the way for the Messiah.

PART VI

THE BEGINNING OF CHRIST'S PUBLIC MINISTRY

The Year of Obscurity*

Probably Part of A.D. 26 and 27

In all parts of the Holy Land (the first Perean Ministry, the first Galilean Ministry, the first Judean Ministry, the first Samaritan Ministry). §§ 24–36. This early ministry includes the baptism, the temptation, John's witness to Jesus, the first disciples, the first miracle and work in Galilee, the first work in Judea, the arrest of John, the work in Samaria, and the return to Galilee.

§ 24. JESUS BAPTIZED BY JOHN IN THE JORDAN

Bethany beyond Jordan. Probably A.D. 26

Mark 1:9–11	Matt. 3:13–17	Luke 3:21–23
9 And it came to pass in those days, that Jesus came from Nazareth of Galilee, and was baptized of John ‡in the Jordan.	13 Then cometh Jesus from Galilee to the †Jordan unto John, to be baptized of him. 14 But John would have hindered him, saying, I have need to be baptized of thee, and comest thou to 15 me? But Jesus answering said unto him, Suffer ‡it now: for thus it becometh us to fulfil all righteousness. Then he

* The precise duration of this early ministry cannot be determined. Our Lord's baptism must have been at least two months before the Passover, and may have been some weeks or months earlier. Then the highly successful ministry in Judea after the Passover must have lasted several months (John 3:22; 4:1–3). If the "yet four months" in John 4:35 be understood to be not a common saying as to the usual interval between seedtime and harvest, but a statement that it was then just four months before harvest, that would make the Judean ministry extend eight months after the Passover. But this interpretation is upon the whole improbable, and we can only say that the opening ministry lasted several months. The time occupied makes very little difference for our understanding the events and discourses. All of the incidents during this period after the temptation are given in John's Gospel. But for the Fourth Gospel we should not know that Jesus did not plunge at once into the great Galilean Ministry.

† The Gospel of the Hebrews (one of the apocryphal gospels) is quoted by Jerome (adv. Pelag. iii. 2) as having the following: "Behold, the Lord's mother and His brethren were saying to Him, John the Baptist baptizes unto the remission of sins; let us go and be baptized by him. But he said unto them, What sin have I done, that I should go and be baptized by him? unless perchance this very thing which I have said is an ignorance."

Mark 1:9–11

10 And straightway coming up out of the water, he saw the heavens rent asunder, and the Spirit as a dove descending up-11 on him: and a voice came out of the heavens, Thou art my beloved Son, in thee I am well pleased [see Ps. 2:7; Isa. 42:1].

Matt. 3:13–17

16 suffereth him. And Jesus, when he was baptized, went up straightway from the water: and lo, the heavens were opened [2]unto him, and he saw the Spirit of God descending as a dove, and coming 17 upon him; and lo, a voice out of the heavens, saying, [3]This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.

Luke 3:21–23

21 Now it came to pass, when all the people were baptized, that Jesus also having been baptized, and praying, the heaven was opened,
22 and the Holy Ghost *descended in a bodily form, as a dove, upon him [see John 1:32–34], and a voice came out of heaven, Thou art my beloved Son; in thee †I am well pleased.
23 And Jesus himself, when he began to teach, was about thirty years of age.

[1] Or, me. [2] Some ancient authorities omit unto him. [3] Or, This is my son; my beloved in whom I am well pleased. [4] Gr. into.

§ 25. THE THREE TEMPTATIONS‡ OF JESUS

The Wilderness of Judea. Probably A.D. 26

Mark 1:12–13

12 And straightway the Spirit driveth him forth into the wilder-
13 ness. And he was in the wilderness forty days tempted of Satan; and he was with the wild beasts;

Matt. 4:1–11

1 Then was Jesus led up of the Spirit into the wilderness to be tempted of the devil.
2 And when he had fasted forty days and forty nights, he afterward hungered.

2 days, being tempted of the devil [see Heb. 4:15]. And he did eat nothing in those days: and when they were completed, he hun-

* The Gospel of John does not describe the baptism of Jesus, but refers to the event in a way that shows knowledge of the Synoptic Gospels.

† Codex Bezae (D) reads in Luke: "Thou art my beloved son, to-day have I begotten thee." The Gospel of the Ebionites has: "Thou art my beloved son, in thee I am well pleased, to-day I have begotten thee."

See §85 for similar language at the Transfiguration.

‡ Mark gives only a summary account while the Logia (the oldest known record) tells the temptations in detail. This early document reveals the Messianic consciousness of Jesus as distinctly as it appears in the Gospel of John. The record of the baptism in § 24 and of the temptation in § 25 goes back to the two oldest strata of the Gospel sources (Mark or the Memoirs of Peter and the Logia of Matthew) and shows that Jesus enters upon his Messianic work knowing that he had his Father's approval and the power of the Holy Spirit upon him.

4 But he answered and said, It is written [see Deut. 8:3], Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth

5 And he led him up, and shewed him all the kingdoms of [2]the world in a moment

8 all be thine. And Jesus answered and said unto him, It is written [see Deut. 6:13], Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and him only shalt 9 thou serve. And he led him to Jerusalem, and set him on the pinnacle of the temple, and said unto him, If thou art the Son of God, cast thyself down from hence:

§ 26. THE TESTIMONY OF THE BAPTIST TO THE COMMITTEE OF THE SANHEDRIN

At Bethany beyond Jordan

John 1:19–28

19 And this is the witness of John, when the Jews sent unto him from 20 Jerusalem priests and Levites to ask him, Who art thou? And he con-21 fessed, and denied not: and he confessed, I am not the Christ. And they asked him, What then? Art thou Elijah? And he saith, I am not.
22 Art thou the prophet? And he answered, No. They said therefore unto him, Who art thou? that we may give an answer to them that sent 23 us. What sayest thou of thyself? He said, I am the voice of one crying 24 in the wilderness Make straight the way of the Lord, as said Isaiah the 25 prophet [see Isa. 40:3]. [1]And they had been sent from the Pharisees.* And they asked him, and said unto him, Why then baptizest thou, if thou art not the Christ, neither Elijah, neither the prophet? John answered 26 them, saying, I baptize [2]with water: in the midst of you standeth one whom ye know not, even he that cometh after me, the latchet of whose 27 shoe I am not worthy to unloose. These things were done in [3]Bethany 28 beyond Jordan, where John was baptizing.

§ 27. JOHN'S IDENTIFICATION OF JESUS AS THE MESSIAH

At Bethany beyond the Jordan

John 1:29–34

29 On the morrow he seeth Jesus coming unto him, and saith, Behold, 30 the Lamb of God, which [1]taketh away the sin of the world [see Isa. 53:7]!
This is he of whom I said, After me cometh a man which is become before

* In 1:19 the priests and Levites are Sadducees. The idea seems to be that the Pharisees had the Sadducees sent on this embassy (cf. § 22). Later Jesus will say that John was Elijah that was to come; some will even take Jesus to be Elijah.

John 1:29–34

32 made manifest to Israel, for this cause came I baptizing [3]with water.
And John bare witness, saying, I have beheld the Spirit descending as 33 a dove out of heaven; and it abode upon him. And I knew him not: but he that sent me to baptize [3]with water, he said unto me, Upon whomsoever thou shalt see the Spirit descending, and abiding upon him, the have borne witness that this is the son of God.*

§ 28. JESUS MAKES HIS FIRST† DISCIPLES

At Bethany beyond the Jordan

John 1:35–51

35 Again on the morrow John was standing, and two of his disciples;
36 and he looked upon Jesus as he walked, and saith, Behold, the Lamb 37 of God [see Isa. 53:7]! And the two disciples heard him speak, and they 38 followed Jesus. And Jesus turned, and beheld them following, and saith unto them, What seek ye? And they said unto him, Rabbi (which is to 39 say, being interpreted, [1]Master), where abidest thou? He saith unto them, Come, and ye shall see. They came therefore and saw where he abode; and they abode with him that day: it was about the tenth hour.
40 One of the two that heard John speak, and followed him, was Andrew, 41 Simon Peter's brother. He findeth first his own brother Simon, and saith unto him, We have found the Messiah (which is, being interpreted, 42 [2]Christ). He brought him unto Jesus. Jesus looked upon him, and said, thou art Simon the son of [3]John: thou shalt be called Cephas (which is by interpretation, [4]Peter).
43 On the morrow he was minded to go forth into Galilee, and he findeth Philip: and Jesus saith unto him, Follow me. Now Philip was from 44 Bethsaida, of the city of Andrew and Peter. Philip findeth Nathanael, 45 and saith unto him, We have found him, of whom Moses in the law, 46 and the prophets, did write, Jesus of Nazareth, the son of Joseph. And Nathanael said unto him, Can any good thing come out of Nazareth?
47 Philip saith unto him, Come and see. Jesus saw Nathanael coming to him, and saith of him, Behold, an Israelite indeed, in whom is no guile!
48 Nathanael saith unto him, Whence knowest thou me? Jesus answered and said unto him, Before Philip called thee, when thou wast under the 49 fig tree, I saw thee. Nathanael answered him, Rabbi, thou art the son

* Put together the Baptist's testimonies to Jesus in sections 21, 22, 23, 24, 26, 27, 28, 33, 57. Add John 1:6–15. Note also the four testimonies of Jesus to John, sections 49, 57, 86, 132. Observe the four successive days here in John 1:19, 29, 35, 43, and the third day from the last in John 2:1, making a week that is covered in detail (cf. the Passion Week at the close). We have other glimpses of special days in the ministry, as the Busy Day of the blasphemous accusation and the parables (Matt. 12 and 13). In John 1:39 the very hour is preserved, probably Roman time (ten in the morning), as John writes long after the destruction of Jerusalem and outside of Palestine and uses the Roman reckoning (midnight to midnight) in John 20:19. But see note 11 at end of Harmony for Ramsay's objections to this view.

saith unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Ye shall see the heaven

§ 29. JESUS WORKS HIS FIRST MIRACLE

At Cana in Galilee

John 2:1–11

1 And the third day there was a marriage in Cana of Galilee: and the 2 mother of Jesus was there: and Jesus also was bidden, and his disciples,
3 to the marriage. And when the wine failed, the mother of Jesus saith 4 unto him, They have no wine. And Jesus saith unto her, Woman, what 5 have I to do with thee? mine hour is not yet come. His mother saith 6 unto the servants, Whatsoever he saith unto you, do it. Now there were six waterpots of stone set there after the Jews' manner of purifying, 7 containing two or three firkins apiece. Jesus saith unto them, Fill the 8 waterpots with water. And they filled them up to the brim. And he saith unto them, Draw out now, and bear unto the [1]ruler of the feast.
9 And they bare it. And when the ruler of the feast tasted the water [2]now become wine, and knew not whence it was (but the servants which had drawn the water knew), the ruler of the feast calleth the bridegroom, 10 and saith unto him, Every man setteth on first the good wine; and when men have drunk freely, then that which is worse: thou hast kept the good 11 wine until now. This beginning of his signs did Jesus in Cana of Galilee, and manifested his glory; and his disciples believed on him.

§ 30. JESUS MAKES A FIRST SOJOURN AT CAPERNAUM, ACCOMPANIED BY HIS KINDRED AND HIS EARLY DISCIPLES

(Later Capernaum will become his home)

John 2:12

12 After this he went down to Capernaum, he, and his mother, and his brethren, and his disciples: and there they abode not many days.

* Notice that these first disciples at once believed that Jesus was the Messiah (ver. 41, 45, 49). Compare the confession of Jesus (§ 35) to the Woman at Jacob's well and the confessions of Peter in Matt. 14:33; John 6:69; Matt. 16:16 (§§ 74, 76, 83).

§ 31. THE FIRST* CLEANSING OF THE TEMPLE AT THE PASSOVER

Jerusalem.† Probably A.D. 27

John 2:13–22

13 And the passover‡ of the Jews was at hand, and Jesus went up to 14 Jerusalem. And he found in the temple those who sold oxen and sheep 15 and doves, and the changers of money sitting: and he made a scourge of cords, and cast all out of the temple, both the sheep and the oxen; 16 and he poured out the changers' money, and overthrew their tables;
and to them that sold the doves he said, Take these things hence; make 17 not my Father's house a house of merchandise. His disciples remembered 18 that it was written, The zeal of thine house shall eat me up [see Ps. 69:9].
The Jews therefore answered and said unto him, What sign shewest 19 thou unto us, seeing thou doest these things? Jesus answered and said unto them, Destroy this [1]temple, and in three days I will raise it up.
20 The Jews therefore said, Forty and six years was this [1]temple in building, 21 and wilt thou raise it up in three days? But he spake of the [1]temple of 22 his body. When therefore he was raised from the dead, his disciples remembered that he spake this; and they believed the scripture, and the word which Jesus had said.

§ 32. THE INTERVIEW OF NICODEMUS WITH JESUS

At Jerusalem during the Passover

John 2:23 to 3:21

23 Now when he was in Jerusalem at the passover, during the feast, many 24 believed on his name, beholding his signs which he did. But Jesus did 25 not trust himself unto them, for that he knew all men, and because he needed not that any one should bear witness concerning [1]man: for he himself knew what was in man.
1 Now there was a man of the Pharisees, named Nicodemus,§ a ruler
2 of the Jews: the same came unto him by night, and said to him, Rabbi, we know that thou art a teacher come from God: for no man can do 3 these signs that thou doest, except God be with him. Jesus answered and said unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born

* Many scholars consider this the same incident as that in the Synoptic Gospels and placed by them in Passion Week (§ 129) probably on Monday. It is urged that Jesus would not have repeated such an act and hence one must follow either the order of John or of the Synoptics. But there is no inherent difficulty in the repetition of such an act when one reflects on the natural indignation of Jesus at the desecration of the temple on his visit during his ministry and considers that Jesus may have wished to make one last protest at the close of his ministry. Certainty, of course, is not possible in such an argument one way or the other.

‡ This is the first of the passovers in John's Gospel (2:13; 6:4; 13:1). There may have been another.

§ Nicodemus appears as an exception to the statement of 2:24, as one whom Jesus did trust, and who amid all difficulties of temperament and station proved not unworthy of the trust.

John 2:23 to 3:21

4 [2]anew, he cannot see the kingdom of God. Nicodemus saith unto him, How can a man be born when he is old? can he enter a second time into 5 his mother's womb, and be born? Jesus answered, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born of water and the Spirit, he cannot enter 6 into the kingdom of God. That which is born of the flesh is flesh; and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit. Marvel not that I said unto 7 thee, Ye must be born [2]anew. [3]The wind bloweth where it listeth, and 8 thou hearest the voice thereof, but knowest not whence it cometh, and 9 whither it goeth: so is every one that is born of the Spirit. Nicodemus 10 answered and said unto him, How can these things be? Jesus answered and said unto him, Art thou the teacher of Israel, and understandest not 11 these things? Verily, verily, I say unto thee, We speak that we do know, 12 and bear witness of that we have seen; and ye receive not our witness. If I told you earthly things, and ye believe not, how shall ye believe, if I 13 tell you heavenly things? And no man hath ascended into heaven, but he that descended out of heaven, even the Son of man, [4]which is in heaven.
14 And as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness [see Num. 21:8–9], even so must the Son of man be lifted up: that whosoever [5]believeth may 15 in him have eternal life.
16 For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth on him should not perish, but have eternal life.
17 For God sent not the Son into the world to judge the world; but that 18 the world should be saved through him. He that believeth on him is not judged; he that believeth not has been judged already, because he 19 hath not believed on the name of the only begotten Son of God. And this is the judgment, that the light is come into the world, and men loved the 20 darkness rather than the light; for their works were evil. For every one that [6]doeth ill hateth the light, and cometh not to the light, lest his works 21 should be [7]reproved. But he that doeth the truth cometh to the light, that his works may be made manifest, [8]that they have been wrought in God.

§ 33. THE PARALLEL *MINISTRY OF JESUS AND JOHN WITH JOHN'S LOYALTY TO JESUS

John 3:22–36

22 After these things came Jesus and his disciples into the land of Judea;
23 and there he tarried with them, and baptized. And John also was baptizing in Ænon near to Salim, because there [1]was much water there; and 24 they came, and were baptized. For John was not yet cast into prison.
25 There arose therefore a questioning on the part of John's disciples with a 26 Jew about purifying. And they came unto John, and said to him, Rabbi, he that was with thee beyond Jordan, to whom thou hast borne witness, 27 behold, the same baptizeth, and all men come to him. John answered and said, A man can receive nothing, except it have been given him from 28 heaven. Ye yourselves bear me witness, that I said, I am not the Christ, 29 but, that I am sent before him. He that hath the bride is the bridegroom:

but the friend of the bridegroom, which standeth and heareth him, rejoiceth greatly because of the bridegroom's voice: this my joy therefore is 30 fulfilled. He must increase, but I must decrease.
31 He that cometh from above is above all: he that is of the earth is of the earth, and of the earth he speaketh: [2]he that cometh from heaven 32 is above all. What he hath seen and heard, of that he beareth witness;
33 and no man receiveth his witness. He that hath received his witness 34 hath set his seal to this, that God is true. For he whom God hath sent speaketh the words of God: for he giveth not the Spirit by measure.
35 The Father loveth the Son, and hath given all things into his hand. He 36 that believeth on the Son hath eternal life; but he that [3]obeyeth not the Son shall not see life, but the wrath of God abideth on him.

[1] Gr. were many waters. [2] Some ancient authorities read he that cometh from heaven beareth witness of what he hath seen and heard. [3] Or, believeth not.

§ 34. CHRIST'S REASONS FOR LEAVING JUDEA

John 4:1–4

1 When therefore the Lord knew how that the Pharisees had heard that 2 Jesus was making and baptizing more disciples than John (although 3 Jesus himself baptized not, but his disciples), he left Judea, and departed
4 again into Galilee. And he must needs pass through Samaria.

Luke 3:19, 20

19 But Herod the tetrarch, being reproved by him for Herodias his brother's wife, and for all the evil things which Herod had done, added 20 yet this above all, that he shut up John in prison.*

Mark 1:14	Matt. 4:12	Luke 4:14
14 Now after that John was delivered up Jesus came into Galilee.	12 Now when he heard that John was delivered up he withdrew into Galilee.	14 And Jesus returned in the power of the Spirit into Galilee.

At Jacob's Well and in Sychar

John 4:5–42

5 So he cometh to a city of Samaria, called Sychar, near to the parcel of ground that Jacob gave to his son Joseph: and Jacob's [1]well was there 6 [see Josh. 24:32]. Jesus therefore, being wearied with his journey, sat [2]thus

* The place of John's imprisonment was Machærus, east of the Dead Sea. See Josephus, War, Ch. VII, vi. In Antiquities, Ch. XVIII, v, 2 Josephus gives the public and political reason for John's imprisonment because of Herod's fear of a revolution. He "feared lest the great influences John had over the people might put it into his power and inclination to raise a rebellion."

† Notice that John also had recently been preaching to Samaritans (§ 33) and compare hereafter Philip's work in the city of Samaria (Acts 8:5 ff.)

John 4:5–42

by the well.[1] It was about the sixth hour. There cometh a woman of Samaria to draw water: Jesus saith unto her, Give me to drink. For his disciples were gone away into the city to buy food. The Samaritan woman therefore saith unto him, How is it that thou, being a Jew, askest drink of me, which am a Samaritan woman? ([3]For Jews have no dealings with Samaritans.) Jesus answered and said unto her, If thou knewest the gift of God, and who it is that saith to thee, Give me to drink; thou wouldest have asked of him, and he would have given thee living water.
The woman saith unto him, [4]Sir, thou hast nothing to draw with, and the well is deep: from whence then hast thou that living water? Art thou greater than our father Jacob, which gave us the well, and drank thereof himself, and his sons, and his cattle? Jesus answered and said unto her, Every one that drinketh of this water shall thirst again: but whosoever drinketh of the water that I shall give him shall never thirst; but the water that I shall give him shall become in him a well of water springing up unto eternal life. The woman saith unto him, [4]Sir, give me this water, that I thirst not, neither come all the way hither to draw. Jesus saith unto her, Go, call thy husband, and come hither. The woman answered and said unto him, I have no husband. Jesus saith unto her, Thou saidst well, I have no husband: for thou hast had five husbands; and he whom thou now hast is not thy husband: this hast thou said truly. The woman saith unto him, [4]Sir, I perceive that thou art a prophet. Our fathers worshipped in this mountain; and ye say, that in Jerusalem is the place where men ought to worship. Jesus saith unto her, Woman, believe me, the hour cometh, when neither in this mountain, nor in Jerusalem, shall ye worship the Father. Ye worship that which ye know not; we worship that which we know: for salvation is from the Jews. But the hour cometh, and now is, when the true worshippers shall worship the Father in spirit and truth: [5]for such doth the Father seek to be his worshippers. [6]God is a Spirit: and they that worship him must worship in spirit and truth. The woman saith unto him, I know that Messiah cometh (which is called Christ): when he is come, he will declare unto us all things. Jesus saith unto her, I that speak unto thee am he.

And upon this came his disciples; and they marvelled that he was speaking with a woman; yet no man said, What seekest thou? or, Why speakest thou with her? So the woman left her waterpot, and went away into the city, and saith to the men, Come, see a man, which told me all things that ever I did: can this be the Christ? They went out of the city, and were coming to him. In the mean while the disciples prayed him, saying, Rabbi, eat. But he said to them, I have meat to eat that ye know not. The disciples therefore said one to another, Hath any man brought him aught to eat? Jesus saith unto them, My meat is to do the will of him that sent me, and to accomplish his work. Say not ye, There are yet four months, and then cometh the harvest? behold, I say unto you, Lift up your eyes, and look on the fields, that they are [7]white already unto harvest. He that reapeth receiveth wages, and gathereth fruit unto life eternal; that he that soweth and he that reapeth may rejoice together. For herein is the saying true, One soweth and another reapeth. I sent you to reap that whereon ye have not laboured:
others have laboured, and ye are entered into their labour.

John 4:5–42

39 And from that city many of the Samaritans believed on him *because of the word of the woman, who testified, He told me all things that ever I 40 did. So when the Samaritans came unto him, they besought him to abide 41 with them: and he abode there two days. And many more believed 42 because of his word; and they said to the woman, Now we believe, not because of thy speaking: for we have heard for ourselves, and know that this is indeed the Saviour of the world.†

[1] Gr. spring: and so in ver. 14; but not in ver. 11, 12. [2] Or, as he was. [3] Some ancient authorities omit For Jews have no dealings with Samaritans. [4] Or, Lord. [5] Or, for such the Father also seeketh. [6] Or, God's spirit. [7] Or, white unto harvest. Already he that reapeth, &c.

§ 36. THE ARRIVAL OF JESUS IN GALILEE

John 4:43–45

43 And after the two days he went forth from thence into Galilee. For 44 Jesus himself testified, that a prophet hath no honour in his own country 45 [see Luke 4:24; Mark 6:4; Matt. 13:57]. So when he came into Galilee, the Galileans received him, having seen all the things that he did in Jerusalem at the feast: for they also went unto the feast.

* See note on p. 27.

† In this early ministry Jesus allowed himself to be regarded as the Messiah by his first disciples (§ 28), and personally declared that he was the Messiah to the woman at the well (§ 35) (John 4:26), which many other Samaritans also personally believed (John 4:39, 42). He never declared this to the Jewish rulers at Jerusalem till the very end (§ 156), doubtless because such an avowal would lead them to kill him, and so must not be made till his work in teaching the people and training his disciples should be completed. Compare what he says later to Peter in Matt. 16:17–20 (§ 82). At the baptism and the temptation of Jesus it was clear that Jesus knew that he was the Son of God, the Messiah, and was so regarded by the Baptist. Events in Judea and Galilee change the early policy of Jesus and lead to silence on his part in the use of the word Messiah, though many of the people know that he makes Messianic claims and the rulers in Jerusalem come to suspect him and to fear him. See my volume on The Pharisees and Jesus.

THE GREAT GALILEAN MINISTRY

Probably* Autumn of A.D. 27 to Spring of 29

§§ 37–71. Great fulness of detail in Mark for this period and condensed report in Luke while Matthew is chiefly topical in this portion. Mark's Gospel plunges at once into the Great Galilean Ministry (cf. Peter's summary of Christ's life in Acts 10:36–43 to the household of Cornelius). The mass of material makes clear grouping difficult, but there is progress† in the development of events.

* We cannot confidently determine the length of the ministry in Galilee. We are not sure whether it began in summer or late autumn (see footnote 7 in Explanatory Notes at end of Harmony). If the feast of John 5:1 was a passover or there is an unknown passover, the Galilean ministry lasted at least sixteen months, for it ended when another passover was near (John 6:4). Otherwise we should not certainly know that it lasted more than some six or eight months. About the two subsequent periods of our Lord's ministry we shall find no room to question that each lasted six months; but here we have to admit much uncertainty as to the time. After all, a determination of the time employed would be a matter of very little importance to our study of this period. But the immense amount of material in this period argues for a length of over a year.

† Throughout this great ministry in Galilee, and the periods that will follow after, the reader ought to trace carefully the progress of the history along several lines: (1) the Saviour's progressive self-manifestation; (2) the gradual training of the Twelve who are to carry on his teaching and work after his death; (3) the deepening and spreading hostility of the Jewish influential classes and official rulers. By constantly observing these parallel lines of progress, it will be seen that the history and teachings of our Lord exhibit a vital growth, moving on to an end by him foreseen (Luke 12:50), when the hostility of the rulers will culminate as he before the Sanhedrin avows himself to be the Messiah, and the Twelve will be almost prepared to succeed him.

§ 37. GENERAL ACCOUNT OF HIS TEACHING IN GALILEE

Mark 1:14–15

14 [Now after that John was delivered up, Jesus came into Galilee], preaching the gospel of God, 15 and saying, The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand: repent ye, and believe in the gospel.

Matt. 4:17

17 From that time began Jesus to preach, and to say, Repent ye; for the kingdom of heaven is at hand.

Luke 4:14–15

14 [And Jesus returned in the power of [see John 4:3, 43] the Spirit into Galilee]: and a fame went out concerning him through all the region
15 round about. And he taught in their synagogues, being glorified of all.

In sections 38–43 (the Rejection at Nazareth and the New Home in Capernaum) Jesus revisits Cana and Nazareth, recalls the four fishermen by the Sea of Galilee, and begins his ministry of teaching and healing in Capernaum.

§ 38. THE HEALING AT CANA OF THE SON OF A COURTIER OF CAPERNAUM

John 4:46–54

46 He came therefore again unto Cana of Galilee, where he made the 47 water wine. And there was a certain [1]nobleman, whose son was sick at Capernaum. When he heard that Jesus was come out of Judea into Galilee, he went unto him, and besought him that he would come down, 48 and heal his son; for he was at the point of death. Jesus therefore said 49 unto him, Except ye see signs and wonders, ye will in no wise believe.
50 The [1]nobleman saith unto him. [2]Sir, come down ere my child die. Jesus saith unto him, Go thy way; thy son liveth. The man believed the word 51 that Jesus spake unto him, and he went his way. And as he was now 52 going down, his [3]servants met him, saying, that his son lived. So he inquired of them the hour when he began to amend. They said therefore 53 unto him, Yesterday at the seventh hour the fever left him. So the father knew that it was at that hour in which Jesus said unto him, Thy 54 son liveth: and himself believed, and his whole house. This is again the second sign that Jesus did, having come out of Judea into Galilee.

§ 39. THE FIRST REJECTION AT NAZARETH

Luke 4:16–31

16 And he came to Nazareth, where he had been brought up: and he entered, as his custom was, into the synagogue on the sabbath day, and 17 stood up to read. And there was delivered unto him [1]the book of the prophet Isaiah. And he opened the [2]book, and found the place where it was written,

Luke 4:16–31

18 The Spirit of the Lord is upon me,
[3]Because he anointed me to preach [4]good tidings to the poor:
He hath sent me to proclaim release to the captives,
And recovering of sight to the blind,
To set at liberty them that are bruised
19 To proclaim the acceptable year of the Lord [see Isa. 58:6; 61:1–2].
20 And he closed the [2]book, and gave it back to the attendant, and sat down:
21 and the eyes of all in the synagogue were fastened on him. And he began to say unto them, To-day hath this scripture been fulfilled in your 22 ears. And all bare him witness, and wondered at the words of grace which proceeded out of his mouth: and they said, Is not this Joseph's son?
23 And he said unto them, Doubtless ye will say unto me this parable, Physician, heal thyself [see John 6:42; 7:15]: whatsoever we have heard done
24 at Capernaum, do also here in thine own country. And he said, Verily I say unto you, No prophet is acceptable in his own country [see John 4:44].
25 But of a truth I say unto you, There were many widows in Israel in the days of Elijah, when the heaven was shut up three years and six months, when there came a great famine over all the land [see 1 Kings 17:1; 18:1–2];
26 and unto none of them was Elijah sent, but only to [5]Zarephath, in the land of Sidon, unto a woman that was a widow [see 1 Kings 17:8–9]. And 27 there were many lepers in Israel in the time of Elisha the prophet; and none of them was cleansed, but only Naaman the Syrian [see 2 Kings 5:1, 14].
28 And they were all filled with wrath in the synagogue, as they heard these 29 things; and they rose up, and cast him forth out of the city, and led him unto the brow of the hill whereon their city was built, that they might 30 throw him down headlong. But he passing through the midst of them 31 went his way. And he came down to Capernaum, a city of Galilee.

[1] Or, a roll. [2] Or, roll. [3] Or, wherefore. [4] Or, the gospel. [5] Gr. Sarepta.

§ 40. THE NEW HOME IN CAPERNAUM

Matt. 4:13–16

13 And leaving Nazareth* he came and dwelt in Capernaum, which is by 14 the sea, in the borders of Zebulun and Naphtali; that it might be fulfilled which was spoken [1]by Isaiah the prophet [see Isa. 8:23; 9:1–2], saying,

15 The land of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali,
[2]Toward the sea, beyond Jordan,
Galilee of the [3]Gentiles,
16 The people which sat in darkness
Saw a great light
And to them which sat in the region and shadow of death,
To them did light spring up.

[1] Or, through. [2] Gr. the way of the sea. [3] Nations, and so elsewhere.

* Nazareth was never the Saviour's residence during his public ministry. After the wedding at Cana he lived a short time at Capernaum, and henceforth that city will be his abode, till he leaves Galilee six months before the crucifixion—most of the time, however, being actually spent in several journeys throughout Galilee, together with a trip to Jerusalem, and retirement to districts around Galilee.

§ 41. JESUS FINDS FOUR FISHERS OF MEN IN FOUR FISHERMEN*

By the Sea of Galilee, near Capernaum

Mark 1:16–20

16 And passing along by the sea of Galilee, he saw Simon and Andrew the brother of Simon casting a net in the sea: for they were fishers.
17 And Jesus said unto them, Come ye after me, and I will make you to become fishers 18 of men. And straightway they left the nets, and followed 19 him. And going on a little further, he saw James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother, who were also in the boat mend-20 ing the nets. And straightway he called them: and they left their father Zebedee in the boat with the hired servants, and went after him.

Matt. 4:18–22

18 And walking by the sea of Galilee, he saw two brethren, Simon who is called Peter, and Andrew his brother, casting a net into the sea; for they were fishers.
19 And he saith unto them, Come ye after me, and I will make you fishers of men.
20 And they straightway left the nets, and 21 followed him. And going on from thence he saw other two brethren, [1]James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother, in the boat with Zebedee their father, mending their nets; and he 22 called them. And they straightway left the boat and their father, and followed him.*

Luke 5:1–11

1 Now it came to pass, while the multitude pressed upon him, and heard the word of God, that he was standing by the lake of Gennesaret;
2 and he saw two boats standing by the lake: but the fishermen had gone out of them, and were washing their
3 nets. And he entered into one of the boats, which was Simon's, and asked him to put out a little from the land. And he sat down and taught the multitudes out of 4 the boat. And when he had left speaking, he said unto Simon, Put out into the deep, and let down your nets for a
5 draught. And Simon answered and said, Master, we toiled all 6 night, and took nothing: but at thy word I will let down the nets. And when they had this done, they inclosed a great multitude of fishes; and 7 their nets were breaking; and they beckoned unto their partners in the other boat, that they should come and help them. And they came, and 8 filled both the boats, so that they began to sink. But Simon Peter, when he saw it, fell down at Jesus' knees, saying, Depart from me; for I am a 9 sinful man, O Lord. For he was amazed, and all that were with him, 10 at the draught of the fishes which they had taken; and so were also James and John, sons of Zebedee, which were partners with Simon. And Jesus 11 said unto Simon, Fear not; from henceforth thou shalt [2]catch men. And when they had brought their boats to land, they left all, and followed him.

[1] Or, Jacob: and so elsewhere. [2] Gr. take alive.

* Three of these two pairs of brothers (Andrew and Peter, John and James) had already become disciples of Jesus at Bethany beyond Jordan (James probably soon afterwards), but now they leave their prosperous fish business and follow Jesus continuously as many business men since have given up a lucrative business for the ministry. They, along with Philip and Nathaniel, had been with Jesus in the early ministry (the year of obscurity).

§ 42. THE EXCITEMENT IN THE SYNAGOGUE BECAUSE OF THE TEACHING OF JESUS AND THE HEALING OF A DEMONIAC ON THE SABBATH

Mark 1:21–28

21 And they go into Capernaum;
and straightway on the sabbath day he entered into the syna-22 gogue and taught. And they were astonished at his teaching:
for he taught them as having authority, and not as the scribes.
23 And straightway there was in their synagogue a man with an unclean spirit, and he cried out, 24 saying, What have we to do with thee, thou Jesus of Nazareth? art thou come to destroy us? I know thee who thou art, the 25 Holy One of God. And Jesus rebuked [1]him, saying, hold thy peace, and come out of him.
26 And the unclean spirit, [2]tearing him and crying with a loud voice, 27 came out of him. And they were all amazed, insomuch that they questioned among themselves, saying, What is this? a new teaching! with authority he commandeth even the unclean spirits, and 28 they obey him. And the report of him went out straightway everywhere into all the region of Galilee round about.

Luke 4:31–37

31 [And he came down to Caper-naum, a city of Galilee.] And he was teaching them on the sab-32 bath day: and they were astonished at his teaching; for his 33 word was with authority. And in the synagogue there was a man, which had a spirit of an unclean [3]devil; and he cried out 34 with a loud voice, [4]Ah! what have we to do with thee, thou Jesus of Nazareth? art thou come to destroy us? I know thee who thou art [see Ps. 16:10], the Holy One of God.
35 And Jesus rebuked him, saying, Hold thy peace, and come out of him. And when the [3]devil had thrown him down in the midst, he came out of him, having done him 36 no hurt. And amazement came upon all, and they spake together, one with another, saying, What is [5]this word? for with authority and power he commandeth the unclean spirits, and they come 37 out. And there went forth a rumour concerning him into every place of the region round about.

32 And at even, when the sun did set, they brought unto him all that were sick, and them that were [1]possessed with 33 devils. And all the city was gathered together at the door.

In sections 44–52 Jesus makes his first tour of Galilee with the Four Fishermen whom he has now called to follow him continuously. On the return to Capernaum Matthew is called and various miracles arouse the enthusiasm of the multitudes and the hostility of the Pharisees to Christ's teachings.

40 And there cometh to him a leper, beseeching him, [1]and kneeling down to him, and saying unto him, If thou wilt, thou canst make me clean.	2 And behold, there came to him a leper and worshipped him, saying, Lord, if thou wilt thou canst make me clean,	12 And it came to pass, while he was in one of the cities, behold, a man full of leprosy: and when he saw Jesus, he fell on his face, and besought him, saying, Lord, if thou wilt,

* This journey about all Galilee included a great mass of teaching and healing (dwell on Matt. 4:23–25), of which only a few specimens are recorded, and these apparently occurred at Capernaum, his headquarters. The journey given by Luke only (8:1–3) is probably distinct from this, and if so it would be a second, while that of Luke 9:1–6(=Mark 6:6–13=Matt. 9:35, 11:1), which is quite certainly distinct, would then be a third journey about Galilee. The reader ought to expand his imagination and take in these extended labors.

36 And he spake also a parable* unto them; No man rendeth a piece from a new garment and putteth it upon an old garment; else he will rend the new, and also the piece from the new will not agree 37 with the old. And no man putteth new wine into old [2]wine-skins; else the new wine will burst the skins, and itself will be spilled, and the skins will perish.

In sections 49 to 51 we see the Pharisees attacking Jesus both in Jerusalem and in Galilee with great hostility and with the purpose of killing him because of violation of the Pharisaic regulations about the Sabbath. Jesus defends himself and his disciples by various arguments and personal claims.

* Note the use of the term parable in Luke. There are three parables (the sons of the bride-chamber, the new patch on an old garment, the new wine in old wine-skins) here together. A few isolated ones have already occurred as in John 2:19.

§ 49. AT A FEAST IN JERUSALEM (POSSIBLY THE PASSOVER) JESUS HEALS A LAME MAN ON THE SABBATH AND DEFENDS THIS ACTION TO THE PHARISEES IN A GREAT DISCOURSE

John 5:1–47

1 After these things there was [1]a feast* of the Jews; and Jesus went up to Jerusalem.†
2 Now there is in Jerusalem by the sheep gate a pool, which is called in 3 Hebrew [2]Bethesda, having five porches. In these lay a multitude of them
5 that were sick, blind, halt, withered.[3] And a certain man was there, 6 which had been thirty and eight years in his infirmity. When Jesus saw him lying, and knew that he had been now a long time in that case, he 7 saith unto him, Wouldst thou be made whole? The sick man answered him, [4]Sir, I have no man, when the water is troubled, to put me into the 8 pool: but while I am coming, another steppeth down before me. Jesus 9 saith unto him, Arise, take up thy bed, and walk. And straightway the man was made whole, and took up his bed and walked.
10 Now it was the sabbath on that day. So the Jews said unto him that was cured, It is the sabbath, and it is not lawful for thee to take up thy 11 bed [see Ex. 20:10; Deut. 5:14]. But he answered them, He that made me 12 whole, the same said unto me, Take up thy bed, and walk. They asked 13 him, Who is the man that said unto thee, Take up thy bed, and walk? But he that was healed wist not who it was: for Jesus had conveyed himself 14 away, a multitude being in the place. Afterward Jesus findeth him in the temple, and said unto him, Behold, thou art made whole: sin no more, 15 lest a worse thing befall thee. The man went away, and told the Jews 16 that it was Jesus which had made him whole. And for this cause did the Jews persecute Jesus, because he did these things on the sabbath. But 17 Jesus answered them, My Father worketh even until now, and I work.
18 For this cause therefore the Jews sought the more to kill him, because he not only brake the sabbath, but also called God his own Father, making himself equal with God.
19 Jesus therefore answered and said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, The Son can do nothing of himself, but what he seeth the Father doing: for what things soever he doeth, these 20 the Son also doeth in like manner. For the Father loveth the Son, and sheweth him all things that himself doeth; and greater works than these 21 will he shew him, that ye may marvel. For as the Father raiseth the dead and quickeneth them, even so the Son also quickeneth whom he will.

* This feast of John 5:1 was most probably a Passover (see note at end of volume, note 7). If so, we should know that our Lord's public ministry lasted three years and a fraction, and that the great ministry in Galilee lasted some 18 to 20 months. Otherwise, we should know of only two years and a fraction for the former, and 6 to 8 months for the latter; as John gives three passovers beyond question (John 2:13; 6:4; 12:1), and our Lord's ministry began some time before the first of these. If the feast of 5:1 was not a passover, it is quite impossible to determine what other feast it was. While one would be glad to settle these questions, if it were possible, yet it really does not matter as regards understanding our Lord's recorded history and teachings during the great ministry in Galilee, the only point of difference being that if this feast was a Passover (or if there is an unmentioned Passover) we should conceive of the three journeys about Galilee as occupying a longer time, and including more extensive unrecorded labors in preaching and healing.

† It is to be noted that John's Gospel gives the Jerusalem Ministry of Jesus almost entirely except Galilee in ch. 2, Samaria and Galilee in ch. 4, Galilee in ch. 6 and again in ch. 21. It seems clear that John wrote with full knowledge of the Synoptic Gospels and supplements them at certain points. Both Luke and John were thus critics of the Gospel records.

22 For neither doth the Father judge any man, but he hath given all judgement unto the Son; that all may honour the Son, even as they honour the 23 Father. He that honoureth not the Son honoureth not the Father which 24 sent him. Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that heareth my word, and believeth him that sent me, hath eternal life, and cometh not into judge-25 ment, but hath passed out of death into life. Verily, verily, I say unto you, The hour cometh, and now is, when the dead shall hear the voice 26 of the Son of God; and they that hear shall live. For as the Father hath life in himself, even so gave he to the Son also to have life in himself: and 27 he gave him authority to execute judgement, because he is [5]the Son of 28 man. Marvel not at this: for the hour cometh, in which all that are in 29 the tombs shall hear his voice, and shall come forth; they that have done good, unto the resurrection of life; and they that have [6]done ill, unto the resurrection of judgement.
30 I can of myself do nothing: as I hear, I judge: and my judgement is righteous; because I seek not mine own will, but the will of him that sent 31 me. If I bear witness of myself, my witness is not true. It is another 32 that beareth witness of me; and I know that the witness which he wit-33 nesseth of me is true. Ye have sent unto John, and he hath borne witness 34 unto the truth. But the witness which I receive is not from man: howbeit 35 I say these things, that ye may be saved. He was the lamp that burneth 36 and shineth: and ye were willing to rejoice for a season in his light. But the witness which I have is greater than that of John: for the works which the Father hath given me to accomplish, the very works that I do, bear 37 witness of me, that the Father hath sent me. And the Father which sent me, he hath borne witness of me. Ye have neither heard his voice at any 38 time, nor seen his form. And ye have not his word abiding in you: for 39 whom he sent, him ye believe not. [7]Ye search the scriptures, because ye think that in them ye have eternal life; and these are they which bear 40 witness of me; and ye will not come to me, that ye may have life. I 41 receive not glory from men. But I know you, that ye have not the love 42 of God in yourselves. I am come in my Father's name, and ye receive 43 me not; if another shall come in his own name, him ye will receive. How 44 can ye believe, which receive glory one of another, and the glory that 45 cometh from [8]the only God ye seek not? Think not that I will accuse you to the Father: there is one that accuseth you, even Moses, on whom ye have 46 set your hope. For if ye believed Moses, ye would believe me; for he wrote 47 of me. But if ye believe not his writings, how shall ye believe my words?*

[1] Many ancient authorities read the feast. [2] Some ancient authorities read Bethsaida, others Bethzatha. [3] Many ancient authorities insert, wholly or in part, waiting for the moving of the water: 4 for an angel of the Lord went down at certain seasons into the pool, and troubled the water: whosoever then first after the troubling of the water stepped in was made whole, with whatsoever disease he was holden. [4] Or, Lord. [5] Or, a son of man. [6] Or, practised. [7] Or, Search the scriptures. [8] Some ancient authorities read the only one.

* Observe that here more than a year before the crucifixion, and probably two years (i.e. if the feast of 5:1 was a passover or if an unnamed passover is granted), the hostility of the Jews at Jerusalem (comp. John 4:1) has reached the point of a desire to kill him, as a sabbath-breaker and a blasphemer (5:16–18). So we shall find him staying away from Jerusalem at the passover of John 6:4, and until the Tabernacles six months before the crucifixion (John 7:1–10). Meantime, the hostility will go on increasing in other parts of the country (Mark 3:6, etc.).—Notice also that in this discourse at Jerusalem our Lord repeatedly declares himself in a high sense the Son of God, and the appointed judge of mankind (ver. 27), and says that Moses wrote concerning him (ver. 46). All this indicated that he was the Messiah, but he did not here expressly assert it as he did in Samaria (John 4:26). That would have precipitated the collision, for to claim to be the Messiah would in the view of the Jewish rulers involve political consequences. Comp. John 11:48.

§ 50. ANOTHER SABBATH CONTROVERSY WITH THE PHARISEES WHEN THE DISCIPLES PLUCK EARS OF GRAIN IN THE FIELDS

Probably in Galilee on the Way Back from Jerusalem*

Mark 2:23–28

23 And it came to pass, that he was going on the sabbath day through the cornfields; and his disciples [3]began, as they went, to pluck the

§ 51. A THIRD† SABBATH CONTROVERSY WITH THE PHARISEES OVER THE HEALING OF A MAN WITH A WITHERED HAND IN A SYNAGOGUE

In Galilee

Mark 3:1–6

1 And he entered again into the synagogue; and there was a man there which had his hand withered

2 And they watched him, whether he would heal him on the sabbath day; that they might accuse him.

3 And he saith unto the man that had his hand withered, [1]Stand
4 forth. And he saith unto them, Is it lawful on the sabbath day to do good, or to do harm? to save a life, or to kill? But they held their peace.
5 And when he had looked round about

Matt. 12:9–14

9 And he departed thence, and went into 10 their synagogue; and behold, a man having a withered hand.

And they asked him, saying, Is it lawful to heal on the sabbath day? that they might accuse him.

11 And he said unto them, What man shall there be of you, that shall have one sheep, and if this fall into a pit on the sabbath day, will he not lay hold on it, and lift it out?
12 How much then is a man of more value than a sheep! Wherefore it is lawful to do

Luke 6:6–11

6 And it came to pass on another sabbath, that he entered into the synagogue and taught: and there was a man there, and his right hand
7 was withered. And the scribes and the Pharisees watched him, whether he would heal on the sabbath; that they might find how to 8 accuse him. But he knew their thoughts; and he said to the man that had his hand withered, Rise up, and stand forth in the midst. And he arose and stood 9 forth. And Jesus said unto them, I ask you, Is it lawful on

* Note the five arguments made by Jesus in defence of the conduct of the disciples on the Sabbath (the historical appeal in the conduct of David, the appeal to the law about the temple service, the voice of prophecy, the purpose of God in the Sabbath, and the lordship of the Messiah over the Sabbath). Jesus had already (John 5:17) argued that he was equal to the Father and hence had the right to do certain things (acts of mercy) on the Sabbath.

† On three other later occasions controversies arise with the Pharisees concerning Sabbath observance (John 9:1–34; Luke 13:10–21; 14:1–24). In John 7:20–24 Jesus refers to the miracle in John 5 and adds another argument (circumcision on the Sabbath) for his conduct on the Sabbath.

the sabbath to do good, or to do harm? to save a life, or to 10 destroy it? And he looked round about on them all, and said unto him, Stretch forth thy hand. And he did so: and his hand was restored.

11 But they were filled with [2]madness; and communed one with another what they might do to Jesus.

§ 52. JESUS TEACHES AND HEALS GREAT MULTITUDES BY THE SEA OF GALILEE

Mark 3:7–12

7 And Jesus with his disciples withdrew to the sea: and a great multitude from Galilee followed:
8 and from Judea, and from Jerusalem, and from Idumæa, and beyond Jordan, and about Tyre and Sidon,† a great multitude, hearing [2]what great things he 9 did, came unto him. And he spake to his disciples, that a little boat should wait on him because of the crowd, lest they 10 should throng him, for he had healed many; insomuch that as many as had [3]plagues [4]pressed upon him that they might touch 11 him. And the unclean spirits, whensoever they beheld him, fell down before him, and cried,

Matt. 12:15–21

15 And Jesus perceiving it, withdrew from thence: and many followed him;

16 and he healed them all,

18 Behold, my servant whom I have chosen;
My beloved in whom my soul is well pleased:
I will put my Spirit upon him,
And he shall declare judgement to the Gentiles.
19 He shall not strive, nor cry aloud;
Neither shall any one hear his voice in the streets.

And smoking flax shall he not quench,
Till he send forth judgement unto victory.

§ 53. AFTER A NIGHT OF PRAYER, JESUS SELECTS TWELVE APOSTLES

Mark 3:13–19

13 And he goeth up into the mountain, and calleth unto him whom he himself would: and they went 14 unto him. And he appointed twelve[1], that they might be with him, and that he might send 15 them forth to preach, and to have 16 authority to cast out [2]devils; [3]and 17 Simon he surnamed Peter; and James the son of Zebedee, and John the brother of James; and them he surnamed Boanerges,

14 Simon, whom he also named Peter, and Andrew his brother, and James and John, and Philip and Bartholomew,

Matt. 5:1–2

1 And seeing the multitudes, he went up into the mountain: and when he had sat down, his disci-
2 ples came unto him: and he opened his mouth and taught them, saying,

Luke 6:17–19

17 And he came down with them, and stood on a level place, and a great multitude of his disciples, and a great number of the people from all Judea and Jerusalem, and the sea coast of Tyre and Sidon, which came to hear him, and to be healed of their diseases;
18 and they that were troubled with unclean spirits were healed.
19 And all the multitude sought to touch him: for power came forth from him, and healed them all.

* There is little doubt that the discourses given by Matthew and Luke are the same, Matthew locating it on "the mountain," and Luke "on a level place," which might easily be a level spot on a mountain. (See note at end of this book, note 9.) Observe that they begin and end alike, and pursue the same general order. Luke omits various matters of special interest to Matthew's Jewish readers (e.g. Matt. 5:17–42), and other matters that he himself will give elsewhere (e.g. Luke 11:1–4; 12:22–31); while Luke has a few sentences (as ver. 24–26, 38–40), which are not given by Matthew.

they shall be called sons of God.
10 Blessed are they that have been persecuted for righteousness' sake:
for theirs is the kingdom of men shall reproach you, and persecute you, and say all manner of evil against you falsely, for my glad: for great is your reward in heaven: for so persecuted they the prophets which were before you.

and leap for joy: for behold, your reward is great in heaven: for in the same manner did their fathunto you that are rich! for ye have received your consolation.

25 Woe unto you, ye that are full now! for ye shall hunger. Woe unto you, ye that laugh now! for ye 26 shall mourn and weep. Woe unto you, when all men shall speak well of you! for in the same manner did their fathers to the false prophets.

2. The Theme of the Sermon: Christ's Standard of Righteousness in Contrast with that of the Scribes and Pharisees

Matt. 5:13–20

13 Ye are the salt of the earth: but if the salt have lost its savour, where-14 with shall it be salted? it is thenceforth good for nothing, but to be cast
15 out and trodden under foot of men [see Mark 9:50; Jesus often repeated his sayings]. Ye are the light of the world. A city set on a hill cannot be 16 hid. Neither do men light a lamp, and put it under the bushel, but on the stand; and it shineth unto all that are in the house [see Mark 4:21; Luke 8:16]. Even so let your light shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven.
17 Think not that I came to destroy the law or the prophets: I came not 18 to destroy but to fulfil. For verily I say unto you, Till heaven and earth pass away, one jot or one tittle shall in no wise pass away from the 19 law, till all things be accomplished. Whosoever therefore shall break one of these least commandments, and shall teach men so, shall be called least in the kingdom of heaven: but whosoever shall do and teach them, 20 he shall be called great in the kingdom of heaven. For I say unto you, that except your righteousness shall exceed the righteousness of the scribes and Pharisees, ye shall in no wise enter into the kingdom of heaven.

3. Christ's Ethical Teaching Superior to that of the Scribes (both the Old Testament and the Oral Law) in Six Items or Illustrations (Murder, Adultery, Divorce, Oaths, Retaliation, Love of Enemies)

Matt. 5:21–48

21 Ye have heard that it was said to them of old time, Thou shalt not 22 kill; and whosoever shall kill shall be in danger of the judgement [see Ex. 20:13; Deut. 5:17]: but I say unto you, that every one who is angry with his brother [1]shall be in danger of the judgement: and whosoever shall say to his brother [2]Raca, shall be in danger of the council; and whosoever shall 23 say, [3]Thou fool, shall be in danger [4]of the [5]hell of fire. If therefore thou art offering thy gift at the altar, and there rememberest that thy brother 24 hath aught against thee, leave there thy gift before the altar, and go thy way, first be reconciled to thy brother, and then come and offer thy gift.
25 Agree with thine adversary quickly, whiles thou art with him in the way; lest haply the adversary deliver thee to the judge, and the judge [6]deliver 26 thee to the officer, and thou be cast into prison. Verily I say unto thee, Thou shalt by no means come out thence, till thou have paid the last farthing.
27 Ye have heard that it was said, Thou shalt not commit adultery [see Ex.
28 20: 14; Deut. 5:18]: but I say unto you, that every one that looketh on a woman to lust after her hath committed adultery with her already in his 29 heart. And if thy right eye causeth thee to stumble, pluck it out, and cast it from thee; for it is profitable for thee that one of thy members should 30 perish, and not thy whole body be cast into [7]hell. And if thy right hand causeth thee to stumble, cut it off, and cast it from thee: for it is profitable for thee that one of thy members should perish, and not thy whole body 31 go into [7]hell. It was said also, Whosoever shall put away his wife, let 32 him give her a writing of divorcement [see Deut. 24:1]: but I say unto you, that every one that putteth away his wife, saving for the cause of fornication, maketh her an adulteress: and whosoever shall marry her when she is put away committeth adultery.*
33 Again, ye have heard that it was said to them of old time, Thou shalt
34 not forswear thyself, but shalt perform unto the Lord thine oaths [see Lev. 19:12; Num. 30:2; Ex. 20:7; Deut. 5:11; 23:21]: but I say unto you, Swear not at all [see Matt. 26: 63–64]; neither by the heaven, for it is the throne
35 of God; nor by the earth, for it is the footstool of his feet; nor [8]by Jerusalem, 36 for it is the city of the great King [see Isa. 66:1]. Neither shalt thou swear by thy head, for thou canst not make one hair white or black 37 [see Ps. 48:2]. [9]But let your speech be, Yea, yea; Nay, nay: and whatsoever is more than these is of [10]the evil one.
38 Ye have heard that it was said, An eye for an eye, and a tooth for a 39 tooth [see Ex. 21:24; Lev. 24:20; Deut. 19:21]: but I say unto you, Resist not 40 [11]him that is evil; but whosoever smiteth thee on thy right cheek, turn to him the other also [see John 18:23]. And if any man would go to law with 41 thee, and take away thy coat, let him have thy cloke also. And whosoever 42 shall [12]compel thee to go one mile, go with him twain. Give to him that asketh thee, and from him that would borrow of thee turn not thou away.
43 Ye have heard that it was said, Thou shalt love thy neighbour [see Lev. 19: 18; Deut. 23:6; 25:19].

* See further Mark 9:43–47; 10:11–12; Matt. 18:8–9; 19:9.

Matt. 5:21–48

44 and hate thine enemy: But I say unto you [see Luke 23:34], Love your enemies, and pray for them that 45 persecute you; that ye may be sons of your Father which is in heaven: for he maketh his sun to rise on the evil and the good, and sendeth rain on the just and the unjust.

46 For if ye love them that love you, what reward have ye? do not even the [13]publicans the 47 same? And if you salute your brethren only, what do ye more than others? do not even the 48 Gentiles the same? Ye therefore shall be perfect, as your heavenly Father is perfect.

Luke 6:27–30, 32–36

27 But I say unto you which hear, Love your enemies, do good to them that 28 hate you, bless them that curse you, pray for them that despite-29 fully use you. To him that smiteth thee on the one cheek offer also the other; and from him that taketh away thy cloke withhold not thy coat also.
30 Give to every one that asketh thee; and of him that taketh away thy goods ask them not 32 again. And if ye love them that love you, what thank have ye? for even sinners love those 33 that love them. And if ye do good to them that do good to you, what thank have ye? for 34 even sinners do the same. And if ye lend to them of whom ye hope to receive, what thank have ye? even sinners lend to sinners, 35 to receive again as much. But love your enemies, and do them good, and lend, [14]never despairing; and your reward shall be great, and ye shall be sons of the Most High: for he is kind toward 36 the unthankful and evil. Be ye merciful, even as your Father is merciful.

4. The Practice of Real Righteousness unlike the Ostentatious Hypocrisy of the Pharisees, as in Almsgiving, Prayer, Fasting

Matt. 6:1–18

1 Take heed that ye do not your righteousness before men, to be seen of them: else ye have no reward with your Father which is in heaven.
2 When therefore thou doest alms, sound not a trumpet before thee, as the hypocrites do in the synagogues and in the streets, that they may have glory of men. Verily I say unto you, They have received their
3 reward. But when thou doest alms, let not thy left hand know what 4 thy right hand doeth: that thine alms may be in secret: and thy Father which seeth in secret shall recompense thee.

Matt. 6:1–18

5 And when ye pray, ye shall not be as the hypocrites: for they love to stand and pray in the synagogues and in the corners of the streets, that they may be seen of men. Verily I say unto you, They have received 6 their reward. But thou, when thou prayest, enter into thine inner chamber, and having shut thy door, pray to thy Father which is in secret, 7 and thy Father which seeth in secret shall recompense thee. And in praying use not vain repetitions, as the Gentiles do: for they think that 8 they shall be heard for their much speaking. Be not therefore like unto them: for [1]your Father knoweth what things ye have need of, before ye 9 ask him. After this manner therefore pray ye: Our Father which art in 10 heaven, Hallowed by thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done, 11 as in heaven, so on earth. Give us this day [2]our daily bread. And 12 forgive us our debts, as we also have forgiven our debtors. And bring us
13 not into temptation, but deliver us from [3]the evil one. [4]For if ye forgive 14 men their trespasses, your heavenly Father will also forgive you. But 15 if ye forgive not men their trespasses, neither will your Father forgive your trespasses.
16 Moreover when ye fast, be not, as the hypocrites, of a sad countenance:
for they disfigure their faces, that they may be seen of men to fast.
17 Verily I say unto you, They have received their reward. But thou, 18 when thou fastest, anoint thy head, and wash thy face; that thou be not seen of men to fast, but of thy Father which is in secret: and thy Father, which seeth in secret, shall recompense thee.

[1] Some ancient authorities read God your Father. [2] Gr. our bread for the coming day. [3] Or, evil.
[4] Many authorities, some ancient, but with variations, add For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever, Amen.

5. Single-hearted Devotion to God, as Opposed to Worldly Aims and Anxieties

Matt. 6:19–34

19 Lay not up for yourselves treasures upon the earth, where moth and 20 rust doth consume, and where thieves [1]break through and steal: but lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust doth 21 consume, and where thieves do not [1]break through nor steal: for where 22 thy treasure is, there will thy heart be also. The lamp of the body is the eye: if therefore thine eye be single, thy whole body shall be full of light.
23 But if thine eye be evil, thy whole body shall be full of darkness. If therefore the light that is in thee be darkness, how great is the darkness!
24 No man can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to one, and despise the other. Ye cannot 25 serve God and mammon. Therefore I say unto you, Be not anxious for your life, what ye shall eat, or what ye shall drink; nor yet for your body, what ye shall put on. Is not the life more than the food, and the body 26 than the raiment? Behold, the birds of the heaven, that they sow not, neither do they reap, nor gather into barns; and your heavenly Father 27 feedeth them. Are not ye of much more value than they? And which 28 of you by being anxious can add one cubit unto his [2]stature? And why 29 are ye anxious concerning raiment? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow; they toil not, neither do they spin: yet I say unto you, that

Matt. 6:19–34

30 even Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these. But if God doth so clothe the grass of the field, which to-day is, and to-morrow is cast into the oven, shall he not much more clothe you, O ye of little faith?
31 Be not therefore anxious, saying, What shall we eat? or, What shall we 32 drink? or, Wherewithal shall we be clothed? For after all these things do the Gentiles seek; for your heavenly Father knoweth that ye have need of 33 all these things. But seek ye first his kingdom, and his righteousness; 34 and all these things shall be added unto you. Be not therefore anxious for the morrow: for the morrow will be anxious for itself. Sufficient unto the day is the evil thereof.

6. Captious Criticism, or Judging Others

Matt. 7:1–6

1 Judge not, that ye be not judg-2 ed. For with what judgement ye judge, ye shall be judged: and with what measure ye mete, it shall be measured unto you.

3 And why beholdest thou the mote that is in thy brother's eye, but considerest not the beam that 4 is in thine own eye? Or how wilt thou say to thy brother, Let me cast out the mote out of thine eye; and lo, the beam is in thine 5 own eye? Thou hypocrite, cast out first the beam out of thine own eye; and then shalt thou see clearly to cast out the mote out of thy brother's eye.
6 Give not that which is holy unto the dogs, neither cast your pearls before the swine, lest haply they trample them under their feet, and turn and rend you.

Luke 6:37–42

37 And judge not, and ye shall not be judged: and condemn not, and ye shall not be condemned: release, and ye shall be released: 38 give, and it shall be given unto you; good measure, pressed down, shaken together, running over,
shall they give into your bosom.
For with what measure ye mete it shall be measured to you again.
39 And he spake also a parable unto them, Can the blind guide the blind? shall they not both 40 fall into a pit? The disciple is not above his [1]master: but every one when he is perfected shall 41 be as his [1]master. And why beholdest thou the mote that is in thy brother's eye, but consider-est not the beam that is in thine 42 own eye? Or how canst thou say to thy brother, Brother, let me cast out the mote that is in thine eye, when thou thyself beholdest not the beam that is in thine own eye? Thou hypocrite, cast out first the beam out of thine own eye, and then shalt thou see clearly to cast out the mote that is in thy brother's eye.

7. Prayer, and the Golden Rule

Matt. 7:7–12

7 Ask, and it shall be given you: seek, and ye shall find: knock, and it 8 shall be opened unto you, for every one that asketh receiveth; and he 9 that seeketh findeth; and to him that knocketh it shall be opened. Or what man is there of you, who, if his son shall ask him for a loaf, will give 10 him a stone; or if he shall ask for a fish, will give him a serpent?
11 If ye then, being evil, know how to give good gifts unto your children, how much more shall your Father which is in heaven give good things 12 to them that ask him? All things therefore whatsoever ye would that men should do unto you, even so do ye also unto them: for this is the law and the prophets.

Luke 6:31

31 And as ye would that men should do to you, do ye also to them likewise.

8. The Conclusion of the Sermon. The Lesson of Personal Righteousness Driven Home by Powerful Parables

Matt. 7:13 to 8:1.

13 Enter ye in by the narrow gate: for wide [1]is the gate, and broad is the way, that leadeth to destruction, and many be they that enter in 14 thereby. [2]For narrow is the gate, and straitened the way, that leadeth unto life, and few be they that find it.
15 Beware of false prophets, which come to you in sheep's clothing, 16 but inwardly are ravening wolves. By their fruits ye shall know 17 them. Do men gather grapes of thorns, or figs of thistles? Even so every good tree bringeth forth good fruit: but the corrupt tree 18 bringeth forth evil fruit. A good tree cannot bring forth evil fruit, neither can a corrupt tree bring 19 forth good fruit. Every tree that bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire.
20 Therefore by their fruits ye shall
21 know them. Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father
22 which is in heaven. Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, did we not prophesy by thy name, and by thy name cast out [3]devils, and by thy name do many [4]mighty 23 works? And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity.

Luke 6:43–49

43 For there is no good tree that bringeth forth corrupt fruit; nor again a corrupt tree that bring-44 eth forth good fruit. For each tree is known by its own fruit. For of thorns men do not gather figs, nor of a bramble bush gather 45 they grapes. The good man out of the good treasure of his heart bringeth forth that which is good. and the evil man out of the evil treasure bringeth forth that which is evil; for out of the abundance of the heart his mouth speaketh.
46 And why call ye me, Lord, Lord, and do not the things which I say?

Matt. 7:13 to 8:1

24 Every one therefore which heareth these words of mine, and doeth them, shall be likened unto a wise man, which built his 25 house upon the rock: and the rain descended, and the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat upon that house; and it fell not: for it was founded upon 26 the rock. And every one that heareth these words of mine, and doeth them not, shall be likened unto a foolish man, which built his house upon the 27 sand: and the rain descended, and the floods came, and the winds blew, and smote upon that house; and it fell: and great was the fall thereof.
28 And it came to pass, when Jesus ended these words, the multitudes were astonished at his 29 teaching: for he taught them as one having authority, and not as their scribes.
1 And when he was come down from the mountain, great multitudes followed him.

Luke 6:43–49

47 Every one that cometh unto me, and heareth my words, and doeth them, I will shew you to 48 whom he is like: he is like a man building a house, who digged and went deep, and laid a foundation upon the rock: and when a flood arose, the stream brake against that house, and could not shake it: [5]because it had been well
49 builded. But he that heareth, and doeth not, is like a man that built a house upon the earth without a foundation; against which the stream brake, and straightway it fell in; and the ruin of that house was great.

§ 55. JESUS HEALS A CENTURION'S SERVANT AT CAPERNAUM

Matt. 8:5–13

5 And when he was entered into Capernaum, there came unto him a centurion,

Luke 7:1–10

1 After he had ended all his sayings in the ears of the people, he entered into Capernaum.
2 And a certain centurion's [5]servant, who was [6]dear unto him, was sick and at the point of 3 death. And when he heard concerning Jesus, he sent unto him elders of the Jews, asking beseeching him, and saying, Lord, my [1]servant lieth in the house sick of the palsy, grievously tormented.

And he saith unto him, I will come and heal him.

And the centurion answered and said, Lord, I am not [2]worthy that thou shouldest come under my roof: but only [3]say the word, and my [1]servant shall be healed.

For I also am a man [4]under authority, having under myself soldiers: and I say to this one, Go, and he goeth; and to another, Come, and he cometh; and to my [5]servant, Do this, and he doeth it.
And when Jesus heard it, he marvelled, and said to them that followed, Verily I say unto you, [6]I have not found so great faith, no, not in Israel. And I say unto you, that many shall come from the east and the west, and shall [7]sit down with Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob, in the kingdom of heaven [see Ps. 107:3; Isa. 49: 12]: but the sons of the kingdom shall be cast forth into the outer darkness: there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth. And Jesus said unto the centurion, Go thy way; as thou hast believed so be it done unto thee. And the [1]servant was healed in that hour.

Luke 7:1–10

him that he would come and save his [5]servant. And they, when they came to Jesus, besought him earnestly, saying, He is worthy that thou shouldst do this for him: for he loveth our nation, and himself built us our synagogue. And Jesus went with them. And when he was now not far from the house, the centurion sent friends to him, saying unto him, Lord, trouble not thyself: for I am not [2]worthy that thou shouldst come under my roof: wherefore neither thought I myself worthy to come unto thee: but [3]say the word, and my [1]servant shall be healed.
For I also am a man set under authority, having under myself soldiers: and I say to this one, Go, and he goeth; and to another, Come, and he cometh; and to my [5]servant, Do this, and he doeth
it. And when Jesus heard these things, he marvelled at him, and turned and said unto the multitude that followed him, I say unto you, I have not found so great faith, no, not in Israel.

And they that were sent, returning to the house, found the [5]servant whole.

§ 56. HE RAISES A WIDOW'S SON AT NAIN

Luke 7:11–17

And it came to pass [1]soon afterwards, that he went to a city called Nain; and his disciples went with him, and a great multitude. Now when he drew near to the gate of the city, behold, there was carried out one that was dead, the only son of his mother, and she was a widow: 13 and much people of the city was with her. And when the Lord saw her, he had compassion on her, and said unto her, Weep not. 14 And he came nigh and touched the bier: and the bearers stood still. 15 And he said, Young man, I say unto thee, Arise. And he that was dead sat up, and began to speak. And he gave him to his mother. 16 And fear took hold on all; and they glorified God, saying, A great prophet 17 is arisen among us: and, God hath visited his people. And this report went forth concerning him in the whole of Judea, and the region round about.

§ 57. THE MESSAGE* FROM THE BAPTIST AND THE EULOGY OF JESUS

Galilee

Matt. 11:2–19

2 Now when John heard in the prison† the works of the Christ, he sent by his disciples, and said 3 unto him, Art thou he that cometh, or look we for another?

4 And Jesus answered and said unto them, Go your way and tell John the things which ye do 5 hear and see: the blind receive their sight, and the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, and the deaf hear, and the dead are raised up, and the poor have [1]good tidings preached to them. 6 And blessed is he, whosoever shall find none occasion of stumbling in me.

Luke 7:18–35

18 And the disciples of John told 19 him all of these things. And John calling unto him [10]two of his disciples sent them to the Lord, saying, Art thou he that cometh, or look we for another? 20 And when the men were come unto him, they said, John the Baptist hath sent us unto thee, saying, Art thou he that cometh, 21 or look we for another? In that hour he cured many of [11]diseases and [11]plagues and evil spirits; and on many that were blind he 22 bestowed sight. And he answered and said unto them, Go your way, and tell John what things ye have seen and heard [see Isa. 29:18-19; 35:5-6; 61:1]: the blind receive their sight, the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, and the deaf hear, the dead are raised up, the poor have [1]good 23 tidings preached to them. And blessed is he, whosoever shall find none occasion of stumbling in me.

* Observe that his fame as having raised the dead, and as being "a great prophet," spread widely, and reaching John, led to his message of inquiry (connect Luke 7:17 and 18).

† John's prison was at Machærus, east of the Dead Sea. Jesus was somewhere in Galilee, probably near Nain, which was in the southern part of Galilee.

Matt. 11:2–19

7 And as these went their way, Jesus began to say unto the multitudes concerning John, What went ye out into the wilderness to behold? a reed shaken with 8 the wind? But what went ye out for to see? a man clothed in soft raiment? Behold, they that wear soft raiment are in 9 kings' houses. [2]But wherefore went ye out? to see a prophet? Yea, I say unto you, and much 10 more than a prophet. This is he, of whom it is written,

Behold, I send my messenger
before thy face,
Who shall prepare thy way before thee.

11 Verily I say unto you, Among them that are born of women there hath not arisen a greater than John the Baptist: yet he that is [3]but little in the kingdom of heaven is greater than he.
12 And from the days of John the Baptist until now the kingdom of heaven suffereth violence, and men of violence take it by force 13 [see Luke 16:17]. For all the prophets and the law prophesied until 14 John. And if ye are willing to re-
15 ceive [4]it, this is Elijah, which is to come [see Mal. 4:5]. He that hath ears [5]to hear, let him hear.

16 But whereunto shall I liken this generation? It is like* unto children sitting in the marketplaces, which call un-17 to their fellows, and say, We piped unto you, and ye did not dance; we wailed, and ye did not [6]mourn.

Luke 7:18–35

24 And when the messengers of John were departed, he began to say unto the multitudes concerning John, What went ye out into the wilderness to behold? a 25 reed shaken with the wind? But what went ye out to see? a man clothed in soft raiment? Behold, they which are gorgeously apparelled, and live delicately, are 26 in kings' courts. But what went ye out to see? a prophet? Yea, I say unto you, and much more 27 than a prophet. This is he of whom it is written,

Behold, I send my messenger
before thy face.
Who shall prepare thy way before thee [see Mal. 3:1].

28 I say unto you, Among them that are born of women there is none greater than John: yet he that is [3]but little in the kingdom of God is greater than he.

29 And all the people when they heard, and the publicans, justified God, [12]being baptized with the baptism of 30 John. But the Pharisees and the lawyers rejected for themselves the counsel of God [13]being 31 not baptized of him. Whereunto then shall I liken the men of this generation, and to what are 32 they like? They are like unto children that sit in the marketplace, and call one to another; which say, We piped unto you, and ye did not dance; we wailed,

* Parable of the Children Playing in the Market Place.

Matt. 11:2–19

18 For John came neither eating nor drinking, and 19 they say, He hath a [7]devil. The Son of man came eating and drinking, and they say, Behold, a gluttonous man, and a winebibber, a friend of publicans and sinners!

And wisdom [8]is justified by her [9]works.

Luke 7:18–35

33 and ye did not weep. For John the Baptist is come eating no bread nor drinking wine; and ye 34 say, He hath a [7]devil. The Son of man is come eating and drinking; and ye say, Behold, a gluttonous man, and a winebibber, a friend of publicans and sinners!

§ 58. WOES UPON THE CITIES OF OPPORTUNITY. THE CLAIMS OF CHRIST AS THE TEACHER ABOUT THE FATHER.

Galilee

Matt. 11:20–30

20 Then began he to upbraid the cities wherein most of his mighty works
21 were done, because they repented not. Woe unto thee, Chorazin! woe unto thee, Bethsaida! for if the [1]mighty works had been done in Tyre and Sidon which were done in you, they would have repented long ago in sack-
22 cloth and ashes. Howbeit I say unto you, it shall be more tolerable 23 for Tyre and Sidon in the day of judgement, than for you [see Isa. 14:13–15]. And thou, Capernaum, shalt thou be exalted unto heaven? thou shalt [2]go down unto Hades: for if the [1]mighty works had been done in Sodom which 24 were done in thee, it would have remained until this day. Howbeit I say unto you, that it shall be more tolerable for the land of Sodom in the day of judgement, than for thee [see Gen. 19:24].
25 At that season Jesus answered and said, I [3]thank thee, O Father [see John 3:35; 17:2], Lord of heaven and earth, that thou didst hide these things 26 from the wise and understanding, and didst reveal them unto babes: yea, 27 Father, [4]for so it was well-pleasing in thy sight. All things have been delivered unto me of my Father: and no one knoweth the Son, save the Father: neither doth any know the Father, save the Son, and he to whom-28 soever the Son willeth to reveal him. Come unto me, all ye that labour
29 and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke* upon you, and learn of me; for I am meek and lowly in heart: and ye shall find rest 30 unto your souls. For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light [see Jer. 6:16; Sirach 51:23].

* Rabbinical figure for going to school. Jesus thus definitely pictures himself as the expert on God in a Johannean passage (cf. Luke 10:21–24). He conceives himself as the Teacher who alone is able to interpret the Father.

§ 59. THE ANOINTING* OF CHRIST'S FEET BY A SINFUL WOMAN IN THE HOUSE OF SIMON A PHARISEE. THE PARABLE OF THE TWO DEBTORS

Galilee

Luke 7:36–50

36 And one of the Pharisees desired him that he would eat with him.
37 And he entered into the Pharisee's house, and sat down to meat. And behold, a woman which was in the city, a sinner; and when she knew that he was sitting at meat in the Pharisee's house, she brought [1]an 38 alabaster cruse of ointment, and standing behind at his feet, weeping, she began to wet his feet with her tears, and wiped them with the hair of her head, and [2]kissed his feet, and anointed them with the ointment.
39 Now when the Pharisee which had bidden him saw it, he spake within himself, saying, This man, if he were [3]a prophet, would have perceived who and what manner of woman this is which toucheth him, that she is 40 a sinner. And Jesus answering said unto him, Simon, I have somewhat 41 to say unto thee. And he saith, [4]Master, say on. A certain lender had two debtors: the one owed five hundred [5]pence, and the other fifty.
42 When they had not wherewith to pay, he forgave them both. Which 43 of them therefore will love him most? Simon answered and said, He, I 44 suppose, to whom he forgave the most. And he said unto him, Thou hast rightly judged. And turning to the woman, he said unto Simon, Seest thou this woman? I entered into thine house, thou gavest me no water for my feet: but she hath wetted my feet with her tears, and wiped 45 them with her hair. Thou gavest me no kiss: but she, since the time I 46 came in, hath not ceased to [6]kiss my feet. My head with oil thou didst 47 not anoint: but she hath anointed my feet with ointment. Wherefore I say unto thee, Her sins, which are many, are forgiven: for she loved much: 48 but to whom little is forgiven, the same loveth little. And he said unto 49 her, Thy sins are forgiven. And they that sat at meat with him began 50 to say [7]within themselves, Who is this that even forgiveth sins? And he said unto the woman, Thy faith hath saved thee; go in peace.

[1] Or, a flask. [2] Gr. kissed much. [3] Some ancient authorities read the prophet. See John 1:21, 25. [4] Or, Teacher. [5] The word in the Greek denotes a coin worth about seventeen cents. [6] Gr. kiss much. [7] Or, among.

In sections 60 to 63 Jesus makes a second (three in all) tour of Galilee, this time with all the Twelve. Intense hostility of the Pharisees is aroused by the work. They make the blasphemous accusation that Jesus is in league with Satan. Even the kindred of Jesus fear that he is beside himself because of the excitement and the charges.

* This anointing in Galilee must be distinct from the anointing at Bethany, near Jerusalem, more than a year later. This sinful and penitent woman is represented by a very late tradition as being Mary Magdalene, and hence all the popular uses of the term Magdalen. But that notion has no historical support whatever, and it becomes violently improbable when we find that in the very next paragraph Luke introduces Mary Magdalene as a new figure in the history. Some men even identify Mary of Bethany with this woman that was a sinner and also with Mary Magdalen, a medley of medieval mysticism.

§ 60. THE SECOND TOUR OF GALILEE

Luke 8:1–3

1 And it came to pass soon afterwards, that he went about through cities and villages, preaching and bringing the [1]good tidings of the king-2 dom of God, and with him the twelve, and certain women which had been healed of evil spirits and infirmities, Mary that was called Magdalene, 3 from whom seven [2]devils had gone out, and Joanna the wife of Chuza Herod's steward, and Susanna, and many others, which ministered unto [3]them of their substance.

§ 61. BLASPHEMOUS ACCUSATION OF LEAGUE WITH BEELZEBUB

Galilee

Mark 3:19–30

19 And he cometh into a house.
20 And the multitude cometh together again, so that they could 21 not so much as eat bread. And when his friends heard it, they went out to lay hold on him: for they said, He is beside himself.

22 And the scribes which came down from Jerusalem said, He hath Beelzebub, and, [3]By the prince of the [2]devils casteth he 23 out the [2]devils. And he called them unto him, and said unto them in parables, How can Satan dom be divided against itself, self, that house will not be able

* This "Busy Day" is just one of many such days in the Master's Ministry. See, for instance, the last day of his public ministry in the temple in Jerusalem. Observe Jesus in the forenoon teaching a crowded audience (Mark 3:19), some of whom insult and blaspheme him, and others demand a sign, and at length his mother and brethren try to carry him off as insane (comp. Mark 3:21); in the afternoon giving a group of most remarkable parables, several of which he interprets; towards night crossing the Lake in a boat, so tired and worn that he sleeps soundly amid the alarming storm; then healing the Gadarene demoniacs, and returning by boat, apparently the same evening. What a day of toil and trial.

† Luke (11:14–36) gives another blasphemous accusation later in Judea. Matthew (9:27–34) also has another blasphemous accusation. Note Christ's use of parables in replying to the accusations.

to stand. And if Satan hath risen up against himself, and is divided, he cannot stand, but hath an end.

But no one can enter into the house of the strong man, and spoil his goods, except he first bind the strong man; and then he will spoil his house.

Verily I say unto you, All their sins shall be forgiven unto the sons of men, and their blasphemies wherewith soever they shall blaspheme: but whosoever shall blaspheme against the Holy Spirit hath never forgiveness, but is guilty of an eternal sin: because they said, He hath an unclean spirit.

vided against itself is brought to desolation; and every city or house divided against itself shall not stand: and if Satan casteth out Satan, he is divided against himself; how then shall his kingdom stand? And if I [3]by Beelze-bub cast out [2]devils, [3]by whom do your sons cast them out? therefore shall they be your judges.
But if I [3]by the Spirit of God cast out [2]devils, then is the kingdom of God come upon you. Or how can one enter into the house of the strong man, and spoil his goods, except he first bind the strong man? and then he will spoil his house. He that is not with me is against me; and he that gathereth not with me scattereth. Therefore I say unto you, every sin and blasphemy shall be forgiven [4]unto men; but the blasphemy against the Spirit shall not be forgiven.
And whosoever shall speak a word against the Son of man, it shall be forgiven him; but whosoever shall speak against the Holy Spirit it shall not be forgiven him, neither in this [5]world, nor in that which is to come. Either make the tree good, and its fruit good; or make the tree corrupt, and its fruit corrupt: for the tree is known by its fruit. Ye offspring of vipers, how can ye, being evil, speak good things? for out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaketh. The good man out of his own good treasure bringeth forth good things: and the evil man out of his evil treasure bringeth forth evil things. And I say unto you, that every idle word that men shall speak, they shall give account thereof in the day of judgement. For by thy words thou shalt be justified, and by thy words thou shalt be condemned.

Same day. Galilee

Matt. 12:38–45

we would see a sign from thee. But he answered and said unto them,
An evil and adulterous generation seeketh after a sign; and there shall no 40 sign be given to it but the sign of Jonah the prophet: for as Jonah was three days and three nights in the belly of the [2]whale; so shall the Son of man be three days and three nights in the heart of the earth [see Jonah 1:17; 41 2:1–2; 3:5; 4:3; 1 Kings 10:1–10]. The men of Nineveh shall stand up in the judgement with this generation, and shall condemn it: for they repented at the preaching of Jonah; and behold, [3]a greater than Jonah is 42 here. The queen of the south shall rise up in the judgement with this generation, and shall condemn it: for she came from the ends of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon; and behold, [3]a greater than Solomon is 43 here. But the unclean spirit, when [4]he is gone out of the man, passeth 44 through waterless places, seeking rest, and findeth it not. Then [4]he saith, I will return into my house whence I came out; and when [4]he is 45 come, [4]he findeth it empty, swept, and garnished. Then goeth [4]he, and taketh with [5]himself seven other spirits more evil than [5]himself, and they enter in and dwell there: and the last state of that man becometh worse than the first. Even so shall it be also unto this evil generation

6 deepness of earth: and when the sun was risen, it was scorched; and because it had no root, it with-
7 ered away. And other fell among the thorns, and the thorns grew up, and choked it, and it yielded no
8 fruit. And others fell into the good ground, and yielded fruit, growing up and increasing; and brought forth, thirtyfold, and sixtyfold, and a hun-
9 dredfold. And he said, Who hath ears to hear, let him hear.
10 And when he was alone, they that were about him with the twelve asked of him the parables.
11 And he said unto them, Unto you is given the mystery of the kingdom of God: but unto them that are without, all things are done in parables: that

6 and when the sun was risen, they were scorched; and because they had no root, they withered away.
7 And others fell upon the thorns; and the thorns grew up, and choked them:
8 and others fell upon the good ground, and yielded fruit, some a hundredfold, some sixty, some thirty.

9 He that hath ears[1], let him hear.
10 And the disciples came, and said unto him, Why speakest thou unto them in parables?
11 And he answered and said unto them, Unto you it is given to know the mysteries of the kingdom of heaven, but to them it is not 12 given. For whosoever hath, to him shall be given, and he shall have abundance: but whosoever hath not, from him shall be taken away even that which he hath.
13 Therefore speak I to them in parables; because seeing they see not, and hearing they hear not, neither do
14 they understand. And unto them is fulfilled

7 And other fell amidst the thorns; and the thorns grew with it, and 8 choked it. And other fell into the good ground, and grew, and brought forth fruit a hundredfold. As he said these things, he cried,

He that hath ears to hear, let him hear.

9 And his disciples asked him what this parable might be.
10 And he said, Unto you it is given to know the mysteries of the kingdom of God: but to the rest in parables; that seeing they may not see, and hearing they may 11 not understand. Now the parable is this:

and it should be for-

he saith unto them, Know ye not this parable? and how shall ye know all the er soweth the word.

by the way side, where the word is sown; and when they have heard, straightway cometh Satan, and taketh away the word which hath been 16 sown in them. And these in like manner are they that are sown upon the rocky places, who, when they have heard the word, straightway re-17 ceive it with joy; and they have no root in themselves, but endure for a while;
then, when tribulation or persecution ariseth because of the word, straightway

By hearing ye shall heart is waxed gross,

And their ears are dull of hearing,
And their eyes they have closed
Lest haply they should perceive with their

And hear with their ears,
And understand with their heart,
And should turn again,
And I should heal them [see Isa. 6:9–10];
16 But blessed are your eyes, for they see; and your ears, for they hear.
17 For verily I say unto you, that many prophets and righteous men desired to see the things which ye see, and saw them not; and to hear the things 18 which ye hear, and heard them not. Hear then ye the parable of the 19 sower. When any one heareth the word of the kingdom, and under-standeth it not, then cometh the evil one, and snatcheth away that which hath been sown in his heart. This is he that was sown by the 20 way side. And he that was sown upon the rocky places, this is he that heareth the word, and straightway with joy receiv-

not root in himself, but endureth for a

of God. And those by the way side are they that have heard;
then cometh the devil, and taketh away
the word from their

13 And those on the rock are they which, when they have heard, receive the word with joy; and these have no root, which for a while believe, and in time of temptation fall away.

that have heard the 19 word, and the cares of the [2]world, and the deceitfulness of riches, and the lusts of other things entering in, choke the word, and it becometh unfruit-

they go on their way they are choked with cares and riches and pleasures of this life, and bring no fruit to perfection.

15 And that in the good ground, these are such as in an honest and good heart, having heard the word, hold it fast, and bring forth fruit with patience.

21 And he said unto them, Is the *lamp brought to be put under the bushel, or under the bed, and not to be put on the stand?
22 For there is nothing hid, save that it should be manifested; neither was anything made 23 secret, but that it should come to light. If any man hath ears to 24 hear, let him hear. And he said unto them, Take heed what ye hear: with what measure ye mete it shall be measured unto you: and 25 more shall be given unto you. For he that hath, to him shall be given: and he that hath not, from him shall be taken away even that which he hath.

16 And no man, when he hath lighted a lamp, covereth it with a vessel, or putteth it under a bed; but putteth it on a stand, that they which enter in may see the light.
17 For nothing is hid, that shall not be made manifest; nor anything secret, that shall not be known and

18 come to light. Take heed therefore how ye hear: for whosoever hath, to him shall be given, and whosoever hath not, from him shall be taken away even that which he [3]thinketh he hath.

[1] Some ancient authorities add here, and in ver. 43, to hear: as in Mark 4:9; Luke 8:8. [2] Or, age. [3] Or, seemeth to have.

(b) Parable of the Seed Growing of Itself

Mark 4:26–29

26 And he said, So is the kingdom of God, as if a man should cast seed
27 upon the earth; and should sleep and rise night and day, and the seed 28 should spring up and grow, he knoweth not how. The earth [1]beareth fruit of herself; first the blade, then the ear, then the full corn in the ear.

* Note here another brief parable of the lamp to enforce the lesson of the parable of the Sower. Preachers to-day sometimes tell one story to illustrate another.

Mark 4:26–29

29 But when the fruit [2]is ripe, straightway he [3]putteth forth the sickle, because the harvest is come [see Joel 3:13].

[1] Or, yieldeth. [2] Or, alloweth. [3] Or, sendeth forth.

(c) Parable of the Tares

Matt. 13:24–30

24 Another parable set he before them, saying, The kingdom of heaven 25 is likened unto a man that sowed good seed in his field: but while men slept, his enemy came and sowed [1]tares also among the wheat, and went 26 away. But when the blade sprang up, and brought forth fruit, then 27 appeared the tares also. And the [2]servants of the householder came and said unto him, Sir, didst thou not sow good seed in thy field? whence then 28 hath it tares? And he said unto them, [3]An enemy hath done this. And the [2]servants say unto him, Wilt thou then that we go and gather them 29 up? But he saith, Nay; lest haply while ye gather up the tares, ye root 30 up the wheat with them. Let both grow together until the harvest: and in the time of the harvest I will say to the reapers, Gather up first the tares, and bind them in bundles to burn them: but gather the wheat into my barn.

(d) Parable of the Mustard Seed

Mark 4:30–32

30 And he said, How shall we liken the kingdom of God? or in what 31 parable shall we set it forth? [1]It is like a grain of mustard seed, which, when it is sown upon the earth, though it be less than all the seeds that are upon the earth, 32 yet when it is sown, groweth up, and becometh greater than all the herbs, and putteth out great branches; so that the birds of the heaven can lodge under the shadow thereof.

Matt. 13:31–32

31 Another parable set he before them, saying, The kingdom of heaven is like unto a grain of mustard seed, which a man took, 32 and sowed in his field: which indeed is less than all seeds: but when it is grown, it is greater than the herbs, and becometh a tree [see Dan. 4:12, 21], so that the birds of the heaven come and lodge in the branches thereof.

Matt. 13:33–35

them; The kingdom of heaven is like unto leaven, which a woman took, and hid in three [1]measures of meal, till it was all leavened.

in parables unto the multitudes;
and without* a parable spake he 35 nothing unto them: that it might be fulfilled which was spoken [2]by the prophet, saying,

2. To the Disciples in the House

(a) Explanation of the Parable of the Tares

Matt. 13:36-43

36 Then he left the multitudes, and went into the house: and his disciples came unto him, saying, Explain unto us the parable of the tares of the 37 field. And he answered and said, He that soweth the good seed is the 38 Son of man; and the field is the world; and the good seed, these are the 39 sons of the kingdom; and the tares are the sons of the evil one; and the enemy that sowed them is the devil: and the harvest is [1]the end of the 40 world; and the reapers are angels. As therefore the tares are gathered 41 up and burned with fire; so shall it be in the end of the world. The Son of man shall send forth his angels, and they shall gather out of his kingdom all things that cause stumbling, and them that do iniquity, and shall 42 cast them into the furnace of fire: there shall be the weeping and gnashing 43 of teeth. Then shall the righteous shine forth as the sun in the kingdom of their Father [see Dan. 12:3]. He that hath ears, let him hear.

[1] Or, the consummation of the age.

(b) The Parable of the Hid Treasure

Matt. 13:44

44 The kingdom of heaven is like unto a treasure hidden in the field; which a man found, and hid; and [1]in his joy he goeth and selleth all that he hath, and buyeth that field.

[1] Or, for joy thereof.

(c) The Parable of the Pearl of Great Price

Matt. 13:45-46

45 Again, the kingdom of heaven is like unto a man that is a merchant 46 seeking goodly pearls: and having found one pearl of great price, he went and sold all that he had, and bought it.

* Note the expression. Matthew gives nine in Chapter 13 and Mark another. There may have been still others on this day.

(d) The Parable of the Net

Matt. 13:47–50

47 Again, the kingdom of heaven is like unto a [1]net, that was cast into 48 the sea, and gathered of every kind: which, when it was filled, they drew up on the beach; and they sat down, and gathered the good into vessels, 49 but the bad they cast away. So shall it be in [2]the end of the world:
the angels shall come forth, and sever the wicked from among the right-50 eous, and shall cast them into the furnace of fire: there shall be the weeping and gnashing of teeth.

[1] Gr. dragnet. [2] Or, consummation of the age.

(e) The Parable of the Householder

Matt. 13:51–53

51 Have ye understood all these things? They say unto him, Yea.
52 And he said unto them, Therefore every scribe who hath been made a disciple to the kingdom of heaven is like unto a man that is a householder, which bringeth forth out of his treasure things new and old.
53 And it came to pass, when Jesus had finished these *parables, he departed thence.

§ 65. IN CROSSING THE LAKE, JESUS STILLS THE TEMPEST

Same day. Sea of Galilee

Mark 4:35–41	Matt. 8:18, 23–27	Luke 8:22–25
35 And on that day, when even was come, he saith unto them, Let us go over unto the other side.	18 Now when Jesus saw great multitudes about him, he gave commandment to depart unto the other side.
36 And leaving the multitude, they take him with them, even as he was, in the boat. And other boats were with him.	23 And when he was entered into a boat, his disciples followed him.	22 Now it came to pass on one of those days, that he entered into a boat, himself and his disciples; and he said unto them, Let us go over to the other side of the lake: and they launched 23 forth. But as they sailed he fell asleep:

* Eight of these ten parables go in pairs (the sower and the seed growing of itself, the tares and the net, the mustard seed and the leaven, the hid treasure and the pearl of great price). But nothing can be made out of the number of the parables spoken on this day. We do not even know what the number was. Jesus had spoken various shorter and more or less isolated parables before this occasion. An immediate occasion for the use of so many and such extended parables at this point was the hostility of the Pharisees and the need of special instruction for the disciples who were taught by Jesus how to interpret parables, though they had much difficulty later in applying the instruction about the parabolic teaching.

Mark 4:35–41

37 And there ariseth a great storm of wind, and the waves beat into the boat, insomuch that the boat
38 was now filling. And he himself was in the stern, asleep on the cushion: and they awake him, and say unto him, Master, carest thou not that 39 we perish? And he awoke, and rebuked the wind, and said unto the sea, Peace, be still. And the wind ceased, and there was a great 40 calm. And he said unto them, Why are ye fearful? have ye not yet faith?
41 And they feared exceedingly, and said one to another, Who then is this, that even the wind and the sea obey him?

Matt. 8:18, 23–27

24 And behold, there arose a great tempest in the sea, insomuch that the boat was covered with the waves: but 25 he was asleep. And they came to him, and awoke him, saying, Save, Lord; we perish.

26 And he saith unto them, Why are ye fearful, O ye of little faith? Then he arose, and rebuked the winds and the sea; and there was a great calm.

27 And the men marvelled, saying, What manner of man is this, that even the winds and the sea obey him?

Luke 8:22–25

and there came down a storm of wind on the lake: and they were filling with water, and were in jeopardy.

24 And they came to him, and awoke him, saying, Master, master, we perish, And he awoke, and rebuked the wind and the raging of the water: and they ceased, and there was a calm.

25 And he said unto them, Where is your faith?
And being afraid they marvelled, saying one to another, Who then is this, that he commandeth even the winds and the water, and they obey him?

* The long famous instance of "discrepancy" as to the place in this narrative has been cleared up in recent years by the decision of textual critics that the correct text in Luke is Gerasenes, as well as in Mark, and by Dr. Thomson's discovery of a ruin on the lake shore, named Khersa (Gerasa). If this village was included (a very natural supposition) in the district belonging to the city of Gadara, some miles south-eastward, then the locality could be described as either in the country of the Gadarenes, or in the country of the Gerasenes.

† Matthew mentions two demoniacs, Mark and Luke describe one, who was probably the prominent and leading one.

4 with a chain; because that he had been often bound with fetters and chains, and the chains had been rent asunder by him, and the fetters broken in pieces: and no man had strength to tame
5 him. And always, night and day, in the tombs and in the mountains, he was crying out, and cutting himself with 6 stones. And when he saw Jesus from afar, he ran and wor-
7 shipped him; and crying out with a loud voice, he saith, What have I to do with thee, Jesus, thou Son of the Most High God? I adjure thee by God, torment me
8 not. For he said unto him, Come forth, thou unclean spirit, out of the man.

§ 67. THE RETURN AND THE HEALING OF JAIRUS' DAUGHTER AND OF THE WOMAN WHO ONLY TOUCHED CHRIST'S GARMENT

Probably Capernaum

Mark 5:21–43

21 And when Jesus had crossed over again in the boat unto the other side, a great multitude was gathered unto him: and he was by the sea.
22 And there cometh one of the rulers of the synagogue, Jairus by name; and seeing him, he falleth at his 23 feet, and beseecheth him much, saying, My little daughter is at the point of death: I pray thee, that thou

41 And behold there came a man named Jairus, and he was a ruler of the synagogue: and he fell down at Jesus' feet, and besought him to come into his house;

* Note in Mark the numerous vivid details and fulness of narrative.

† Broadus felt that the language in Matt. 9:18 compelled him to place 9:18 after 9:17. I do not think so, for "while he spake" may be merely an introductory phrase for a new paragraph. It is best to follow Mark's order, as Luke does, for Matthew is not chronological in this part of his Gospel.

Mark 5:21–43

come and lay thy hands on her, that she may be [2]made 24 whole, and live. And he went with him; and a great multitude followed him, and they thronged him.
25 And a woman, which had an issue
26 of blood twelve years, and had suffered many things of many physicians, and had spent all that she had, and was nothing bettered, but rather 27 grew worse, having heard the things concerning Jesus, came in the crowd behind, and touched his gar-28 ment. For she said, If I touch but his garments, I shall be 29 [2]made whole. And straightway the fountain of her blood was dried up; and she felt in her body that she was healed of her 30 [3]plague. And straightway Jesus, perceiving in himself that the power proceeding from him had gone forth, turned him about in the crowd, and said, Who touched my gar-31 ments? And his disciples said unto him, Thou seest the multitude thronging thee, and sayest thou, Who 32 touched me? And he looked round about to see her that had 33 done this thing. But the woman fearing and trembling, know-hand upon her, and 19 she shall live. And Jesus arose, and followed him, and so did his disciples.

20 And behold, a woman, who had an issue of blood twelve years, came behind him, and touched the border of his gar-
21 ment: for she said within herself, If I do but touch his garment, I shall be [2]made whole.

Luke 8:40–56

42 for he had an only daughter, about twelve years of age, and she lay a dying. But as he went the multitudes thronged him.

43 And a woman having an issue of blood twelve years, which [3]had spent all her living upon physicians, and could not be healed of any,
44 came behind him, and touched the border of his garment: and immediately the issue of her blood stanched.

45 And Jesus said, Who is it that touched me? And when all denied, Peter said, [2]and they that were with him, Master, the multitudes press thee and crush thee.

38 James. And they come to the house of the ruler of the synagogue; and he beholdeth a tumult, and many weeping and wailing greatly.
39 And when he was entered in, he saith unto them, Why make ye a tumult and weep? the child is not dead, but sleep-

Matt. 9:27–34

27 And as Jesus passed by from thence, two blind men followed him, cry-28 ing out, and saying, Have mercy on us, thou son of David. And when he was come into the house, the blind men came to him: and Jesus saith unto them, Believe ye that I am able to do this? They say unto him, 29 Yea, Lord. Then touched he their eyes, saying, According to your faith 30 be it done unto you. And their eyes were opened. And Jesus [1]strictly 31 charged them, saying, See that no man know it. But they went forth, and spread abroad his fame in all that land.
32 And as they went forth, behold, there was brought to him a dumb
33 man possessed with a [2]devil. And when the [2]devil was cast out, the dumb man spake: and the multitudes marvelled, saying, It was never so

* There is no sufficient occasion to identify this visit to Nazareth with that described by Luke. That was at the very beginning of the great ministry in Galilee, and this is near its close. The details are quite different. It is perfectly natural that after a long interval he should give the Nazarenes another opportunity to hear his teaching, and to witness miracles, which he would not work for them when demanded, but now voluntarily works in a few cases, so far as their now wonderful unbelief left it appropriate.

* This is certainly a second, and probably a third journey about Galilee. Dwell on Matt. 9:35 and 11:1 (end of this section), and try to realize the extent of the Saviour's work in teaching and healing. He "crowded into three short years actions and labours of love that might have adorned a century." (Ro. Hall.)

	he saw the multitudes, he was moved with compassion for them, because they were distressed and scattered, as sheep not having a shepherd [see Num. 27:17; Ezek. 34:5].
	37 Then saith he unto his disciples, the harvest truly is plenteous, but the labourers are few.
	38 Pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest, that he send forth labourers into his harvest.
7 And he called unto him the twelve, and began to send them forth by two and two; and he gave them authority over the unclean spirits;	1 And he called unto him his twelve disciples, and gave them authority over unclean spirits, to cast them out, and to heal all manner of disease and all manner of sickness.	1 And he called the twelve together, and gave them power and authority over all [a]devils, and to cure

Heal the sick, raise the dead, cleanse the lepers, cast out [3]devils: freely ye received, freely 9 give. Get you no gold, nor silver, nor brass in your [4]purses; 10 no wallet for your journey, neither two coats, nor shoes, nor staff: for the labourer is worthy of his food.

10 And he said unto them, Wheresoever ye enter into a house, there abide till ye depart thence.	11 And into whatsoever city or village ye shall enter, search out who in it is worthy; and there abide till ye go forth.	4 And into whatsoever house ye enter, there abide, and thence de- 5 part. shall not receive you, and they hear you not, as ye go forth thence, shake off the dust that is under your feet for a testimony unto them.	14 And whosoever shall not receive you, nor hear your words, as ye go forth out of that house or that city, shake off the dust of your feet.	as receive you not, when ye depart from that city, shake off the dust from your feet for a testimony against them.
	15 Verily, I say unto you, It shall be more tolerable for the land of Sodom and Gomorrah in the day of judgement, than for that city.

16 Behold, I send you forth as sheep in the midst of wolves: be ye there-17 fore wise as serpents, and [5]harmless as doves. But beware of men: for they will deliver you up to councils, and in their synagogues they 18 will scourge you; yea and before governors and kings shall ye be brought 19 for my sake, for a testimony to them and to the Gentiles. But when they deliver you up, be not anxious how or what ye shall speak: for it shall be 20 given you in that hour what ye shall speak. For it is not ye that speak, 21 but the Spirit of your Father that speaketh in you. And brother shall deliver up brother to death, and the father his child: and children shall 22 rise up against parents, and [6]cause them to be put to death. And ye shall be hated of all men for my name's sake: but he that endureth to the end, 23 the same shall be saved. But when they persecute you in this city, flee into the next: for verily I say unto you, Ye shall not have gone through the cities of Israel, till the Son of man be come.

24 A disciple is not above his [7]master, nor a [8]servant above his lord.
25 It is enough for the disciple that he be as his [7]master, and the [8]servant as his lord. If they have called the master of the house [9]Beelzebub, how 26 much more shall they call them of his household! Fear them not therefore: for there is nothing covered, that shall not be revealed; and hid, 27 that shall not be known. What I tell you in the darkness, speak ye in the light: and what ye hear in the ear, proclaim upon the housetops.
28 And be not afraid of them which kill the body, but are not able to kill the soul: but rather fear him which is able to destroy both soul and body 29 in [10]hell. Are not two sparrows sold for a farthing? and not one of them 30 shall fall on the ground without your Father: but the very hairs of your 31 head are all numbered. Fear not, therefore; ye are of more value than 32 many sparrows. Every one therefore who shall confess [11]me before men, 33 [12]him will I also confess before my Father which is in heaven. But whosoever shall deny me before men, him will I also deny before my Father which is in heaven.
34 Think not that I came to [13]send peace on the earth: I came not to 35 [13]send peace, but a sword. For I came to set a man at variance against his father, and the daughter against her mother, and the daughter in 36 law against her mother in law: and a man's foes shall be they of his own 37 household [see Micah. 7:6]. He that loveth father or mother more than me is not worthy of me: and he that loveth son or daughter more than me is 38 not worthy of me. And he that doth not take his cross and follow after 39 me, is not worthy of me. He that [14]findeth his [15]life shall lose it; and he that [16]loseth his [15]life for my sake shall find it [see John 12: 25].
40 He that receiveth you receiveth me, and he that receiveth me re-41 ceiveth him that sent me [see John 13: 20]. He that receiveth a prophet in the name of a prophet shall receive a prophet's reward; and he that receiveth a righteous man in the name of a righteous man shall receive a 42 righteous man's reward. And whosoever shall give to drink unto one of these little ones a cup of cold water only, in the name of a disciple, verily
I say unto you, he shall in no wise lose his reward.

§ 71. THE GUILTY FEARS OF HEROD ANTIPAS IN TIBERIAS ABOUT JESUS BECAUSE HE HAD BEHEADED THE BAPTIST IN MACHÆRUS

Mark 6:14–29	Matt. 14:1–12	Luke 9:7–9
14 And king Herod heard* thereof; for his name had become known: and [1]he said, John [2]the Baptist is risen from the dead, and therefore do these powers work in him.	1 At that season Herod the tetrarch heard the report con- 2 cerning Jesus, and said unto his servants, This is John the Baptist; he is risen from the dead; and therefore do these powers work in him.	7 Now Herod the tetrarch heard of all that was done: and he was much perplexed, because that it was said by some, that John was risen 8 from the dead; and by some, that Elijah had appeared; and by others, that one of the old prophets was risen again. And
15 But others said, It is Elijah. And others said, It is a prophet, even as one of the 16 prophets. But Herod, when he heard thereof, said, John, whom I beheaded, he 17 is risen. For Herod himself had sent forth and laid hold upon John, and bound him in prison for the sake of Herodias, his brother Philip's wife: for he had married	3 For Herod had laid hold on John, and bound him, and put him in prison for the sake of Herodias, his brother Philip's wife.	9 Herod said, John I beheaded: but who is this, about whom I hear such things? * Mark's connection shows that Herod Antipas was impressed by the account of miracles which the disciples had wrought, as well as by those of Jesus himself.

† Josephus (Antiquities, Book XVIII, v., 2) says of John that Herod "thought it best, by putting him to death, to prevent any mischief he might cause, and not bring himself into difficulties, by sparing a man who might make him repent of it when it should be too late." Josephus in no wise controverts the picture in Mark where Herodias appears as the one who prods Antipas to put John out of the way to satisfy her resentment against him for his rebuke of her adulterous marriage. Josephus merely presents the public and political aspects of the imprisonment and death of John.

could not; for Herod

haste unto the king, and asked, saying, I

THE SPECIAL TRAINING OF THE TWELVE IN DISTRICTS AROUND GALILEE

Probably Passover in A.D. 29* to near Tabernacles in A.D. 29 or a year earlier (six months from spring to autumn). Just a year from the beginning of this Period till the Crucifixion. Emphasis now on the King of the Kingdom (the Person of the Messiah).

§§ 72–95. Four separate withdrawals† from Galilee are given, in §§ 72, 78, 79, 81. Notice that in every case he keeps out of Herod's territory, and in every case he goes to the mountains.

* If the ministry of Jesus was three and a half years in length. If there were only three passovers in the ministry, then the year would be A.D. 28. This period begins just before a passover (John 6:4).

† There are five reasons for the withdrawals from Galilee. He withdraws from the jealousy of Herod Antipas (§ 71), from the fanaticism of would-be followers in Galilee (John 6:15), and the hostility of the Jewish rulers; and leaving the hot shores of the Lake of Galilee, he spent the summer in mountain districts around, resting, and instructing the Twelve.

32 And they went away in the boat to a desert place apart.	13 Now when Jesus heard it, he withdrew from thence in a boat, to a desert place apart. * The Bethsaida of Luke 9:10 was evidently the eastern Bethsaida, which the Tetrarch Philip had named Bethsaida Julias, while that of Mark 6:45 was the western Bethsaida, near Capernaum. The territory belonging to Bethsaida Julias would naturally extend some distance down the lake.

§ 73. THE PREVENTION OF THE REVOLUTIONARY PURPOSE TO PROCLAIM JESUS KING (A POLITICAL MESSIAH)

Mark 6:45–46

45 And straightway he constrained his disciples to enter into the boat, and to go before him unto the other side to Bethsaida, while he himself sendeth the mul-46 titude away. And after he had taken leave of them, he departed into the mountain to pray.

Matt. 14:22–23

22 And straightway
he constrained the disciples to enter into the boat, and to go before him unto the other side, till he should send the multitudes away.
23 And after he had sent the multitudes away, he went up into the mountain
apart to pray:
and when even was come,
he was there alone.

John 6:14–15

14 When therefore the people saw the sign that he did they said,
This is of a truth the prophet that cometh unto the world [see Deut. 18:15].

15 Jesus therefore perceiving that they were about to come and take him by force, to make him king, withdrew again
into the mountain
himself alone.

§ 74. THE PERIL TO THE TWELVE IN THE STORM AT SEA AND CHRIST'S COMING TO THEM ON THE WATER IN THE DARKNESS

Mark 6:47–52

47 And when even was come, the boat was in the midst of the sea, and he alone on 48 the land. And seeing them distressed in rowing, for the wind was contrary unto them, about the fourth watch of the night he cometh unto them, walking on the sea; and he would have passed by them:
49 but they, when they saw him walking on the sea, supposed that it was an apparition,
50 and cried out: for they all saw him, and were troubled. But he straightway spake with them, and saith unto them, Be of good cheer: it is I; be not afraid.

Matt. 14:24–33

24 But the boat [1]was now in the midst of the sea, distressed by the waves; for the wind was contrary.

25 And in the fourth watch of the night he came unto them, walking upon the sea.

26 And when the disciples saw him walking on the sea, they were troubled, saying, It is an apparition; and they cried 27 out for fear. But straightway Jesus spake unto them, saying, Be of good cheer; it is I; be not 28 afraid. And Peter answered him, and said, Lord, if it be thou, bid me come unto thee upon the 29 waters. And he said, Come. And Peter went down from the boat, and walked upon the waters, [2]to 30 come to Jesus. But when he saw the [3]wind, he was afraid, and beginning to sink, he cried out, saying, 31 Lord, save me. And immediately Jesus stretched forth his hand, and took hold of him, and saith un-

John 6:16–21

16 And when evening came, his disciples went down unto the 17 sea; and they entered into a boat, and were going over the sea unto Capernaum. And it was now dark, and Jesus had not yet come to them.
18 And the sea was rising by reason of a great wind that blew.
19 When therefore they had rowed about five and twenty or thirty furlongs, they behold Jesus walking on the sea, and drawing nigh unto the boat: and they were afraid.

20 But he saith unto them, It is I; be not afraid.

51 And he went up unto them into the boat; and the wind ceased: and they were sore amazed in themselves	32 And when they were gone up into the boat, the wind ceased.	21 They were willing therefore to receive him into the boat: and straightway the boat was at the land whither they were going.
52 for they understood not concerning the loaves, but their heart was hardened.	33 And they that were in the boat worshipped him, saying, Of a truth thou art the Son of God.

§ 76. THE COLLAPSE OF THE GALILEAN CAMPAIGN BECAUSE JESUS WILL NOT CONFORM TO POPULAR MESSIANIC EXPECTATIONS

The next day in the Synagogue in Capernaum. The same crowd that had eaten the Loaves and the Fishes leave Christ in disgust on learning that He is the Bread of Life and not a Political Messiah.

John 6:22–71

22 On the morrow the multitude which stood on the other side of the sea saw that there was none other [1]boat there, save one, and that Jesus

* This general characterization applies to the Galilean work as a whole in Part VII rather than to the precise time at this juncture. But one must allow his imagination to enlarge upon the scope of Christ's work.

John 6:22–71

entered not with his disciples into the boat, but that his disciples went 23 away alone (howbeit there came [2]boats from Tiberias nigh unto the place where they ate the bread after the Lord had given thanks): when the 24 multitude therefore saw that Jesus was not there, neither his disciples, they themselves got into the [2]boats, and came to Capernaum, seeking 25 Jesus. And when they found him on the other side of the sea, they said 26 unto him, Rabbi, when camest thou hither? Jesus answered them and said, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Ye seek me, not because ye saw signs, 27 but because ye ate of the loaves and were filled. Work not for the meat which perisheth, but for the meat which abideth unto eternal life, which the Son of man shall give unto you: for him the Father, even God, hath 28 sealed. They said therefore unto him, What must we do, that we may 29 work the works of God? Jesus answered and said unto them, This is the 30 work of God, that ye believe on him whom [3]he hath sent. They said therefore unto him, What then doest thou for a sign, that we may see, 31 and believe thee? what workest thou? Our fathers ate the manna in 32 the wilderness; as it is written, He gave them bread out of heaven to eat [see Ex. see 16:4, 15; Ps. 78:24; Neh. 9:15]. Jesus therefore said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, It was not Moses that gave you the bread out of heaven: but my Father giveth you the true bread out of heaven.
33 For the bread of God is that which cometh down out of heaven, and 34 giveth life unto the world. They said therefore unto him, Lord, ever-35 more give us this bread. Jesus said unto them, I am the bread of life:
he that cometh to me shall not hunger, and he that believeth on me shall 36 never thirst. But I said unto you, that ye have seen me, and yet believe 37 not. All that which the Father giveth me shall come unto me; and him 38 that cometh to me I will in no wise cast out. For I am come down from 39 heaven, not to do mine own will, but the will of him that sent me. And this is the will of him that sent me, that of all that which he hath given me 40 I should lose nothing, but should raise it up at the last day. For this is the will of my Father, that every one that beholdeth the Son, and believeth on him, should have eternal life; [4]I will raise him up at the last day.
41 The Jews therefore murmured concerning him, because he said, I am 42 the bread which came down out of heaven. And they said, Is not this Jesus, the son of Joseph, whose father and mother we know? how doth 43 he now say, I am come down out of heaven? Jesus answered and said 44 unto them, Murmur not among yourselves. No man can come to me, except the Father which sent me draw him: and I will raise him up in the 45 last day. It is written in the prophets [see Isa. 54:13], And they shall all be taught of God. Every one that hath heard from the Father, and hath 46 learned, cometh unto me. Not that any man hath seen the Father, 47 save he which is from God, he hath seen the Father. Verily, verily, I 48 say unto you, He that believeth hath eternal life. I am the bread of life.
49 Your fathers did eat the manna in the wilderness, and they died. This 50 is the bread which cometh down out of heaven, that a man may eat 51 thereof, and not die. I am the living bread which came down out of heaven: if any man eat of this bread, he shall live for ever: yea and the bread which I will give is my flesh, for the life of the world.
52 The Jews therefore strove one with another, saying, How can this man 53 give us his flesh to eat? Jesus therefore said unto them, Verily, verily,

John 6:22–71

I say unto you, Except ye eat the flesh of the Son of man and drink his 54 blood, ye have not life in yourselves. He that eateth my flesh and 55 drinketh my blood hath eternal life; and I will raise him up at the last day. For my flesh is [5]meat indeed, and my blood is [6]drink indeed.
56 He that eateth my flesh and drinketh my blood abideth in me, and I in 57 him. As the living Father sent me, and I live because of the Father; 58 so he that eateth me, he also shall live because of me. This is the bread which came down out of heaven: not as the fathers did eat, and died: 59 he that eateth this bread shall live for ever. These things said he in [7]the synagogue, as he taught in Capernaum.
60 Many therefore of his disciples, when they heard this, said, This is a 61 hard saying; who can hear [8]it? But Jesus knowing in himself that his disciples murmured at this, said unto them, Doth this cause you to 62 stumble? What then if ye should behold the Son of man ascending where 63 he was before? It is the spirit that quickeneth; the flesh profiteth noth-64 ing: the words that I have spoken unto you are spirit, and are life. But there are some of you that believe not. For Jesus knew from the beginning who they were that believed not, and who it was that should 65 betray him. And he said, For this cause have I said unto you, that no man can come unto me, except it be given unto him of the Father.
66 Upon this many of his disciples went back, and walked no more with 67 him. Jesus said therefore unto the twelve, Would ye also go away?
68 Simon Peter answered him, Lord, to whom shall we go? thou [9]hast the 69 words of eternal life. And we have believed and know that thou art the 70 Holy One of God. Jesus answered them, Did not I choose you the 71 twelve, and one of you is a devil? Now he spake of Judas the son of Simon Iscariot, for he it was that should betray him, being one of the twelve.

§ 77. PHARISEES FROM JERUSALEM REPROACH JESUS FOR ALLOWING HIS DISCIPLES TO DISREGARD THEIR TRADITIONS ABOUT CEREMONIAL DEFILEMENT OF THE HANDS. A PUZZLING PARABLE IN REPLY

Probably in Capernaum

Mark 7:1–23

1 And there are gathered together unto him the Pharisees, and certain of the scribes, which had come 2 from Jerusalem, and had seen that some of his disciples ate their bread with [6]defiled, that is un-3 washen, hands. For the Pharisees, and all the Jews, except they wash their hands [7]diligently, eat not, holding the tradition of 4 the elders: and when they come

Matt. 15:1–20

1 Then there came to Jesus from Jerusalem
Pharisees and scribes,

John 7:1

these things Jesus walked in Galilee: for he would not walk in Judea, because the Jews sought to kill him.

from the marketplace, except they [s]wash themselves, they eat not: and many other things there be, which they have received to hold, [s]washings of cups, and pots, and 5 brasen vessels.[10] And the Pharisees and the scribes ask him, Why walk not thy disciples according to the tradition of the elders, but eat their bread with [c]defiled
6 hands? And he said unto them, Well did Isaiah prophesy of you hypocrites, as it is written,

This people honoureth me with their lips,
But their heart is far from me.

7 But in vain do they worship me,
Teaching as their doctrines the precepts of men.

8 Ye leave the commandment of God, and hold fast the tradition
9 of men. And he said unto them, Full well do ye reject the commandment of God, that ye may 10 keep your tradition. For Moses [see Ex. 20:12; Deut. 5:16] said, Honour thy father and thy mother; and, He that speaketh evil of father or mother, let him [i]die the 11 death; but ye say, If a man shall say to his father or his mother, That wherewith thou mightest have been profited by me is Corban, that is to say, Given to God;
12 [see Ex. 21:17; Lev. 20:9]; ye no longer suffer him to do aught for his father or his mother; making 13 void the word of God by your tradition, which ye have delivered: and many such like things 14 ye do. And he called to him the multitude again, and said unto them, Hear me all of you, and 15 understand: there is nothing from without the man, that going into him can defile him: but the things which proceed out of the man are those that defile the man.[11]
17 And when he was entered into the house from the multitude, his

Matt. 15:1–20

transgress the tradition of the elders? for they wash not their 3 hands when they eat bread. And he answered and said unto them,
7 Ye hypocrites, well did Isaiah prophesy of you, saying [see Isa. 29:13],

8 This people honoureth me with their lips;
But their heart is far from me.
9 But in vain do they worship me,
Teaching as their doctrines the precepts of men.

3 Why do ye also transgress the commandment of God, because of your tradition?

4 For God said, Honour thy father and thy mother: and, He that speaketh evil of father or mother, let him
5 [i]die the death. But ye say, Whosoever shall say to his father or his mother, That wherewith thou mightest have been profited by 6 me is given to God; he shall not honour his father.[s] And ye have made void the [s]word of God because of your tradition.

10 And he called to him the multitude, and said unto them, Hear, and under-11 stand: Not that which entereth into the mouth defileth the man, but that which proceedeth out of the mouth, this defileth the man.

Mark 7:1–23

disciples asked of him the parable.

18 And he saith unto them, Are ye so without understanding also? Perceive ye not, that whatsoever from without goeth into the man, 19 it cannot defile him; because it goeth not into his heart, but into his belly, and goeth out into the draught? This he said, making 20 all meats clean. And he said, That which proceedeth out of the man, that defileth the man.
21 For from within, out of the heart of men, [12]evil thoughts proceed, 22 fornications, thefts, murders, adulteries, covetings, wickednesses, deceit, lasciviousness, an evil eye, 23 railing, pride, foolishness: all these evil things proceed from within, and defile the man.

Matt. 15:1–20

12 Then came the disciples, and said unto him, Knowest thou that the Pharisees were [4]offended, when 13 they heard this saying? But he answered and said, Every [5]plant which my heavenly Father plant-14 ed not, shall be rooted up. Let them alone: they are blind guides. And if the blind guide the blind, 15 both shall fall into a pit. And Peter answered and said unto him, Declare unto us the parable.
16 And he said, Are ye also even yet
17 without understanding? Perceive ye not, that whatsoever goeth into the mouth passeth into the belly, and is cast out into 18 the draught? But the things which proceed out of the mouth come forth out of the heart; and 19 they defile the man. For out of the heart come forth evil thoughts, murders, adulteries, fornications, thefts, false witness, railings:

20 these are the things which defile the man: but to eat with unwashen hands defileth not the man.

§ 78. THE SECOND WITHDRAWAL TO THE REGION OF TYRE AND SIDON AND THE HEALING OF THE DAUGHTER OF A SYRO-PHŒNICIAN WOMAN

Mark 7:24–30

Matt. 15:21–28

into a house, and would have no man know it: and he could 25 not be hid. But straightway a woman, whose little daughter had an unclean spirit, having heard of him, came and fell down 26 at his feet. Now the woman was a [4]Greek, a Syrophœnician by race. And she besought him that he would cast forth the [1]devil out of her daughter.

27 And he said unto her, Let the children first be filled: for it is not meet to take the children's [2]bread and 28 cast it to the dogs. But she answered and saith unto him, Yea, Lord: even the dogs under the table eat of the children's crumbs.
29 And he said unto her, For this saying go thy way; the [1]devil is 30 gone out of thy daughter. And she went away unto her house, and found the child laid upon the bed, and the [1]devil gone out.

Matt. 15:21–28

22 And behold, a Canaanitish woman came out from those borders, and cried, saying, Have mercy on me, O Lord, thou son of David, my daughter is grievously vexed with 23 a [1]devil. But he answered her not a word. And his disciples came and besought him, saying, Send her away; for she crieth 24 after us. But he answered and said, I was not sent but unto the lost sheep of the house of Is-25 rael. But she came and worshipped him, saying, Lord, help 26 me. And he answered and said, It is not meet to take the children's [2]bread and cast it to the 27 dogs. But she said, Yea, Lord: for even the dogs eat of the crumbs which fall from their 28 masters' table. Then Jesus answered and said unto her, O woman, great is thy faith; be it done unto thee even as thou wilt.

And her daughter was healed from that hour.

§ 79. THE THIRD WITHDRAWAL NORTH THROUGH PHŒNICIA AND EAST TOWARDS HERMON AND SOUTH INTO DECAPOLIS (KEEPING OUT OF THE TERRITORY OF HEROD ANTIPAS) WITH THE HEALING OF THE DEAF AND DUMB MAN AND THE FEEDING OF THE FOUR THOUSAND

Mark 7:31–8:9

31 And again he went out from the borders of Tyre, and came through Sidon unto the sea of Galilee, through the midst of the 32 borders of Decapolis.* And they

Matt. 15:29–38

29 And Jesus departed thence, and came nigh unto the sea of Galilee; and he went up into the mountain, and sat there.

* Observe how carefully he keeps away from the territory ruled by Herod Antipas. The tetrarch Philip, who governed the districts east of the Lake of Galilee and of the upper Jordan, was a better man than Antipas, and moreover had no cause to feel uneasy about Jesus

bring unto him one that was deaf, and had an impediment in his speech; and they beseech him to 33 lay his hand upon him. And he took him aside from the multitude privately, and put his fingers into his ears, and he spat, and touched 34 his tongue; and looking up to heaven, he sighed, and saith unto him, Ephphatha, that is, Be 35 opened. And his ears were opened, and the bond of his tongue was 36 loosed, and he spake plain. And he charged them that they should tell no man: but the more he charged them, so much the more a 37 great deal they published it. And they were beyond measure astonished, saying, He hath done all things well: he maketh even the deaf to hear, and the dumb to speak.

1 In those days, when there was again* a great multitude, and they had nothing to eat, he called unto him his disciples, and saith
2 unto them, I have compassion on the multitude, because they continue with me now three days, and have nothing to eat; and
3 if I send them away fasting to their home, they will faint in the way; and some of them are 4 come from far. And his disciples answered him, Whence shall one be able to fill these men with [1]bread here in a desert place?
5 And he asked them, How many loaves have ye? And they said,
6 Seven. And he commanded the multitude to sit down on the ground: and he took the seven loaves, and having given thanks, he brake, and gave to his disciples, to set before them; and they set 7 them before the multitude. And

Matt. 15:29–38

30 And there came unto him great multitudes, having with them the lame, blind, dumb, maimed, and many others, and they cast
31 them down at his feet; and he healed them: insomuch that the multitude wondered, when they saw the dumb speaking, the maimed whole, and the lame walking, and the blind seeing: and they glorified the God of Israel.
32 And Jesus called unto him his disciples, and said, I have compassion on the multitude, because they continue with me now three days and have nothing to eat: and I would not send them away fasting, lest haply they faint in the way.
33 And the disciples say unto him, Whence should we have so many loaves in a desert place, as to fill so great a multi-34 tude? And Jesus saith unto them, How many loaves have ye? And they said, Seven, and a few small 35 fishes. And he commanded the multitude to sit down on the 36 ground: and he took the seven loaves and the fishes; and he gave thanks and brake, and gave to the disciples, and the disciples to the multitudes.

[1] It is to be noted that Mark and Matthew give the feeding of the five thousand and of the four thousand. Mark and Matthew likewise report Jesus as referring to both incidents (Mark 8:19–20 = Matt. 16:9–10). Hence, it is hard to think of a mere confusion in the use of the data. There is no real reason why both incidents could not be true.

Mark 7:31–8:9

they had a few small fishes: and having blessed them, he commanded to set these also before 8 them. And they did eat, and were filled: and they took up, of broken pieces that remained over, 9 seven baskets. And they were about four thousand: and he sent them away.

Matt. 15:29–38

37 And they did all eat, and were filled: and they took up that which remained over the broken pieces, 38 seven baskets full. And they that did eat were four thousand men, beside women and children.

§ 80. THE BRIEF VISIT TO MAGADAN (DALMANUTHA) IN GALILEE AND THE SHARP ATTACK BY THE PHARISEES AND THE SADDUCEES (NOTE THEIR APPEARANCE NOW AGAINST JESUS)

Mark 8:10–12

10 And straightway he entered into the boat with his disciples, and came into the parts of Dalmanutha.
11 And the Pharisees came forth, began to question with him, seeking of him a sign from heaven, tempting him.

12 And he sighed deeply in his spirit, and saith, Why doth this generation seek a sign? verily I say unto you, There shall no sign be given unto this generation.

Matt. 15:39–16:4

39 And he sent away the multitudes, and entered into the boat, and came into the borders of Magadan.*
1 And the Pharisees and Sadducees came, and tempting him† asked him to shew them a sign
2 from heaven. But he answered and said unto them, [1]When it is evening, ye say, It will be fair
3 weather: for the heaven is red. And in the morning, It will be foul weather to-day: for the heaven is red and lowring. Ye know how to discern the face of the heaven; but ye cannot discern the signs of 4 the times. An evil and adulterous generation seeketh after a sign; and there shall no sign be given unto it, but the sign of Jonah [see Jonah 3:4]. And he left them, and departed.

[1] The following words, to the end of ver. 3, are omitted by some of the most ancient and other important authorities.

* The situation of Magadan was unknown to some early students or copyists, as it is to us, and so they changed it to the familiar Magdala, found in our common texts.
† The moment he returns to Galilee the Jewish leaders begin to attack him.

§ 81. THE FOURTH RETIREMENT TO BETHSAIDA JULIAS IN THE TETRARCHY OF HEROD PHILIP WITH SHARP REBUKE OF THE DULNESS OF THE DISCIPLES ON THE WAY ACROSS AND THE HEALING OF A BLIND MAN IN BETHSAIDA

Mark 8:13–26

13 And
he left them, and again entering into the boat departed to the other [f]side.
14 And they forgot to take bread;
and they had not in the boat with them more than one loaf.
15 And he charged them, saying,
Take heed, beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and the leaven 16 of Herod. And they reasoned one with another, [e]saying. [g]We 17 have no bread. And Jesus perceiving it saith unto them, Why reason ye, because ye have no bread? do ye not yet perceive, neither understand? have ye your 18 heart hardened? having eyes, see ye not? and having ears, hear ye not? and do ye not remember 19 [see Jer. 5:21; Ezek. 12:2]? When I brake the five loaves among the five thousand, how many [c]baskets full of broken pieces took ye up?
20 They say unto him, Twelve. And when the seven among the four thousand, how many [d]basketfuls of broken pieces took ye up?
21 And they say unto him, Seven.
And he said unto them, Do ye not yet understand?

And they bring to him a blind man, and beseech him to touch blind man by the hand, and brought him out of the village;

other side and forgot to take them, Take heed and beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and among themselves, saying, [2]We 8 took no [1]bread. And Jesus perceiving it said, O ye of little faith, why reason ye among yourselves 9 because ye have no [1]bread? Do ye not yet perceive, neither remember the five loaves of the five thousand, and how many [3]baskets 10 ye took up? Neither the seven loaves of the four thousand, and how many [3]baskets ye took up?

11 How is it that ye do not perceive that I spake not to you concerning [1]bread? But beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and Sadducees.
12 Then they understood how that he bade them not beware of the leaven of [1]bread, but of the teaching of the Pharisees and Sadducees.

* Jesus goes on to the region of Cæsarea Philippi on Mount Hermon, where no hostility had been aroused, and he could quietly instruct the Twelve. He probably remained in that vicinity several months, as this whole period of retirement lasted six months. He was near Bethsaida Julias in the First Retirement and now he stops here again on his way to Cæsarea Philippi. Each of the four retirements is into heathen territory (Ituræa twice, Phœnicia, Decapolis), where Greek influence prevails, and where the Greek language is dominant.

Mark 8:13–26

and when he had spit on his eyes, and laid his hands upon him, he asked him, Seest thou aught?
24 And he looked up, and said, I see men; for I behold them as trees, 25 walking. Then again he laid his hands upon his eyes; and he looked stedfastly, and was restored, and saw all things clearly.
26 And he sent him away to his home, saying, Do not even enter into the village.

§ 82. NEAR CÆSAREA PHILIPPI JESUS TESTS THE FAITH OF THE TWELVE IN HIS MESSIAHSHIP

Mark 8:27–30

27 And Jesus went forth, and his disciples, into the villages of Cæsarea Philippi: and in the way he asked his disciples, saying unto them, Who do men say that 28 I am? And they told him, saying, John the Baptist: and others, Elijah: but others, One of the 29 prophets. And he asked them, But who say ye that I am? Peter answereth and saith unto him, Thou art the Christ.

Matt. 16:13–20

13 Now when Jesus came into the parts of Cæsarea Philippi, he asked his disciples, saying, Who do men say [1]that the 14 Son of man is? And they said, Some say John the Baptist; some, Elijah; and others, Jeremiah, or one of the prophets.
15 He saith unto them, But who say ye that 16 I am? And Simon Peter answered and said, Thou art the Christ,* the Son of 17 the living God. And Jesus answered and said unto him, Blessed art thou, Simon Bar-Jonah: for flesh

Luke 9:18–21

18 And it came to pass, as he was praying alone, the disciples were with him: and he asked them, saying, Who do the multitudes say that I am?
19 And they answering said, John the Baptist; but others say, Elijah; and others, that one of the old prophets is risen 20 again. And he said unto them, But who say ye that I am? And Peter answering said, The Christ of God.

* Some understand ver. 16 f. as showing that they had never before believed him to be the Messiah, and so hold that the other Gospels here utterly conflict with John, who represents the first disciples (§§ 28, 35) as believing Jesus to be the Messiah. But it is easy to suppose that their early faith in his Messiahship was shaken by his continued failure to gather armies and set up the expected temporal kingdom, and while still believing him to have a divine mission they had questioned whether he was the Messiah, as John the Baptist did in prison (§ 57). Observe that in Matthew and Luke he long before this time distinctively implied that he was the Messiah, in response to the Forerunner's inquiries (§ 57). Besides, at the Baptism and the Temptation, the Synoptic Gospels represent Jesus as the Son of God.

	19 I will give unto thee the keys of the kingdom of heaven: and whatsoever thou shalt bind on earth shall be bound in heaven: and whatsoever thou shalt loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven.

* It is interesting to note that the imagery employed by Jesus here all appears in Ps. 89, a Messianic Psalm built on 2 Sam. 7. Thus note "build" in Ps. 89:4, "rock" in 89:26, "anointed" in 89:38, "the power of Sheol" in 89:48, and the Psalm discusses the perpetuity of the Davidic throne (Kingdom). Jesus applies this imagery to the spiritual Kingdom that He is building.

spake the saying openly. And Peter took him, and began 33 to rebuke him. But he turning about, and seeing his disciples, rebuked Peter, and saith, Get thee behind me, Satan: for thou mindest not the things of God, but the things of men.
34 And he called unto him the multitude with his disciples, and said unto them, If any man would come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross,
35 and follow me. For whosoever would save his [3]life shall lose it; and whosoever shall lose his [3]life for my sake and the gospel's 36 shall save it. For what doth it profit a man, to gain the whole world, and for-37 feit his [3]life? For what should a man give in exchange for his [3]life?

Matt. 16:21–26

22 And Peter took him, and began to rebuke him, saying, [2]Be it far from thee, Lord: this shall never be unto 23 thee. But he turned, and said unto Peter, Get thee behind me, Satan: thou art a stumbling-block unto me: for thou mindest not the things of God, but the things 24 of men. Then said Jesus unto his disciples, If any man would come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross,
25 and follow me. For whosoever would save his [3]life shall lose it: and whosoever shall lose his [3]life for my sake shall find it.
26 For what shall a man be profited, if he shall gain the whole world, and forfeit his [3]life? or what shall a man give in exchange for his [3]life?

Luke 9:22–25

23 And he said unto all, If any man would come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross daily, and 24 follow me. For whosoever would save his [3]life shall lose it; but whosoever shall lose his [3]life for my sake, the same shall 25 save it. For what is a man profited, if he gain the whole world, and lose or forfeit his own self?

§ 85. THE TRANSFIGURATION OF JESUS ON A MOUNTAIN (PROBABLY HERMON*) NEAR CÆSAREA PHILIPPI

Mark 9:2–8

2 And after six days Jesus taketh with him Peter, and James, and John, and bringeth them up into a high mountain apart by themselves: and he was transfigured be-
3 fore them: and his garments became glistering, exceeding white; so as no fuller on earth can whiten
4 them. And there appeared unto them Elijah with Moses: and they were talking with Jesus.

Matt. 17:1–8

1 And after six days Jesus taketh with him Peter, and James, and John his brother, and bringeth them up into a high mountain
2 apart: and he was transfigured before them; and his face did shine as the sun, and his garments became white as the light.
3 And behold, there appeared unto them Moses and Elijah talking with him.

Luke 9:28–36

28 And it came to pass, about eight days after these sayings, he took with him Peter and John and James, and went up into the mountain to pray.
29 And as he was praying, the fashion of his countenance was altered, and his raiment became white 30 and dazzling. And behold, there talked with him two men, which were Moses 31 and Elijah; who appeared in glory, and spake of his [2]decease which he was about to accomplish at 32 Jerusalem. Now Peter and they that were with him, were heavy with sleep: but [3]when they were fully awake, they saw his

5 And Peter answereth and saith unto Jesus, Rabbi, it is good for us to be here: and let us make three [1]tabernacles,* one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for

7 afraid. And there came a cloud overshadowing them: and there came a voice out of the cloud, This is my beloved Son: hear ye him [see Deut. 18:15; Isa. 42:1; Ps. 2:7].†

8 And suddenly looking round about, they saw no one any more, save Jesus only with themselves.

Matt. 17:1–8

4 And Peter answered, and said unto Jesus, Lord, it is good for us to be here: if thou wilt, I will make here three [1]tabernacles; one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elijah.
5 While he was yet speaking, behold, a bright cloud overshadowed them: and behold, a voice out of the cloud, saying, This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased; hear ye
6 him. And when the disciples heard it, they fell on their face, and were sore
7 afraid. And Jesus came and touched them and said, Arise, and be not afraid.

34 said. And while he said these things, there came a cloud, and overshadowed them: and they feared as they entered 35 into the cloud. And a voice came out of the cloud, saying, This is [4]my Son, my chosen: hear ye him.

36 And when the voice [5]came, Jesus was found alone.

should have risen again from the dead.
10 And they kept the saying, questioning among themselves what the rising again from the dead should 11 mean. And they asked him, saying, [1]The scribes say that Elijah must first 12 come. And he said unto them, Elijah indeed cometh first, and restoreth all things: and how is it written of the Son of man, that he should suffer many things and be 13 set at naught? But I say unto you, that Elijah is come, and they have also done unto him whatsoever they listed, even as it is written of him.

Matt. 17:9–13

10 And his disciples asked him, saying, Why then say the scribes that Elijah must first come [see
11 [Mal. 4:5–6]]? And he answered and said, Elijah indeed cometh, and shall restore all 12 things: but I say unto you, that Elijah is come already,* and they knew him not, but did unto him whatsoever they listed [see 1 Kings 19:2, 10]. Even so shall the Son of man also suffer 13 of them. Then understood the disciples that he spake unto them of John the Baptist.

20 unto me. And they brought him unto him: and when he saw him, straightway the spirit [4]tare him grievously; and he fell on the ground, and wallowed foam-
21 ing. And he asked his father, How long time is it since this hath come unto him? And he said, From 22 a child. And oft-times it hath cast him both into the fire and into the waters, to destroy him: but if thou canst do anything, have compassion on us, and help 23 us. And Jesus said unto him, If thou canst! All things are possible to him that 24 believeth. Straightway the father of the child cried out, and

§ 88. RETURNING PRIVATELY THROUGH GALILEE, HE AGAIN FORETELLS HIS DEATH AND RESURRECTION

Mark 9:30–32

30 And they went forth from thence, and passed through Galilee; and he would not that any man 31 should know it. For he taught his disciples, and said unto them, The Son of man is delivered up into the hands of men, and they shall kill him; and when he is killed, after three days he shall 32 rise again. But they understood not the saying, and were afraid to ask him.

Matt. 17:22–23

22 And while they [1]abode in Galilee, Jesus said unto them, The Son of man shall be delivered up into the hands of men;
23 and they shall kill him, and the third day he shall be raised up. And they were exceeding sorry.

Luke 9:43–45

43 But while all were marvelling at all the things which he did, he said unto his dis-
44 ciples, Let these words sink into your ears: for the Son of man shall be delivered up into the hands of men.

45 But they understood not this saying, and it was concealed from them, that they should not perceive it: and they were afraid to ask him about this saying.

[1] Some ancient authorities read were gathering themselves together.

The season of retirement from Galilee is now ended (§§ 72–88). The remaining events at this time (§§ 89–95) probably occupied only a few days.

§ 89. JESUS, THE MESSIAH, PAYS THE HALF-SHEKEL FOR THE TEMPLE

Capernaum

Matt. 17:24–27

24 And when they were come to Capernaum, they that received the [1]half-shekel came to Peter, and said, Doth not your [2]master pay the 25 [1]half-shekel [see Ex. 30:11–15]? He saith, Yea. And when he came into the house, Jesus spake first to him, saying, What thinkest thou, Simon? the kings of the earth, from whom do they receive toll or tribute? from their 26 sons, or from strangers? And when he said, From strangers, Jesus said 27 unto him, Therefore the sons are free. But, lest we cause them to stumble,

§ 90. THE TWELVE CONTEND AS TO WHO SHALL BE THE GREATEST UNDER THE MESSIAH'S REIGN. HIS SUBJECTS MUST BE CHILDLIKE

Capernaum

Mark 9:33–37

33 And they came to Capernaum: and when he was in the house he asked them, What were ye reasoning in the way?
34 But they held their peace: for they had disputed one with another in the way, who was the [1]greatest.
35 And he sat down, and called the twelve; he saith unto them, If any man would be first, he shall be last of all, and minister 36 of all. And he took a little child, and set him in the midst of them: and taking him in his arms, he said unto them, 37 Whosoever shall receive one of such little children in my name, receiveth me: and whosoever receiveth me, receiveth not me, but him that sent me.

Matt. 18:1–5

1 In that hour came the disciples unto Jesus, saying, who then is [1]greatest in the kingdom of heaven?
2 And he called to him a little child, and set him in the midst of 3 them, and said, Verily I say unto you, Except ye turn, and become as little children, ye shall in no wise enter into the kingdom of heaven.
4 Whosoever therefore shall humble himself as this little child, the same is the [1]greatest in the king-
5 dom of heaven. And whoso shall receive one such little child in my name receiveth me:

Luke 9:46–48

46 And there arose a reasoning among them, which of them should be [1]greatest.
47 But when Jesus saw the reasoning of their heart, he took a little child, and set him by his side, and said unto them, 48 Whosoever shall receive this little child in my name receiveth me: and whosoever shall receive me receiveth him that sent me: for he that is [2]least among you all, the same is great.

§ 91. THE MISTAKEN ZEAL OF THE APOSTLE JOHN REBUKED BY JESUS IN PERTINENT PARABLES

Capernaum

Mark 9:38–50

38 John said unto him, [7]Master, we saw one casting out [8]devils in thy name: and we forbade him, because he followed not us.
39 But Jesus said, Forbid him not: for there is no man which shall do a [9]mighty work in my name, and be able quickly to speak evil 40 of me. For he that is not against us is 41 for us. For whosoever shall give you a cup of water to drink [10]because ye are Christ's, verily I say unto you, he shall in no wise lose his re-42 ward. And whosoever shall cause one of these little ones that believe [11]on me to stumble, it were better for him if [2]a great millstone were hanged about his neck, and he were cast into the sea.

43 And if thy hand cause thee to stumble, cut it off: it is good for thee to enter into life

Matt. 18:6–14

6 but whoso shall cause one of these little ones which believe on me to stumble, it is profitable for him that [2]a great millstone should be hanged about his neck, and that he should be sunk in the depth of 7 the sea. Woe unto the world because of occasions of stumbling! for it must needs be that the occasions come; but woe to that man through whom the occasion
8 cometh! And if thy hand or thy foot causeth thee to stumble, cut it off, and cast it from thee: it

45 fire.[13] And if thy foot cause thee to stumble, cut it off: it is good for thee to enter into life halt, rather than having thy two feet to be 47 cast into [12]hell. And if thine eye cause thee to stumble, cast it out: it is good for thee to enter into the kingdom of God with one eye, rather than having two eyes to be cast into [12]hell; 48 where their worm dieth not, and the fire is not quenched [see Isa. 66:24]. For 49 every one shall be salted with fire[14] [see

Matt. 18:6–14

is good for thee to enter into life maimed or halt, rather than having two hands or two feet to be cast into the eternal fire.

9 And if thine eye causeth thee to stumble, pluck it out, and cast it from thee: it is good for thee to enter into life with one eye, rather than having two eyes to be cast into the [3]hell of fire.

10 See that ye despise not one of these little ones; for I say unto you, that in heaven their angels do always behold the face of my Father which 12 is in heaven.[4] How think ye? if any man have a hundred sheep,* and one of them be gone astray, doth he not leave the ninety and nine, and go unto the mountains, and seek that 13 which goeth astray? And if so be that he find it, verily I say unto you, he rejoiceth over it more than over the ninety and nine which have not 14 gone astray. Even so it is not [5]the will of [6]your Father which is in heaven, that one of these little ones should perish.

§ 92. RIGHT TREATMENT OF A BROTHER WHO HAS SINNED AGAINST ONE, AND DUTY OF PATIENTLY FORGIVING A BROTHER (PARABLE OF THE UNMERCIFUL SERVANT)

Matt. 18:15–35

15 And if thy brother sin [1]against thee, go, shew him his fault between 16 thee and him alone: if he hear thee, thou hast gained thy brother. But if he hear thee not, take with thee one or two more, that at the mouth 17 of two witnesses or three every word may be established [see Deut. 19:15].
And if he refuse to hear them, tell it unto the [2]church: and if he refuse to hear the [2]church also, let him be unto thee as the Gentile and the publican.
18 Verily I say unto you, What things soever ye shall bind on earth shall be bound in heaven: and what things soever ye shall loose on earth shall be 19 loosed in heaven. Again I say unto you, that if two of you shall agree on earth as touching anything that they shall ask, it shall be done for 20 them of my Father which is in heaven. For where two or three are gathered together in my name, there am I in the midst of them.
21 Then came Peter, and said to him, Lord, how oft shall my brother sin
22 against me, and I forgive him? until seven times? Jesus saith unto him,
I say not unto thee, Until seven times; but, Until [3]seventy times seven.
23 Therefore is the kingdom of heaven likened* unto a certain king, which 24 would make a reckoning with his [4]servants. And when he had begun to reckon, one was brought unto him, which owed him ten thousand 25 [5]talents. But forasmuch as he had not wherewith to pay, his lord commanded him to be sold, and his wife, and children, and all that he had,
26 and payment to be made. The [4]servant therefore fell down and worshipped him, saying, Lord, have patience with me, and I will pay thee all.
27 And the lord of that [4]servant, being moved with compassion, released him, 28 and forgave him the debt. But that [4]servant went out, and found one of his fellow-servants, which owed him a hundred [6]pence: and he laid hold 29 on him, and took him by the throat, saying, Pay what thou owest. So his fellow-servant fell down and besought, him, saying, Have patience with 30 me, and I will pay thee. And he would not: but went and cast him into 31 prison, till he should pay that which was due. So when his fellow-servants saw what was done, they were exceedingly sorry, and came and told unto 32 their lord all that was done. Then his lord called him unto him, and saith unto him, Thou wicked [4]servant, I forgave thee all that debt,[7] 33 because thou besoughtest me: shouldest not thou also have had mercy 34 on thy fellow-servant, even as I had mercy on thee?† And his lord was wroth, and delivered him to the tormentors, till he should pay all that 35 was due. So shall also my heavenly Father do unto you, if ye forgive not every one his brother from your hearts.

[1] Some ancient authorities omit against thee. [2] Or, congregation. [3] Or, seventy times and seven. [4] Gr. bond-servants. [5] This talent was probably worth about $1200. [6] Gr. bond-servant. [7] Or, loan. [8] The word in the Greek denotes a coin worth about seventeen cents.

* Parable of the Unforgiving Servant.
† The king forgave the servant $1,200,000; the servant refused to forgive $17. We might say in round numbers, a million, and ten dollars.

§ 93. THE MESSIAH'S FOLLOWERS MUST GIVE UP EVERYTHING FOR HIS SERVICE

Matt. 8:19–22

19 And there came [1]a scribe, and said unto him, [2]Master, I will follow thee whithersoever thou 20 goest. And Jesus saith unto him, the foxes have holes, and the birds of the heaven have [3]nests; but the Son of man hath not 21 where to lay his head. And another of the disciples saith unto him, Lord, suffer me first to go 22 and bury my father. But Jesus saith unto him, Follow me; and leave the dead to bury their own dead.

Luke 9:57–62

57 And as they went in the way, a certain man said unto him, I will follow thee whithersoever thou 58 goest. And Jesus said unto him, the foxes have holes, and the birds of the heaven have [3]nests; but the Son of man hath not 59 where to lay his head. And he said unto another, Follow me. But he said, Lord, suffer me first 60 to go and bury my father. But he said unto him, Leave the dead to bury their own dead; but go thou and publish abroad the 61 kingdom of God. And another also said, I will follow thee, Lord; but first suffer me to bid farewell to them that are at my house.
62 But Jesus said unto him, No man, having put his hand to the plough, and looking back, is fit for the kingdom of God

[1] Gr. one scribe. [2] Or, Teacher. [3] Gr. lodging-places.

§ 94. THE UNBELIEVING BROTHERS OF JESUS COUNSEL HIM TO EXHIBIT HIMSELF IN JUDEA, AND HE REJECTS THE ADVICE

John 7:2–9

2 Now the feast of the Jews, the feast of tabernacles, was at hand.
3 His brethren therefore said unto him, Depart hence, and go into Judea,
4 that thy disciples also may behold thy works which thou doest. For no man doeth anything in secret, [1]and himself seeketh to be known openly.
5 If thou doest these things, manifest thyself to the world. For even his 6 brethren did not believe on him. Jesus therefore saith unto them, My 7 time is not yet come; but your time is always ready. The world cannot hate you; but me it hateth, because I testify of it, that its works are evil.
8 Go ye up unto the feast: I go not up [2]yet unto this feast; because my 9 time is not yet fulfilled. And having said these things unto them, he abode still in Galilee.

[1] Some ancient authorities read and seeketh it to be known openly. [2] Many ancient authorities omit yet.

§95. HE GOES PRIVATELY TO JERUSALEM THROUGH SAMARIA

Luke 9:51–56

51 And it came to pass, when the days [1]were well-nigh come that he should be received up, he stedfastly set his face to go to Je-52 rusalem,* and sent messengers before his face: and they went, and entered into a village of the Samaritans, to make ready for him.
53 And they did not receive him, because his face was as though he 54 were going to Jerusalem. And when his disciples James and John saw this, they said, Lord, wilt thou that we bid fire to come down from heaven, and consume
55 them [see 2 Kings 1:10–12]?[2] But he turned, and rebuked them.[3] 56 And they went to another village.

John 7:10

10 But when his brethren were gone up unto the feast, then went he also up, not publicly, but as it were in secret.

[1] Gr. were being fulfilled. [2] Many ancient authorities add, even as Elijah did. [3] Some ancient authorities add, and said, Ye know not what manner of spirit ye are of. Some, but fewer, add also For the Son of man came not to destroy men's lives, but to save them.

* See note 10 at end of Harmony for the combination of Luke and John and the three journeyings in Luke toward Jerusalem.

PART IX

THE LATER JUDEAN MINISTRY

(Probably Tabernacles to Dedication, about three months, in A.D. 29 or 28 if Ministry only two and a half years in length)

This ministry is given only by John and Luke. John gives the Jerusalem ministry and Luke that in the country of Judea. §§ 96–111.

§ 96. THE COMING OF JESUS TO THE FEAST OF TABERNACLES CREATES INTENSE EXCITEMENT CONCERNING THE MESSIAHSHIP

The attempt of the rulers (the Jews, the chief priests, and Pharisees) to arrest him. Division of sentiment in the Galilean multitude at the feast. Impressions of the Jerusalem populace and the Roman officers and of Nicodemus.

John 7:11–52

11 The Jews therefore sought him at the feast, and said, Where is he?
12 And there was much murmuring among the multitudes concerning him.
Some said, He is a good man; others said, Nay, but he leads the multitude 13 astray. Yet no one spoke openly concerning him, for fear of the Jews.
14 But when it was now the midst of the feast Jesus went up into the 15 temple, and taught. The Jews therefore marvelled, saying, How knoweth 16 this man letters, having never learned? Jesus therefore answered them, 17 and said, My teaching is not mine, but his that sent me. If any man willeth to do his will, he shall know of the teaching, whether it be of God, 18 or whether I speak from myself. He that speaketh from himself seeketh his own glory: but he that seeketh the glory of him that sent him, the 19 same is true, and no unrighteousness is in him. Did not Moses give you the law, and yet none of you doeth the law? Why seek ye to kill me?
20 The multitude answered, Thou hast a [1]devil: who seeketh to kill thee?
21 Jesus answered and said unto them, I did one work, and ye all [2]marvel.
22 For this cause hath Moses given you circumcision (not that it is of Moses, but of the fathers); and on the sabbath ye circumcise a man [see Gen. 17: 23 9–14; Lev. 12:1–3]. If a man receiveth circumcision on the sabbath, that the law of Moses may not be broken; are ye wroth with me, because I made a 24 man every whit whole on the sabbath? Judge not according to appearance, but judge righteous judgement.
25 Some therefore of them of Jerusalem said, Is not this he whom they 26 seek to kill? And lo, he speaketh openly, and they say nothing unto him.
27 Can it be that the rulers indeed know that this is the Christ? Howbeit we know this man whence he is: but when the Christ cometh, no one 28 knoweth whence he is. Jesus therefore cried in the temple, teaching and saying, Ye both know me, and know whence I am; and I am not

John 7:11–52

29 come of myself, but he that sent me is true, whom ye know not. I know 30 him; because I am from him, and he sent me. They sought therefore to take him: and no man laid his hands on him, because his hour was not yet 31 come. But of the multitude many believed on him; and they said, When the Christ shall come, will he do more signs than those, which this man 32 hath done? The Pharisees heard the multitude murmuring these things concerning him; and the chief priests and the Pharisees sent officers to 33 take him. Jesus therefore said, Yet a little while am I with you, and I 34 go unto him that sent me. Ye shall seek me, and shall not find me: and 35 where I am, ye cannot come. The Jews therefore said among themselves, Whither will this man go that we shall not find him? will he go unto 36 the Dispersion [2]among the Greeks, and teach the Greeks? What is this word that he said, Ye shall seek me, and shall not find me: and where I am, ye cannot come?
37 Now on the last day, the great day of the feast, Jesus stood and cried, 38 saying, If any man thirst, let him come unto me, and drink. He that believeth on me, as the scripture hath said, out of his belly shall flow rivers 39 of living water. But this spake he of the Spirit, which they that believed on him were to receive: [4]for the Spirit was not yet given; because Jesus 40 was not yet glorified. Some of the multitude therefore, when they heard 41 these words, said, This is of a truth the prophet. Others said, This is the Christ. But some said, What, doth the Christ come out of Galilee?
42 Hath not the scripture said that the Christ cometh out of the seed of David, and from Bethlehem [see 2 Sam. 7:12,17; Mic. 5:2], the village where David 43 was? So there arose a division in the multitude because of him. And 44 some of them would have taken him; but no man laid hands on him.
45 The officers therefore came to the chief priests* and Pharisees; and 46 they said unto them, Why did ye not bring him? The officers answered, 47 Never man so spake. The Pharisees therefore answered them, Are ye 48 also led astray? Hath any of the rulers believed on him, or of the Phari-
49 sees? But this multitude which knoweth not the law are accursed.
50 Nicodemus saith unto them (he that came to him before, being one of 51 them), Doth our law judge a man, except it first hear from himself and 52 know what he doeth? They answered and said unto him, Art thou also of Galilee? Search, and [5]see that out of Galilee ariseth no prophet.

[1] Gr. demon. [2] Or, marvel because of this. Moses hath given you circumcision. [3] Gr. of. [4] Some ancient authorities read for the Holy Spirit was not yet given. [5] Or, see; for out of Galilee, etc.

§ 97. STORY OF AN ADULTERESS BROUGHT TO JESUS FOR JUDGMENT

John 7:53 to 8:11†

53, 1[1]And they went every man unto his own house: but Jesus went unto 2 the mount of Olives. And early in the morning he came again into

* The Sanhedrin included both Sadducees (chief priests) and Pharisees. Nicodemus was a member of the Sanhedrin and a Pharisee. Now both parties in the Sanhedrin were united against Jesus and the purpose was to bring Jesus before the Sanhedrin for trial.

† This paragraph can no longer be considered a part of the Gospel of John, but it is in all probability a true story of Jesus, very likely drawn by early students from the collection of Papias, published about A.D. 140. See Hovey on John (American Comm. on N. T.). Observe that without it § 98 goes right on after § 96.

John 7:53 to 8:11

the temple, and all the people came unto him; and he sat down, and 3 taught them. And the scribes and the Pharisees bring a woman taken 4 in adultery; and having set her in the midst, they say unto him, [2]Master,
5 this woman hath been taken in adultery, in the very act. Now in the law Moses commanded us to stone such [see Lev. 20:10; Deut. 22:22–24]: what 6 then sayest thou of her? And this they said, [3]tempting him, that they might have whereof to accuse him. But Jesus stooped down, and with his 7 finger wrote on the ground. But when they continued asking him, he lifted up himself, and said unto them, He that is without sin among you, 8 let him first cast a stone at her. And again he stooped down, and with 9 his finger wrote on the ground. And they, when they heard it, went out one by one, beginning from the eldest, even unto the last: and Jesus 10 was left alone, and the woman, where she was, in the midst. And Jesus 11 lifted up himself, and said unto her, Woman, where are they? did no man condemn thee? And she said, No man, Lord. And Jesus said, Neither do I condemn thee: go thy way; from henceforth sin no more.]

[1] Most of the ancient authorities omit John 7:53–8:11. Those which contain it vary much from each other. [2] Or, Teacher. [3] Or, trying.

§ 98. AFTER THE FEAST OF TABERNACLES IN THE TEMPLE JESUS ANGERS THE PHARISEES BY CLAIMING TO BE THE LIGHT OF THE WORLD

John 8:12–20

12 Again therefore Jesus spake unto them, saying, I am the light of the world: he that followeth me shall not walk in the darkness, but shall 13 have the light of life. The Pharisees therefore said unto him, Thou 14 bearest witness of thyself; thy witness is not true. Jesus answered and said unto them, Even if I bear witness of myself, my witness is true; for
I know whence I came, and whither I go; but ye know not whence I come, 15 or whither I go. Ye judge after the flesh; I judge no man. Yea and 16 if I judge, my judgement is true; for I am not alone, but I and the Father 17 that sent me. Yea and in your law it is written, that the witness of two 18 men is true [see Deut. 17:6; 19:15]. I am he that beareth witness of myself, 19 and the Father that sent me beareth witness of me. They said therefore unto him, Where is thy Father? Jesus answered, Ye know neither me, 20 nor my Father: if ye knew me, ye would know my Father also. These words spake he in the treasury, as he taught in the temple: and no man took him; because his hour was not yet come.

§ 99. THE PHARISEES ATTEMPT TO STONE JESUS WHEN HE EXPOSES THEIR SINFULNESS

Jerusalem, probably in the Temple

John 8:21–59

21 He said therefore again unto them, I go away, and ye shall seek me, 22 and shall die in your sin: whither I go, ye cannot come. The Jews therefore said, Will he kill himself, that he saith, Whither I go, ye cannot come?

John 8:21–59

23 And he said unto them, Ye are from beneath; I am from above: ye are of 24 this world; I am not of this world. I said therefore unto you, that ye shall die in your sins: for except ye believe that [1]I am he, ye shall die in 25 your sins. They said therefore unto him, Who art thou? Jesus said unto them, [2]Even that which I have also spoken unto you from the be-26 ginning. I have many things to speak and to judge concerning you:
howbeit he that sent me is true; and the things which I heard from him, 27 these speak I [3]unto the world. They perceived not that he spake to them 28 of the Father. Jesus therefore said, When ye have lifted up the Son of man, then shall ye know that [4]I am he, and that I do nothing of myself, 29 but as the Father taught me, I speak these things. And he that sent me is with me: he hath not left me alone; for I do always the things that are 30 pleasing to him. As he spake these things, many believed on him.
31 Jesus therefore said to those Jews which had believed him, If ye abide 32 in my word, then are ye truly my disciples; and ye shall know the truth, 33 and the truth shall make you free. They answered unto him, We be Abraham's seed, and have never yet been in bondage to any man: how 34 sayest thou, Ye shall be made free? Jesus answered them, Verily, verily,
I say unto you, Every one that committeth sin is the bondservant of sin.
35 And the bondservant abideth not in the house for ever: the son abideth 36 for ever. If therefore the Son shall make you free, ye shall be free indeed.
37 I know that ye are Abraham's seed; yet ye seek to kill me, because my 38 word [5]hath not free course in you. I speak the things which I have seen with [6]my Father; and ye also do the things which ye heard from your father. They answered and said unto him, Our Father is Abraham.
39 Jesus saith unto them, If ye [7]were Abraham's children, [8]ye would do the 40 works of Abraham. But now ye seek to kill me, a man that hath told 41 you the truth, which I heard from God; this did not Abraham. Ye do the works of your father. They said unto him, We were not born of fornica-42 tion; we have one Father, even God. Jesus said unto them, If God were your Father, ye would love me: for I came forth and am come from God; 43 for neither have I come of myself, but[t] he sent me. Why do ye not [9]under-44 stand my speech? Even because ye cannot hear my word. Ye are of your father, the devil, and the lusts of your father it is your will to do.
He was a murderer from the beginning, [10]and stood not in the truth, because there is no truth in him. [11]When he speaketh a lie, he speaketh of 45 his own: for he is a liar, and the father thereof. But because I say the 46 truth, ye believe me not. Which of you convicteth me of sin? If I say 47 truth, why do ye not believe me? He that is of God heareth the words 48 of God: for this cause ye hear them not, because ye are not of God. The Jews answered and said unto him, Say we not well that thou art a Samari-49 tan, and hast a [12]devil? Jesus answered, I have not a [12]devil; but I honour
50 my Father, and ye dishonour me. But I seek not mine own glory: there 51 is one that seeketh and judgeth. Verily, verily, I say unto you, If a man 52 keep my word, he shall never see death. The Jews said unto him, Now we know that thou hast a [12]devil. Abraham is dead, and the prophets; and thou sayest, If a man keep my word, he shall never taste of death.
53 Art thou greater than our father Abraham, which is dead? and the prophets 54 are dead: whom makest thou thyself? Jesus answered, If I glorify myself, my glory is nothing: it is my Father that glorifieth me: of whom ye

John 8:21:59

55 say, that he is your God; and ye have not known him: but I know him;
and if I should say, I know him not, I shall be like unto you, a liar: but 56 I know him, and keep his word. Your father Abraham rejoiced [13]to see 57 my day; and he saw it, and was glad. The Jews therefore said unto him, 58 Thou art not yet fifty years old, and hast thou seen Abraham? Jesus said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Before Abraham [14]was, I 59 am. They took up stones therefore to cast at him: but Jesus [15]hid himself, and went out of the temple.[16]

[1] Or, I am. [2] Or, How is it that I even speak to you at all? [3] Gr. into. [4] Or, I am, or I am he: and I do. [5] Or, hath no place in you. [6] Or, the Father: do ye also therefore the things which ye heard from the Father. [7] Gr. are. [8] Some ancient authorities read ye do the works of Abraham. [9] Or, know. [10] Some ancient authorities read standeth. [11] Or, When one speaketh a lie, he speaketh of his own; for his father also is a liar. [12] Gr. demon. [13] Or, that he should see. [14] Gr. was born. [15] Or, was hidden, and went, etc. [16] Many ancient authorities add and going through the midst of them went his way, and so passed by.

§ 100. JESUS HEALS A MAN BORN BLIND WHO OUTWITS THE PHARISEES. THE RULERS FORBID THE RECOGNITION OF JESUS AS THE MESSIAH. THE CONVERSION OF THE HEALED MAN

Jerusalem

John 9:1–41

1, 2 And as he passed by, he saw a man blind from his birth. And his disciples asked him, saying, Rabbi, who did sin, this man, or his parents, 3 that he should be born blind? Jesus answered, Neither did this man sin, nor his parents: but that the works of God should be made manifest in 4 him. We must work the works of him that sent me, while it is day:
5 the night cometh, when no man can work. When I am in the world, 6 I am the light of the world. When he had thus spoken, he spat on the ground, and made clay of the spittle, and [1]anointed his eyes with the clay, 7 and said unto him, Go, wash in the pool of Siloam (which is by inter-8 pretation, Sent). He went away therefore, and washed, and came seeing.
The neighbours therefore, and they which saw him aforetime, that he was 9 a beggar, said, Is not this he that sat and begged? Others said, It is he:
10 others said, No, but he is like him. He said, I am he. They said there-11 fore unto him, How then were thine eyes opened? He answered, the man that is called Jesus made clay, and anointed mine eyes, and said unto me, Go to Siloam, and wash: so I went away and washed, and I received 12 sight. And they said unto him, Where is he? He saith, I know not.
13, 14 They bring to the Pharisees him that aforetime was blind. Now it was the sabbath on the day when Jesus made the clay, and opened his 15 eyes. Again therefore the Pharisees also asked him how he received his sight. And he said unto them, He put clay upon mine eyes, and I washed, 16 and do see. Some therefore of the Pharisees said, This man is not from God, because he keepeth not the sabbath. But others said, How can a man 17 that is a sinner do such signs? And there was a division among them.
They say therefore unto the blind man again, What sayest thou of him, 18 in that he opened thine eyes? And he said, He is a prophet. The Jews
[2]therefore did not believe concerning him, that he had been blind, and had received his sight, until they called the parents of him that had received 19 his sight, and asked them, saying, Is this your son, who ye say was born 20 blind? how then doth he now see? His parents answered and said, We 21 know that this is our son, and that he was born blind: but how he now seeth, we know not; or who opened his eyes, we know not; ask him; he is of 22 age; he shall speak for himself. These things said his parents, because they feared the Jews: for the Jews had agreed already, that if any man should confess him to be Christ, he should be put out of the synagogue.

John 9:1–41

23 Therefore said his parents, He is of age; ask him. So they called the 24 second time the man that was blind, and said unto him, Give glory to 25 God: we know that this man is a sinner. He therefore answered, Whether he be a sinner, I know not: one thing I know, that, whereas I was blind, 26 now I see. They said therefore unto him, What did he to thee? how 27 opened he thine eyes? He answered them, I told you even now, and ye did not hear: wherefore would ye hear it again? would ye also become his 28 disciples? And they reviled him, and said, Thou art his disciple, but we 29 are disciples of Moses. We know that God hath spoken unto Moses: 30 but as for this man, we know not whence he is. The man answered and said unto them, Why, herein is the marvel, that ye know not whence he is, 31 and yet he opened mine eyes. We know that God heareth not sinners:
but if any man be a worshipper of God, and do his will, him he heareth.
32 Since the world began it was never heard that any one opened the eyes of 33 a man born blind. If this man were not from God, he could do nothing.
34 They answered and said unto him, Thou wast altogether born in sins, and dost thou teach us? And they cast him out.
35 Jesus heard that they had cast him out; and finding him, he said, 36 Dost thou believe on [2]the Son of God? He answered and said, And who 37 is he, Lord, that I may believe on him? Jesus said unto him, Thou hast 38 both seen him, and he it is that speaketh with thee. And he said, Lord, 39 I believe. And he worshipped him. And Jesus said, For judgement came I into this world, that they which see not may see; and that they which 40 see may become blind. Those of the Pharisees which were with him 41 heard these things, and said unto him, Are we also blind? Jesus said unto them, If ye were blind, ye would have no sin: but now ye say, We see:
your sin remaineth.

[1] Or, and with the clay thereof anointed his eyes. [2] Many ancient authorities read the Son of man.

§ 101. IN THE PARABLE (ALLEGORY) OF THE GOOD SHEPHERD JESUS DRAWS THE PICTURE OF THE HOSTILE PHARISEES AND INTIMATES THAT HE IS GOING TO DIE FOR HIS FLOCK AND COME TO LIFE AGAIN

Jerusalem

John 10:1–21

1 Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that entereth not by the door into the fold of the sheep, but climbeth up some other way, the same is a thief 2 and a robber. But he that entereth in by the door is [1]the shepherd of the

John 10:1–21

3 sheep. To him the porter openeth; and the sheep hear his voice: and 4 he calleth his own sheep by name, and leadeth them out. When he hath put forth all his own, he goeth before them, and the sheep follow him:
5 for they know his voice. And a stranger will they not follow, but will 6 flee from him: for they know not the voice of strangers. This [2]parable spake Jesus unto them: but they understood not what things they were which he spake unto them.
7 Jesus therefore said unto them again, Verily, verily, I say unto you, 8 I am the door of the sheep. All that came before me are thieves and 9 robbers: but the sheep did not hear them. I am the door: by me if any man enter in, he shall be saved, and shall go in and go out, and shall 10 find pasture. The thief cometh not, but that he may steal, and kill, and destroy: I came that they may have life, and may [3]have it abundantly.
11 I am the good shepherd: the good shepherd layeth down his life for the 12 sheep. He that is a hireling, and not a shepherd, whose own the sheep are not, beholdeth the wolf coming, and leaveth the sheep, and fleeth, and 13 the wolf snatcheth them, and scattereth them: he fleeth because he is a 14 hireling, and careth not for the sheep. I am the good shepherd; and I 15 know mine own, and mine own know me, even as the Father knoweth me, and I know the Father; and I lay down my life for the sheep.
16 And other sheep I have, which are not of this fold [see Ezek. 34:23; 37:24]:
them also I must [4]bring, and they shall hear my voice; and [5]they shall 17 become one flock, one shepherd. Therefore doth the Father love me, be-18 cause I lay down my life, that I may take it again. No one [6]taketh it away from me, but I lay it down of myself. I have [7]power to lay it down, and I have [7]power to take it again. This commandment received I from my Father.
19 There arose a division again among the Jews because of these words.
20 And many of them said, He hath a [8]devil, and is mad; why hear ye him?
21 Others said, These are not the sayings of one possessed with a [8]devil.
Can a [8]devil open the eyes of the blind?

(Compare Mission of the Twelve in § 70.)

Probably in Judea

Luke 10:1–24

1 Now after these things the Lord appointed seventy[1] others, and sent them two and two before his face into every city and place, whither he

* Observe that here, as in previous portions of the history, we possess only a few specimens from what must have been the great mass of our Lord's doings and sayings.

Luke 10:1–24

himself was about to come. And he said unto them, The harvest is plenteous, but the labourers are few: pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest, that he send forth labourers into his harvest. Go your ways:
behold, I send you forth as lambs in the midst of wolves. Carry no purse, no wallet, no shoes; and salute no man on the way. And into whatsoever house ye shall [2]enter, first say, Peace be to this house. And if a son of peace be there, your peace shall rest upon [3]him: but if not, it shall turn to you again. And in that same house remain, eating and drinking such things as they give: for the labourer is worthy of his hire. Go not from house to house. And into whatsoever city ye enter, and they receive you, eat such things as are set before you: and heal the sick that are therein, and say unto them, The kingdom of God is come nigh unto you.
But into whatsoever city ye shall enter, and they receive you not, go out into the streets thereof and say, Even the dust from your city, that cleaveth to our feet, we do wipe off against you: howbeit know this, that the kingdom of God is come nigh. I say unto you, It shall be more tolerable in that day for Sodom, than for that city [see Gen. 19:24]. Woe unto thee, Chorazin! woe unto thee, Bethsaida! for if the [4]mighty works had been done in Tyre and Sidon, which were done in you, they would have repented long ago, sitting in sackcloth and ashes. Howbeit it shall be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon in the judgement, than for you.
And thou, Capernaum, shalt thou be exalted unto heaven? thou shalt be brought down unto Hades [see Isa. 14:13–15]. He that heareth you heareth me; and he that rejecteth you rejecteth me; and he that rejecteth me rejecteth him that sent me.

And the seventy returned with joy, saying, Lord, even the [5]devils are subject unto us in thy name. And he said unto them, I beheld Satan fallen as lightning from heaven. Behold, I have given you authority to tread upon serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy: and nothing shall in any wise hurt you. Howbeit in this rejoice not, that the spirits are subject unto you; but rejoice that your names are written in heaven.

In that same hour he rejoiced [6]in the Holy Spirit, and said, I [7]thank thee, O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, that thou didst hide these things from the wise and understanding, and didst reveal them unto babes: yea, Father; [8]for so it was well-pleasing in thy sight. All things have been delivered unto me of my Father: and no one knoweth who the Son is, save the Father; and who the Father is, save the Son, and he to whomsoever the Son willeth to reveal him. And turning to the disciples, he said privately, Blessed are the eyes which see the things that ye see: for I say unto you, that many prophets and kings desired to see the things which ye see, and saw them not: and to hear the things which ye hear, and heard them not.

§ 103. JESUS ANSWERS A LAWYER'S QUESTION AS TO ETERNAL LIFE, GIVING THE PARABLE OF THE GOOD SAMARITAN

Probably in Judea

Luke 10:25–37

25 And behold, a certain lawyer stood up and tempted him, saying,
26 [1]Master, what shall I do to inherit eternal life? And he said unto him, 27 What is written in the law? how readest thou? And he answering said, Thou shalt love the Lord thy God [2]with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy strength, and with all thy mind; and thy neighbour 28 as thyself [see Deut. 6:5; Lev. 19:18]. And he said unto him, Thou hast 29 answered right: do this, and thou shalt live [see Lev. 18:5]. But he, desiring 30 to justify himself, said unto Jesus, And who is my neighbour? Jesus made answer and said, A certain man was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho; and he fell among robbers, which both stripped him and beat 31 him, and departed, leaving him half dead. And by chance a certain priest was going down that way: and when he saw him, he passed by 32 on the other side. And in like manner a Levite also, when he came to 33 the place, and saw him, passed by on the other side. But a certain Samaritan, as he journeyed, came where he was: and when he saw him, 34 he was moved with compassion, and came to him, and bound up his wounds, pouring on them oil and wine; and he set him on his own beast, and 35 brought him to an inn, and took care of him. And on the morrow he took out two [3]pence, and gave them to the host, and said, Take care of him; and whatsoever thou spendest more, I, when I come back again, will 36 repay thee. Which of these three, thinkest thou, proved neighbour to 37 him that fell among the robbers? And he said, He that shewed mercy on him. And Jesus said unto him, Go, and do thou likewise.

[1] Or, Teacher. [2] Gr from. [3] The word in the Greek denotes a coin worth about seventeen cents.

§ 104. JESUS THE GUEST OF MARTHA AND MARY

Bethany, near Jerusalem*

Luke 10:38–42

38 Now as they went on their way, he entered into a certain village:
and a certain woman named Martha received him into her house.
39 And she had a sister called Mary, which also sat at the Lord's feet, and 40 heard his word. But Martha was [1]cumbered about much serving; and she came up to him, and said, Lord, dost thou not care that my sister did leave me to serve alone? bid her therefore that she help me.
41 But the Lord answered and said unto her, [2]Martha, Martha, thou art 42 anxious and troubled about many things: [3]but one thing is needful: for Mary hath chosen the good part, which shall not be taken away from her.

[1] Gr. distracted. [2] A few ancient authorities read, Martha, Martha, thou art troubled; Mary hath chosen, etc. [3] Many ancient authorities read but few things are needful, or one.

* There was another Bethany beyond Jordan (John 1:28, § 26). We shall see Jesus in Bethany near Jerusalem again (John 12:1–8). It was his Jerusalem home in the early days of Passion Week.

§ 105. JESUS AGAIN GIVES A MODEL OF PRAYER (COMP. § 54), AND ENCOURAGES HIS DISCIPLES TO PRAY. PARABLE OF THE IMPORTUNATE FRIEND

Probably in Judea

Luke 11:1–13

1 And it came to pass, as he was praying in a certain place, that when he ceased, one of his disciples said unto him, Lord, teach us to pray, even 2 as John also taught his disciples. And he said unto them, When ye pray,
3 say, [1]Father, Hallowed be thy Name. Thy kingdom come.[2] Give us 4 day by day [3]our daily bread. And forgive us our sins; for we ourselves also forgive every one that is indebted to us. And bring us not into temptation[4].*
5 And he said unto them, Which of you shall have a friend, and shall go unto him at midnight, and say to him, Friend, lend me three loaves; for 6 a friend of mine is come to me from a journey, and I have nothing to set 7 before him; and he from within shall answer and say, Trouble me not:
the door is now shut, and my children are with me in bed; I cannot rise 8 and give thee? I say unto you, Though he will not rise and give him, because he is his friend, yet because of his importunity he will arise and 9 give him [5]as many as he needeth. And I say unto you, Ask, and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto 10 you. For every one that asketh receiveth; and he that seeketh findeth; 11 and to him that knocketh it shall be opened. And of which of you that is a father shall his son ask a [6]loaf, and he give him a stone? or a fish, and 12 he for a fish give him a serpent? Or if he shall ask an egg, will he give 13 him a scorpion? If ye then, being evil, know how to give good gifts unto your children, how much more shall your heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to them that ask him?

[1] Many ancient authorities read Our Father, which art in heaven. See Matt. 6:9. [2] Many ancient authorities add Thy will be done, as in heaven, so on earth. See Matt. 6:10. [3] Gr. our bread for the coming day. [4] Many ancient authorities add but deliver us from the evil one (or, from evil). See Matt. 6:13. [5] Or, whatsoever things. [6] Some ancient authorities omit a loaf, and he gave him a stone? or.

§ 106. BLASPHEMOUS ACCUSATION OF LEAGUE WITH BEELZEBUB

(Compare § 61) †

Probably in Judea

Luke 11:14–36

14 And he was casting out a [1]devil which was dumb. And it came to pass, when the [1]devil was gone out, the dumb man spake; and the multitudes

* The language here is different from that in Matt. 6 (§ 54), but the ideas are the same. Evidently the disciples were slow to learn Christ's teaching about prayer.

† It is perfectly natural that the blasphemous accusation made in Galilee (§ 61), and probably more than once (§ 68, Matt. 9:34), should be repeated a year or so afterward in Judea or Perea.

Luke 11:14–36

15 marvelled. But some of them said, [2]By Beelzebub the prince of the 16 [3]devils casteth he out devils. And others, tempting him, sought of him 17 a sign from heaven. But he, knowing their thoughts, said unto them, Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation; [4]and a 18 house divided against a house falleth. And if Satan also is divided against himself, how shall his kingdom stand? because ye say that I cast out 19 [3]devils [2]by Beelzebub. And if I [2]by Beelzebub cast out [3]devils, by whom 20 do your sons cast them out? therefore shall they be your judges. But if I by the finger of God cast out [3]devils, then is the kingdom of God come 21 upon you. When the strong man fully armed guardeth his own court, 22 his goods are in peace: but when a stronger than he shall come upon him, and overcome him, he taketh from him his whole armour wherein he 23 trusted, and divideth his spoils. He that is not with me is against me; and 24 he that gathereth not with me scattereth. The unclean spirit when [5]he is gone out of the man, passeth through waterless places, seeking rest; and finding none, [5]he saith, I will turn back unto my house whence 25 I came out. And when he is come, [5]he findeth it swept and garnished.
26 Then goeth [5]he, and taketh to him seven other spirits more evil than [6]himself; and they enter in and dwell there: and the last state of that man becometh worse than the first.
27 And it came to pass, as he said these things, a certain woman out of the multitude lifted up her voice, and said unto him, Blessed is the 28 womb that bare thee, and the breasts which thou didst suck. But he said, Yea rather, blessed are they that hear the word of God, and keep it.
29 And when the multitudes were gathering together unto him, he began to say, This generation is an evil generation: it seeketh after a sign; and there shall no sign be given to it but the sign of Jonah [see Jonah 3:1–4].
30 For even as Jonah became a sign unto the Ninevites, so shall also the 31 Son of man be to this generation. The queen of the south shall rise up in the judgement with the men of this generation, and shall condemn them: for she came from the ends of the earth to hear the wisdom of 32 Solomon [see 1 Kings 10:1–3]; and behold, [7]a greater than Solomon is here.
The men of Nineveh shall stand up in the judgement with this generation and shall condemn it: for they repented at the preaching of Jonah [see Jonah 3:5–10]; and behold, [7]a greater than Jonah is here.
33 No man, when he hath lighted a lamp, putteth it in a cellar, neither under the bushel, but on the stand, that they which enter in may see 34 the light. The lamp of thy body is thine eye: when thine eye is single, thy whole body also is full of light; but when it is evil, thy body also is full of 35 darkness. Look therefore whether the light that is in thee be not darkness.
36 If therefore thy whole body be full of light, having no part dark, it shall and that Jesus should make substantially the same argument in reply. This sort of thing occurs to every travelling religious teacher. Our Lord does not here give the solemn warning that such an accusation is really blaspheming against the Holy Spirit, and is unpardonable. (See Luke 12:10.) And the subsequent occurrences are quite different in the two cases. In § 64 he afterwards goes out by the lake-side and gives the great group of parables, presently explaining some of them to the disciples in a house, and then crosses the lake to Gerasa, etc. Here in § 107 he breakfasts with a Pharisee, and utters such solemn woes against the Pharisees as are found only in the closing months of his ministry, and then gives to vast multitudes a series of instructions wholly unlike the great group of parables. So it is quite unsuitable to identify this occurrence with that of § 61.

§ 107. WHILE BREAKFASTING WITH A PHARISEE, JESUS SEVERELY DENOUNCES THE PHARISEES AND LAWYERS, AND EXCITES THEIR ENMITY

Probably in Judea

Luke 11:37–54

37 Now as he spake, a Pharisee asketh him to [1]dine with him: and he went 38 in, and sat down to meat. And when the Pharisee saw it, he marvelled 39 that he had not washed before [1]dinner. And the Lord said unto him,
Now do ye Pharisees cleanse the outside of the cup and of the platter;
40 but your inward part is full of extortion and wickedness. Ye foolish ones, 41 did not he that made the outside make the inside also? Howbeit give for alms those things which [2]are within; and behold, all things are clean unto you.
42 But woe unto you Pharisees! for ye tithe mint and rue and every herb, and pass over judgement and the love of God [see Lev. 27:30; Mic. 6:8]: but 43 these ought ye to have done, and not to leave the other undone. Woe unto you Pharisees! for ye love the chief seats in the synagogues, and the 44 salutations in the marketplaces. Woe unto you! for ye are as the tombs which appear not, and the men that walk over them know it not.
45 And one of the lawyers answering saith unto him, [3]Master, in saying 46 this thou reproachest us also. And he said, Woe unto you lawyers also!
for ye lade men with burdens grievous to be borne, and ye yourselves 47 touch not the burdens with one of your fingers. Woe unto you! for ye 48 build the tombs of the prophets, and your fathers killed them. So ye are witnesses and consent unto the works of your fathers: for they killed them, 49 and ye build their tombs. Therefore also said the wisdom of God, I will 50 send unto them prophets and apostles; and some of them they shall kill and persecute; that the blood of all the prophets, which was shed from 51 the foundation of the world, may be required of this generation; from the blood of Abel unto the blood of Zachariah [see Gen. 4:8; 2 Chron. 24:20–21], who perished between the altar and the [4]sanctuary: yea, I say unto you, 52 it shall be required of this generation. Woe unto you lawyers! for ye took away the key of knowledge: ye entered not in yourselves, and them that were entering in ye hindered.
53 And when he was come out from thence, the scribes and the Pharisees began to [5]press upon him vehemently, and to provoke him to speak of 54 [6]many things; laying wait for him, to catch something out of his mouth.

§ 108. HE SPEAKS TO HIS DISCIPLES AND A VAST THRONG, ABOUT HYPOCRISY, COVETOUSNESS (PARABLE OF THE RICH FOOL), WORLDLY ANXIETIES, WATCHFULNESS (PARABLE OF THE WAITING SERVANTS, AND OF THE WISE STEWARD), AND HIS OWN APPROACHING PASSION*

Probably in Judea

Luke 12

1 In the mean time, when [1]the many thousands of the multitude were gathered together, insomuch that they trode one upon another, he began to [2]say unto his disciples first of all, Beware ye of the leaven of the Phari-2 sees, which is hypocrisy. But there is nothing covered up; that shall 3 not be revealed: and hid, that shall not be known. Wherefore whatsoever ye have said in the darkness shall be heard in the light; and what ye have spoken in the ear in the inner chambers shall be proclaimed upon the 4 housetops. And I say unto you my friends, Be not afraid of them which 5 kill the body, and after that have no more that they can do. But I will warn you whom ye shall fear: Fear him, which after he hath killed hath 6 [3]power to cast into [4]hell; yea, I say unto you, Fear him. Are not five sparrows sold for two farthings? and not one of them is forgotten in the 7 sight of God. But the very hairs of your head are all numbered. Fear 8 not: ye are of more value than many sparrows. And I say unto you, Every one who shall confess [5]me before men, [6]him shall the Son of man also 9 confess before the angels of God: but he that denieth me in the presence 10 of men shall be denied in the presence of the angels of God. And every one who shall speak a word against the Son of man, it shall be forgiven him: but unto him that blasphemeth against the Holy Spirit it shall not 11 be forgiven. And when they bring you before the synagogues, and the rulers, and the authorities, be not anxious how or what ye shall answer, 12 or what ye shall say: for the Holy Spirit shall teach you in that very hour what ye ought to say.
13 And one out of the multitude said unto him, [7]Master, bid my brother 14 divide the inheritance with me. But he said unto him, Man, who made 15 me a judge or a divider over you? And he said unto them, Take heed, and keep yourselves from all covetousness: [8]for a man's life consisteth 16 not in the abundance of the things which he possesseth. And he spake 17 a parable unto them, saying, The ground of a certain rich man brought forth plentifully: and he reasoned within himself, saying, What shall I do, 18 because I have not where to bestow my fruits? And he said, This will I do: I will pull down my barns, and build greater; and there will I bestow 19 all my corn and my goods. And I will say to my [9]soul, [9]Soul, thou hast much goods laid up for many years; take thine ease, eat, drink, be merry.
20 But God said unto him, Thou foolish one, this night [10]is thy [9]soul required

* Here we have a series of discourses to the disciples (1–12), to one of the crowd (13–21), to the disciples (22–40), to Peter (41–53), to the multitudes (54–59). The constant interruption is typical of the teaching of Jesus. This address, as often, repeats some of Christ's favorite sayings.
Besides the Parable of the Rich Fool (12:16–21) note those of the Waiting Servants (37–40) and of the Wise Steward (42–48).

Luke 12

21 of thee; and the things which thou hast prepared, whose shall they be?
So is he that layeth up treasure for himself, and is not rich toward God.
22 And he said unto his disciples, Therefore I say unto you, Be not anxious for your [11]life, what ye shall eat; nor yet for your body, what ye shall put 23 on. For the [11]life is more than the food, and the body than the raiment.
24 Consider the ravens, that they sow not, neither reap; which have no store-chamber nor barn; and God feedeth them: of how much more 25 value are ye than the birds! And which of you by being anxious can 26 add a cubit unto his [12]stature? If then ye are not able to do even that 27 which is least, why are ye anxious concerning the rest? Consider the lilies, how they grow: they toil not, neither do they spin; yet I say unto you, Even Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these.
28 But if God doth so clothe the grass in the field, which to-day is, and tomorrow is cast into the oven; how much more shall he clothe you, O ye 29 of little faith? And seek not ye what ye shall eat, and what ye shall 30 drink, neither be ye of doubtful mind. For all these things do the nations of the world seek after: but your Father knoweth that ye have need of 31 these things. Howbeit seek ye [13]his kingdom, and these things shall be added unto you. Fear not, little flock; for it is your Father's good pleas-33 ure to give you the kingdom. Sell that ye have, and give alms; make for yourselves purses which wax not old, a treasure in the heavens that 34 faileth not, where no thief draweth near, neither moth destroyeth. For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also.
35, 36 Let your loins be girded about, and your lamps burning; and be ye yourselves like unto men looking for their lord, when he shall return from the marriage feast; that, when he cometh and knocketh, they may 37 straightway open unto him. Blessed are those [14]servants, whom the lord when he cometh shall find watching: verily I say unto you, that he shall gird himself, and make them sit down to meat, and shall come and serve 38 them. And if he shall come in the second watch, and if in the third, and 39 find them so, blessed are those servants. [15]But know this, that if the master of the house had known in what hour the thief was coming, he would have 40 watched, and not have left his house to be [16]broken through. Be ye also ready: for in an hour that ye think not the Son of man cometh.
41 And Peter said, Lord, speakest thou this parable unto us, or even unto 42 all? And the Lord said, Who then is [17]the faithful and wise steward, whom his lord shall set over his household, to give them their portion 43 of food in due season? Blessed is that [18]servant, whom his lord when he 44 cometh shall find so doing. Of a truth I say unto you, that he will set 45 him over all that he hath. But if that [18]servant shall say in his heart, My lord delayeth his coming; and shall begin to beat the menservants and the maidservants, and to eat and drink, and to be drunken; the 46 lord of that [18]servant shall come in a day when he expecteth not, and in an hour when he knoweth not, and shall [19]cut him asunder, and appoint 47 his portion with the unfaithful. And that [18]servant, which knew his lord's will, and made not ready, nor did according to his will, shall be 48 beaten with many stripes; but he that knew not, and did things worthy of stripes, shall be beaten with few stripes. And to whomsoever much is given, of him shall much be required: and to whom they commit much, of him will they ask the more.

Luke 12

49 I came to cast fire upon the earth; and what will I, if it is already 50 kindled? But I have a baptism to be baptized with; and how am I 51 straitened till it be accomplished! Think ye that I am come to give 52 peace in the earth? I tell you, Nay; but rather division: for there shall be from henceforth five in one house divided, three against two, and two 53 against three [see Mic. 7:6]. They shall be divided, father against son, and son against father; mother against daughter, and daughter against her mother; mother in law against her daughter in law, and daughter in law against her mother in law.
54 And he said to the multitudes also, When ye see a cloud rising in the west, straightway ye say, There cometh a shower; and so it cometh to 55 pass. And when ye see a south wind blowing, ye say, There will be a 56 [20]scorching heat; and it cometh to pass. Ye hypocrites, ye know how to [21]interpret the face of the earth and the heaven; but how is it that ye know 57 not how to [21]interpret this time? And why even of yourselves judge ye 58 not what is right? For as thou art going with thine adversary before the magistrate, on the way give diligence to be quit of him; lest haply he hale thee unto the judge, and the judge shall deliver thee to the [22]officer, 59 and the [22]officer shall cast thee into prison. I say unto thee, Thou shalt by no means come out thence, till thou have paid the very last mite.

§ 109. ALL MUST REPENT OR PERISH (TWO CURRENT TRAGEDIES); PARABLE OF THE BARREN FIG TREE

Probably in Judea

Luke 13:1–9

1 Now there were some present at that very season which told him of the Galileans, whose blood Pilate had mingled with their sacrifices.
2 And he answered and said unto them, Think ye that these Galileans were sinners above all the Galileans, because they have suffered these things?
3 I tell you, Nay: but, except ye repent, ye shall all in like manner perish.
4 Or those eighteen, upon whom the tower in Siloam fell, and killed them, think ye that they were [1]offenders above all the men that dwell in Jeru-5 salem? I tell you, Nay: but, except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish.
6 And he spake this parable; A certain man had a fig tree planted in his 7 vineyard; and he came seeking fruit thereon, and found none. And he said unto the vinedresser, Behold, these three years I come seeking fruit on this fig tree, and find none: cut it down; why doth it also cumber the 8 ground? And he answering saith unto him, Lord, let it alone this year 9 also, till I shall dig about it, and dung it: and if it bear fruit thenceforth, well; but if not, thou shalt cut it down.

§ 110. JESUS HEALS A CRIPPLED WOMAN ON THE SABBATH AND DEFENDS HIMSELF AGAINST THE RULER OF THE SYNAGOGUE (COMP. §§ 49 TO 51 AND 114). REPETITION OF THE PARABLES OF THE MUSTARD SEED AND OF THE LEAVEN

Luke 13:10–21

10 And he was teaching in one of the synagogues on the sabbath day.
11 And behold, a woman which had a spirit of infirmity eighteen years; 12 and she was bowed together, and could in no wise lift herself up. And when Jesus saw her, he called her, and said to her, Woman, thou art 13 loosed from thine infirmity. And he laid his hands upon her: and im-14 mediately she was made straight, and glorified God. And the ruler of the synagogue, being moved with indignation because Jesus had healed on the sabbath [see Ex. 20:8–11; Deut. 5:12–15], answered and said to the multitude, There are six days in which men ought to work: in them 15 therefore come and be healed, and not on the day of the sabbath. But the Lord answered him, and said, Ye hypocrites, doth not each one of you on the sabbath loose his ox or his ass from the [1]stall, and lead him away to 16 watering? And ought not this woman, being a daughter of Abraham, whom Satan had bound, lo, these eighteen years, to have been loosed from 17 this bond on the day of the sabbath? And as he said these things, all his adversaries were put to shame: and all the multitude rejoiced for all the glorious things that were done by him.
18 He said therefore, Unto what is the kingdom of God like? and where-19 unto shall I liken it? It is like unto a grain of mustard seed, which a man took, and cast into his own garden; and it grew, and became a tree;
and the birds of the heaven lodged in the branches thereof [see Dan. 4: 20 10–12; 20–22]. And again he said, Whereunto shall I liken the king-21 dom of God? It is like unto leaven, which a woman took and hid in three [2]measures of meal, till it was all leavened.

[1] Gr. manger. [2] The word in the Gr. denotes the Hebrew seah, a measure containing nearly a peck and a half (cf. in Matt. 13:33).

Here again the Gospel of John takes us up, and carries us to Jerusalem, and then to Perea.

§ 111. AT THE FEAST OF DEDICATION, JESUS WILL NOT YET OPENLY SAY THAT HE IS THE MESSIAH. THE JEWS TRY TO STONE HIM

Jerusalem

John 10:22–39

23 and Jesus was walking in the temple in Solomon's porch. The Jews

* Some scholars think that the events in John 9 and 10:1–21 belong to the time of the feast of dedication rather than soon after tabernacles. But the language of John 10:24 seems to call for an interval

John 10:22–39

24 therefore came round about him, and said unto him, How long dost thou 25 hold us in suspense? If thou art the Christ, tell us plainly. Jesus answered them, I told you, and ye believe not: the works that I do in my 26 Father's name, these bear witness of me. But ye believe not, because 27 ye are not of my sheep. My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, 28 and they follow me: and I give unto them eternal life; and they shall 29 never perish, and no one shall snatch them out of my hand. [2]My Father, which hath given them unto me, is greater than all; and no one is able to 30, 31 snatch [3]them out of the Father's hand. I and the Father are one. The 32 Jews took up stones again to stone him. Jesus answered them, Many good works have I shewed you from the Father; for which of those works 33 do ye stone me? The Jews answered him, For a good work we stone thee not, but for blasphemy; and because that thou, being a man, makest 34 thyself God. Jesus answered them, Is it not written in your law, I said, 35 ye are gods [see Ps. 82:6]? If he called them gods, unto whom the word 36 of God came (and the scripture cannot be broken), say ye of him, whom the Father [4]sanctified and sent into the world, Thou blasphemest; because 37 I said, I am the Son of God? If I do not the works of my Father, believe 38 me not. But if I do them, though you believe not me, believe the works:
that ye may know and understand that the Father is in me, and I in the 39 Father. They sought again to take him: and he went forth out of their hand.

§ 112. THE WITHDRAWAL FROM JERUSALEM TO BETHANY BEYOND JORDAN

Perea

John 10:40–42

40 And he went away again beyond Jordan into the place where John was 41 at the first baptizing; and there he abode. And many came unto him; and they said, John indeed did no sign: but all things whatsoever John 42 spake of this man were true. And many believed on him there.

§ 113. TEACHING IN PEREA, ON A JOURNEY* TOWARD JERUSALEM. WARNED AGAINST HEROD ANTIPAS

Luke 13:22–35

22 And he went on his way through cities and villages, teaching, and 23 journeying on unto Jerusalem.† And one said unto him, Lord, are they 24 few that be saved? And he said unto them, Strive to enter in by the narrow door: for many, I say unto you, shall seek to enter in, and shall 25 not be [1]able. When once the master of the house is risen up, and hath shut to the door, and ye begin to stand without, and to knock at the door, saying, Lord, open to us; and he shall answer and say to you, I know 26 you not whence ye are; then shall ye begin to say, We did eat and drink in thy presence, and thou didst teach in our streets; and he shall say, 27 I tell you, I know not whence ye are; depart from me, all ye workers of 28 iniquity [see Ps. 6:8]. There shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth, when ye shall see Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob, and all the prophets, 29 in the kingdom of God, and yourselves cast forth without. And they shall come from the east and west, and from the north and south, and 30 shall [2]sit down in the kingdom of God [see Ps. 107:3; Isa. 49: 12]. And

* See note 10 at end of Harmony for the combination of Luke and John. After the Feast of the Dedication Jesus retired beyond Jordan (John 10:40), whence he goes to the raising of Lazarus (John 11:17). Luke seems to give incidents that belong to this journey.

† The period of three to four months from the Dedication to the final Passover is divided by another visit to Jerusalem. We cannot tell how many weeks preceded this event. All along here we have only a few specimens of the Saviour's teaching and works.

Luke 13:22–35

behold, there are last which shall be first, and there are first which shall be last.
31 In that very hour there came certain Pharisees, saying to him, Get 32 thee out, and go hence: for Herod would fain kill thee. And he said unto them, Go and say to that fox, Behold, I cast out [3]devils and perform cures 33 to-day and to-morrow, and the third day I am perfected. Howbeit I must 34 go on my way to-day and to-morrow and the day following: for it cannot be that a prophet perish out of Jerusalem. O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, which killeth the prophets, and stoneth them that are sent unto her! how often would I have gathered thy children together, even as a hen gathereth her own brood under her wings, and ye would not!
35 Behold, your house is left unto you desolate: and I say unto you, Ye shall not see me, until ye shall say, Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord [see Ps. 118:26; Jer. 12:7; 22:5].

§ 114. WHILE DINING (BREAKFASTING) WITH A CHIEF PHARISEE, HE AGAIN HEALS ON THE SABBATH, AND DEFENDS HIMSELF (COMP. §§ 49 TO 51 AND 110). THREE PARABLES SUGGESTED BY THE OCCASION

Probably in Perea

Luke 14:1–24

1 And it came to pass, when he went into the house of one of the rulers of the Pharisees on a sabbath to eat bread, that they were watching him.
2 And behold, there was before him a certain man which had the dropsy.
3 And Jesus answering spake unto the lawyers and Pharisees, saying, Is 4 it lawful to heal on the sabbath, or not? But they held their peace. And 5 he took him, and healed him, and let him go. And he said unto them, Which of you shall have [1]an ass or an ox fallen into a well, and will not 6 straightway draw him up on a sabbath day? And they could not answer again unto these things.
7 And he spake a parable unto those which were bidden, when he marked 8 how they chose out the chief seats; saying unto them, When thou art bidden of any man to a marriage feast, [2]sit not down in the chief seat; lest haply a more honourable man than thou be bidden of him, and he
9 that bade thee and him shall come and say to thee, Give this man place;
10 and then thou shalt begin with shame to take the lowest place. But when thou art bidden, go and sit down in the lowest place; that when he that hath bidden thee cometh, he may say to thee, Friend, go up higher: then shalt thou have glory in the presence of all that sit at meat with thee.
11 For every one that exalteth himself shall be humbled; and he that humbleth himself shall be exalted.
12 And he said to him also that had bidden him, When thou makest a dinner or a supper,* call not thy friends, nor thy brethren, nor thy kinsmen, nor rich neighbours; lest haply they also bid thee again, and a recom-13 pense be made thee. But when thou makest a feast, bid the poor, the maimed, the lame, the blind: and thou shalt be blessed; because they 14 have not wherewith to recompense thee: for thou shalt be recompensed in the resurrection of the just.

Luke 14:1–24

15 And when one of them that sat at meat with him heard these things, he said unto him, Blessed is he that shall eat bread in the kingdom of 16 God. But he said unto him, A certain man made a great supper; and he 17 bade many: and he sent forth his [3]servant at supper time to say to them
18 that were bidden, Come, for all things are now ready. And they all with one consent began to make excuse. The first said unto him, I have bought a field, and I must needs go out and see it: I pray thee have me 19 excused. And another said, I have bought five yoke of oxen, and I go to 20 prove them: I pray thee have me excused. And another said, I have 21 married a wife, and therefore I cannot come. And the [3]servant came, and told his lord these things. Then the master of the house being angry said to his [3]servant, Go out quickly into the streets and lanes of the 22 city, and bring in hither the poor and maimed and blind and lame. And the [3]servant said, Lord, what thou didst command is done, and yet there 23 is room. And the Lord said unto the [3]servant, Go out into the highways and hedges, and constrain them to come in, that my house may be filled.
24 For I say unto you, that none of those men which were bidden shall taste of my supper.

[1] Many ancient authorities read a son. See ch. 13:15. [2] Gr. recline not. [3] Gr. bond-servant.

§ 115. GREAT CROWDS FOLLOW HIM, AND HE WARNS THEM TO COUNT THE COST OF DISCIPLESHIP TO HIM (COMP. §§ 70 and 83)

Probably in Perea

Luke 14:25–35

25 Now there went with him great multitudes: and he turned, and said
26 unto them, If any man cometh unto me, and hateth not his own father, and mother, and wife, and children, and brethren, and sisters, yea, and 27 his own life also, he cannot be my disciple. Whosoever doth not bear 28 his own cross, and come after me, cannot be my disciple. For which of you, desiring to build a tower, doth not first sit down and count the cost, 29 whether he have wherewith to complete it? Lest haply, when he hath laid a foundation, and is not able to finish, all that behold begin to mock 30 him, saying, This man began to build, and was not able to finish. Or 31 what king, as he goeth to encounter another king in war, will not sit down first and take counsel whether he is able with ten thousand to meet

* More exactly, "a breakfast or a dinner." The two principal meals of the Jews answered to the present English breakfast (in the forenoon and often near noon), and dinner (at or after dark); and so in our cities. In the time of King James, as in many of our country homes now, the meal towards noon answered to dinner, and the night meal to supper. Hence a certain confusion in the older and more recent English versions. In verses 16, 17 the right word would be dinner, according to city usage, and so elsewhere.

Luke 14:25–35

32 him that cometh against him with twenty thousand? Or else, while the other is yet a great way off, he sendeth an ambassage, and asketh con-33 ditions of peace. So therefore whosoever he be of you that renounceth 34 not all that he hath, he cannot be my disciple. Salt therefore is good; 35 but if even the salt have lost its savour, wherewith shall it be seasoned? It is fit neither for the land nor for the dunghill: men cast it out. He that hath ears to hear, let him hear.

§ 116. THE PHARISEES AND THE SCRIBES MURMUR AGAINST JESUS FOR RECEIVING SINNERS. HE DEFENDS HIMSELF BY THREE GREAT PARABLES (THE LOST SHEEP, THE LOST COIN, THE LOST SON)

Probably in Perea

Luke 15:1–32

1 Now all the publicans and sinners were drawing near unto him for to 2 hear him. And both the Pharisees and the scribes murmured, saying,
This man receiveth sinners, and eateth with them.
3, 4 And he spake unto them this parable, saying, What man of you, having a hundred sheep, and having lost one of them, doth not leave the ninety and nine in the wilderness, and go after that which is lost, until 5 he find it? And when he hath found it, he layeth it on his shoulders, 6 rejoicing. And when he cometh home, he calleth together his friends and his neighbours, saying unto them, Rejoice with me, for I have found my 7 sheep which was lost. I say unto you, that even so there shall be joy in heaven over one sinner that repenteth, more than over ninety and nine righteous persons, which need no repentance.
8 Or what woman having ten [1]pieces of silver, if she lose one piece, doth not light a lamp, and sweep the house, and seek diligently until she find 9 it? And when she hath found it, she calleth together her friends and neighbours, saying, Rejoice with me, for I have found the piece which I 10 had lost. Even so, I say unto you, there is joy in the presence of the angels of God over one sinner that repenteth.
11, 12 And he said, A certain man had two sons: and the younger of them said to his father, Father, give me the portion of [2]thy substance that falleth 13 to me. And he divided unto them his living. And not many days after the younger son gathered all together, and took his journey into a far 14 country; and there he wasted his substance with riotous living. And when he had spent all, there arose a mighty famine in that country; and 15 he began to be in want. And he went and joined himself to one of the citizens of that country; and he sent him into his fields to feed swine.
16 And he would fain have been filled with [3]the husks that the swine did eat:
17 and no man gave unto him. But when he came to himself he said, How many hired servants of my father's have bread enough and to spare, and 18 I perish here with hunger! I will arise and go to my father, and will say 19 unto him, Father, I have sinned against heaven, and in thy sight: I am no more worthy to be called thy son: make me as one of thy hired servants.

Luke 15:1–32

20 And he arose, and came to his father. But while he was yet afar off, his father saw him, and was moved with compassion, and ran, and fell 21 on his neck, and [4]kissed him. And the son said unto him, Father, I have sinned against heaven, and in thy sight; I am no more worthy to be called 22 thy son.[5] But the father said to his [6]servants, Bring forth quickly the best robe, and put it on him; and put a ring on his hand, and shoes on his 23 feet: and bring the fatted calf, and kill it, and let us eat, and make merry:
24 for this my son was dead, and is alive again; he was lost, and is found.
25 And they began to be merry. Now his elder son was in the field: and as 26 he came and drew nigh to the house, he heard music and dancing. And he called to him one of the [6]servants, and inquired what these things might 27 be. And he said unto him, Thy brother is come; and thy father hath killed the fatted calf, because he hath received him safe and sound.
28 But he was angry, and would not go in: and his father came out, and 29 entreated him. But he answered and said to his father, Lo, these many years do I serve thee, and I never transgressed a commandment of thine:
and yet thou never gavest me a kid, that I might make merry with my 30 friends: but when this thy son came, which hath devoured thy living with 31 harlots, thou killedst for him the fatted calf. And he said unto him, 32 [7]Son, thou art ever with me, and all that is mine is thine. But it was meet to make merry and be glad: for this thy brother was dead, and is alive again; and was lost, and is found.

[1] Gr. drachma, a coin worth about sixteen cents. [2] Gr. the. [3] Gr. the pods of the carob-tree. [4] Gr. kissed him much. [5] Some ancient authorities add make me as one of thy hired servants. See ver. 19. [6] Gr. bond-servants. [7] Gr. Child.

§ 117. THREE PARABLES ON STEWARDSHIP (TO THE DISCIPLES, THE PARABLE OF THE UNJUST STEWARD; TO THE PHARISEES, THE PARABLE OF THE RICH MAN AND LAZARUS; TO THE DISCIPLES, THE PARABLE OF THE UNPROFITABLE SERVANTS)

Probably in Perea

Luke 16:1–17:10

16 And he said unto the disciples, There was a certain rich man, which had a steward; and the same was accused unto him that he was wasting 2 his goods. And he called him, and said unto him, What is this that I hear of thee? render the account of thy stewardship; for thou canst be no 3 longer steward. And the steward said within himself, What shall I do, 4 seeing that my lord taketh away the stewardship from me? I have not strength to dig; to beg I am ashamed. I am resolved what to do, that, when I am put out of the stewardship, they may receive me into their 5 houses. And calling to him each one of his lord's debtors, he said to the 6 first, How much owest thou unto my lord? And he said, A hundred [1]measures of oil. And he said unto him, Take thy [2]bond, and sit down

Luke 16:1–17:10

7 quickly and write fifty. Then said he to another, And how much owest thou? And he said, A hundred [3]measures of wheat. He saith unto him, 8 Take thy [3]bond, and write fourscore. And his lord commended [4]the unrighteous steward because he had done wisely: for the sons of this [4]world are for their own generation wiser than the sons of the light.
9 And I say unto you, make to yourselves friends [6]by means of the mammon of unrighteousness; that, when it shall fail, they may receive you into 10 the eternal tabernacles. He that is faithful in a very little is faithful 11 also in much. If therefore ye have not been faithful in the unrighteous 12 mammon, who will commit to your trust the true riches? And if ye have not been faithful in that which is another's, who will give you that 13 which is [7]your own? No [8]servant can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and mammon.
14 And the Pharisees, who were lovers of money, heard all these things; 15 and they scoffed at him. And he said unto them, Ye are they that justify yourselves in the sight of men; but God knoweth your hearts: for that which is exalted among men is an abomination in the sight of God.
16 The law and the prophets were until John: from that time the gospel of the kingdom of God is preached, and every man entereth violently into it 17 [see Matt. 11:12]. But it is easier for heaven and earth to pass away, 18 than for one tittle of the law to fall. Every one that putteth away his wife, and marrieth another, committeth adultery: and he that marrieth one that is put away from a husband committeth adultery.
19 Now there was a certain rich man, and he was clothed in purple and 20 fine linen, [9]faring sumptuously every day: and a certain beggar named 21 Lazarus was laid at his gate, full of sores, and desiring to be fed with the crumbs that fell from the rich man's table; yea, even the dogs came and 22 licked his sores. And it came to pass, that the beggar died, and that he was carried away by the angels into Abraham's bosom: and the rich man 23 also died, and was buried. And in Hades he lifted up his eyes, being in 24 torments, and seeth Abraham afar off, and Lazarus in his bosom. And he cried and said, Father Abraham, have mercy on me, and send Lazarus, that he may dip the tip of his finger in water, and cool my tongue; for I 25 am in anguish in this flame. But Abraham said, [10]Son, remember that thou in thy lifetime receivedst thy good things, and Lazarus in like manner 26 evil things: but now here he is comforted, and thou art in anguish. And [11]beside all this, between us and you there is a great gulf fixed, that they which would pass from hence to you may not be able, and that none may 27 cross over from thence to us. And he said, I pray thee therefore, father, 28 that thou wouldest send him to my father's house: for I have five brethren; that he may testify unto them; lest they also come into this place of tor-29 ment. But Abraham saith, They have Moses and the prophets; let them 30 hear them. And he said, Nay, father Abraham: but if one go to them 31 from the dead, they will repent. And he said unto him, If they hear not Moses and the prophets, neither will they be persuaded, if one rise from the dead.
1 And he said unto his disciples, It is impossible but that occasions of stumbling should come: but woe unto him, through whom they come!
2 It were well for him if a millstone were hanged about his neck, and he

Luke 16:1–17:10

were thrown into the sea, rather than that he should cause one of these 3 little ones to stumble. Take heed to yourselves: if thy brother sin,
4 rebuke him; and if he repent, forgive him. And if he sin against thee seven times in the day, and seven times turn again to thee, saying, I repent; thou shalt forgive him.
5, 6 And the apostles said unto the Lord, Increase our faith. And the Lord said, If ye have faith as a grain of mustard seed, ye would say unto this sycamine tree, Be thou rooted up, and be thou planted in the sea; 7 and it would have obeyed you. But who is there of you, having a [12]servant plowing or keeping sheep, that will say unto him, when he is come in from the field, Come straightway and sit down to meat; and will not
8 rather say unto him, Make ready wherewith I may sup, and gird thyself, and serve me, till I have eaten and drunken; and afterward thou shalt
9 eat and drink? Doth he thank the [12]servant because he did the things
10 that were commanded? Even so ye also, when ye shall have done all the things that are commanded you, say, We are unprofitable [13]servants; we have done that which it was our duty to do.

§ 118. JESUS RAISES LAZARUS FROM THE DEAD

From Perea* to Bethany near Jerusalem

John 11:1–44

1 Now a certain man was sick, Lazarus of Bethany, of the village of 2 Mary and her sister Martha. And it was that Mary, which anointed the Lord with ointment, and wiped his feet with her hair, whose brother
3 Lazarus was sick. The sisters therefore sent unto him, saying, Lord, 4 behold, he whom thou lovest is sick. But when Jesus heard it, he said, this sickness is not unto death, but for the glory of God, that the Son of 5 God may be glorified thereby. Now Jesus loved Martha, and her sister, 6 and Lazarus. When therefore he heard that he was sick, he abode at 7 that time two days in the place where he was. Then after this he saith
8 to the disciples, Let us go into Judea again. The disciples say unto him, Rabbi, the Jews were but now seeking to stone thee; and goest thou thither 9 again? Jesus answered, Are there not twelve hours in the day? If a man walk in the day, he stumbleth not, because he seeth the light of this
10 world. But if a man walk in the night, he stumbleth, because the light 11 is not in him. These things spake he: and after this he saith unto them, Our friend Lazarus is fallen asleep; but I go, that I may awake him out of 12 sleep. The disciples therefore said unto him, Lord, if he is fallen asleep, 13 he will [1]recover. Now Jesus had spoken of his death: but they thought

* Our Lord was apparently at a distance of two or three days' journey (verses 6, 17) from Bethany; and he was probably in Perea. This visit to Bethany, a suburb of Jerusalem, may be that to which Luke pointed in 13:22.

John 11:1–44

14 that he spake of taking rest in sleep. Then Jesus therefore said unto 15 them plainly, Lazarus is dead. And I am glad for your sakes that I was not there, to the intent ye may believe; nevertheless let us go unto him.
16 Thomas therefore, who is called [2]Didymus, said unto his fellow-disciples, Let us also go, that we may die with him.
17 So when Jesus came, he found that he had been in the tomb four days
18 already. Now Bethany was nigh unto Jerusalem, about fifteen furlongs 19 off; and many of the Jews had come to Martha and Mary, to console 20 them concerning their brother. Martha therefore, when she heard that Jesus was coming, went and met him: but Mary still sat in the house.
21 Martha therefore said unto Jesus, Lord, if thou hadst been here, my 22 brother had not died. And even now I know that whatsoever thou shalt 23 ask of God, God will give thee. Jesus saith unto her, Thy brother shall 24 rise again. Martha saith unto him, I know that he shall rise again in 25 the resurrection at the last day. Jesus said unto her, I am the resur-26 rection, and the life: he that believeth on me, though he die, yet shall he 27 live: and whosoever liveth and believeth on me shall never die. Believest thou this? She saith unto him, Yea, Lord: I have believed that thou art 28 the Christ, the Son of God, even he that cometh into the world. And when she had said this, she went away, and called Mary [3]her sister secretly, 29 saying, The [4]Master is here, and calleth thee. And she, when she heard 30 it, arose quickly, and went unto him. (Now Jesus was not yet come into the 31 village, but was still in the place where Martha met him.) The Jews then which were with her in the house, and were comforting her, when they saw Mary, that she rose up quickly and went out, followed her, supposing 32 that she was going unto the tomb to [5]weep there. Mary therefore, when she came where Jesus was, and saw him, fell down at his feet, saying unto 33 him, Lord, if thou hadst been here, my brother had not died. When Jesus therefore saw her [6]weeping, and the Jews also [6]weeping, which 34 came with her, he [7]groaned in the spirit, and [8]was troubled, and said, Where 35 have ye laid him? They say unto him, Lord, come and see. Jesus wept.
36, 37 The Jews therefore said, Behold how he loved him! But some of them said, Could not this man, which opened the eyes of him that was 38 blind, have caused that this man also should not die? Jesus therefore again [9]groaning in himself cometh to the tomb. Now it was a cave, and 39 a stone lay [10]against it. Jesus saith, Take ye away the stone. Martha, the sister of him that was dead, saith unto him, Lord, by this time he 40 stinketh: for he hath been dead four days. Jesus saith unto her,
Said I not unto thee, that, if thou believedst, thou shouldest 41 see the glory of God? So they took away the stone. And Jesus lifted up his eyes, and said, Father, I thank thee that thou heardest me.
42 And I knew that thou hearest me always: but because of the multitude which standeth around I said it, that they may believe that thou didst 43 send me. And when he had thus spoken, he cried with a loud voice, 44 Lazarus, come forth. He that was dead came forth, bound hand and foot with [11]grave-clothes; and his face was bound about with a napkin.
Jesus saith unto them, Loose him, and let him go.

§ 119. THE EFFECT OF THE RAISING OF LAZARUS (ON THE PEOPLE, ON THE SANHEDRIN, ON THE MOVEMENTS OF JESUS)

Jerusalem and Ephraim in Judea

John 11:45–54

45 Many therefore of the Jews, which came to Mary and beheld [1]that 46 which he did, believed on him. But some of them went away to the Pharisees, and told them the thing which Jesus had done.
47 The chief priests therefore and the Pharisees gathered a council, and 48 said, What do we? for this man doeth many signs. If we let him thus alone, all men will believe on him: and the Romans will come and take 49 away both our place and our nation. But a certain one of them, Caiaphas, being high priest that year, said unto them, Ye know nothing at all, 50 nor do ye take account that it is expedient for you that one man should 51 die for the people, and that the whole nation perish not. Now this he 52 said not of himself: but being high priest that year, he prophesied that Jesus should die for the nation; and not for the nation only, but that he might also gather together into one the children of God that are scattered 53 abroad. So from that day forth they took counsel that they might put him to death.
54 Jesus therefore walked no more openly among the Jews, but departed thence into the country near to the wilderness, into a city called Ephraim;
and there he tarried with the disciples.

[1] Many ancient authorities read the things which he did.

§ 120. JESUS STARTS ON THE LAST JOURNEY TO JERUSALEM BY WAY OF SAMARIA AND GALILEE

He heals the Ten Lepers and explains the Nature of the Kingdom of God to the Pharisees and the Disciples.

In Samaria or Galilee

Luke 17:11–37

11 And it came to pass, [1]as they were on the way to Jerusalem, that he 12 was passing [2]through the midst of Samaria and Galilee.* And as he entered into a certain village, there met him ten men that were lepers, 13 which stood afar off [see Lev. 13:45–46]: and they lifted up their voices, 14 saying, Jesus, Master, have mercy on us. And when he saw them, he

* As Ephraim (§ 119) was pretty certainly in the northern part of Judea, it has been reasonably supposed (Wieseler, Clark, and others) that, when the Passover was approaching, Jesus went from that region northward through Samaria into the southern or southeastern part of Galilee, so as to fall in with the pilgrims going from Galilee through Perea to Jerusalem. We thus again combine Luke's account with that of John in easy agreement. And this explains Luke's mention of Samaria first, which would be strange in describing a journey from Galilee through Samaria to Jerusalem, while the marginal translation, "between Samaria and Galilee," would be obscure and hard to account for. From this point he is making his final journey to Jerusalem, for the Passover of the crucifixion.

Luke 17:11–37

said unto them, Go and shew yourselves unto the priests [see Lev. 13:49; 14:1–3]. And it came to pass, as they went, they were cleansed. And 15 one of them, when he saw that he was healed, turned back, with a loud
16 voice glorifying God; and he fell upon his face at his feet, giving him 17 thanks: and he was a Samaritan. And Jesus answering said, Were not 18 the ten cleansed? but where are the nine? [3]Were there none found that 19 returned to give glory to God, save this [4]stranger? And he said unto him, Arise, and go thy way: thy faith hath [5]made thee whole.
20 And being asked by the Pharisees, when the kingdom of God cometh, he answered them and said, the kingdom of God cometh not with observa-
21 tion: neither shall they say, Lo, here! or, There! for lo, the kingdom of God is [6]within you.
22 And he said unto the disciples, The days will come, when ye shall desire to see one of the days of the Son of man, and ye shall not see it.
23 And they shall say to you, Lo, there! Lo, here! go not away, nor follow 24 after them: for as the lightning, when it lighteneth out of the one part under the heaven, shineth unto the other part under heaven; so shall 25 the Son of man be [7]in his day. But first must he suffer many things and 26 be rejected of this generation. And as it came to pass in the days of Noah, even so shall it be also in the days of the Son of man [see Gen. 6:11–13;
27 7, 21–23]. They ate, they drank, they married, they were given in marriage, until the day that Noah entered the ark, and the flood came, and 28 destroyed them all. Likewise even as it came to pass in the days of Lot; they ate, they drank, they bought, they sold, they planted, they builded 29 [see Gen 18:20–22]: but in the day that Lot went out from Sodom [see Gen.
30 19:24–25] it rained fire and brimstone from heaven, and destroyed them all: after the same manner shall it be in the day that the Son of 31 man is revealed. In that day, he which shall be on the housetop, and his goods in the house, let him not go down to take them away: and let him
32, 33 that is in the field likewise not return back. Remember Lot's wife [see Gen. 19:26]. Whosoever shall seek to gain his [8]life shall lose it: but who-34 soever shall lose his life shall [9]preserve it. I say unto you, In that night there shall be two men on one bed; the one shall be taken and the other 35 shall be left. There shall be two women grinding together; the one shall 37 be taken, and the other shall be left [10]. And they answering say unto him, Where, Lord? And he said unto them, Where the body is, thither will the [11]eagles also be gathered together.

[1] Or, as he was. [2] Or, between. [3] Or, There were none found . . . save this stranger. [4] Or, alien. [5] Or, saved thee. [6] Or, in the midst of you. [7] Some ancient authorities omit in his day. [8] Or, soul. [9] Or, save it alive. [10] Some ancient authorities add ver. 36 There shall be two men in the field: the one shall be taken, and the other shall be left. [11] Or, vultures.

§121. TWO PARABLES ON PRAYER (THE IMPORTUNATE WIDOW, THE PHARISEE AND THE PUBLICAN)

Luke 18:1–14

1 And he spake a parable unto them to the end that they ought always 2 to pray, and not to faint; saying, There was in a city a judge, which 3 feared not God, and regarded not man: and there was a widow in that city; and she came oft unto him, saying, [1]Avenge me of mine adversary.

Luke 18:1–14

4 And he would not for a while: but afterward he said within himself, 5 Though I fear not God, nor regard man; yet because this widow troubleth me, I will avenge her, lest she [2]wear me out by her continual coming.
6 And the Lord said, Hear what [3]the unrighteous judge saith. And shall 7 not God avenge his elect, which cry to him day and night, and he is long-8 suffering over them? I say unto you, that he will avenge them speedily.
Howbeit when the Son of man cometh, shall he find [4]faith on the earth?
9 And he spake also this parable unto certain which trusted in them-10 selves that they were righteous, and set [5]all others at nought: Two men went up into the temple to pray; the one a Pharisee, and the other a 11 publican. The Pharisee stood and prayed thus with himself, God, I thank thee, that I am not as the rest of men, extortioners, unjust, adulter-12 ers, or even as this publican. I fast twice in the week; I give tithes of all 13 that I get. But the publican, standing afar off, would not lift up so much as his eyes unto heaven, but smote his breast, saying, God, [6]be merciful 14 to me [7]a sinner. I say unto you, This man went down to his house justified rather than the other: for every one that exalteth himself shall be humbled; but he that humbleth himself shall be exalted.

§ 122. GOING FROM GALILEE THROUGH PEREA,* HE TEACHES CONCERNING DIVORCE

Mark 10:1–12

1 And he arose from thence, and cometh into the borders of Judea and beyond Jordan: and multitudes come together unto him again; and, as he was wont, he taught them again.

2 And there came unto him
Pharisees, and asked him, Is it lawful for a man to put away his 3 wife? tempting him. And he answered and said unto them,
What did Moses command you
4 [see Deut. 24:1]? And they said,

Matt. 19:1–12

1 And it came to pass, when Jesus had finished these words, he departed from Galilee, and came into the borders of Judea beyond 2 Jordan; and great multitudes followed him; and he healed them there.
3 And there came unto him
[1]Pharisees, tempting him, and saying, Is it lawful for a man to put away his wife for every cause?
4 And he answered and said, Have

* Matthew expressly states that he went from Galilee through Perea, and soon afterwards carries him forward to Jericho and Jerusalem. (Comp. Mark also.) Yet he says that Jesus did this when he had finished the parable of the unforgiving servant, which we have placed nearly six months earlier (§ 92). Luke here presently agrees with Matthew and Mark, and they go on together to the end, while heretofore Matthew and Mark have given us nothing since Jesus went to the Feast of Tabernacles. In one way or another we must suppose quite a break in their narrative. See Broadus' commentary on Matthew 19:1, and compare note 10 at end of Harmony.

Mark 10:1–12

Moses suffered to write a bill of divorcement, and to put her 5 away. But Jesus said unto them, For your hardness of heart he wrote you this commandment.
6 But from the beginning of the creation, Male and female made 7 he them [see Gen. 1:27]. For this cause shall a man leave his father and mother, [5]and shall 8 cleave to his wife; and the twain shall become one flesh [see Gen. 2:24]: so that they are no more 9 twain, but one flesh. What therefore God hath joined together, let 10 not man put asunder. And in the house the disciples asked him again of this matter.

11 And he saith unto them, Whosoever shall put away his wife, and marry another, committeth 12 adultery against her: and if she herself shall put away her husband, and marry another, she committeth adultery.

Matt. 19:1–12

ye not read, that he which [2]made them from the beginning made 5 them male and female, and said, For this cause shall a man leave his father and mother, and shall cleave to his wife; and the twain
6 shall become one flesh? So that they are no more twain, but one flesh. What therefore God hath joined together, let not man put asunder.
7 They say unto him, Why then did Moses command to give a bill of divorce-
8 ment, and to put her away? He saith unto them, Moses for your hardness of heart suffered you to put away your wives: but from the beginning it hath not been 9 so. And I say unto you, Whosoever shall put away his wife, [3]except for fornication, and shall marry another, committeth adultery: [4]and he that marrieth her when she is put away committeth 10 adultery. The disciples say unto him, If the case of the man is so with his wife, it is not expedient 11 to marry. But he said unto them, All men cannot receive this saying, but they to whom it is given.
12 For there are eunuchs which were so born from their mother's womb: and there are eunuchs, which were made eunuchs by men: and there are eunuchs, which made themselves eunuchs for the kingdom of heaven's sake. He that is able to receive it, let him receive it.

[1] Many authorities, some ancient, insert the. [2] Some ancient authorities read created. [3] Some ancient authorities read saving for the cause of fornication, maketh her an adulteress; as in ch. 5:32, § 43. [4] The following words, to the end of the verse, are omitted by some ancient authorities. [5] Some ancient authorities omit and shall cleave to his wife.

Thou shalt not steal, Thou shalt not bear

Mark 10:17–31

24 And the disciples were amazed at his words. But Jesus answereth again, and saith unto them, Children, how hard is it [9]for them that trust in riches to enter into the kingdom

26 And they were astonished exceedingly, saying [10]unto him, Then who can be

1 For the kingdom of heaven is like unto a man that is a householder, which went out early in the morning to hire labourers into his vine-
2 yard. And when he had agreed with the labourers for a [6]penny a day,
3 he sent them into his vineyard. And he went out about the third hour 4 and saw others standing in the marketplace idle; and to them he said, Go ye also into the vineyard, and whatsoever is right I will give you.
5 And they went their way. Again he went out about the sixth and the 6 ninth hour, and did likewise. And about the eleventh hour he went out, 7 and found others standing; and he saith unto them, Why stand ye here all the day idle? They say unto him, Because no man hath hired us.
8 He saith unto them, Go ye also into the vineyard. And when even was come, the lord of the vineyard saith unto his steward, Call the labourers, 9 and pay them their hire, beginning from the last unto the first. And when they came that were hired about the eleventh hour, they received every 10 man a [6]penny. And when the first came, they supposed that they would 11 receive more; and they likewise received every man a [6]penny. And when they received it, they murmured against the householder, saying, 12 These last have spent but one hour, and thou hast made them equal unto us, which have borne the burden of the day and the [7]scorching heat.
13 But he answered and said to one of them, Friend, I do thee no wrong:
14 didst not thou agree with me for a [6]penny? Take up that which is thine, and go thy way; it is my will to give unto this last, even as unto thee.
15 Is it not lawful for me to do what I will with mine own? or is thine eye 16 evil, because I am good? So the last shall be first, and the first last.

§ 125. JESUS AGAIN FORETELLS TO THE DISCIPLES HIS DEATH AND RESURRECTION (COMP. §§ 83, 85, 86, 88), AND REBUKES THE SELFISH AMBITION OF JAMES AND JOHN

33 Behold, we go up to Jerusalem; and the Son of man shall be delivered unto the chief priests and the scribes; and they shall condemn him to death, and shall deliver him unto the 34 Gentiles: and they shall mock him, and shall spit upon him, and shall scourge him, and shall kill him; and after three days he shall rise again.

35 And there come near unto him James and John, the sons of Zebedee, saying unto him, [a]Master, we would that thou shouldest do for us whatsoever we shall ask of thee. And he 36 said unto them, What would ye that I should 37 do for you? And they said unto him, Grant

he took the twelve disciples apart, and in the way he said unto them,

18 Behold, we go up to Jerusalem; and the Son of man shall be delivered unto the chief priests and scribes; and they shall condemn him 19 to death, and shall deliver him unto the Gentiles to mock, and to scourge, and to crucify; and the third day he shall be raised up.

20 Then came to him the mother of the sons of Zebedee with her sons, worshipping him, and asking a certain thing of him.

21 And he said unto her, What wouldest thou? She said unto him, Command that these my two sons may sit, one on thy right hand, and one on thy left hand, in thy kingdom.

Luke 18:31–34

31 And he took unto him the twelve, and said unto them, Behold, we go up to Jerusalem, and all the things that are written [a]by the prophets shall be accomplished unto the Son of man.

32 For he shall be delivered up unto the Gentiles, and shall be mocked, and shamefully entreated, and spit upon: and 33 they shall scourge and kill him: and the third day he shall 34 rise again. And they understood none of these things; and this saying was hid from them, and they perceived not the things that were said.

* He left Galilee in § 122, crossing the Jordan into Perea, probably in company with many Jews from Galilee (who regularly went this way to Jerusalem), and will now soon cross the river again and reach Jericho (§ 126).

40 but to sit on my right hand or on my left hand is not mine to give: but it is for them for whom it hath 41 been prepared. And when the ten heard it, they began to be moved with indignation concerning 42 James and John. And Jesus called them to him, and saith unto them, Ye know that they which are accounted to rule over the Gentiles lord it over them: and their great ones exercise authority over them.
43 But it is not so among you: but whosoever would become great among you, shall be your [1]minister:
44 and whosoever would be first among you, shall be [2]servant of

Matt. 20:17–28

22 But Jesus answered and said, Ye know not what ye ask. Are ye able to drink the cup that I am about to drink?

They say unto him, We are able.

23 He saith unto them, My cup indeed ye shall drink:

but to sit on my right hand, and on my left hand, is not mine to give, but it is for them for whom it hath been prepared of 24 my Father. And when the ten heard it, they were moved with indignation concerning the two 25 brethren. But Jesus called them unto him, and said, Ye know that the rulers of the Gentiles lord it over them, and their great ones 26 exercise authority over them. Not so shall it be among you; but whosoever would become great among 27 you shall be your [1]minister; and whosoever would be first among

50 he calleth thee. And he, casting away his garment, sprang up, and came to Jesus.

* Matthew mentions two blind men, while Mark and Luke describe one, probably the more conspicuous one.—The discrepancy as to place, "as he went out from Jericho," "as he drew nigh unto Jericho," is best explained by the recent suggestion that the healing occurred after he left the old Jericho, and as he was approaching the new Jericho which Herod the Great had built at some distance away. An older, and also possible explanation was that the blind men made application when he was approaching the city, but were not then healed, and only when he had left the city were they healed. (Comp. Matt. 15:23 ff., and Mark 8:22 f.)

§ 127. JESUS VISITS ZACCHÆUS, AND SPEAKS THE PARABLE OF THE POUNDS,* AND SETS OUT FOR JERUSALEM

Jericho

Luke 19:1–28

1, 2 And he entered and was passing through Jericho. And behold, a man called by name Zacchæus; and he was a chief publican, and he was 3 rich. And he sought to see Jesus who he was; and could not for the crowd, 4 because he was little of stature. And he ran on before, and climbed up 5 into a sycamore tree to see him: for he was to pass that way. And when Jesus came to the place, he looked up, and said unto him, Zacchæus, make 6 haste, and come down; for to-day I must abide at thy house. And he
7 made haste, and came down, and received him joyfully. And when they saw it, they all murmured, saying, He is gone in to lodge with a man that 8 is a sinner. And Zacchæus stood, and said unto the Lord, Behold, Lord, the half of my goods I give to the poor; and if I have wrongfully exacted
9 aught of any man, I restore fourfold [see Ex. 22:1; Num. 5:6–7]. And Jesus said unto him, To-day is salvation come to this house, forasmuch 10 as he also is a son of Abraham. For the Son of man came to seek and to save that which was lost [Ezek. 34:16].
11 And as they heard these things, he added and spake a parable, because he was nigh to Jerusalem, and because they supposed that the 12 kingdom of God was immediately to appear. He said therefore, A certain nobleman went into a far country, to receive for himself a king-
13 dom, and to return. And he called ten [1]servants of his, and gave them
14 ten [2]pounds, and said unto them, Trade ye herewith till I come. But his citizens hated him, and sent an ambassage after him, saying, We will not 15 that this man reign over us. And it came to pass, when he was come back again, having received the kingdom, that he commanded these [1]servants, unto whom he had given the money, to be called to him, that he might 16 know what they had gained by trading. And the first came before him, 17 saying, Lord, thy pound hath made ten pounds more. And he said unto him, Well done, thou good [3]servant: because thou wast found faithful in 18 a very little, have thou authority over ten cities. And the second came, 19 saying, Thy pound, Lord, hath made five pounds. And he said unto him 20 also, Be thou also over five cities. And [4]another came, saying, Lord, 21 behold, here is thy pound, which I kept laid up in a napkin: for I feared thee, because thou art an austere man: thou takest up that thou layedst not 22 down, and reapest that thou didst not sow. He saith unto him, Out of thine own mouth will I judge thee, thou wicked [3]servant. Thou knewest that I am an austere man, taking up that I laid not down, and reaping
23 that I did not sow; then wherefore gavest thou not my money into the bank, and [5]I at my coming should have required it with interest?
24 And he said unto them that stood by, Take away from him the pound, 25 and give it unto him that hath the ten pounds. And they said unto

* The similar parable of the Talents was given several days later. See § 139. On this first occasion the illustration has a specific design (ver. 11 f.), which will not appear on the second, viz., to check the wild enthusiasm of the multitude to make Jesus King in Jerusalem as they had once planned a year ago (John 6:15, § 73).

hath shall be given; but from him that hath not, even that which he hath not that I should reign over them, bring hither, and slay them before me.

28 And when he had thus spoken, he went on before, going up to Jerusalem.

THE LAST PUBLIC MINISTRY IN JERUSALEM

§ 128a. JESUS ARRIVES AT BETHANY,† NEAR JERUSALEM

Friday afternoon

John 11:55 to 12:1, 9–11

55 Now the passover of the Jews was at hand: and many went up to Jerusalem out of the country before the passover, to purify themselves.
56 They sought therefore for Jesus, and spake one with another, as they stood in the temple, What think ye? That he will not come to the 57 feast? Now the chief priests and the Pharisees had given commandment, that, if any man knew where he was, he should shew it, that they might take him.
1 Jesus therefore six days before the passover came to Bethany, where Lazarus was, whom Jesus raised from the dead.‡ 9 The common people therefore of the Jews learned that he was there:
and they came, not for Jesus' sake only, but that they might see Lazarus 10 also, whom he raised from the dead. But the chief priests took counsel 11 that they might put Lazarus also to death; because that by reason of him many of the Jews went away, and believed on Jesus.

In §§ 128b–138 we have the Saviour's movements and teachings on Sunday, Monday and Tuesday—the close of his public ministry, except the little that he said during the Jewish and Roman trial. All of his teaching thereafter will be given to his disciples.

‡ John (12:2–8) gives the supper in the house of Simon the leper at this stage, probably because it is the last mention of Bethany in his Gospel. It seems better to follow the order of Mark here in the location of the anointing of Jesus by Mary of Bethany.

§ Jesus now makes a formal challenge to the Jerusalem leaders who have so long opposed his claims. This was a Day of Triumph that seemed to the excited crowds to mean the establishment of a political Messianic Kingdom.

42 saying, [7]If thou hadst known in this day, even thou, the things which belong unto peace! but now

§ 129. THE BARREN FIG TREE CURSED, AND THE SECOND * CLEANSING OF THE TEMPLE. (COMP. § 31)

Bethany and Jerusalem (Monday). A Day of Messianic Power

Mark 11:12–18

12 And on the morrow, when they were come out from Bethany, he hungered.
13 And seeing a fig tree afar off having leaves, he came, if haply he might find anything thereon: and when he came to it, he found nothing but leaves; for it was not the season of figs.
14 And he answered and said unto it, No man eat fruit from thee henceforward for ever. And his disciples heard it.

§ 130. THE DESIRE OF SOME GREEKS TO SEE JESUS PUZZLES THE DISCIPLES AND LEADS JESUS IN AGITATION OF SOUL TO INTERPRET LIFE AND DEATH AS SACRIFICE AND TO SHOW HOW BY BEING "LIFTED UP" HE WILL DRAW ALL MEN TO HIM

Jerusalem (Monday)

John 12:20–50

20 Now there were certain Greeks among those that went up to worship 21 at the feast: these therefore came to Philip, which was of Bethsaida of 22 Galilee, and asked him saying, Sir, we would see Jesus. Philip cometh and telleth Andrew: Andrew cometh, and Philip, and they tell Jesus.

John 12:20–50

23 And Jesus answereth them, saying, The hour is come, that the Son of 24 man should be glorified. Verily, verily, I say unto you, Except a grain of wheat fall into the earth and die, it abideth by itself alone; but if it 25 die, it beareth much fruit. He that loveth his [1]life loseth it; and he that 26 hateth his [1]life in this world shall keep it unto life eternal. If any man serve me, let him follow me; and where I am, there shall also my servant 27 be: if any man serve me, him will the Father honour. Now is my soul troubled; and what shall I say [see Ps. 42:6]? Father, save me from this [2]hour. But for this cause came I unto this hour. Father, glorify thy 28 name. There came therefore a voice out of heaven, saying, I have both 29 glorified it, and will glorify it again. The multitude therefore, that stood by, and heard it, said that it had thundered: others said, An angel hath 30 spoken to him. Jesus answered and said, This voice hath not come for 31 my sake, but for your sakes. Now is [3]the judgement of this world: now 32 shall the prince of this world be cast out. And I, If I be lifted up [4]from 33 the earth, will draw all men unto myself. But this he said, signifying by 34 what manner of death he should die. The multitude therefore answered him, We have heard out of the law that the Christ abideth for ever: and how sayest thou, The Son of man must be lifted up? who is this Son of 35 man? Jesus therefore said unto them, Yet a little while is the light [5]among you. Walk while ye have the light, that darkness overtake you not: and he that walketh in the darkness knoweth not whither he goeth.
36 While ye have the light, believe on the light, that ye may become sons of light.

These things spake Jesus, and he departed and [6]hid himself from them.
37 But though he had done so many signs before them, yet they believed 38 not* on him: that the word of Isaiah the prophet might be fulfilled [see Isa. 53:1], which he spake,

Lord, who hath believed our report?
And to whom hath the arm of the Lord been revealed?

39 For this cause they could not believe, for that Isaiah said again, 40 He hath blinded their eyes, and he hardened their heart;
Lest they should see with their eyes, and perceive with their heart,
And should turn,
And I should heal them.

41 These things said Isaiah [see Isa. 6: 1, 10], because he saw his glory: and he 42 spake of him. Nevertheless even of the rulers many believed on him; but because of the Pharisees they did not confess [7]it, lest they should be 43 put out of the synagogue; for they loved the glory of men more than the glory of God.

44 And Jesus cried and said, He that believeth on me, believeth not on 45 me, but on him that sent me. And he that beholdeth me beholdeth 46 him that sent me. I am come a light into the world, that whosoever 47 believeth on me may not abide in the darkness. And if any man hear my sayings, and keep them not, I judge him not: for I came not to judge 48 the world, but to save the world. He that rejecteth me, and receiveth not my sayings, hath one that judgeth him: the word that I spake, the 49 same shall judge him in the last day. For I spake not from myself; but

§ 132. THE RULERS (SANHEDRIN) FORMALLY CHALLENGE* THE AUTHORITY OF JESUS AS AN ACCREDITED TEACHER (RABBI)

Jesus bases His human authority on John the Baptist, His Forerunner who baptized him, and demands the Sanhedrin's opinion of the Baptism of John. This pertinent counter-question paralyzes the Jewish leaders and Jesus drives His argument home by three parables. (a) Parable of the Two Sons. (b) Parable of the Wicked Husbandmen. (c) Parable of the Marriage Feast of the King's Son.

In the court of the Temple. (Tuesday†) A Day of Controversy

1 And it came to pass, on one of the days, as he was teaching the people in the temple, and preaching the gospel, there came upon him the chief priests and the scribes

3 And he answered and said unto them, I also will ask you a [1]question; and tell me:
4 The baptism of John, was it from heaven, or from men?

5 And they reasoned with them-

* It was very common to test a Rabbi with hard questions. See this continued in the following sections. In like manner the Fourth Gospel gave us much animated dialogue between Jesus and the Jews at Jerusalem in chap. 5, and chap. 7–10. The Sanhedrin were within their rights in challenging the ecclesiastical and scholastic (scribal) standing of Jesus. He did not dodge in his answer.

† On this last day of Christ's public ministry the Sanhedrin seek to break the power of Jesus with the people whose hero he is since the Triumphal Entry. The first attempt fails miserably, but it is followed by a series of other efforts to entrap Jesus and so turn the crowd against him. The three parables leave the rulers exposed by Jesus and they keenly feel the denunciation of the reply of Jesus.

Mark 11:27–12:12

32 [7]But should we say, From men—they feared the people: [8]for all verily held John selves, saying, If we shall say, From heaven; he will say unto us, Why then did ye 26 not believe him? But if we shall say, From men; we fear the multitude; for all hold John as a prophet.

27 And they answered Jesus, and said, We know not.

He also said unto them, Neither tell I you by what authority I do these things.
28 But what think ye? A man had two sons; And he came to the first, and said, [2]Son, go work to-day in the 29 vineyard. And he answered and said, I will not: but afterward he repented himself, and went.
30 And he came to the second, and said likewise. And he answered and said, I go, sir: and went not.
31 Whether of the twain did the will of his father? They say, The first. Jesus saith unto them, Verily I say unto you, that the publicans and the harlots go into the kingdom of God be-

Mark 11:27–12:12

1 And he began to speak unto them in parables. A man planted a vineyard, and set a hedge about it, and digged a pit for the wine-press, and built a tower, and let it out to husbandmen, and went into another country.

2 And at the season he sent to the husbandmen a [s]servant, that he might receive from the husbandmen of the fruits of the vine-
3 yard. And they took him, and beat him, and sent him away
4 empty. And again he sent unto them another [s]servant: and him they wounded in the head, and handled 5 shamefully. And he sent another; and him they killed: and many others; beating some,
6 and killing some. He had yet one, a beloved son: he sent him last unto them, saying, they will reverence
7 my son. But those husbandmen said among themselves, This is the heir; come, let us kill him, and the inheritance shall be ours.

33 Hear another parable: There was a man that was a householder, which planted a vineyard, and set a hedge about it, and digged a wine-press in it, and built a tower, and let it out to husbandmen, and went into another country.

34 And when the season of the fruits drew near, he sent his [s]servants to the husbandmen, to receive [t]his fruits.
35 And the husbandmen took his [s]servants, and beat one, and killed another, and stoned another.
36 Again, he sent other [s]servants more than the first: and they did unto them in like manner.

37 But afterward he sent unto them his son, saying, They will reverence my son.

38 But the husbandmen, when they saw the son, said among themselves, This is the heir; come let us kill him and take his inheritance.

39 And they took him, and cast him forth out of the vineyard, and 10 time. And at the season he sent unto the husbandmen a [s]servant, that they should give him of the fruit of the vineyard: but the husbandmen beat him, and sent him away empty.

11 And he sent yet another [s]servant: and him also they beat, and handled him shamefully, and sent him away empty.
12 And he sent yet a third: and him also they wounded, and 13 cast him forth. And the Lord of the vineyard said, What shall I do? I will send my beloved son: it may be they will reverence him.

14 But when the husbandmen saw him, they reasoned one with another, saying, This is the heir: let us kill him, that the inheritance may 15 be ours. And they cast him forth out of the vineyard, and killed him. What

The same was made the head of the corner:

And it is marvellous in our eyes?
43 Therefore say I unto you, the kingdom of God shall be taken away from you, and shall be given to a nation bringing forth the fruits thereof.

1 And Jesus answered and spake again in parables unto them, saying,
2 The kingdom of heaven is likened unto a certain king, which made a 3 marriage feast for his son, and sent forth his [3]servants to call them that
4 were bidden to the marriage feast: and they would not come. Again he sent forth other [3]servants, saying, tell them that are bidden, Behold, I have made ready my dinner: my oxen and my fatlings are killed, and all
5 things are ready; come to the marriage feast. But they made light of it, and went their ways, one to his own farm, another to his merchandise:
6 and the rest laid hold on his [3]servants, and entreated them shamefully, 7 and killed them. But the king was wroth; and he sent his armies, and 8 destroyed those murderers, and burned their city. Then saith he to his [3]servants, The wedding is ready, but they that were bidden were not 9 worthy. Go ye therefore unto the partings of the highways, and as many 10 as ye shall find, bid to the marriage feast. And those [3]servants went out into the highways, and gathered together all as many as they found, both 11 bad and good: and the wedding was filled with guests. But when the king came in to behold the guests, he saw there a man which had not on a 12 wedding-garment; and he saith unto him, Friend, how camest thou in hither not having a wedding-garment? And he was speechless. Then 13 the king said to the [6]servants, Bind him hand and foot, and cast him out into the outer darkness; there shall be the weeping and gnashing of teeth.
14 For many are called, but few chosen.

22 third likewise: and the seven left no seed. Last of all the woman also died.
23 In the resurrection whose wife shall she be of them? for the seven had her to 24 wife. Jesus said unto them, Is it not for this cause that ye err, [4]that ye know not the scriptures, nor the power of God?

25 For when they shall rise from the dead, they neither marry, nor are given in marriage; but are as angels in heaven.

Matt. 22:23–33

there is no resurrec-

25 Now there were with us seven brethren: and the first married and deceased, and having no seed left his wife 26 unto his brother: in like manner the second also, and the third, unto the [4]sev-

28 In the resurrection therefore whose wife shall she be of the seven? for they all

§ 135. THE PHARISEES REJOICE OVER THE ROUT OF THE SADDUCEES AND A PHARISAIC LAWYER ASKS JESUS A LEGAL QUESTION

In the Court of the Temple. (Tuesday)

Mark 12:28–34

28 And one of the scribes came, and heard them questioning together, and knowing that he had answered them well, asked him,

What commandment is the first of all 29 [see Deut. 6:4]? Jesus answered, The first is, Hear, O Israel; [2]The Lord our God [see Deut. 6:4], the 30 Lord is one: and thou shalt love the Lord thy God [4]with all thy heart, and [4]with all thy soul, and [4]with all thy mind, and [4]with all 31 thy strength [see Deut. 6:5]. The second is this, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself [see Lev.

Matt. 22:34–40

34 But the Pharisees, when they heard that he had put the Sadducees to silence, gathered them-35 selves together. And one of them, a lawyer, asked him a question, 36 tempting him, [1]Master, which is the great commandment in the law? And he said unto him,

37 Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, 38 and with all thy mind. This is the great and first commandment.
39 [2]And a second like unto it is this, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as

Mark 12:28–34

32 And the scribe said unto him, Of a truth, [1]Master, thou hast well said that he is one; and there is none other but he: and to 33 love him with all the heart, and with all the understanding, and with all the strength, and to love his neighbour as himself, is much more than all whole burnt offerings and sacrifices [see 1 Sam. 15: 22].

§ 136. JESUS, TO THE JOY OF THE MULTITUDE, SILENCES HIS ENEMIES BY THE PERTINENT QUESTION OF THE MESSIAH'S DESCENT FROM DAVID AND LORDSHIP OVER DAVID

In the Court of the Temple. (Tuesday)

Mark 12:35–37

35 And Jesus answered and said, as he taught in the temple, How say the scribes that the Christ is the son of David?

36 David himself said in the Holy Spirit, [see Ps. 110:1],
The Lord said unto my Lord,
Sit thou on my right hand,
Till I make thine enemies [1]the footstool of thy feet.

Matt. 22:41–46

41 Now while the Pharisees were gathered together, Jesus asked them a ques-42 tion, saying, What think ye of the Christ? whose son is he? They say unto him, The son of David.
43 He saith unto them, How then doth David in the Spirit call him Lord, saying,
44 The Lord said unto my Lord,
Sit thou on my right hand,
Till I put thine enemies underneath thy feet?

Luke 20:41–44

41 And he said unto them,
How say they that the Christ is David's son?

42 For David himself saith in the book of Psalms,
The Lord said unto my Lord,
Sit thou on my right hand,
43 Till I make thine enemies the footstool of thy feet.

Mark 12:35–37	Matt. 22:41–46	Luke 20:41–44
37 David himself calleth him Lord; and whence is he his son? And [c]the common people heard him gladly.	45 If David then calleth him Lord, how is he 46 his son? And no one was able to answer him a word, neither durst any man from that day forth ask him any more questions.	44 David therefore calleth him Lord, and how is he his son?

* Jesus has been criticised for lack of self-control in this exposure of the hypocrisy of the Pharisees. One must bear in mind the tremendous sins of which the Pharisees are guilty. 9 And call no man your father on the earth: for one is your Father, [2]which 10 is in heaven. Neither be ye called masters: for one is your master, even the 11 Christ. But he that is [3]greatest among you shall be your 12 [4]servant. And whosoever shall exalt himself shall be humbled; and whosoever shall humble himself shall be exalted.

13 But woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! because ye shut the kingdom of heaven [5]against men: for ye enter not in yourselves, neither suffer ye them that are entering in to enter.[6]

15 Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye compass sea and land to make one proselyte; and when he is become so, ye make him twofold more a son of [7]hell than yourselves.

16 Woe unto you, ye blind guides, which say, Whosoever shall swear by the [8]temple, it is nothing; but whosoever shall swear by the gold of the 17 [8]temple he is [9]a debtor. Ye fools and blind: for whether is greater, the 18 gold, or the [8]temple that hath sanctified the gold? And, Whosoever shall swear by the altar, it is nothing; but whosoever shall swear by the 19 gift that is upon it, he is [9]a debtor. Ye blind: for whether is greater, the 20 gift, or the altar that sanctified the gift? He therefore that sweareth 21 by the altar, sweareth by it, and by all things thereon. And he that sweareth by the [8]temple, sweareth by it, and by him that dwelleth therein.
22 And he that sweareth by the heaven, sweareth by the throne of God, and by him that sitteth thereon.
23 Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye tithe mint and [10]anise and cummin [see Lev. 27:30; Mic. 6:8], and have left undone the weightier matters of the law, judgement, and mercy, and faith: but these 24 ye ought to have done, and not to have left the other undone. Ye blind guides, which strain out the gnat, and swallow the camel.
25 Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye cleanse the outside of the cup and of the platter, but within they are full from ex-26 tortion and excess. Thou blind Pharisee, cleanse first the inside of the cup and of the platter, that the outside thereof may become clean also.
27 Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye are like unto whited sepulchres, which outwardly appear beautiful, but inwardly are 28 full of dead men's bones, and of all uncleanness. Even so ye also outwardly appear righteous unto men, but inwardly ye are full of hypocrisy and iniquity.
29 Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye build the sepulchres of the prophets, and garnish the tombs of the righteous, and 30 say, If we had been in the days of our fathers, we should not have been 31 partakers with them in the blood of the prophets. Wherefore ye witness 32, 33 to yourselves, that ye are sons of them that slew the prophets. Fill ye up then the measure of your fathers. Ye serpents, ye offspring of vipers, 34 how shall ye escape the judgement of [7]hell? Therefore, behold, I send unto you prophets, and wise men, and scribes: some of them shall ye kill and crucify: and some of them shall ye scourge in your synagogues, and 35 persecute from city to city: that upon you may come all the righteous blood shed on the earth, from the blood of Abel the righteous unto the blood of Zachariah son of Barachiah, whom ye slew between the sanctuary 36 and the altar [see Gen. 4:8; 2 Chron. 24: 20–21]. Verily I say unto you, All these things shall come upon this generation.
37 O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, which killeth the prophets, and stoneth them that are sent unto her! how often would I have gathered thy children together, even as a hen gathereth her chickens under her wings, and ye 38 would not! Behold, your house is left unto you [11]desolate [see Jer. 12:7; 39 22:5]. For I say unto you, Ye shall not see me henceforth, till ye shall say, blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord [see Ps. 118:26].

§ 138. JESUS CLOSELY OBSERVES* THE CONTRIBUTIONS IN THE TEMPLE, AND COMMENDS THE POOR WIDOW'S GIFT

(Tuesday)

Mark 12:41–44

41 And he sat down over against the treasury, and beheld how the multitude cast [1]money into the treasury: and many that were 42 rich cast in much. And there came [2]a poor widow, and she cast in two mites, which make a 43 farthing. And he called unto him his disciples, and said unto them, Verily I say unto you, This poor widow cast in more than all they which are casting into the 44 treasury: for they all did cast in of their superfluity; but she of her want did cast in all that she had, even all her living.

Luke 21:1–4

1 And he looked up, [3]and saw the rich men that were casting their 2 gifts into the treasury. And he saw a certain poor widow casting in thither two mites.

3 And he said, Of a truth I say unto you,
This poor widow cast in more 4 than they all: for all these did of their superfluity cast in unto the gifts: but she of her want did cast in all the living that she had.

* Notice that this was the last occurrence in the Saviour's public ministry, except the trial and the crucifixion. This is the last appearance of Jesus in the Temple. His public teaching is over save the words of defence in his trial and the seven sayings on the Cross. The Pharisees and Sadducees had withdrawn in terror at the explosion of the wrath of Jesus and even the disciples were at some distance as Jesus sat alone by the treasury. It is useless further to plead with his enemies. The task now remains to get the disciples prepared for the Master's death and the time is short and they as yet have completely failed to grasp the fact or the significance of his death and the promise of his resurrection on the third day.

IN THE SHADOW WITH JESUS

§§ 139–152. Jesus now seeks to prepare the disciples for the tragedy of His death and for carrying on His work after His departure.

§ 139. SITTING ON THE MOUNT OF OLIVES, JESUS SPEAKS TO HIS DISCIPLES ABOUT THE DESTRUCTION OF JERUSALEM, AND HIS OWN SECOND COMING, IN APOCALYPTIC LANGUAGE. THE GREAT ESCHATOLOGICAL DISCOURSE*

* This great discourse has as its background the death of Christ. Further on as part punishment for this crime lies the destruction of Jerusalem. This catastrophe is itself a symbol of the end of the world and in one sense a coming of Christ in power and judgment. But Christ boldly predicts his own personal return to earth, though the time is not revealed. But he does exhort an expectant attitude toward the promises of his coming and readiness for his return which will be at an unexpected hour. Jesus employs the common Jewish apocalyptic imagery to portray this most difficult subject. Some scholars insist that Jesus was himself merely a wild enthusiast who was carried away by the Messianic hopes of his people, but that is a one-sided and distorted view of Christ's life and ignores the great mass of his ethical teaching. It forgets also that Jesus has a world program of conquest and of power. The various aspects of the discourse are not kept distinct. Some think that the Gospels have misunderstood or misrepresented Jesus in this discourse. But we can catch the general drift of the teaching and leave alone minute details of time and place against which Jesus himself warned us.

3 And as he sat on the mount of Olives over against the temple, Peter and James and John and Andrew asked him privately,
4 Tell us, when shall these things be? and what shall be the sign when these things are all about to be accom-
5 plished? And Jesus began to say unto them, Take heed that no man lead you astray.
6 Many shall come in my name, saying, I am he; and shall lead many astray.

8 And he said, Take heed that ye be not led astray: for many shall come in my name, saying, I am he; and, The time is at hand: go ye not after them.
9 And when ye shall hear of wars and tumults, be not terrified: for these things must needs come to pass first; but the end is not immediately.

Parable of the Ten Virgins.

1 Then shall the kingdom of heaven be likened unto ten virgins, which took their [1]lamps, and went forth 2 to meet the bridegroom. And five of them were 3 foolish, and five were wise. For the foolish, when 4 they took their [1]lamps, took no oil with them: but the 5 wise took oil in their vessels with their [1]lamps. Now while the bridegroom tarried, they all slumbered and 6 slept. But at midnight there is a cry, Behold, the 7 bridegroom! Come ye forth to meet him. Then all those virgins arose, and trimmed their [1]lamps.
8 And the foolish said unto the wise, Give us of your 9 oil; for our [1]lamps are going out. But the wise answered, saying, Peradventure there will not be enough 10 for us and you: go ye rather to them that sell, and buy for yourselves. And while they went away to buy, the bridegroom came; and they that were ready went in with him to the marriage feast: and the door was 11 shut. Afterward, come also the other virgins, saying, 12 Lord, Lord, open to us. But he answered and said, 13 Verily I say unto you, I know you not. Watch therefore, for ye know not the day nor the hour.

Parable of the Talents

14 For it is as when a man, going into another country, called his own [2]servants, and delivered unto them his 15 goods. And unto one he gave five talents, to another two, to another one; to each according to his several 16 ability; and he went on his journey. Straightway he that received the five talents went and traded with 17 them, and made other five talents. In like manner 18 he also that received the two gained other two. But he that received the one went away and digged in the 19 earth, and hid his lord's money. Now after a long time the lord of those [2]servants cometh and maketh 20 a reckoning with them. And he that received the five talents came and brought other five talents, saying, Lord, thou deliveredst unto me five talents: lo, 21 I have gained other five talents. His lord said unto him, Well done, good and faithful [3]servant: thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will set thee over 22 many things; enter thou into the joy of thy lord. And he also that received the two talents came and said, Lord, thou deliveredst unto me two talents: lo, I have 23 gained other two talents. His lord said unto him, Well done, good and faithful [3]servant; thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will set thee over many 24 things: enter thou into the joy of thy lord. And he also that had received the one talent came and said, Lord, I knew thee that thou art a hard man, reaping where thou didst not sow, and gathering where thou 25 didst not scatter: and I was afraid, and went away and hid thy talent in the earth: lo, thou hast thine 26 own. But his lord answered and said unto him, Thou wicked and slothful [3]servant, thou knowest that I reap where I sowed not, and gather where I did not 27 scatter; thou oughtest therefore to have put my money to the bankers, and at my coming I should have re-28 ceived back mine own with interest. Take ye away therefore the talent from him, and give it unto him 29 that hath the ten talents. For unto every one that hath shall be given, and he shall have abundance:

but from him that hath not, even that which he hath 30 shall be taken away. And cast ye out the unprofitable [3]servant into the outer darkness: there shall be the weeping and gnashing of teeth.

6 Picture of the Judgment with Parable of the Sheep and the Goats.

31 But when the Son of man shall come in his glory, and all the angels with him [see Zech. 14:5], then 32 shall he sit on the throne of his glory: and before him shall be gathered all the nations: and he shall separate them one from another, as the shepherd separateth 33 the sheep from the [4]goats; and he shall set the sheep 34 on his right hand, but the [4]goats on the left. Then shall the King say unto them on his right hand, Come, ye blessed of my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world: 35 for I was an hungred, and ye gave me meat: I was thirsty, and ye gave me drink: I was a stranger, and 36 ye took me in; naked, and ye clothed me: I was sick, and ye visited me: I was in prison, and ye came unto 37 me. Then shall the righteous answer him, saying,
Lord, when saw we thee an hungred, and fed thee?
38 or athirst, and gave thee drink? And when saw we thee a stranger, and took thee in? or naked, and 39 clothed thee? And when saw we thee sick, or in 40 prison, and came unto thee? And the King shall answer and say unto them, Verily I say unto you, Inasmuch as ye did it unto one of these my brethren, 41 even these least, ye did it unto me. Then shall he say also unto them on the left hand, [5]Depart from me, ye cursed, into the eternal fire which is prepared for 42 the devil and his angels: for I was an hungred, and ye gave me no meat: I was thirsty, and ye gave me 43 no drink: I was a stranger, and ye took me not in:

45 not minister unto thee? Then shall he answer them, saying, Verily, I say unto you, Inasmuch as ye did it not unto one of these least, ye did it not unto me.

§ 140. JESUS PREDICTS HIS CRUCIFIXION TWO DAYS HENCE (JEWISH FRIDAY)

Probably at Bethany on Tuesday evening (beginning of Jewish Wednesday). The Rulers in Jerusalem plot His death

Mark 14:1–2

1 Now after two days was the feast of the passover and the unleavened bread:

and the chief priests and the scribes sought how they might take him with subtilty,

2 and kill him: for they said, Not during the feast, lest haply there shall be a tumult of the people.

Matt. 26:1–5

1 And it came to pass, when Jesus had finished all these words, he said unto
2 his disciples, Ye know that after two days the passover cometh, and the Son of man is delivered up to be 3 crucified. Then were gathered together the chief priests, and the elders of the people, unto the court of the high priest, who was called Caiaphas: and 4 they took counsel together that they might take Jesus by subtilty, and kill him.
5 But they said, Not during the feast, lest a tumult arise among the people.

Luke 22:1–2

1 Now the feast of unleavened bread drew nigh, which is called the Passover.

2 And the chief priests and the scribes sought how they might put him to death; for they feared the people.

§ 141. AT THE FEAST IN THE HOUSE OF SIMON THE LEPER MARY OF BETHANY ANOINTS JESUS FOR HIS BURIAL

At Bethany (Tuesday evening, Jewish Wednesday)

Mark 14:3–9

3 And while he was in Bethany in the house of Simon the leper, as he sat at meat, there came a woman having [1]an alabaster cruse of ointment of [2]spikenard very costly, and she brake the cruse, and poured it over 4 his head. But there were some that had indignation among themselves, saying, To what purpose hath this waste of the ointment been made?
5 For this ointment might have been sold for above three hundred [3]pence, and given to the poor. And they murmured
6 against her. But Jesus said, Let her alone, why trouble ye her? she hath wrought a good work on me.
7 For ye have the poor always with you, and whensoever ye will ye can do them good: but me ye have not

Matt. 26:6–13

6 Now when Jesus was in Bethany, in the house of Simon
7 the leper, there came unto him a woman having an alabaster cruse of exceeding precious ointment, and she poured it upon his head as he 8 sat at meat. But when the disciples saw it, they had indignation, saying,

To what purpose is this waste?
9 For this ointment might have been sold for much, and given to the poor.

10 But Jesus perceiving it said unto them, Why trouble ye the woman? for she hath wrought a good work 11 upon me. For ye have the poor always with you; but me you have not always.
12 For in that she poured this ointment upon

2 So they made him a supper there: and Martha served; but Lazarus was one of them that sat at meat
3 with him. Mary* therefore took a pound of ointment of [2]spikenard, very precious, and anointed the feet of Jesus, and wiped his feet with her hair: and the house was filled with the odour of the ointment.
4 But Judas Iscariot, one of his disciples, which should betray him, 5 saith, Why was not this ointment sold for three hundred [3]pence, and given to the 6 poor? Now this he said, not because he cared for the poor; but because he was a thief, and having the [4]bag [5]took away what was put therein.
7 Jesus therefore said, [6]Suffer her to keep it against the day of 8 my burying. For the poor ye have al-

* This anointing has nothing in common with that given by Luke (§ 59), except the fact of a woman anointing the Saviour's feet, and the name Simon, which was common. The former was in Galilee, this is at Bethany near Jerusalem. There the host despised the woman who anointed, here her brother is one of the guests, and her sister an active attendant. There the woman was "a sinner," a notoriously bad woman, here it is the devout Mary who "sat at the Lord's feet and heard his word" months before (§ 104). There the host thought strange that Jesus allowed her to touch him, here the disciples complain of the waste. There the Saviour gave assurance of forgiveness, here of perpetual and world-wide honor. Especially notice that here the woman who anoints is anticipating his speedy death and burial, of which at the former time he had never distinctly spoken. In view of all these differences it is absurd to represent the two anointings as the same, and outrageous on such slender ground to cast reproach on Mary of Bethany.

Mark 14:3–9

§ 142. JUDAS, STUNG BY THE REBUKE OF JESUS AT THE FEAST, BARGAINS WITH THE RULERS TO BETRAY JESUS

Tuesday Night in Jerusalem

Mark 14:10–11

10 And Judas Iscariot, [1]he that was one of the twelve, went away unto the chief priests,

that he might deliver him unto them.

11 And they, when they heard it, were glad, and promised to give him money.

And he sought how he might conveniently deliver him unto them.

Matt. 26:14–16

14 Then one of the twelve, who was called Judas Iscariot, went unto the chief priests, and said,

15 What are ye willing to give me, and I will deliver him unto you?

And they weighed unto him thirty pieces
16 of silver [see Zech. 11:12]. And from that time he sought opportunity to deliver him unto them.

Luke 22:3–6

3 And Satan entered into Judas who was called Iscariot, being of the number of the 4 twelve. And he went away, and communed with the chief priests and captains, how he might deliver him unto them.

5 And they were glad, and covenanted to give him
6 money. And he consented, and sought opportunity to deliver him unto them [2]in the absence of the multitude.

[1] Gr., the one of the twelve. [2] Or, without tumult.

§ 143. THE PREPARATION FOR THE PASCHAL MEAL AT THE HOME OF A FRIEND (POSSIBLY THAT OF JOHN MARK'S FATHER AND MOTHER)

Jerusalem, Thursday* afternoon. (A Day of Preparation)

Mark 14:12–16

12 And on the first day of unleavened bread, when they sacrificed the passover, his disciples say unto him, Where wilt thou that we go and make ready that thou mayest eat the passover [see Ex. 12:18– 13 20]? And he sendeth two of his disciples, and saith unto them,

Go into the city, and there shall meet you a man bearing a pitcher of water: follow him;
14 and wheresoever he shall enter in, say to the goodman of the house, The [1]Master saith, Where is my guest-chamber, where I shall eat the passover with my dis-15 ciples? And he will himself shew you a large upper room furnished and ready: and there make ready for 16 us. And the disciples went forth, and came

Matt. 26:17–19

17 Now on the first day of unleavened bread the disciples came to Jesus, saying,

Where wilt thou that we make ready for thee to eat the 18 passover? And he said,

Go into the city to such a man, and say unto him,

The [1]Master saith, My time is at hand; I keep the passover at thy house with my disciples.

19 And the disciples did as

Luke 22:7–13

7 And the day of unleavened bread came, on which the passover must be sacrificed.

8 And he sent Peter and John, saying, Go and make ready for us the passover, that we may 9 eat. And they said unto him, Where wilt thou that we make 10 ready? And he said unto them, Behold, when ye are entered into the city, there shall meet you a man bearing a pitcher of water; follow him into the house where-11 into he goeth. And ye shall say unto the goodman of the house, The [1]Master saith unto thee, Where is the guest-chamber, where I shall eat the passover with my disciples?
12 And he will shew you a large upper room furnished: there make ready.

13 And they went,

§ 144. JESUS PARTAKES OF THE PASCHAL MEAL WITH THE TWELVE APOSTLES AND REBUKES THEIR JEALOUSY

Jerusalem, Thursday evening after sunset (beginning of Jewish Friday)

Mark 14:17	Matt. 26:20	Luke 22:14–16, 24–30
17 And when it was evening he cometh with the twelve.	20 Now when even was come he was sitting at meat with the twelve [1]disciples;	14 And when the hour was come, he sat down, and the apos-

15 tles with him. And he said unto them, With desire I have desired to eat 16 this passover* with you before I suffer: for I say unto you, I will not eat it, until it be fulfilled in the kingdom of God.
24 And there arose also a contention among them, which of them is ac-25 counted to be [2]greatest. And he said unto them, The kings of the Gentiles have lordship over them; and they that have authority over them 26 are called Benefactors. But ye shall not be so: but he that is the greater among you, let him become as the younger; and he that is chief, as he 27 that doth serve. For whether is greater, he that [3]sitteth at meat, or he that serveth? is not he that [3]sitteth at meat? but I am in the midst of you 28 as he that serveth. But ye are they which have continued with me in 29 my temptations; and [4]I appoint unto you a kingdom, even as my Father appointed unto me, that ye may eat and drink at my table in my king-30 dom; and ye shall sit on thrones judging the twelve tribes of Israel.

[1] Many authorities, some ancient, omit disciples. [2] Gr. greater. [3] Gr. reclineth. [4] Or, I appoint unto you, even as my Father appointed unto me a kingdom, that ye may eat and drink, etc.

§ 145. DURING THE PASCHAL MEAL, JESUS WASHES THE FEET OF HIS DISCIPLES

Evening before the Crucifixion (our Thursday, Jewish Friday)

John 13:1–20

1 Now before† the feast of the passover, Jesus knowing that his hour was come that he should depart out of this world unto the Father, having

* Some regard certain expressions in the Gospel of John as showing that Jesus did not eat the Paschal meal, thus hopelessly contradicting the other Gospels. But no one of John's expressions shows what is supposed, and one of them really indicates the contrary. See note at end of volume. Matthew, Mark, and Luke clearly show that he did eat the regular Passover meal.

† It is needlessly inferred that John by this expression means that it was a full day before the passover meal. In fact, the words in verse 2 "during supper" rather imply that "before passover" was just before the meal began.

John 13:1–20

loved his own which were in the world, he loved them [1]unto the end.
2 And during supper, the devil having already put into the heart of Judas
3 Iscariot, Simon's son, to betray him, Jesus, knowing that the Father had given all things into his hands, and that he came forth from God and 4 goeth unto God, riseth from supper, and layeth aside his garments; and 5 he took a towel and girded himself. Then he poured water into the bason, and began to wash the disciples' feet, and to wipe them with the 6 towel wherewith he was girded. So he cometh to Simon Peter. He saith 7 unto him, Lord, dost thou wash my feet? Jesus answered and said unto him, What I do thou knowest not now; but thou shalt understand here-
8 after. Peter saith unto him, Thou shalt never wash my feet. Jesus 9 answered him, If I wash thee not, thou hast no part with me. Simon Peter saith unto him, Lord, not my feet only, but also my hands and my 10 head. Jesus saith to him, He that is bathed needeth not [2]save to wash 11 his feet, but is clean every whit: and ye are clean, but not all. For he knew him that should betray him; therefore said he, Ye are not all clean.
12 So when he had washed their feet, and taken his garments, and [3]sat
13 down again, he said unto them, Know ye what I have done to you? Ye 14 call me, [4]Master, and, Lord: and ye say well; for so I am. If I then, the Lord and the [4]Master, have washed your feet, ye also ought to wash one 15 another's feet. For I have given you an example, that ye also should 16 do as I have done to you. Verily, verily, I say unto you, A [5]servant is not greater than his lord; neither [6]one that is sent greater than he that 17 sent him. If ye know these things, blessed are ye if ye do them. I
18 speak not of you all: I know whom I [7]have chosen: but that the scripture may be fulfilled, He that eateth [8]my bread lifted up his heel against me 19 [see Ps. 41:9]. From henceforth I tell you before it come to pass, that,
20 when it is come to pass, ye may believe that [9]I am he. Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that receiveth whomsoever I send receiveth me; and he that receiveth me receiveth him that sent me.

[1] Or, to the uttermost. [2] Some ancient authorities omit save, and his feet. [3] Gr. reclined. [4] Or, Teacher. [5] Gr. bond-servant. [6] Gr. an apostle. [7] Or, chose. [8] Many ancient authorities read his bread with me. [9] Or, I am.

§ 146. AT THE PASCHAL MEAL JESUS POINTS OUT JUDAS AS THE BETRAYER

Thursday evening (Jewish Friday)

Mark 14:18–21

18 And as they [1]sat and were eating, Jesus said, Verily I say unto you, One of you shall betray me, even he that eateth with me [see Ps. 41:9].

Matt. 26:21–25

21 and as they were eating, he said, Verily I say unto you, that one of you shall betray me.

Luke 22:21–23

21 But behold, the hand of him that betrayeth me is with me on the 22 table. For the Son of man indeed goeth, as it hath been determined: but woe unto

John 13:21–30

21 When Jesus had thus said, he was troubled in the spirit and testified, and said, Verily, verily, I say unto you, that one of you shall betray me.

Mark 14:18–21

19 They began to be sorrowful, and to say unto him one by one, Is it I?

20 And he said unto them, It is one of the twelve, he that dippeth with me in the dish.
21 For the Son of man goeth, even as it is written of him: but woe unto that man through whom the Son of man is betrayed! good were it for that man if he had not been born.

Matt. 26:21–25

22 And they were exceeding sorrowful, and began to say unto him every one, Is it I, Lord?
23 And he answered and said, He that dipped his hand with me in the dish, the same shall betray me.
24 The Son of man goeth, even as it is written of him: but woe unto that man through whom the Son of man is betrayed! good were it for that man if he had not been born.

25 And Judas, which betrayed him,

Luke 22:21–23

that man through whom he is betrayed!
23 And they began to question among themselves, which of them it was that should do this thing.

John 13:21–30

22 The disciples looked one on another, doubting of whom he spake.

23 There was at the table reclining in Jesus' bosom one of his disci-24 ples, whom Jesus loved. Simon Peter therefore beckoneth to him, and saith unto him, Tell us who 25 it is of whom he speaketh. He leaning back, as he was, on Jesus' breast saith unto him, 26 Lord, who is it? Jesus therefore answereth, He it is, for whom I shall dip the sop, and give it him. So when he had dipped the sop, he taketh and giveth it to Judas, the son of Simon Iscariot.

Matt. 26:21–25

answered and said, Is it I, Rabbi? He saith unto him, Thou hast said.

John 13:21–30

27 And after the sop, then entered Satan into him. Jesus therefore saith unto him, That thou doest, 28 do quickly. Now no man at the table knew for what intent he spake 29 this unto them. For some thought, because Judas had the [2]bag, that Jesus said unto him, Buy what things we have need of for the feast: or,
30 that he should give something to the poor. He then having received the sop went out straightway: and it was night.

[1] Gr. him if that man. [2] Or. box.

§ 147. AFTER THE DEPARTURE OF JUDAS JESUS WARNS THE DISCIPLES (PETER IN PARTICULAR) AGAINST DESERTION, WHILE ALL PROTEST THEIR LOYALTY

John 13:31–38

31 When therefore he was gone out, Jesus saith, Now [1]is the Son of man glorified, and God [1]is glorified in him;
32 and God shall glorify him in himself, and straightway shall he glorify 33 him. Little children, yet a little while I am with you. Ye shall seek me: and as I said unto the Jews, Whither I go, ye cannot come; so now I say unto you

§ 148. JESUS INSTITUTES THE MEMORIAL OF EATING BREAD AND DRINKING WINE

Jerusalem. Evening before the Crucifixion

	Luke* 22:17–20
	17 And he received a cup, and when he had given thanks he said, Take this, and divide it among your- 18 selves: for I say unto you, I will not drink from henceforth of

* Luke here (see § 144) departs from the order of Mark (and Matthew) and mentions the institution of the supper earlier in the evening. It seems best to follow the chronology of Mark, who places it after the departure of Judas.

Mark 14:22–25

22 And as they were eating, he took [1]bread, and when he had blessed, he brake it, and gave to them, and said, Take ye: this is my body.

23 And he took a cup, and when he had given thanks, he gave to them, and they all drank of it.

24 And he said unto them, This is my blood of [2]the [4]covenant which is shed for many [see Ex. 24:8; Lev. 4:18–20; Jer. 31:31; Zech. 9:

25 11]. Verily I say unto you, I will no more drink of the fruit of the vine, until that day when I drink it new in the kingdom of God.

Matt. 26:26–29

26 And as they were eating, Jesus took [1]bread, and blessed, and brake it; and he gave to the disciples, and said, Take, eat; this is my body.

27 And he took [2]a cup, and gave thanks, and gave to them, saying, Drink ye all of it;

28 for this is my blood of [2]the [4]covenant, which is shed for many unto remission of 29 sins. But I say unto you, I will not drink henceforth of this fruit of the vine, until that day when I drink it new with you in my Father's kingdom.

Luke 22:17–20

the fruit of the vine until the kingdom of God shall come.

19 And he took [1]bread, and when he had given thanks, he brake it, and gave to them, saying, This is my body [5]which is given for you: this do in remembrance of 20 me. And the cup in like manner after supper, saying, This cup is the new [6]covenant in my blood, even that which is poured out for you.

1 Cor.* 11–23:26

23 For I received of the Lord that which also I delivered unto you, how that the Lord Jesus in the night in which he was betrayed took 24 bread; and when he had given thanks, he brake it, and said, This is my body, which [7]is for you: this do in remembrance of me.

25 In like manner also the cup, after supper, saying, This cup is the new [6]covenant in my blood: this do, as oft as ye drink it, in remembrance of 26 me. For as often as ye eat this bread, and drink the cup, ye proclaim the Lord's death till he come.

[1] Or, a loaf. [2] Some ancient authorities read the cup. [3] Or, the testament. [4] Many ancient authorities insert new. [5] Some ancient authorities omit which is given for you...which is poured out for you. [6] Or, testament. [7] Many ancient authorities read is broken for you.

* These are two parallel reports of the institution of the supper. Mark is followed by Matthew and 1 Corinthians (about A.D. 56) by Luke (not earlier than A.D. 58).

§ 149. THE FAREWELL DISCOURSE TO HIS DISCIPLES IN THE UPPER ROOM

Jerusalem

John 14*

1 Let not your heart be troubled: [1]ye believe in God, believe also in me.
2 In my Father's house are many [2]mansions; if it were not so, I would have 3 told you; for I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a 4 place for you, I come again, and will receive you unto myself; that where 5 I am there ye may be also. [3]And whither I go, ye know the way. Thomas saith unto him, Lord, we know not whither thou goest; how know we the 6 way? Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, and the truth, and the life:
7 no one cometh unto the Father, but [4]by me. If ye had known me, ye would have known my Father also: from henceforth ye know him, and have seen 8 him. Philip saith unto him, Lord, shew us the Father, and it sufficeth us.
9 Jesus saith unto him, Have I been so long time with you, and dost thou not know me, Philip? he that hath seen me hath seen the Father; how sayest 10 thou, Shew us the Father? Believest thou not that I am in the Father, and the Father in me? the words that I say unto you I speak not from myself: 11 but the Father abiding in me doeth his works. Believe me that I am in the Father and the Father in me: or else believe me for the very works' 12 sake. Verily, verily, I say unto you, he that believeth on me, the works that I do shall he do also; and greater works than these shall he do; because 13 I go unto the Father. And whatsoever ye shall ask in my name, that 14 will I do, that the Father may be glorified in the Son. If ye shall ask [5]me 15 anything in my name, that will I do. If ye love me, ye will keep my com-16 mandments. And I will [6]pray the Father, and he shall give you another [7]Comforter, that he may be with you for ever, even the Spirit of truth:
17 whom the world cannot receive; for it beholdeth him not, neither knoweth 18 him: ye know him; for he abideth with you, and shall be in you. I will 19 not leave you [8]desolate: I come unto you. Yet a little while, and the world beholdeth me no more; but ye behold me: because I live, [9]ye shall 20 live also. In that day ye shall know that I am in my Father, and ye in 21 me, and I in you. He that hath my commandments, and keepeth them, he it is that loveth me: and he that loveth me shall be loved of my Father, 22 and I will love him, and will manifest myself unto him. Judas (not Iscariot) saith unto him, Lord, what is come to pass that thou wilt manifest 23 thyself unto us, and not unto the world? And Jesus answered and said unto him, If a man love me, he will keep my word: and my Father will love him, and we will come unto him, and make our abode with him.
24 He that loveth me not keepeth not my words: and the word which ye hear is not mine, but the Father's who sent me.
25 These things have I spoken unto you, while yet abiding with you.
26 But the [7]Comforter, even the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, he shall teach you all things, and bring to your remembrance 27 all that I said unto you. Peace I leave with you; my peace I give unto

* Chapters 13 to 17 in John really belong together. There is first the effort of Jesus to stop the bickerings of the Twelve, then his warning and their reply. Jesus continues to address them with repeated interruption (dialogue), but finally they fear to ask him further (monologue). The discourse concludes with the wonderful prayer (the real Lord's Prayer) in chapter 17.

John 14

you: not as the world giveth, give I unto you. Let not your heart be 28 troubled, neither let it be fearful. Ye heard how I said to you, I go away, and I come unto you. If ye loved me, ye would have rejoiced, because 29 I go unto the Father: for the Father is greater than I. And now I have told you before it come to pass, that, when it is come to pass, ye may 30 believe. I will no more speak much with you, for the prince of the world 31 cometh: and he hath nothing in me; but that the world may know that I love the Father, and as the Father gave me commandment, even so I do. Arise, let us go hence.*

§ 150. THE DISCOURSE ON THE WAY TO GETHSEMANE

Possibly on the Street

John 15 and 16†

1 I am the true vine, and my Father is the husbandman. Every branch
2 in me that beareth not fruit, he taketh it away: and every branch that 3 beareth fruit, he cleanseth it, that it may bear more fruit. Already ye 4 are clean because of the word which I have spoken unto you. Abide in me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit of itself, except it 5 abide in the vine; so neither can ye, except ye abide in me. I am the vine, ye are the branches: He that abideth in me, and I in him, the same beareth 6 much fruit: for apart from me ye can do nothing. If a man abide not in me, he is cast forth as a branch, and is withered; and they gather them, 7 and cast them into the fire, and they are burned. If ye abide in me, and my words abide in you, ask whatsoever ye will, and it shall be done unto 8 you. Herein [1]is my Father glorified, [2]that ye bear much fruit: and so 9 shall ye be my disciples. Even as the Father hath loved me, I also have 10 loved you: abide ye in my love. If ye keep my commandments, ye shall abide in my love; even as I have kept my Father's commandments, and 11 abide in his love. These things have I spoken unto you, that my joy 12 may be in you, and that your joy may be fulfilled. This is my command-13 ment, that ye love one another, even as I have loved you. Greater love 14 hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends. Ye 15 are my friends, if ye do the things which I command you. No longer do I call you [3]servants; for the [4]servant knoweth not what his lord doeth:
but I have called you friends; for all things that I heard from my Father 16 I have made known unto you. Ye did not choose me, but I chose you, and appointed you, that ye should go and bear fruit, and that your fruit should abide: that whatsoever ye shall ask of the Father in my name, 17, 18 he may give it you. These things I command you, that ye may love one another. If the world hateth you, [5]ye know that it hath hated me 19 before it hated you. If ye were of the world, the world would love its own;
but because ye are not of the world, but I chose you out of the world,

* Apparently they leave the Upper Room.

† Chapters 14–17 are called the Heart of Christ. Nowhere does the Master lay bare his very soul more completely than here in chapters 15 and 16, with the allegory of the Vine and the teaching concerning the Holy Spirit.

John 15 and 16

20 therefore the world hateth you. Remember the word that I said unto you, A [4]servant is not greater than his lord. If they persecuted me, they will also persecute you; if they keep my word, they will keep yours also.
21 But all these things will they do unto you for my name's sake, because 22 they know not him that sent me. If I had not come and spoken unto them, they had not had sin: but now they have no excuse for their sin.
23, 24 He that hateth me hateth my Father also. If I had not done among them the works which none other did, they had not had sin: but now 25 have they both seen and hated both me and my Father. But this cometh to pass, that the word may be fulfilled that is written in their law, They 26 hated me without a cause [see Ps. 35:19; 69:4]. But when the [6]Comforter is come, whom I will send unto you from the Father, even the Spirit of truth, which [7]proceedeth from the Father, he shall bear witness of me: 27 [8]and ye also bear witness, because ye have been with me from the beginning.

1 These things have I spoken unto you that ye should not be made to 2 stumble. They shall put you out of the synagogues: yea, the hour cometh, that whosoever killeth you shall think that he offereth service unto God.
3 And these things will they do, because they have not known the Father, 4 nor me. But these things have I spoken unto you, that when their hour is come, ye may remember them, how that I told you. And these things 5 I said not unto you from the beginning, because I was with you. But now
I go unto him that sent me; and none of you asketh me, Whither goest 6 thou? But because I have spoken these things unto you, sorrow hath 7 filled your heart. Nevertheless I tell you the truth; It is expedient for you that I go away: for if I go not away, the [6]Comforter will not come 8 unto you; but if I go, I will send him unto you. And he, when he is come, 9 will convict the world in respect of sin, and of righteousness, and of judge-
10 ment: of sin, because they believe not on me: of righteousness, because I 11 go to the Father, and ye behold me no more; of judgement, because the 12 prince of this world hath been judged. I have yet many things to say 13 unto you, but ye cannot bear them now. Howbeit when he, the Spirit of truth, is come, he shall guide you into all the truth: for he shall not speak from himself; but what things soever he shall hear, these shall he speak: and he shall declare unto you the things that are to come.
14 He shall glorify me: for he shall take of mine, and shall declare it unto 15 you. All things whatsoever the Father hath are mine: therefore said I, 16 that he taketh of mine, and shall declare it unto you. A little while, and ye behold me no more; and again a little while, and ye shall see me.
17 Some of his disciples therefore said one to another, What is this that he saith unto us, A little while, and ye behold me not; and again a little 18 while, and ye shall see me: and, Because I go to the Father? They said 19 therefore, What is this that he saith, A little while? We know not what he saith. Jesus perceived that they were desirous to ask him, and he said unto them, Do ye inquire among yourselves concerning this, that I said, A little while, and ye behold me not, and again a little while, and ye 20 shall see me? Verily, verily, I say unto you, that ye shall weep and lament, but the world shall rejoice: ye shall be sorrowful, but your sorrow 21 shall be turned into joy. A woman when she is in travail hath sorrow

John 15 and 16

because her hour is come: but when she is delivered of the child, she remembereth no more the anguish, for the joy that a man is born into the 22 world. And ye therefore now have sorrow: but I will see you again, and your heart shall rejoice, and your joy no one taketh away from you 23 [see Isa. 66:14]. And in that day ye shall [9]ask me nothing. Verily, verily, I say unto you, If ye shall ask anything of the Father, he will give 24 it you in my name. Hitherto have ye asked nothing in my name: ask and ye shall receive, that your joy may be fulfilled.
25 These things have I spoken unto you in [10]proverbs: the hour cometh, when I shall no more speak unto you in [10]proverbs, but shall tell you 26 plainly of the Father. In that day ye shall ask in my name: and I say 27 not unto you, that I will [11]pray the Father for you; for the Father himself loveth you, because ye have loved me, and have believed that I came 28 forth from the Father. I came out from the Father, and am come into 29 the world: again, I leave the world, and go unto the Father. His disciples 30 say, Lo, now speakest thou plainly, and speakest no [12]proverb. Now know we that thou knowest all things, and needest not that any man should 31, 32 ask thee: by this we believe that thou camest forth from God. Jesus answered them, Do ye now believe? Behold, the hour cometh, yea, is come, that ye shall be scattered, every man to his own, and shall leave 33 me alone: and yet I am not alone, because the Father is with me. These things have I spoken unto you, that in me ye may have peace. In the world ye have tribulation: but be of good cheer; I have overcome the world.

§151. CHRIST'S INTERCESSORY PRAYER

Possibly near Gethsemane

John 17

1 These things spake Jesus; and lifting up his eyes to heaven, he said, 2 Father, the hour is come; glorify thy Son, that the Son may glorify thee:
even as thou gavest him authority over all flesh, that whatsoever thou 3 hast given him, to them he should give eternal life. And this is life eternal, that they should know thee the only true God, and him whom thou didst 4 send, even Jesus Christ. I glorified thee on the earth, having accomplished 5 the work which thou hast given me to do. And now, O Father, glorify thou me with thine own self with the glory which I had with thee before 6 the world was. I manifested thy name unto the men whom thou gavest me out of the world: thine they were, and thou gavest them to me; and 7 they have kept thy word. Now they know that all things whatsoever
8 thou hast given me are from thee: for the words which thou hast given me
I have given unto them; and they received them, and knew of a truth that I came forth from thee, and they believed that thou didst send me.
9 I [1]pray for them: I [1]pray not for the world, but for those whom thou 10 hast given me; for they are thine: and all things that are mine are thine, 11 and I am glorified in them. And I am no more in the world, and these are in the world, and I come to thee. Holy Father, keep them in thy name 12 which thou hast given me, that they may be one, even as we are. While I was with them, I kept them in thy name which thou hast given me: and I guarded them, and not one of them perished, but the son of perdition; 13 that the scripture might be fulfilled [see Ps. 41:9]. But now I come to thee:

John 17

and these things I speak in the world, that they may have my joy fulfilled 14 in themselves. I have given them thy word; and the world hated them, 15 because they are not of the world, even as I am not of the world. I [1]pray not that thou shouldest take them [2]from the world, but that thou shouldest 16 keep them [2]from [3]the evil one. They are not of the world, even as I am 17 not of the world. [4]Sanctify them in the truth: thy word is truth. As 18 thou didst send me into the world, even so sent I them into the world.
19 And for their sakes I [4]sanctify myself, that they themselves also may be 20 sanctified in truth. Neither for these only do I [1]pray, but for them also 21 that believe on me through their word; that they may all be one; even as thou, Father, art in me, and I in thee, that they also may be in us: that 22 the world may believe that thou didst send me. And the glory which thou hast given me I have given unto them; that they may be one, even 23 as we are one; I in them, and thou in me, that they may be perfected into one; that the world may know that thou didst send me, and lovedst them, 24 even as thou lovedst me. Father, [5]that which thou hast given me, I will that, where I am, they also may be with me; that they may behold my glory, which thou hast given me: for thou lovedst me before the foundation 25 of the world. O righteous Father, the world knew thee not, but I knew 26 thee; and these knew that thou didst send me; and I made known unto them thy name, and will make it known; that the love wherewith thou lovedst me may be in them, and I in them.

* The Synoptic Gospels do not give the great discourse of Jesus in John 14 to 17. Hence they represent Jesus as going forth to Gethsemane after the institution of the supper (§ 148). The time was probably not long and they apparently sang the hymn (probably one of the Psalms) as they rose to leave the Upper Room (John 14:31). Hence the passage in John 15 to 17 comes in between singing the hymn and reaching Gethsemane.

Mark 14:26, 32–42

32 And they come unto [1]a place which was named Gethsemane: and he saith unto his disciples, Sit ye here, while I pray.

33 And he taketh with him Peter and James and John, and began to be greatly amazed, and sore
34 troubled. And he saith unto them, My soul is exceeding sorrowful even unto death [see Ps. 42:6]: abide ye here, and watch.
35 And he went forward a little, and fell on the ground, and prayed that, if it were possible, the hour might pass away
36 from him. And he said, Abba, Father, all things are possible unto thee; remove this cup from me: howbeit not what I will, but what thou wilt.

Matt. 26:30, 36–46

36 Then cometh Jesus with them unto [1]a place called Gethsemane, and saith unto his disciples, Sit ye here, while I go yonder and

38 Then saith he unto them, My soul is exceeding sorrowful, even unto death: abide ye here, and watch with

Judas then, having received the [a]band of soldiers, and officers from the chief priests and the Pharisees, cometh thither with lanterns and torches and weapons. 4 Jesus therefore, knowing all the things that were coming upon him, went forth, and saith unto them, Whom

6 When therefore he said unto them, I am he, they went backward, and fell to the ground.
7 Again therefore he asked them, Whom seek ye? And they said, Jesus of Naza-

52 his ear. Then saith Jesus unto him, Put up again thy sword into its place: for all they that take the sword shall perish with 50 And a certain one of them smote the [2]servant of the high priest, and struck off his right ear.

51 But Jesus answered and said, Suffer ye thus far. And he touched his ear, and healed him.

John 18:2–12

10 Simon Peter therefore having a sword drew it, and struck the high priest's [2]servant, and cut off his right ear. Now the [2]servant's name was Malchus.
11 Jesus therefore said unto Peter, Put up the sword into the sheath: the cup which the Father hath given me, shall I not drink it?

The Jewish Trial and related occurrences, §§ 154–162.

Friday before dawn

John 18:12–14, 19–23

12 So the [1]band and the [2]chief captain, and the officers of the Jews, seized 13 Jesus and bound him, and led him to Annas first; for he was father in 14 law to Caiaphas, which was high priest that year. Now Caiaphas was he which gave counsel to the Jews, that it was expedient that one man should die for the people.
19 The high priest therefore asked Jesus of his disciples, and of his teach-20 ing. Jesus answered him, I have spoken openly to the world; I ever taught in [3]synagogues, and in the temple, where all the Jews come together; 21 and in secret spake I nothing. Why askest thou me? ask them that have 22 heard me, what I spake unto them: behold, these know the things which I said. And when he had said this one of the officers standing by struck 23 Jesus [4]with his hand, saying, Answerest thou the high priest so? Jesus answered him, If I have spoken evil, bear witness of the evil; but if well, why smitest thou me?

This man said, I am able to destroy the [1]temple of God, and to build it in three days [see John 2:19].

§ 156. PETER THRICE* DENIES HIS LORD

COURT OF THE HIGH-PRIEST'S RESIDENCE, DURING THE SERIES OF TRIALS

Friday before and about dawn

54 And Peter had followed him afar off,	58 But Peter followed him afar off,	54 But Peter followed afar off.	15 And Simon Peter followed Jesus, and so did another disciple. Now that disciple was known unto the high priest, and entered in with Jesus into the court of the high priest; 16 but Peter was standing at the door without. So the other disciple, which was known unto the high priest, went out and spake unto her that kept the door, and brought in Peter. 17 The maid therefore that kept the door saith unto Peter, Art thou also one of this man's disciples? He saith, I am even within, into the court of the high priest;	unto the court of the high priest, and entered in,

*Each of the four Gospels records three denials; but the details differ considerably, as must always be the case where in each narrative a few facts are selected out of many sayings and doings. We have seen (footnote on § 154) that there were three stages of the Jewish trial, (1) before Annas (2) before Caiaphas and the Sanhedrin for informal examination, (3) before them in a formal trial. Now John gives only the first of the three stages, Luke only the last, Matthew and Mark give the second stage fully, and the third in brief mention. If Peter's denials ran through all three (and Luke says in ver. 59 that there was an hour between his second and third denials), then no one of the four Gospels could give each of the denials precisely at the time of its occurrence; and so each Gospel merely throws them together, as in another way we here bring them together in one section. There is no difficulty about the substantial fact of the denials; and we must be content with our inability to arrange all the circumstances into a complete programme.

and he was sitting with the officers, and warming himself in the light of the fire.	and sat with the officers, to see the end.	55 And when they had kindled a fire in the midst of the court, and had sat down together, Peter sat in the midst of them.
66 And as Peter was beneath in the court, there cometh one of the maids of the high priest;	69 Now Peter was sitting without in the court: and a maid came unto him, saying,	56 And a certain maid seeing him as he sat in the light of the fire, and looking stedfastly upon him, said, This man also was with him.	25 Now Simon Peter was standing and warming himself. They said therefore unto him, Art thou also one of his disciples?

67 council, saying, If thou art the Christ, tell us. But he said unto them, If I tell you, ye will not be-

69 But from henceforth shall the Son of man be seated on the right hand of the power of God [see Ps. 110:1; Dan. 7:13].

And he cast down the pieces of silver into the sanctuary, and departed; and he went 6 away and hanged himself. And the chief priests took the pieces of silver, and said, It is not lawful to put them into the [2]treasury, since it is the price of blood [see Deut. 23:18]. 7 And they took counsel, and bought with them the potter's 8 field, to bury strangers in. Wherefore that field was called, The field of blood, unto this day. 9 Then was fulfilled that which was spoken [3]by Jeremiah the prophet, saying, And [4]they took the thirty pieces of silver, the price of him that was priced, [5]whom certain of 10 the children of Israel did price; and [6]they gave them for the potter's field, as the Lord appointed me [see Zech. 11:13; Jer. 18:2; 19:2; 32:6–15].

Pilate therefore said unto them, Take him yourselves, and judge him according to your law. The Jews said unto him, It is not lawful for us to put any man to death: 32 that the word of Jesus might be fulfilled, which he spake signifying by what manner of death he should die. 33 Pilate therefore entered again into the [3]palace, and called Jesus, and said unto him,

§ 160. JESUS BEFORE HEROD ANTIPAS THE TETRARCH

Jerusalem. Friday, early morning

Luke 23:6–12

6 But when Pilate heard it, he asked whether the man were a Galilæan.
7 And when he knew that he was of Herod's jurisdiction, he sent him unto Herod, who himself also was at Jerusalem in these days.
8 Now when Herod saw Jesus, he was exceeding glad: for he was of a long time desirous to see him, because he had heard concerning him;*
9 and he hoped to see some [1]miracle done by him. And he questioned
10 him in many words; but he answered him nothing. And the chief priests 11 and the scribes stood, vehemently accusing him. And Herod with his soldiers set him at nought, and mocked him, and arraying him in gor-12 geous apparel sent him back to Pilate. And Herod and Pilate became friends with each other that very day: for before they were at enmity between themselves.

§ 161. JESUS THE SECOND TIME BEFORE PILATE

Pilate slowly and reluctantly and in fear surrenders to the demand of the Sanhedrin for the crucifixion of Christ.

Friday toward sunrise (John 19:14)

Mark 15:6–15

6 Now at [1]the feast he used to release unto them one prisoner, whom they asked of 13 And Pilate called together the chief priests and the rulers and the 14 people, and said unto them, Ye brought unto me this man, as one that perverteth the people: and behold, I, having examined him before you, found no fault in this man touching those things whereof ye accuse him:

		15 no, nor yet Herod: for he sent him back unto us; and behold, nothing worthy of death hath been done by him.
	17 When therefore they were gathered together, Pilate said unto them, Whom will ye that I release unto you? Barabbas, or Jesus which is called		39 But ye have a custom, that I should release unto you one at the passover: will ye therefore that I release unto you the King of the Jews?
9 And Pilate answered them, saying, Will ye that I release unto you the King of the Jews?	18 Christ? For he knew that for envy they had delivered	16 I will therefore chastise him, and release him.
10 For he perceived that for envy the chief priests

	21 But the governor answered and said unto them, Whether of the twain will ye that I release unto you? And they said, Barabbas.	18 But they cried out all together, saying, Away with this man, and release unto us	40 They cried out therefore again, saying, Not this man, but Barabbas. Now Barabbas was a robber.
		19 Barabbas: one who for a certain insurrection made in the city, and for murder, was cast into prison.
			1 Then Pilate therefore took Jesus, and scourged him. 2 And the soldiers plaited a crown of thorns, and put it on his head, and arrayed him in a purple 3 garment; and they came unto him, and said, Hail, King of the Jews! and they struck him with their 4 hands. And Pilate went out again, and saith unto them, Behold, I bring him out to you, that ye may know that I find no crime 5 in him. Jesus therefore came out, wearing the crown of thorns and the purple garment. And Pilate saith unto them, Behold, the man!

12 And Pilate again answered and said unto them, What then shall I do unto him whom ye call the King of 13 the Jews? And they cried out again, Crucify 14 him. And Pilate said unto them, Why, what evil hath he done?	22 Pilate saith unto them, What then shall I do unto Jesus which is called Christ? They all say, Let him be crucified. 23 And he said, Why, what evil hath he done?	20 And Pilate spake unto them again, desiring to release Jesus; 21 but they shouted, saying, Crucify, crucify 22 him. And he said unto them the third time, Why, what evil hath this man done? I have found no cause	6 When therefore the chief priests and the officers saw him, they cried out, saying, Crucify him, crucify him. Pilate saith unto them, Take him yourselves, and crucify him, for I find

9 saying, he was the more afraid; and he entered into the [s]palace again, 10 and saith unto Jesus, Whence art thou? But Jesus gave him no answer.
Pilate therefore saith unto him, Speakest thou not unto me? knowest thou not that I have [t]power to release thee, and have [t]power to crucify 11 thee? Jesus answered him, Thou wouldest have no [t]power against me, except it were given thee from above: therefore he that delivered me unto thee hath greater sin.
12 Upon this Pilate sought to release him: but the Jews cried out, saying,
If thou release this man, thou art not Cæsar's friend: every one that 13 maketh himself a king [s]speaketh against Cæsar. When Pilate therefore heard these words, he brought Jesus out, and sat down on the judgement 14 seat at a place called The Pavement, but in Hebrew, Gabbatha. Now it was the Preparation of the passover: it was about the sixth hour.* And he saith unto the Jews, Behold, your King!

* It appears that John, who wrote in Asia Minor, long after the destruction of Jerusalem, makes the day begin at midnight, as the Greeks and Romans did. We seem compelled so to understand him in 20:19 (comp. Luke 24:29–39); and in no passage of his Gospel is that view unsuitable. Here then we understand that Pilate passed the sentence about sunrise, which at the Passover, near the vernal equinox, would be 6 o'clock. The intervening three hours might be occupied in preparations, and the Crucifixion occurred at 9 o'clock, viz. the third hour as counted by the Jews (Mark 15:25).

Mark 15:6–15	Matt. 27:15–26	Luke 23:13–25	John 18:39–19:16

	25 ye to it. And all the people answered and said, His blood be on us, and on our children.*
15 And Pilate, wishing to content the multitude,		24 And Pilate gave sentence that what they asked for should

[1] Or, a feast. [2] Some ancient authorities read of this blood; see ye, etc. [3] Gr. Prætorium. See Mark 15:16. [4] Or, palace. [5] Many ancient authorities insert ver. 17 Now he must needs release unto them at the feast one prisoner. Others add the same words after ver. 19. [6] Or, with rods. [7] Or, authority. [8] Or, opposeth Cæsar.

* Pilate, of course, could not escape full legal and moral responsibility for his cowardly surrender to the Sanhedrin to keep his own office. The guilt of the Sanhedrin (both Pharisees and Sadducees unite in the demand for the blood of Jesus) is beyond dispute. It is impossible to make a mere political issue out of it and to lay all the blame on the Sadducees, who feared a revolution. The Pharisees began the attacks against Jesus on theological and ecclesiastical grounds. The Sadducees later joined the conspiracy against Christ. Judas was a mere tool of the Sanhedrin, who had his resentments and grievances to avenge. There is guilt enough for all the plotters in the greatest wrong of the ages.

§ 162. THE ROMAN SOLDIERS MOCK* JESUS

Friday, between 6 and 9 A.M.

Mark 15:16–19

16 And the soldiers led him away within the court, which is the [4]Prætorium; and they call together 17 the whole [2]band. And they clothe him with purple, and plaiting a crown of thorns, they put it on 18 him; and they began to salute him, Hail, King of the Jews!
19 And they smote his head with a reed, and did spit upon him, and bowing their knees worshipped him.

Matt. 27:27–30

27 Then the soldiers of the governor took Jesus into the [1]palace, and gathered unto him the whole 28 [2]band. And they [3]stripped him, and put on him a scarlet robe.
29 And they plaited a crown of thorns and put it upon his head, and a reed in his right hand; and they kneeled down before him, and mocked him, saying, Hail, King
30 of the Jews! And they spat upon him, and took the reed and smote him on the head.

† Golgotha is the Aramaic word for "skull," and Calvary is the Latin word. The place cannot have been where the so-called "Church of the Holy Sepulchre" stands, far within the walls. There is of late a rapidly growing agreement that it was the northern end of the Temple hill, whose rounded summit (without the city wall), and southern face with holes in the rock, looks at a little distance much like a skull. This place fulfils all the conditions.

29 For behold, the days are coming, in which they shall say, Blessed are the barren, and the wombs that never bare, and the breasts that never gave

§ 164. THE FIRST THREE HOURS ON THE CROSS

From nine A.M. *till noon on Friday (three sayings of Jesus; the soldiers gambling for the garment of Jesus; the inscription on the Cross; the scoffing of Jesus by the multitude, the Sanhedrin, the soldiers, and even by the two robbers on each side of Christ)

And parting his garments a-	18 where they crucified him, and with him two others, on either side one, and Jesus in the midst. 23 The soldiers therefore, when they had crucified Jesus, took his garments,

* It is not easy to tell the precise order of the events during this period of three hours, since the Gospels do not present them in the same detail or order. On the whole it has seemed best simply to follow Mark's arrangement as we have done uniformly in the Harmony. Thus the apparent order of the sayings is (1) The Prayer for Christ's enemies in Luke 23:34. (2) The Promise to the Repentant Robber in Luke 23:43. (3) The Charge to the Mother of Jesus and to the Beloved Disciple in John 19:26, 27. These three sayings are with reference to others.

25 And it was the third hour, and they crucified him.	37 And they set up over his head his accusation written, THIS IS JESUS THE KING OF THE JEWS.	38 And there was also a superscription over him, THIS IS THE KING OF THE JEWS.	19 And Pilate wrote a title also, and put it on the cross. And there was written, JESUS OF NAZARETH,
26 And the superscription of his accusation was written over, THE KING OF THE JEWS.			THE KING OF 20 THE JEWS. This title therefore read many of the Jews: [7]for the place where Jesus was crucified was nigh to the city: and it was written in Hebrew, and

§ 167. THE BURIAL OF THE BODY OF JESUS IN THE TOMB OF JOSEPH OF ARIMATHEA AFTER PROOF OF HIS DEATH

Friday afternoon before 6 P.M.

Mark 15:42–46	Matt. 27:57–60	Luke 23:50–54	John 19:31–42
			31 The Jews, therefore, because it was the Preparation, that the bodies should not remain on the cross upon the sabbath (for the day of that sabbath was a high day), asked of Pilate that their legs might be broken, and that they might be taken away. 32 The soldiers therefore came, and brake the legs of the first, and of the 33 other which was crucified with him: but when they came to Jesus, and saw that he was dead already, they brake not his legs: howbeit one of 34 the soldiers with a spear pierced his side, and straightway there came out 35 blood and water. And he that hath seen hath borne witness, and his witness is true: and he knoweth that he saith true, that ye also may 36 believe. For these things came to pass, that the scripture might be fulfilled [see Ex. 12:46; Num. 9:12; Ps. 34:20], A bone of him shall not 37 be [3]broken. And again another scripture saith [see Zech. 12:10. Deut. 21:22–23; Ex. 34:24], They shall look on him whom they pierced.
42 And when even was now come, because it was the Preparation, that is, the day before the sab- 43 bath, there came Joseph of Arimathæa, a councillor of honourable estate,	57 And when even was come, there came a rich man from Arimathæa, named Joseph,	50 And behold, a man named Joseph, who was a councillor, a good man and a 51 righteous (he	38 And after these things Joseph of Arimathæa,

who also himself was looking for the kingdom of God;	who also himself was Jesus' disciple:		being a disciple of Jesus, but secretly for fear of the Jews, asked of Pilate that he might take away the body of Jesus: and

§ 168. THE WATCH OF THE WOMEN BY THE TOMB OF JESUS

The women maintain their watch and rest on the Sabbath (beginning 6 P.M.) while the Pharisees have a guard of Roman soldiers to keep watch over the Roman seal on the tomb.

Friday afternoon till Saturday afternoon

Mark 15:47	Matt. 27:61–66	Luke 23:55–56

		56 And they returned, and prepared spices and ointments. And on the sabbath* they rested

* Luke (23:54) notes that "the Sabbath drew on" after the burial on Friday afternoon. The Sabbath began at 6 P.M. Then Luke notes that the women rested during the Sabbath (our Friday night and Saturday).

according to the commandment [see Ex. 12:16; 20:8–11; Deut. 5:12–15].

62 Now on the morrow, which is the day after the Preparation, the chief priests and the Pharisees were gathered together unto Pilate, saying, Sir, we remem-
63 ber that that deceiver said, while he was yet alive, After three days I rise again. Com-
64 mand therefore that the sepulchre be made sure until the third day, lest haply his disciples come and steal him away, and say unto the people, He is risen from the dead: and the last 65 error will be worse than the first. Pilate said unto them, [1]Ye have a guard: go your way, 66 [2]make it as sure as ye can. So they went, and made the sepulchre sure, sealing the stone, the guard being with them.

[1] Or, take a guard. [2] Gr. make it sure, as ye know.

PART XIV

THE RESURRECTION, APPEARANCES, AND ASCENSION OF CHRIST

During forty days beginning with Sunday after the death of Christ. Spring of A.D. 30 (or 29). Judea and Galilee. §§ 169–184.*

§ 169. THE VISIT OF THE WOMEN TO THE TOMB OF JESUS

They watch the tomb late on the Sabbath (our Saturday afternoon); and the purchase of spices by them after the Sabbath (after 6 P.M. Saturday) on the first day of the week.

GOLGOTHA AND BETHANY

Our late Saturday afternoon and early evening

Mark 16:1

1 And when the sabbath was past, Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James, and Salome, bought spices, that they might come and anoint him.

Matt. 28:1

1 Now late †on the sabbath day, as it began to dawn toward the first day of the week, came Mary Magdalene and the other Mary to see the sepulchre.

* Of this period we see that he remained at or near Jerusalem for a week. Then he probably left at once for Galilee (Matt. 28:7; Mark 16:7). In the month that followed we cannot fix the exact time of the events that occurred in Galilee, but just at the end of the forty days we find him again in Jerusalem.

† This phrase once gave much trouble, but the usage of the vernacular Koiné Greek amply justifies the translation. The visit of the women to inspect the tomb was thus made before the sabbath was over (before 6 P.M. on Saturday). But the same Greek idiom was occasionally used in the sense of "after." See Robertson, Grammar of the Greek New Testament in the Light of Historical Research, p. 645. The distance from Bethany to Golgotha was not more than a sabbath day's journey. The spices could be purchased after sundown either in Bethany or Jerusalem. It must be borne in mind that the Jewish First Day of the Week began at 6 P.M. on our Saturday.

§ 170. THE EARTHQUAKE, THE ROLLING AWAY OF THE STONE BY AN ANGEL, AND THE FRIGHT OF THE ROMAN WATCHERS

Sunday before sunrise

Matt. 28:2–4

2 And behold, there was a great earthquake; for an angel of the Lord descended from heaven, and came and rolled away the stone, and sat upon
3 it. His appearance was as lightning, and his raiment white as snow:
4 and for fear of him the watchers did quake, and became as dead men.

§ 171. THE VISIT OF THE WOMEN TO THE TOMB OF JESUS ABOUT SUNRISE SUNDAY MORNING AND THE MESSAGE OF THE ANGELS ABOUT THE EMPTY TOMB

Golgotha. Early Sunday morning

Mark 16:2–8

2 And very early on the first day of the week they come to the tomb when the sun was risen.
3 And they were saying among themselves, Who shall roll us away the stone from the door of the 4 tomb? and looking up

Luke 24:1–8

1 But on the first day of the week, at early dawn,* they came unto the tomb, bringing the spices which they had prepared.
2 And they found the stone rolled away from 3 the tomb. And they entered in, and found not the body

John 20:1

1 Now on the first day of the week cometh Mary Magdalene early while it was yet dark unto the tomb, and seeth the stone taken away from the tomb.

* So he had already risen at early dawn on the first day of the week. He was buried (§ 167) shortly before sunset on Friday, and at sunset the sabbath began. So he lay in the tomb a small part of Friday, all of Saturday, and 10 or 11 hours of Sunday. This corresponds exactly with the seven times repeated statement that he would or did rise "on the third day," which could not possibly mean after 72 hours. The phrase two or three times given, "after three days," naturally denoted for Jews, as for Greeks and Romans, a whole central day and any part of a first and third, thus agreeing with "on the third day." Even the "three days and three nights" of Matt. 12:40 need not, according to known Jewish usage, mean more than we have described. So these expressions can be reconciled with "on the third day," and with the facts as recorded, while "on the third day" cannot mean after 72 hours. See Note 13 at end of the Harmony for full discussion of the question. There is no real appeal from the testimony of Luke, who gives the whole period. Luke states that Jesus was buried just before the sabbath "drew on" (our Friday evening); that the women rested during the sabbath (our Saturday), and that Jesus was already risen early Sunday morning when the women came to the tomb.

Mark 16:2–8

they see that the stone is rolled back: for it was exceed-5 ing great. And entering into the tomb, they saw a young man sitting on the right side, arrayed in a white robe; and they were 6 amazed. And he saith unto them, Be not amazed: ye seek Jesus the Nazarene, which hath been crucified: he is risen; he is not here: behold, the place where they 7 laid him! But go, tell his disciples and Peter, He goeth before you into Galilee: there shall ye see him, as he said unto you.
8 And they went out, and fled from the tomb; for trembling and astonishment had come upon them; and they said nothing to any one; for they were afraid.

Matt. 28:5–8

5 And the angel answered and said unto the women, Fear not ye: for I know that ye seek Jesus, which hath been crucified.
6 He is not here; for he is risen, even as he said. Come, see the place [1]where the 7 Lord lay. And go quickly, and tell his disciples, He is risen from the dead; and lo, he goeth before you into Galilee; there shall ye see him: lo, I have 8 told you. And they departed quickly from the tomb with fear and great joy, and ran to bring his disciples word.

Luke 24:1–8

[2]of the Lord Jesus.
4 And it came to pass, while they were perplexed thereabout, behold, two men stood by them in dazzling apparel:
5 and as they were affrighted, and bowed down their faces to the earth, they said unto them, Why seek ye [3]the living among 6 the dead? [4]He is not here, but is risen: remember how he spake unto you when he was yet in Gal-
7 ilee, saying that the Son of man must be delivered up into the hands of sinful men, and be crucified, and the third day
8 rise again. And they remembered his words.

[1] Many ancient authorities read where he lay. [2] Some ancient authorities omit of the Lord Jesus
[3] Gr. him that liveth. [4] Some ancient authorities omit He is not here, but is risen.

§ 172. MARY MAGDALENE AND THE OTHER WOMEN REPORT TO THE APOSTLES AND PETER AND JOHN VISIT THE EMPTY TOMB

Luke 24:9–12

9 and returned [1]from the tomb, and told all these things to the eleven,
10 and to all the rest. Now they were Mary Magdalene, and Joanna, and Mary the mother of James: and the other women with them told these things unto the apostles.
11 And these words appeared in their sight as idle talk; and they disbelieved them.
12 [2]But Peter arose, and ran into the tomb; and stooping and looking in, he seeth the linen clothes by themselves; and he [3]departed to his home, wondering at that which was come to pass.

John 20:2–10

2 She runneth therefore, and cometh to Simon Peter, and to the other disciple, whom Jesus loved, and saith unto them, They have taken away the Lord out of the tomb, and we know not where 3 they have laid him. Peter therefore went forth, and the other disciple, and they went toward the 4 tomb. And they ran both together; and the other disciple outran Peter, and came first to the tomb;
5 and stooping and looking in, he seeth the linen cloths lying; yet
6 entered he not in. Simon Peter therefore also cometh, following him, and entered into the tomb; and he beholdeth the linen cloths
7 lying, and the napkin, that was upon his head, not lying with the linen cloths, but rolled up in a 8 place by itself. Then entered in therefore the other disciple also, which came first to the tomb, and 9 he saw, and believed. For as yet they knew not the scripture, that he must rise again from the dead.
10 So the disciples went away again unto their own home.

[1] Some ancient authorities omit from the tomb. [2] Some ancient authorities omit verse 12. [3] Or, departed, wondering with himself.

Five appearances are given as occurring on the day of his resurrection, and five subsequently during the forty days. The five appearances on this day were (1) to Mary Magdalene (John and Mark); (2) to other women (Matthew); (3) to the two going to Emmaus; (4) to Simon Peter (Luke 24:34); (5) to ten apostles and others.

§ 173. THE APPEARANCE OF JESUS TO MARY MAGDALENE AND THE MESSAGE TO THE DISCIPLES

Mark 16:9–11

wept, she stooped and looked into 12 the tomb; and she beholdeth two angels in white sitting, one at the head, and one at the feet, where 13 the body of Jesus had lain. And they say unto her, Woman, why weepest thou? She saith unto them, Because they have taken away my Lord, and I know not 14 where they have laid him. When she had thus said, she turned herself back, and beholdeth Jesus standing, and knew not that it
15 was Jesus. Jesus saith unto her, Woman, why weepest thou? whom seekest thou? She, supposing him to be the gardener, saith unto him, Sir, if thou hast borne him hence, tell me where thou hast laid him, 16 and I will take him away. Jesus saith unto her, Mary. She turneth herself, and saith unto him in Hebrew, Rabboni; which is to say,
17 [3]Master. Jesus saith to her, [4]Touch me not; for I am not yet ascended unto the Father: but go unto my brethren, and say to them, I ascend unto my Father and your Father, 18 and my God and your God. Mary Magdalene cometh and telleth the disciples, I have seen the Lord; and how that he had said these things unto her.

[1] The two oldest manuscripts, and some other authorities, omit from ver. 9 to the end. Some other authorities have a different ending to the Gospel. [2] Gr. demons. [3] Or, Teacher. [4] Or, Take hold not on me.

§ 174. THE APPEARANCE OF JESUS TO THE OTHER WOMEN

Jerusalem. Sunday the first day of the week

Matt. 28:9–10

9 And behold, Jesus met them, saying, All hail. And they came and 10 took hold of his feet, and worshipped him. Then saith Jesus unto them, Fear not: go tell my brethren that they depart into Galilee, and there shall they see me.

§ 175. SOME OF THE GUARD REPORT TO THE JEWISH RULERS

Matt 28:11–15

11 Now while they were going, behold, some of the guard came into the city, and told unto the chief priests all the things that were come to pass.
12 And when they were assembled with the elders, and had taken counsel, 13 they gave large money unto the soldiers, saying, Say ye, His disciples 14 came by night, and stole him away while we slept. And if this [1]come to 15 the governor's ears, we will persuade him, and rid you of care. So they took the money, and did as they were taught: and this saying was spread abroad among the Jews, and continueth until this day.

[1] Or, come to a hearing before the governor.

§ 176. THE APPEARANCE TO TWO DISCIPLES (CLEOPAS AND ANOTHER) ON THE WAY TO EMMAUS

Sunday afternoon

Mark 16:12, 13

12 And after these things he was manifested in another form unto two of them, as they walked on 13 their way into the country. And they went away and told it unto the rest: neither believed they them.

Luke 24:13–32

13 And behold, two of them were going that very day to a village named Emmaus, which was three-score furlongs from Jerusalem.
14 And they communed with each other of all these things which 15 had happened. And it came to pass, while they communed and questioned together,
16 that Jesus himself drew near, and went with them. But their eyes 17 were holden that they should not know him. And he said unto them, [1]What communications are these that ye have one with another, as 18 ye walk? And they stood still, looking sad. And one of them, named Cleopas, answering said unto him, [2]Dost thou alone sojourn in Jerusalem and not know the things which are come to pass there in 19 these days? And he said unto them, What things? And they said unto him, The things concerning Jesus of Nazareth, which was a prophet mighty in deed and word before God and all the people: and 20 how the chief priests and our rulers delivered him up to be condemned to 21 death, and crucified him. But we hoped that it was he which should redeem Israel. Yea and beside all this, it is now the third day since 22 these things came to pass. Moreover certain women of our company 23 amazed us, having been early at the tomb; and when they found not his body, they came, saying, that they had also seen a vision of angels, which 24 said that he was alive. And certain of them that were with us went to the tomb, and found it even so as the women had said: but him they saw 25 not. And he said unto them, O foolish men, and slow of heart to believe 26 [3]in all that the prophets have spoken! Behoved it not the Christ to suffer 27 these things, and to enter into his glory? And beginning from Moses and from all the prophets, he interpreted to them in all the scriptures

Luke 24:13–32

28 the things concerning himself. And they drew nigh unto the village, whither they were going: and he made as though he would go further.
29 And they constrained him, saying, Abide with us: for it is toward evening, and the day is now far spent. And he went in to abide with them.
30 And it came to pass, when he had sat down with them to meat, he took 31 the [4]bread, and blessed it, and brake, and gave to them. And their eyes were opened, and they knew him; and he vanished out of their sight.
32 And they said one to another, Was not our heart burning within us, while he spake to us in the way, while he opened to us the scriptures?

[1] Gr. What words are these that ye exchange one with another? [2] Or, Dost thou sojourn alone in Jerusalem, and knowest thou not the things. [3] Or, after. [4] Or, loaf.

The disciples therefore were glad, when they saw

22 the Father hath sent me, even so send I you. And when he had said this, he breathed on them, and saith unto them, Receive ye the [4]Holy 23 Ghost: whosoever sins ye forgive, they are forgiven unto them; whosoever sins ye retain, they are retained.*
24 But Thomas, one of the twelve, called [5]Didymus, was not with them
25 when Jesus came. The other disciples therefore said unto him, We have seen the Lord. But he said unto them, Except I shall see in his hands the print of the nails, and put my finger into the print of the nails and put my hand into his side, I will not believe.

§ 179. THE APPEARANCE TO THE DISCIPLES THE NEXT SUNDAY NIGHT AND THE CONVINCING OF THOMAS

Jerusalem

John 20:26–31

26 And after eight days again his disciples were within, and Thomas with them. Jesus cometh, the doors being shut, and stood in the midst, and said, Peace be unto you.
27 Then saith he to Thomas, Reach hither thy finger, and see my hands; and reach hither thy hand, and put it into my side: and be not 28 faithless, but believing. Thomas answered and said unto him, My 29 Lord and my God. Jesus saith unto him, Because thou hast seen me, [1]thou hast believed: blessed are they that have not seen, and yet have believed.
30 Many other signs therefore did Jesus in the presence of the disciples, which are not written in 31 this book: but these are written, that ye may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and [1]that believing ye may have life in his name.

§ 180. THE APPEARANCE TO SEVEN DISCIPLES BESIDE THE SEA OF GALILEE.* THE MIRACULOUS DRAUGHT OF FISHES

John 21

1 After these things Jesus manifested himself again to the disciples at the 2 sea of Tiberias; and he manifested himself on this wise. There were together Simon Peter, and Thomas called [1]Didymus, and Nathanael of Cana in Galilee, and the sons of Zebedee, and two other of his disciples.
3 Simon Peter saith unto them, I go a fishing. They say unto him, We also come with thee. They went forth, and entered into the boat; and that 4 night they took nothing. But when day was now breaking, Jesus stood
5 on the beach; howbeit the disciples knew not that it was Jesus. Jesus

* The precise date of this seventh appearance is not known except that it was after that on the Resurrection Day and before the Ascension.

John 21

6 therefore said unto them, Children, have ye aught to eat? They answered him, No. And he said unto them, Cast the net on the right side of the boat, and ye shall find. They cast therefore, and now they were not 7 able to draw it for the multitude of fishes. That disciple therefore whom Jesus loved saith unto Peter, It is the Lord. So when Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he girt his coat about him (for he was naked), and 8 cast himself into the sea. But the other disciples came in the little boat (for they were not far from the land, but about two hundred cubits off), 9 dragging the net full of fishes. So when they got out upon the land, they 10 see [2]a fire of coals there, and [3]fish laid thereon, and [4]bread. Jesus saith 11 unto them, Bring of the fish which ye have now taken. Simon Peter therefore went [5]up, and drew the net to land, full of great fishes, a hundred and fifty and three: and for all there were so many, the net was not rent.
12 Jesus saith unto them, Come and break your fast. And none of the disciples durst inquire of him, Who art thou? knowing that it was the Lord.
13 Jesus cometh, and taketh the [6]bread, and giveth them, and the fish like-14 wise. This is now the third time that Jesus was manifested to the disciples, after he was risen from the dead.
15 So when they had broken their fast, Jesus saith to Simon Peter, Simon, son of [7]John, [8]lovest thou me more than these? He saith unto him, Yea, Lord; thou knowest that I [9]love thee. He saith unto him, Feed my 16 lambs. He saith to him again a second time, Simon, son of [7]John, [8]lovest thou me? He saith unto him, Yea, Lord; thou knowest that I [9]love thee.
17 He saith unto him, Tend my sheep. He saith unto him the third time, Simon, son of [7]John, [9]lovest thou me? Peter was grieved because he said unto him the third time, [9]Lovest thou me? And he said unto him, Lord, thou knowest all things; thou [10]knowest that I [9]love thee. Jesus saith 18 unto him, Feed my sheep. Verily, verily, I say unto thee, When thou wast young, thou girdedst thyself, and walkedst whither thou wouldest:
but when thou shalt be old, thou shalt stretch forth thy hands, and another 19 shall gird thee, and carry thee whither thou wouldest not. Now this he spake, signifying by what manner of death he should glorify God. And 20 when he had spoken this, he saith unto him, Follow me. Peter, turning about, seeth the disciple whom Jesus loved following; which also leaned back on his breast at the supper, and said, Lord, who is he that betrayeth 21 thee? Peter therefore seeing him saith to Jesus, Lord, [11]and what shall 22 this man do? Jesus saith unto him, If I will that he tarry till I come, 23 what is that to thee? follow thou me. This saying therefore went forth among the brethren, that that disciple should not die: yet Jesus said not unto him, that he should not die; but, If I will that he tarry till I come, what is that to thee?
24 This is the disciple which beareth witness of these things, and wrote these things: and we know that his witness is true.
25 And there are also many other things which Jesus did, the which if they should be written every one, I suppose that even the world itself would not contain the books that should be written.

46 tures; and he said unto them, Thus it is written [see Hos. 6:2], that the Christ should suffer, and rise again from the dead the third

EXPLANATORY NOTES ON POINTS OF SPECIAL DIFFICULTY IN THE HARMONY

1. About Harmonies of the Gospels

We do not know how soon an effort was made to combine in one book the several portrayals of the life of Jesus. Luke in his Gospel (1:1–4) makes a selection of the material and incorporates data from different sources, but with the stamp of his own arrangement and style. He followed, in the main, the order of Mark's Gospel, as is easily seen. But this method is not what is meant by a harmony of the Gospels, for the result is a selection from all sorts of material (oral and written), monographs and longer treatises.

The first known harmony is Tatian's Diatessaron (dia tessaron, by four) in the second century (about 160 A.D.) in the Syriac tongue. It was long lost, but an Arabic translation has been found and an English rendering appeared in 1894 by J. Hamlyn Hill. It is plain that Tatian has blended into one narrative our Four Gospels with a certain amount of freedom as is shown by Hobson's The Diatessaron of Tatian and the Synoptic Problem (1904). There have been modern attempts also to combine into one story the records of the Four Gospels. There is a superficial advantage in such an effort in the freedom from variations in the accounts, but the loss is too great for such an arbitrary gain. The word harmony calls for such an arrangement, but it is not the method of the best modern harmonies which preserve the differences in material and style just as they are in the Four Gospels.

In the third century Ammonius arranged the Gospels in four parallel columns (the Sections of Ammonius). This was an attempt to give a conspectus of the material in the Gospels side by side. In the fourth century Eusebius with his Canons and Sections enabled the reader to see at a glance the parallel passages in the Gospels. The ancients took a keen interest in this form of study of the Gospels, as Augustine shows.

Of modern harmonies that by Edward Robinson has had the most influence. The edition in English appeared in 1845, that in Greek in 1846. Riddle revised Robinson's Harmony in 1889. There were many others that employed the Authorized Version, like Clark's, and that divided the life of Christ according to the feasts.

Broadus (June, 1893) followed Waddy (1887) in the use of the Canterbury Revision, but was the first to break away from the division by feasts and to show the historical development in the life of Jesus. Stevens and Burton followed (December, 1893) Broadus within six months and, like him, used the Canterbury Revision and had an independent division of the life of Christ to show the historical unfolding of the events. These two harmonies have held the field for nearly thirty years for students of the English Gospels. In 1903 Kerr issued one in the American Standard Version and James one in the Canterbury Revision (1901).

Harmonies of the Gospels in the Greek continued to appear, like Tischendorf's (1851, new edition 1891), Wright's A Synopsis of the Gospels in Greek (1903), Huck's Synopse der drei ersten Evangelien (1892, English translation in 1907), Campbell's First Three Gospels in Greek (1899), A Harmony of the Synoptic Gospels in Greek by Burton and Goodspeed (1920).

The progress in synoptic criticism emphasized the difference in subject matter and style between the Synoptic Gospels and the Fourth Gospel as appears in the works of Huck, Campbell, and Burton and Goodspeed that give only the Synoptic Gospels. Burton and Goodspeed have also an English work, A Harmony of the Synoptic Gospels for Historical and Critical Study (1917). In 1917 Sharman (Records of the Life of Jesus) gives first a harmony of the Synoptic Gospels with references to the Fourth Gospel and then an outline of the Fourth Gospel with references to the Synoptic Gospels.

Once more in 1919 Van Kirk produced The Source Book of the Life of Christ which is only a partial harmony, for the parables and speeches of Jesus are only referred to, not quoted. But he endeavored to show the results of Gospel criticism in the text of the book. There is much useful material here for a harmony, but it is not a real harmony that can be used for the full story of the life of Jesus. Van Kirk, however, is the first writer to place Mark in the first column instead of Matthew. I had already done it in my outline before I saw Van Kirk's book, but his was published first. It is an immense improvement to put Mark first. The student thus sees that the arrangement of the material is not arbitrary and whimsical, but orderly and natural. Both Matthew and Luke follow Mark's order except in the first part of Matthew where he is topical in the main. John supplements the Synoptic Gospels, particularly in the Judean (Jerusalem) Ministry.

Slowly, therefore, progress has been made in the harmonies of the Gospels. But the modern student is able to reproduce the life and words of Jesus as has not been possible since the first century. It is a fourfold portrait of Christ that we get, but the whole is infinitely richer than the picture given by any one of the Four Gospels. The present Harmony aims to put the student in touch with the results of modern scholarly research and to focus attention on the actual story in the Gospels themselves. One may have his own opinion of the Fourth Gospel, but it is needed in a harmony for completeness.

2. Synoptic Criticism

The criticism of the synoptic gospels has been able to reach a broad general conclusion that is likely to stand the test of time. The reason for this happy solution lies in the fact that the processes and results can be tested. It is not mere subjective speculation. Any one who knows how to weigh evidence can compare Mark, Matthew, and Luke in the English, and still better in the Greek. The pages of the present harmony offer proof enough. It is plain as a pikestaff that both our Matthew and Luke used practically all of Mark and followed his general order of events. For this reason Mark has been placed first on the pages where this Gospel appears at all. But another thing is equally clear and that is that both Matthew and Luke had another source in common because they each give practically identical matter for much that is not in Mark at all. This second common source for Matthew and Luke has been called Logia because it is chiefly discourses. It is sometimes referred to as "Q", the first letter of the German word Quelle (source). Unfortunately we do not have the whole of the Logia (Q) before us as in the case of Mark, though we probably do not possess the original ending of Mark in 16:9–20. But we can at least reproduce what is preserved. Still, just as sometimes either Matthew or Luke made use of Mark, so in the case of the Logia that is probably true. Hence we cannot tell the precise limits of the Logia. Besides, a small part of Mark is not employed by either Matthew or Luke and that may be true of the Logia. But the fact of these two sources for Matthew and Luke seems to be proven.

But there are various other points to be observed. One is that both Matthew and Luke may have had various other sources. Luke tells us (Luke 1:1–4) that he made use of "many" such sources, both oral and written. And a large part of Luke does not appear in the other gospels or at least similar events and sayings occur in different environments and times. Hence our solid conclusion must allow freedom and flexibility to the writers in various ways. We can see for ourselves how Matthew and Luke handled both Mark and the Logia, each in his own way and with individual touches of style and purpose.

One other matter calls for attention. Papias is quoted by Eusebius as saying that Matthew wrote in Hebrew (or Aramaic) whereas our present Matthew is in Greek. It is now commonly held that the real Matthew (Levi) wrote the Logia first in Aramaic and that either he or some one else used that with Mark and other sources for our present Gospel of Matthew.

It should be added also that there is a considerable body of evidence for the view that Mark wrote under the influence of Simon Peter and preserves the vividness and freshness of Peter's own style as an eyewitness.

One other result has come. It is increasingly admitted that the Logia was very early, before 50 A.D., and Mark likewise if Luke wrote the Acts while Paul was still alive. Luke's Gospel comes (Acts 1:1) before the Acts. The date of Acts is still in dispute, but the early date (about A.D. 63) is gaining support constantly. The upshot of these centuries of synoptic criticism has brought into sharp outline the facts that now stand out with reasonable clearness. There are many points in dispute still, but we at least know how the synoptic gospels were written, and are reasonably certain of the dates and the authors.

There are many good books on the subject, like Hawkin's Horae Synopticae (second edition), Sanday's Oxford Studies in the Synoptic Problem, Harnack's Sayings of Jesus and his Date of the Synoptic Gospels and Acts. My own views appear in my Commentary on Matthew (Bible for Home and School), Studies in Mark's Gospel, and Luke the Historian in the Light of Research.

3. The Authorship of the Fourth Gospel

It has come to pass that one has to defend the use of the Fourth Gospel on a par with the Synoptic Gospels. The Johannine problem is an old one and a difficult one. It cannot be said that modern scholarship has come to a clear result here, as is true of the Synoptic Gospels. As a matter of fact, the battle still rages vigorously. There are powerful arguments on both sides. A mere sketch of the real situation is all that can be attempted here.

The Gospel and the Epistles are in the same style and can be confidently affirmed to be by the same author. The Apocalypse has some striking peculiarities of its own. There are likenesses in vocabulary and idiom beyond a doubt of a subtle nature, but the grammatical irregularities in the Book of Revelation have long been a puzzle to those who hold to the Johannine authorship. A full discussion of these grammatical details can be found in the leading commentaries on the Apocalypse. A brief survey is given in my Grammar of the Greek New Testament in the Light of Historical Research. The facts are undisputed and have a most interesting parallel in the papyri fragments of some of the less educated writers of the Koiné as one can see for himself in Milligan's Greek Papyri or in any other collection.

There are two solutions of the problem with two alternatives in each instance. There are those who roundly assert that the same man could not have written both the Gospel and the Apocalypse. Some of these affirm that the Apostle John wrote the Apocalypse but not the Gospel. Certainly a "John" wrote the Revelation or claimed it at any rate. Others of this group hold that an inferential Presbyter John (not "the elder" in 2 and 3 John) supposed to be meant by Papias wrote the Apocalypse while some one else wrote the Gospel whether the Apostle John or not.

But a considerable body of scholars still hold that the same man wrote both the Gospel and the Apocalypse, but a different explanation is offered by two groups. One class of writers affirm that John wrote the Apocalypse first before he had come to be at home in the Greek idiom as we see it in the Gospel and the Epistles. We know that John and Peter were fishermen and were not considered men of literary training by the Sanhedrin (Acts 4:14). This explanation is sufficient but for the further fact that the early date of the Apocalypse (about 70 A.D.) is not now so generally held to be true. The later or Domitianic date as given by Irenæus seems pretty clearly to be correct. So the other group suggest that the books may belong substantially to the same period (the Domitianic date) and that the explanation of the grammatical infelicities in the Apocalypse may be due to the fact that John being on the Isle of Patmos when he wrote did not have the benefit of friends in Ephesus who apparently read the Gospel (John 21:24–25). Besides, the excited state of John's mind because of the visions may have added to the number of the solecisms in the Apocalypse. This view I personally hold as probable. The unity of both Gospel and Apocalypse is denied by some.

So the matter stands as between the Gospel and the Apocalypse. But the Fourth Gospel has difficulties of its own. These relate in part to the book in itself. It is true there is a great similarity in language and style between the narrative parts of the book and the discourses of Jesus. It is affirmed that the writer has colored the speeches of Jesus with his own style or even made up the dialogues so that they are without historical value or at least on a much lower plane than the Synoptic Gospels as objective history. There is something in this point, but one must remember that the Synoptic Gospels vary in their manner of reporting the speeches of Jesus and aim to give the substance rather than the precise words of the Master in all instances. It is at most a matter of degree. There is a Johannine type of thought and phrase beyond a doubt, but curiously enough we have a paragraph in Matthew 11:24–31 and Luke 10:21–23 that is precisely like the Johannine specimens, written long before the Fourth Gospel. One must remember the versatility of Jesus, who could not be retained in any one style or mold. But there are those who admit the Johannine authorship of the Gospel and yet who refuse to put it on the same plane as the Synoptic Gospels. Every one must decide for himself on this point. For myself I see too much of Christ in the Fourth Gospel in the most realistic and dramatic form to be mere invention. We can enlarge our conception of Christ to make room for the Fourth Gospel.

But even so it is urged that the Beloved Disciple cannot be the Apostle John. If not, then the Fourth Gospel ignores the Apostle John,—a very curious situation. It is a long story for which one must go to the able books in defense of the Johannine authorship by Ezra Abbott, James Drummond, W. Sanday, Luthardt, Watkins and many others. The ablest modern attacks are made by Bacon and Wendt and Schmiedel. My own view is given in my The Divinity of Christ in the Gospel of John.

4. The Jesus of History

It is not long since the cry of "Back to Christ" was raised and away from Paul and John. Soon this cry was changed to an appeal to the Jesus of History in opposition to the Christ of Theology. So we had the "Jesus or Christ" controversy (see the Hibbert Journal Supplement for 1909). It was gravely affirmed by some that Paul had created the Christ of Christianity and had permanently altered the simple program of Jesus for a social Kingdom and had turned it into a great ecclesiastical system with speculative Christological interpretations quite beyond the range of the vision of the Jesus of the Synoptic Gospels. It was admitted that the Fourth Gospel, the Apocalypse, and the Epistles all gave the Pauline view.

To the Synoptic Gospels, therefore, we all went. But the Christ of Paul and of John is in the Synoptic Gospels. In all essentials the picture is the same in Luke as in John and Paul. The shading is different, but Jesus in Luke is the Son of God as well as the Son of Man (see my Luke the Historian in the Light of Research). It was admitted that Matthew gives the picture of Jesus as the Jewish Messiah. Mark reflects Peter's conception of Jesus and gives Jesus as Lord and Christ (see my Studies in Mark's Gospel). And Q (the Logia), the earliest document that we have for the life of Christ and almost contemporary with the time of Christ, gives the same essential features of Jesus as the Son of Man and Son of God (see my article The Christ of the Logia in the Contemporary Review for August, 1919). The sober results of modern critical research show the same figure in the very earliest documents that we possess (Q and Mark's Gospel). The Christ of Paul and of John walks as the Jesus of History in the Synoptic Gospels. We do know the earthly life of Jesus much more distinctly and the research of centuries has had a blessed outcome in the enrichment of our knowledge. Matthew and Luke are the first critics of the sources for the life of Jesus. We see how they made use of Mark, the Logia, and other documents. The Fourth Gospel comes last with knowledge of the Synoptic Gospels.

There are, to be sure, a few men who even deny that Jesus ever lived at all. That was the next step; but this absurdity has met complete refutation. The Christ of faith is the Christ of fact. There is no getting away from the fact of Christ, the chief fact of all the ages, the centre of all history, the hope of the ages. Jesus Christ we can still call him, our Lord and Saviour, and he never made such an appeal to men as he does today in the full blaze of modern historical research. Men are just beginning to take his words to heart in all the spheres of human life. The one hope of a new world of righteousness lies precisely in the program of Jesus Christ for the life of the individual in his private affairs, in his family relations, in his business and social dealings, in his political ideals and conduct. And nations must also follow the leadership of Jesus the supreme Teacher of the race.

The purpose of a harmony is not to teach theology, but to make available for men of any faith the facts in the Gospels concerning Jesus of Nazareth. Each interprets these facts and teachings as he sees the light. We can all acknowledge our debt to modern scholarship for the tremendous contributions made to a richer understanding of the environment into which Jesus came and to a juster appreciation of the real significance of his person and his message. The Gospels are still the most fascinating books in the world for sheer simplicity and beauty. One can first trace the picture of Jesus in the Logia, then in Mark, in Matthew, in Luke, in John. To these he can add the pictures of Christ in the Acts, the Epistles, the Apocalypse.

5. The Two Genealogies of Christ

Sceptics of all ages, from Porphyry and Celsus to Strauss, have urged the impossibility of reconciling the difficulties in the two accounts of the descent of Jesus. Even Alford says it is impossible to reconcile them. But certainly several possible explanations have been suggested. The chief difficulties will be discussed.

1. In Matthew's list several discrepancies are pointed out.

(a) It is objected that Matthew is mistaken in making three sets of fourteen each. There are only forty-one names, and this would leave one set with only thirteen. But does Matthew say he has mentioned forty-two names? He does say (1:17) that there are three sets of fourteen and divides them for us himself: "So all the generations from Abraham unto David are fourteen generations; and from David unto the carrying away to Babylon fourteen generations; and from the carrying away to Babylon unto the Christ fourteen generations." The points of division are David and the captivity; in the one case a man, in the other an event. He counts David in each of the first two sets, although Jechoniah is counted only once. David was the connecting link between the patriarchal line and the royal line. But he does not say "from David to Jechoniah," but "from David to the carrying away unto Babylon," and Josiah is the last name he counts before that event. And so the first name after this same event is Jechoniah. Thus Matthew deliberately counts David in two places to give symmetry to the division, which made an easy help to the memory.

(b) The omissions in Matthew's list have occasioned some trouble. These omissions are after Joram, the names of Ahaziah, Joash, Amaziah, and after Josiah, these of Jehoiakim and Eliakim (2 Kings 8:24; 1 Chron. 3:11; 2 Chron. 22:1, 11; 24:27; 2 Kings 23:34; 24:6). But such omissions were very common in the Old Testament genealogies. See 2 Chron. 22:9. Here "son of Jehoshaphat" means "grandson of Jehoshaphat." So in Matt. 1:1 Jesus is called the son of David, the son of Abraham. A direct line of descent is all that it is designed to express. This is all that the term "begat" necessarily means here. It is a real descent. Whatever omissions were made for various reasons, would not invalidate the line. The fact that Ahaziah, Joash, and Amaziah were the sons of Ahab and Jezebel would be sufficient ground for omitting them.

(c) Matthew mentions four women in his list, which is contrary to Jewish custom, viz. Tamar, Rahab, Ruth, and the wife of Uriah. But neither one is counted in the lists of fourteen, and each one has something remarkable in her case (Broadus, Comm. on Matt. in loco). Three were guilty of gross sin, and one, Ruth, was of Gentile origin and deserved mention for that reason. This circumstance would seem to indicate that Matthew did not simply copy the genealogical history of Joseph. He did this, omitting what suited his purpose and adding likewise remarks of his own. His record is thus reliable and yet made a part of his own story.

2. A comparison of the lists of Matthew and Luke.

If no list had been given by Luke, no further explanations would be necessary. But Luke not only gives a list, but one radically different from Matthew's, and in inverse order. Matthew begins with Abraham and comes to Jesus; Luke begins with Jesus and concludes with Adam [the son of God]. Several explanations are offered to remove the apparent contradiction.

(a) As early as Julius Africanus it was suggested that the two lines had united in accordance with the law of Levirate marriage. By this theory, Heli and Jacob being stepbrothers, Jacob married Heli's widow and was the real father of Joseph. Thus both genealogies would be the descent of Joseph, one the real, the other the legal. This theory is ably advocated by McClellan, pp. 416 ff., and Waddy, p. xvii. It is argued that Jechoniah's children were born in captivity and so, being slaves, lost both his royal dignity and his legal status. Stress is laid upon the word "begat" to show that Matthew's descent must be the natural pedigree of Joseph, and upon the use of the expression "son (as was supposed) of Joseph." Hence both Joseph's real and legal standing are shown, for by Luke's account he had an undisputed legal title to descend from David. This is certainly possible, although it rests on the hypothesis of the Levirate marriage.

(b) Lord Arthur Hervey, in his volume on the Genealogies of Our Lord, and in Smith's Dictionary, argues that Matthew gives Joseph's legal descent as successor to the throne of David. According to this theory Solomon's line failed in Jechoniah (Jer. 22:30) and Shealtiel of Matthew's line took his place. Luke's account, on the other hand, gives Joseph's real parentage. Matthew's Matthan and Luke's Mattathias are identified as one, and the law of Levirate marriage comes into service with Jacob and Heli. This explanation has received favor with such writers as Mill, Alford, Wordsworth, Ellicott, Westcott, Fairbairn. McNeile (on Matthew) considers this the "only possible" view. The chief objection seems to be the most natural meaning of "begat," implying direct descent, and the necessity for two suppositions, one about Shealtiel and another about Jacob and Heli. It is even fairly probable that the Shealtiel and Zerubbabel of Matthew and Luke are different persons.

(c) The third and most plausible solution yet suggested makes Matthew give the real descent of Joseph, and Luke the real descent of Mary. Several arguments of more or less weight can be adduced for this hypothesis.

(1) The most natural meaning of "begat" in Matthew is preserved. Jesus goes through David's royal line and so fulfils prophecy. It is not elsewhere stated that Mary was of Davidic descent, although presumptive evidence exists in the language of the angel (Luke 1:32) and the enrollment of Mary (Luke 2:5). So Robinson (Revised edition).

(2) The use of Joseph without the article, while it is used with every other name in the list. "The absence of the article puts the name outside of the genealogical series properly so-called."—Godet. This would seem to indicate that Joseph belonged to the parenthesis, "as was supposed." It would read thus, "being son (as was supposed of Joseph) of Heli." Luke had already clearly stated the manner of Christ's birth, so that no one would think he was the son of Joseph. Jesus would thus be Heli's grandson, an allowable meaning of "son." See Andrews' (new edition) Life of Our Lord, p. 63.

(3) It would seem proper that Matthew should give the legal descent of Jesus, since he wrote chiefly for Jews. This, of course, could only be through Joseph.

(4) And it would seem equally fitting that Luke should give the real genealogy of Jesus, since he was writing for all. And this could come only through Mary. If it is objected that a woman's genealogy is never given, it may be replied that women are mentioned for special reasons in Matthew's list, though not counted, and that Mary's name is not mentioned in this list. The genealogy goes back to her father either by skipping her as suggested above and making son mean the grandson of Heli, or by allowing Joseph to stand in her place in the list, as he would have to do anyhow. On the whole, then, this theory seems the most plausible and pleasing. So practically Luther, Bengel, Olshausen, Lightfoot, Wieseler, Robinson, Alexander, Godet, Weiss, Andrews (new edition, p. 65), Broadus, and many recent writers.

But Bacon (Genealogy of Jesus Christ, Hastings D. B. and Am. J. of Theol. Jan., 1911) says that nearly all writers of authority abandon any effort to reconcile the two pedigrees of Jesus save as the effort of Christians to give "His Davidic sonship rather than His actual descent." See Machen's survey of negative criticism, on the subject in Princeton Theol. Review (Jan., 1906). Barnard (Hastings D.C.G.) admits two independent accounts, but sees no solution, but Sweet (Int. St. Bible Encyl.) accepts the view that Matthew gives the real genealogy of Joseph and Luke that of Mary. Plummer (Comm. on Luke) thinks it incredible that Mary's genealogy should be given by Luke.

6. The Probable Time of the Saviour's Birth

Every one now understands that the accepted date of our Lord's birth is wrong by several years. The estimates of the true date vary all the way from one to seven years B.C. There are various data that fix the year with more or less certainty, but none of them with absolute precision. They do, however, agree in marking pretty clearly a narrow limit for this notable occurrence, B.C. 6 or 5.

1. The death of Herod the Great is relied on with most certainty to fix the year of Christ's birth. The rule of Archelaus and Antipas demands B.C. 4. Josephus mentions an eclipse of the moon which occurred shortly before he died. Ant. XVII, 6, 4. This eclipse is the only one alluded to by Josephus, and fixes with absolute certainty the time after which the birth of Jesus could not have occurred, since, according to Matt. 2:1–6, Jesus was born while Herod was still living. The question to be determined would be the year of this eclipse. Astronomical calculations name an eclipse of the moon March 12 and 13, in the year of Rome 750, and no eclipse occurred the following year that was visible in Palestine. Josephus (Ant. XVII, 8, 1), says that Herod died thirty-seven years after he was declared king by the Romans. In 714 he was proclaimed king, and this would bring his death counting from Nisan to Nisan, as Josephus usually does, "in the year from 1st Nisan 750 to 1st Nisan 751, according to Jewish computation, at the age of seventy" (Andrews). Herod died shortly before the Passover of 750, then, according to the eclipse and the length of his reign. Caspari contends for January 24, 753, as the date of Herod's death, because there was a total eclipse of the moon January 10. So he puts his death fourteen days later. Mr. Page (New Light from Old Eclipses) argues for the eclipse that occurred July 17, 752, as the one preceding Herod's death. He thinks that this makes unnecessary the subtraction of two years from the reign of Tiberius on the theory that Tiberius was contemporary ruler with Augustus for two years. But he finds difficulty in lengthening Herod's reign so long, and his theory has gained no great acceptance as yet. Our present era makes the birth of Christ in the year of Rome 754, and is due to the Abbot Dionysius Exiguus in the Sixth Century. Hence it is clear that if Herod died in the early spring of 750, Jesus must have been born at least four years before 754, the common era, and likely in the year 749.

2. It has been inferred by some that Jesus was at least two or three years old when Herod slaughtered the infants in Bethlehem, Matt. 2:16. Thus the year would be put two years further back to the end of 747 or beginning of 748. But this is not demanded by the "two years" of Matthew, for Herod would naturally extend the limit so as to be sure to include the child in the number slain, and a child just entering the second year would be called "two years" old by Jewish custom. No more definite note of time comes from this circumstance, save that the massacre probably took place some months before Herod's death, which fact would bring the Saviour's birth back some time into the year 749.

3. The appearance of the "star in the east" (Matt. 2:2). This, of course, was before Herod's death, and would agree in time with the slaughter of the children, if the star be looked upon as a supernatural phenomenon, and not the wise men's interpretation of a natural conjunction of planets. Kepler first suggested that, as there was a conjunction of Jupiter and Saturn in 747, to which Mars was added in 748, this conjunction might have been the bright star that led on the wise men. See Wieseler, Synopsis, p. 57. Kepler had also suggested that a periodical star or a comet might have joined the constellation. The Chinese records preserve the account of the appearance of a comet in the spring of 749. Either of these theories is fascinating in itself, especially to those minds that prefer a natural explanation of anything that looks miraculous. Both phenomena are possible in themselves, but they hardly meet the requirements of the record in Matthew. (1) The word used is aster, star, and not astron, a group of stars. (2) Rev. C. Pritchard, whose calculations have been verified at Greenwich (Smith's Dic.), has shown that those "planets could never have appeared as one star, for they never approached each other within double the apparent diameter of the moon." So Ideler's hypothesis that the wise men all had weak eyes seems rather feeble. (3) The year 747 would conflict slightly with other evidence for Christ's birth that favors 749, although Wieseler, p. 53, note 4, contends that the star first appeared to the wise men two years before their visit, and a second time on their visit to Bethlehem. (4) Besides, the star is said to have stood over "where the young child was," v. 9. If it were a natural star it would have kept going as they went, and would not have stopped till they stopped. Even then it would appear as far away as ever from Bethlehem. It seems best, therefore, to admit the existence of a miracle here, and hence gain nothing from the visit of the Magi to establish the date of the Saviour's birth, save that it was not long before the slaughter of the infants, and would at least agree with the date 749. See Broadus, Comm. in loco.

4. The language of the heavenly host in Luke 2:14 is urged by some as fixing the birth at a time when there was universal peace throughout the world. The closing of the temple of Janus in the time of Augustus is also adduced, but it is not certainly known when it was closed apart from 725 and 729. It was intended to be closed at the end of 744, but was delayed on account of trouble among the Daci and Dalmatæ. See Greswell i. 469. Nothing specific can be obtained from this fact, save that there was a time of comparative quiet in the Roman world from 746 to 752. There was a hush in the clangor of war when Jesus was born.

5. The entrance of John the Baptist upon his ministry gives us another note of time. See Luke 3:1 f. John emerged from the wilderness seclusion in the fifteenth year of the reign of Tiberius. Augustus died August 29, 767. Adding fifteen years to this, the fifteenth year of Tiberius would begin August 29, 781. John was of a priestly family and so could naturally enter upon his work when thirty years of age. Thirty years subtracted from this gives 751, as the date of John's birth. But that is too late by two years to agree with the other date. Here, however, the Roman histories come to our help. Tacitus, Ann. 1, 3: "Tiberius is adopted by Augustus as his son, and colleague in empire." Vell. Pat. 2, 121; "At the request of Augustus, Tiberius was invested with equal authority in all the provinces." So Suetonius Aug. 97 and Tib. 21. It is clear, then, that Tiberius reigned jointly with Augustus about two years before he assumed full control of the empire at the death of Augustus. Luke could have used either date, but Tiberius' power was already equal to that of Augustus in the provinces two years before his death. Luke would naturally use the provincial point of view. Taking off the two years from the joint reign of Augustus, we again come to the year 749, as John was born six months before Jesus. So if John was born in the early part of the spring, Jesus would have been born in the summer or fall of 749.

6. The age of Jesus at his entrance upon his ministry, Luke 3:23. "And Jesus himself, when he began to teach, was about thirty years of age." So most modern scholars, taking the language in the obvious sense. Origen refers it to the beginning of a new life, by the second birth of baptism, after his spiritualizing fashion. The Authorized Version has it: "And Jesus himself began to be about thirty years of age," applying the "beginning" to the period of thirty years. McClellan argues that it means "about thirty years, beginning"; that is, a little the rise of thirty years. The Revised Version seems to be preferable and the only doubt would be as to what is included in the phrase "about thirty years." It has been variously argued that Jesus was from one to three years younger or older than thirty. It seems more reasonable to give the words the meaning that he was just about thirty, a few months under or over. Apparently this fact explains the idiom. The argument that Jesus had to be exactly thirty years old because the priest had to be so, when he entered upon his work, has no great force. For Jesus was not a priest save in a spiritual sense. John had been preaching no great while when Jesus was baptized by him and so entered upon his public ministry. If John began his ministry when he was thirty years old in the fifteenth year of Tiberius, then Jesus's ministry would begin about six months later. His birth would then come in the latter part of 749, unless John was born in the latter part of 748, when it would be earlier in the year.

7. The building of the temple of Herod gives a further clue to the date of Christ's birth. In John 2:20, the Jews say, "Forty and six years was this temple in building." Josephus tells us in one place that Herod began rebuilding the temple in the fifteenth year of his reign, War. I, 21, 1, and in another that he did so in the eighteenth year of his reign, Ant. XV, 11, 1. In the account of Herod's death, Ant. XVII, 8, 1, he used two dates for his reign, according as he counted from his declaration as king by the Romans 714, or the death of Antigonus 717. Eighteen and fifteen would both be correct, according as he reckoned from the one date or the other. Eighteen added to forty-six and both to 714 would make 778. It was at the first Passover in his ministry that this expression is used. It has been probably six months since his baptism. If thirty and a half years be taken from 778, his birth would be thrown back to the year 747, unless the forty-six years be taken as completed, when it would be 748. So Robinson. But this does not quite agree with the other notes of time we have. Many modern harmonists count the eighteen years from 717, and so bring the whole number, adding forty-six, down to 780, or, if the years are complete, 781. Thirty and a half from this would give the autumn of 749 or 750. This is done because Josephus usually reckons Herod's reign from the death of Antigonus, 717. On the whole it seems clear that Josephus is wrong in the War. It is common enough to find Josephus in one passage contradicting what he has said elsewhere. The temple was begun the year that the Emperor came to Syria, as is plain from Josephus. According to Dio Cassius, LIV, 7, this visit was made in B.C. 20 or 19. Correcting Josephus by himself and by Dio Cassius we thus again get B.C. 5 as the probable year of the birth of Christ. See Schuerer, History of the Jewish People in the Time of Jesus Christ, Div. I., Vol. I., p. 410.

8. The census of Augustus Cæsar mentioned in Luke 2:1 f., furnishes the last note of time for this event. This subject is involved in a great many difficulties, and for a full discussion, the reader is referred to Ramsay's Was Christ Born at Bethlehem, and his Bearing of Recent Discovery on the Trustworthiness of the New Testament (Chap. XX) and to my Luke the Historian in the Light of Research. Every statement made by Luke in 2:1–7 was once challenged. Every one is now shown to be correct.

(1) It used to be said that no census was ever taken by Augustus, but heathen writers mention three, in 726, 746, 767. One of these, 746, may be the one here mentioned, which was delayed for various reasons, or which was executed slowly in the distant provinces. But it is not necessary that the phrase "all the world" should be pressed to its literal meaning, though this is more natural. Nor does the argument from silence prove that no other general census was taken by Augustus. But Ramsay has triumphantly vindicated Luke and the general census under Augustus by proof from the papyri that Augustus inaugurated a periodical census every fourteen years from B.C. 8 on. The second occurred A.D. 6 (Acts 5:37). See Ramsay's Was Christ Born at Bethlehem, and Bearing of Recent Discovery on Trustworthiness of the New Testament (Chap. XX) and my Luke the Historian (Chap. XX). We have only to think that there was delay in the carrying out of the census in Palestine to bring this date down to B.C. 6 (or even 5).

(2) It is not a "taxing," but an "enrollment" (Rev. Ver.) that was taken. There was a taxing later (Acts 5:37). And if it were done while Herod was king, Augustus could not have taxed Judea without Herod's consent. But Herod was not now in good form with Augustus.

(3) This helps to explain another objection that the enrollment would not have included Judea anyhow, because it was not yet a province, but a kingdom. But it is not likely that Herod would have displeased Augustus by refusing such information if it was desired. Tacitus asserts that the regna, the dependent kingdoms, were included in the census taken by Augustus.

(4) Hence, also, it is natural that the enrollment should have taken place according to the Jewish and not according to the usual Roman method, because Herod would wish it to be in accordance with the customs of his kingdom. So every one went to his own city. We now know from numerous papyri that in Egypt the family went to the home city. The Jews were used to enrollment by tribes and that was allowed. See Deissmann's Light from the Ancient East, p. 268, and Ramsay's Was Christ Born at Bethlehem, p. 108.

(5) We now have to meet the objection that Quirinius was not governor till ten years later, A.D. 6, when a taxing did occur. (See Acts 5:37.)

It is now possible to give a real solution of this problem. Luke is now shown to be wholly correct in his statement that Quirinius was twice governor, and that the first census took place during the first period. A series of inscriptions in Asia Minor show that Quirinius was governor of Syria B.C. 10–7 and so twice governor of Syria (second time A.D. 6; Josephus, Ant. XVIII, 1:1). See Ramsay, Bearing of Recent Discovery, pp. 273–300, and my Luke the Historian, pp. 127–9. Tertullian (adv. marc. iv, 19) says that Sentius Saturninus was governor of Syria B.C. 9–6. But we now know that Varus was controlling the internal affairs of Syria while Quirinius was leader of the army. Luke is therefore quite accurate in his statement about Quirinius being twice governor of Syria. The Lapis Tiburtinus has iterum Syriam about Quirinius. Ramsay has cleared up this famous historical puzzle and has completly vindicated Luke.

Few subjects have excited as much interest, even needless curiosity, as the date of the birth of the Saviour. But it is noticeable that by the masses of Christians more interest is taken in the day of Christ's birth than in the year. The Christmas festivities and the natural desire to make that the birthday of Jesus cause this widespread interest in December 25. Not only is it impossible to determine with any degree of certainty the day of the month, but the time of the year also is equally uncertain. The chief thing that appears proved is that December 25 is not the time, since the shepherds would hardly be in the fields at night with the flocks, which were usually taken into the folds in November and kept in till March. The nights of December would scarcely allow watching in the mountain fields even as far south as Bethlehem. And besides, the long journey from Nazareth to Bethlehem would hardly be made by Joseph and Mary in winter, the rainy season. McClellan argues for December 25, but his arguments are not convincing. The ancients had various days for Christ's birth: May 20 (Clement of Alexandria), April 20, December 25, January 5. Tertullian and others even say that the day of his birth (December 25) was kept in the register at Rome. But chronologists attach little weight to this testimony, since the same tradition puts the birth of John, June 24; the annunciation of Mary, March 25, and Elizabeth's conception, September 25—the four cardinal points of the year. If one might hazard an opinion, it would be that the birth of Jesus occurred in the summer or early in the fall of 749 or of 748, that is B.C. 6 or 5. Turner (Chronology, Hastings D B) reaches B.C. 6 as the probable year of the birth of Jesus though he did not have the new light on the census and on Quirinius which confirms it. Hitchcock (Hastings D C G) saw the bearing of the periodical census that called for B.C. 7–5, but did not yet know the discovery about Quirinius. Armstrong (Chronology New Testament, Int. St. Bible Encycl.) is less certain about the precise year.

7. The Feast of John 5:1, and the Duration of Our Lord's Ministry

It seems almost impossible to decide with certainty what feast is alluded to in John 5:1. One can only speak with moderation where everything is so doubtful. Various feasts have been suggested as solving the problem.

1. The Feast of Dedication has been proposed by Kepler and Petavius. But this view has met with no great amount of favor, for there is too short an interval between the first Passover and December, when it occurred. It might be a later Feast of Dedication, but this feast was not one of the great feasts and would hardly have drawn Jesus all the way from Galilee to attend it. He did attend this feast once (John 10:22), but he was already in Judea at this time, having come up to attend the Feast of Tabernacles (John 7:2, 14). So Robinson, Clark, etc. So this feast seems to be ruled out of the question.

2. The Feast of Tabernacles is advocated by Ebrard, Ewald, Patritius.

It is very unlikely that the Feast of Tabernacles after the first Passover could be meant, as the Saviour did not return to Galilee for some time afterwards. He could hardly have come back so soon to Jerusalem. But the Feast of Tabernacles after the Passover of John 6:4 is mentioned later, John 7:2 f., which Jesus attended, it seems, because he was hindered from going up to the previous Passover by the murderous designs of the Jews. It is possible that the feast of John 5:1 may have been the Feast of Tabernacles after a Passover not mentioned, and so would come after the second Passover of his public ministry. But we do not know that Jesus attended any other Feast of Tabernacles save the one in John 7:2, which he may have done because he missed the preceding Passover.

3. The Feast of Purim, first suggested by Kepler, has had great favor with modern harmonists, but apparently more on sentimental than on scholarly grounds. Meyer says, "Without doubt it was Purim." But it is by no means so certain as Meyer would have us believe. (a) Meyer relies on John 4:35 and 6:4 to show that this was the Feast of Purim just before John 6:4. But the expression, "Say not ye, There are yet four months and then cometh the harvest?" may be, and probably is a proverbial saying indicating the usual length of time between sowing and reaping, which, as a matter of fact, was about four months. Hence nothing can be determined by this note of time. And, besides, the four months could precede the Passover just as well as Purim, because the sowing lasted a month or so. (b) The Feast of Purim occurred a month before the Passover. Is it at all likely that two circuits of all Galilee were made in the meantime, besides much work of other kinds? See Luke 8:1 and Matt. 9:25–38. The three general circuits throughout Galilee, besides the mission of the twelve and a large part of their training, the general statements about the Master's work of preaching and healing, require an expansion rather than a contraction of the time for this period of his ministry. It seems then quite unreasonable, when once the mind takes in this enlarged conception of the missionary work of Jesus, as recorded by the Synoptic Gospels, to limit it to the amount of work mentioned by John, since he omits much of the early ministry, because, it would seem, the others are so full just here. (c) The Feast of Purim, moreover, was observed at home in the synagogues, and not by going to Jerusalem. See Esther 9:22 and Jos. Ant. xi. 6, 13. But "the multitude" (John 5:13) seems to imply (Robinson) a concourse of strangers at one of the great festivals. (d) It seems hardly probable, besides, that Jesus would go to any feast just a month before the Passover and come back to Galilee and not go to the Passover itself (John 6:4). Least of all would he do this in the case of Purim. (e) The man who was healed at this feast was healed on the Sabbath (John 5:9), and this occasioned the outburst among the people. But the Feast of Purim was never celebrated on the Sabbath, and when it came on a Sabbath it was postponed. See Reland, Antiq. Sacr. 4, 9.

4. Pentecost is held to be the feast here alluded to by many early and some later writers, such as Chrysostom, Cyril of Alexandria, Erasmus, Calvin, Bengel, etc. Norris makes it the Pentecost after the first Passover, but to do this, has to crowd into this short interval Christ's first Judean ministry, the journey through Samaria together with the first part of his Galilean ministry. So this idea has little weight. McClellan argues that the allusions of Jesus in John 5:17–47, "infallibly point to Pentecost," meaning the Pentecost after a second Passover that is not mentioned. He further contends that this best suits the chronological arrangement and the term "a feast of the Jews." This view is certainly possible and cannot be positively disproved, although it is not so "infallibly" clear as McClellan imagines.

5. The Passover has always met with many adherents, being the second Passover in the Saviour's ministry and making four in all (John 2:13; 5:1; 6:4; 12:1). An unnamed Passover may exist in the ministry even if not referred to here. The arguments in favor of this interpretation are the most satisfactory. We cannot consider them as absolutely conclusive, yet the Passover meets all sides of the case better than any of the other feasts. (a) The plucking of ears from standing grain by the disciples (Luke 6:1) would indicate a time after the Passover and before Pentecost. This incident appears to have happened after the feast mentioned in John 5:1. (b) It is fairly implied (John 5:1) that the feast took Jesus to Jerusalem. The Passover would more likely be the one to lead him there. It is expressly stated that he attended two Passovers and a special reason is given for his not attending a third. If there was another Passover in his ministry, this would naturally be the one. (c) This suits best the hostility manifested at this feast, which would have time to become acute (Broadus' Comm. on Matt.) and break out with increased vigor in Galilee and prevent his attending the next Passover (John 6:4; 7:1). (d) If this Passover be a second Passover of the ministry, sufficient time is afforded for the great Galilean ministry without artificial crowding. His ministry would be long enough to allow the great work recorded as done by him. Only two serious objections can be urged to this idea. (1) It is objected that the article would be used with "feast," if the Passover were thus mentioned as the feast. But to this we can reply: (a) The article is sometimes omitted when the Passover is meant (Matt. 27:15; Mark 15:6). (b) The absence of the article proves nothing whatever one way or the other. No conclusion can be drawn for or against the idea of the Passover. (c) The article does occur in many manuscripts, including the Sinaitic, and is put in the margin of the Revised Version. So nothing can be gained against this theory here. (2) The chief objection is that Jesus would not have remained so long away from Jerusalem, a year and six months, from the Second Passover till the Feast of Tabernacles after the Third Passover. But (a) we do not know that he did not attend any other feast in that time, for silence proves nothing; and (b) a good reason is given for his failure to attend the Third Passover, which may have applied to the others, if he did not go, viz., the desire of the Jews to kill him (John 7:1).

Hence it is natural that there should be a variety of opinions as to the length of the Saviour's ministry, varying all the way from one to four years, leaving out mere guesses based on five and more Passovers. McKnight argues that the ministry may have lasted five or more full years, since all the Passovers of Christ's ministry may not be mentioned.

(1) The Bi-paschal theory makes the time of the public life of Jesus one year, allowing only two Passovers to the Gospel of John. Browne in his Ordo Saeclorum advocates this view. But the words, "the Passover," in John 6:4 must be omitted, and for this there is not enough documentary evidence. If this could be done, Westcott thinks Browne would make out a good case. But with the present text, his view cannot be entertained.

(2) The Tri-paschal theory finds only three Passovers in the life of Christ. Hence the public work of Jesus would be from two to two and a half years in length. This view is quite possible, as is shown in the Harmony. These writers usually make the feast of John 5:1 Purim before the Passover of John 6:4, or Pentecost after it.

(3) The Quadri-paschal theory contends for four Passovers and a ministry of from three to three and a half years. This theory follows from making John 5:1 a Passover or Purim before or Pentecost or Tabernacles after an unnamed Passover. This seems to be the more probable length of the Saviour's public work on earth. How short a space was even this to compass such a marvellous work. The ministry of Jesus seems crowded beyond our comprehension. It would be certain that the Saviour's public life lasted about three years and a half, if it was admitted that John 5:1 referred to a Passover. Various writers seek to find an allusion to the three years of the Saviour's ministry in the Parable of the Barren Fig Tree (Luke 13:6), but this application of the parable is by no means certain, since three might naturally be used as a round number. But there can very well have been a passover not mentioned. All we can say is that we know that the ministry of Jesus was two and a half years in length with the probability of three and a half.

8. The Four Lists of the Twelve Apostles

It is interesting to compare the four lists of Jesus' chosen apostles as given by Matthew, Mark, Luke, and Acts.

Mark 3:16 f.	Matthew 10:2 f.	Luke 6:14 f.	Acts 1:13 f.
1. Simon Peter	Simon Peter	Simon Peter	Simon Peter
2. James	Andrew	Andrew	James
3. John	James	James	John
4. Andrew	John	John	Andrew
5. Philip	Philip	Philip	Philip
6. Bartholomew	Bartholomew	Bartholomew	Thomas
7. Matthew	Thomas	Matthew	Bartholomew
8. Thomas	Matthew	Thomas	Matthew
9. James the son of Alpheus	James the son of Alpheus	James the son of Alpheus	James the son of Alpheus
10. Thaddeus	Thaddeus	Simon the Zealot	Simon the Zealot
11. Simon the Cananæan	Simon the Cananæan	Judas the brother of James	Judas the brother of James
12. Judas Iscariot	Judas Iscariot	Judas Iscariot

Let us examine the names here given.

(1) The lists are given some time after the selection was made, and hence represent a later grouping according to later developments in this inner circle. The primacy of Peter in these lists does not mean necessarily that he was the acknowledged leader at first. See discussion under (4) below. The point to note here is that we are not to think of Peter as the formal leader of the Twelve before the death of Christ. Jesus was himself that leader.

(2) One mark of an apostle was that he should have been with the Lord from the baptism of John until the day that he was received up (Acts 1:21 f.). Perhaps no great stress is to be laid on any exact time here, provided it began in the time of John. An apostle must know the Lord. Hence Paul received the vision of Christ. We have some knowledge of seven of these apostles before this time. If we infer from John 1:41 that John followed the example of Andrew in finding his own brother, it was not long till James was a disciple as well as John, Andrew, and Peter. Philip and Nathanael are soon added to the list (John 1:43 f.). Later Matthew hears the call of the Saviour, too (Matt. 9:9; Mark 2:13 f). Of the other five we have no knowledge previous to this occasion. Jesus had "found" them by the same insight that led to his other selections. He chose Judas, though knowing that he was a devil.

(3) Observe the three groups of four, headed by Simon Peter, Philip, and James the son of Alpheus, respectively. The great variety in the arrangement of the other names makes this uniformity significant. It seems clear that there are three recognized groups among the apostles (Bengel, Broadus, Clark). Each group has the same persons in every list, although there is such a variety in the order. In the first group Matthew and Luke have the same order, while Mark and Acts agree. In the second group Mark and Luke have a like order, while Matthew and Acts agree in putting Matthew at the end of this group. In the third group Matthew and Mark agree exactly, while Luke and Acts are identical save the dropping out of Judas Iscariot from the list in Acts because of his apostasy and death. No great importance can be attached to the precise order within the groups since Luke, in the Gospel and Acts, gives a different arrangement in the first and second groups.

(4) Observe also that Simon Peter not only stands at the head of his group, but at the head of all the groups, while Judas Iscariot is always at the bottom till he drops out entirely. Simon finally occupied a position of precedence of some sort. He was one of the inner circle of three that was so close to the Saviour's heart. Perhaps it was this, rather than any notion of primacy in authority or power. He was the spokesman because of his natural impetuosity. The question as to who should be greatest among the apostles illustrates the spirit of rivalry about precedence that existed among them. In the October, 1916, Journal of Theol. Studies, Dr. A. Wright argues that the critical text in Mark 14:10 means "Judas Iscariot the first of the Twelve." The Koiné did sometimes use heis as an ordinal (see Moulton, Prolegomena, p. 96, and my Grammar of the Greek New Testament, pp. 671 f.). But the disputes among the Twelve show that they themselves considered Jesus only as leader till his death. See my article on "The Primacy of Judas Iscariot," the Expositor (London) for April, 1917, and one by Rendel Harris in the June, 1917, issue, and Wright's reply in the November, 1917, number.

(5) There are among the Twelve three pairs of brothers—Simon and Andrew, James and John, James the son of Alpheus and Judas the brother of James. The first two pairs form the first group of the Twelve. It is, however, uncertain whether Judas is the brother or the son of James. The Greek is ambiguous, James's Judas. The Revised Version translated it "Judas son of James," but the Epistle of Jude begins "Judas a servant of Jesus Christ and brother of James." But the Jude of the Epistle and the Judas of the Twelve were hardly the same. Cf. Broadus, Comm. on Matt., p. 216.

(6) There are some apparent discrepancies in the names in the various lists. Bartholomew occurs in every list, but is generally understood to be another name for Nathanael. Thaddeus is also called Judas the brother of James. Matthew and Mark give Thaddeus, and Luke in Gospel and Acts gives Judas the brother of James. It was a very common circumstance for one to have two names. Lebbeus, given in some MSS. in Matthew and Mark, is only a marginal explanation of Thaddeus. Both are terms of endearment. Matthew and Mark again call Simon the Cananæan, while Luke in the Gospel and Acts speaks of him as Simon the Zealot. But "Zealot" is simply a translation into Greek of the Aramaic "Cananæan." Jesus gave the other Simon the name "Cephas," which was translated into the Greek "Peter," meaning rock. He is called by all three names in the New Testament. Matthew likewise had another name, Levi, and Thomas was also called Didymus, which was a Greek translation of Thomas, meaning "twin."

9. The Sermon on the Mount

Do Matthew and Luke record the same discourse? Let us consider the several theories on this subject. My own view will be stated last.

1. Some hold that the two discourses are entirely distinct in time, place, circumstances and audience. The arguments for this theory usually presented are these.

(a) The time of delivery of the two sermons appears to be different. Matthew gives the sermon before his call (Matt. 9:9), while Luke precedes his sermon by the call of the twelve. Hence Matthew's discourse comes quite a while before Luke's in the early Galilean ministry. But it may be well replied that, inasmuch as Matthew's arrangement in ch. 8–13 is not chronological, but topical, it is entirely possible, even likely, that the same arrangement should prevail in ch. 5–7. It is perfectly natural that Matthew, writing for Jewish readers and about the Messianic reign, should give at the beginning of his account of that reign the formal principles that rule in this new state of affairs, as proclaimed by Jesus on a later occasion. In the early part of the ministry of Jesus, besides, the hearers would hardly be prepared for so advanced and radical ideas. Besides, Matthew makes no note of time whatever for this discourse.

(b) The place appears to be different. One is on a mountain (Matt. 5:1), while the other is on a plain (Luke 6:17). Hence the one is called by Clark the Sermon on the Mount, and the other the Sermon on the Plain. Miller (Int. Stand. Bible Encyclopædia) is uncertain whether Matthew and Luke report the same discourse and so discusses also Luke's "Sermon on the Plain." But his argument is not convincing. If it is necessary that "plain" here shall mean a place away from a mountain, down in a valley, this would seem to refer to a different place. McClellan seeks to show that Luke uses "and" in 6:17–20 by way of anticipation. He presents for effective grouping events that happened after Jesus came down out of the mountain before he gives the sermon delivered to the whole body of disciples up in the mountain. This is possible, but another interpretation is much more likely. The plain here is really simply "a level place" (Rev. Ver.). So then the two accounts of Matthew and Luke will harmonize quite well. Jesus first went up into the mountain to pray (Luke 6:12) and selected and instructed the Twelve. Afterwards he came down to a level place on the mountain side whither the crowds had gathered, and stood there and wrought miracles (Luke 6:17). He then went up a little higher into the mountain where he could sit down and see and teach the multitudes (Matt. 5:1). Matthew gives the multitudes as the reason for his going up into the mountain. By this arrangement any discrepancy between "sat" in Matthew and "stood" in Luke disappears. Waddy has given an admirable arrangement of the material at this point in Note C, p. xix. Many writers affirm that the tradition mentioned by Jerome, making the Horns of Hattin the place where the Sermon on the Mount was delivered, suits this explanation exactly. There is a level place on it where the crowds could have assembled. It is not necessary to insist that this mountain is the Mount of Beatitudes, nor need we contend, as Robinson does, that the mountain must be very close to Capernaum.

(c) The audience is different. Matthew (4:25) states that his audience was composed of "great multitudes from Galilee and Decapolis and Jerusalem and Judea and from beyond Jordan," while Luke (6:17) says that there was "a great multitude of his disciples, and a great number of the people from all Judea and Jerusalem, and the sea coast of Tyre and Sidon." Matthew says (5:1) also that "his disciples came unto him." Hence both assemblages were composed of great multitudes from many regions besides many of his disciples, but in neither case is Jesus said to address himself to any save his disciples, his followers (Matt. 5:1 and Luke 6:20). So in both accounts the Saviour seems to withdraw a little from the great outside crowd of curiosity seekers. But the multitudes also must have heard something of what he said, for they were astonished at his teaching (Matt. 7:28). Andrews well shows that the audience in Matthew were not mostly Jews (according to Kraft), and the audience in Luke mostly heathen. Matthew omits Tyre and Sidon, but he had already mentioned Syria (4:24), which includes Tyre and Sidon. Neither list may be complete. Hence nothing can be made out of Luke's omission of Galilee, Decapolis, and beyond Jordan. Great multitudes from the same general regions are alluded to as being present.

(d) The contents are radically different. It is objected by Alford, Greswell, etc., that Luke omits large portions of what Matthew has so that Luke has only thirty verses, while Matthew has one hundred and seven. But this leaves out of consideration the several large portions of the same matter which Luke has placed elsewhere, or which Jesus repeated on other occasions (cf. Matt. 6:9–13 and Luke 11:2–4; Matt. 6:25–34 and Luke 12:22–31). Jesus often repeated his sayings on other occasions as all teachers do and ought to do. Neither evangelist gives a complete report of this wonderful discourse. So Matthew omits some things which Luke records (cf. Matt. 5:12 with Luke 6:23–6; Matt. 7:12 with Luke 6:31–40). Nor need we be surprised that Luke, writing generally for all Christians, omits large portions towards the beginning of the sermon that were designed especially for Jews (see Matt. 5:17–27; 6:1–18). These Matthew would be sure to record. Luke adds four woes to the beatitudes. It is unnecessary to remark upon minor variations of language, since the gospels manifestly aim to give the sense of what the Saviour said and not the verbatim words. The variations in the Synoptic reports of the sayings of Jesus add much to the interest of the narratives. Moreover, to offset these variations, which admit of explanation, it ought to be remembered that the two discourses begin alike and end alike, that they have a general similarity in the order of the different parts, and that they show a general likeness and often absolute identity of expression.

So these differences all melt away on careful comparison, and it is not proved that there are two distinct sermons.

2. Another theory holds that the two sermons are distinct, but spoken on the same day, and near together. So Augustine, who is followed by Lange. The further points of this theory are two. (a) The one (Matt.) was spoken before the choice of the Apostles, to the disciples alone, and while Jesus was sitting on the mountain. (b) The other (Luke) was spoken after the choice of the Apostles, to the multitudes, and standing upon the plain. It is not hard to see that these points do not solve the question. In Matt. 7:28 we are told that the multitudes were astonished at his teaching and in Luke 6:20 that "he lifted up his eyes on his disciples, and said." So this distinction vanishes. The question of the mountain and the plain has been already discussed, and another more probable explanation suggested. It is only a conjecture that the discourse of Matthew was before the appointment of the Twelve. This theory has had no great following.

3. Wieseler holds that Matthew has simply brought together detached sayings of Jesus on different occasions and does not mean to present the whole as one discourse; Luke's account being only one of the discourses used by Matthew. But this violates the evident notes of place and audience and surroundings by which Matthew gives local color and cast to the entire discourse. See Matt. 5:1 and 8:1. The case of the grouping of the miracles in chapters 8 and 9 is not parallel, since there Matthew does not state that they occurred on one occasion. The fact that various portions of this discourse are repeated elsewhere by Matthew is immaterial, because this was a common habit of Jesus in his discourses. Votaw in his exhaustive and able discussion of the Sermon on the Mount in the extra volume in the Hastings D B admits the possibility of this hypothesis, but considers it far less probable than the historical reality of the Sermon as recorded by both Matthew and Luke. Moffatt (Encycl. Biblica) considers it "a composition rather than an actual address," while Bacon (Sermon on the Mount) admits only what is also in Luke. Adeney (Hastings' D C G) holds to the essential integrity of the address in Matthew.

4. Both Matthew and Luke give substantially similar accounts of the same discourse. In that case we have a good illustration of the use of the Logia in Matthew and Luke. Most of the arguments for this interpretation have been mentioned in rebuttal of the previously mentioned theories. (a) This is the most natural explanation in view of the large volume of similar matter in both, in the beginning, progress, and close of the discourse. It is always best to give the Scripture the most natural and manifest setting, when possible. (b) This theory is the most probable one, since it is hardly likely that Jesus would again make the same sermon to the same audience, and under the same circumstances. (c) There are no objections to this theory that do not admit of a probable explanation. See the discussion above. The omissions and additions in each case suit the specific purpose of the writer. The apparent contradictions, when studied carefully, blend into a harmonious whole. Hence we seem to be justified in maintaining the identity of the discourses recorded by Matthew and Luke. For a careful outline of this matchless discourse see Broadus on Matthew. Stalker, The Ethics of Jesus, has a very able exposition of the teaching.

10. The Combination of Luke and John

We now have to deal with the most perplexing question in harmonistic study, the proper disposal of the mass of material furnished by Luke in 9:51–18:14. McClellan discusses ten schemes, pushes them all aside, and then suggests another which is no more convincing and equally complicated. Nothing can be attempted here but a presentation of the chief points in this endless discussion. All the principal plans for arranging this part of Luke proceed on one or the other of the following ideas:

1. Some hold that this portion of Luke is neither orderly nor chronological. Hence many of the incidents, here recorded as apparently belonging to the last six months of the Saviour's ministry, in reality are to be placed earlier. They are put here as a sort of summing up of things not mentioned elsewhere. So Robinson and others. In favor of this theory it is urged that Luke here speaks of some things that Matthew and Mark put before the third Passover, such as the healing of a demoniac (Luke 11:14–36) and the blasphemy following. But it may be well replied.

(a) It is not at all clear that we have here the same events that are recorded in Matthew and Mark. Similar miracles were often wrought in the Master's work and similar sayings were frequently repeated on similar oc different occasions. This was a common habit with him, as we have heretofore seen.

(b) This portion of Luke is his distinctive contribution to the ministry of Christ in addition to his account of the nativity. He has condensed his account of the withdrawals from Galilee, apparently to make room for the description of another part of Christ's work. Matthew and Mark almost confine themselves to the ministry in Galilee, while Luke thus devotes the bulk of his narrative to what seems to be a later ministry, after Jesus has left Galilee. It is hardly likely that this account should be a mere jumble of scattered details.

(c) Especially is this unlikely in view of Luke's express statement (1:3) that he was going to write an orderly narrative. In no real sense could this be true, if this large section is dislocated in time and order of events.

2. Others refer the entire narrative (Luke 9:51–18:14) to the last journey of the Saviour to Jerusalem to the Passover and see a triple reference to the same journey arguing for triplications in Luke. Others prefer to understand it as meaning the journey to the Feast of the Tabernacles or Dedication. Some would combine this idea with the unchronological plan noticed above. In favor of this journey being continuous and the last one to Jerusalem, the following arguments are adduced:

(a) The language of Luke 9:51, "when the days were being completed that he should be received up," implies that the end was drawing near, and that he was setting his face towards Jerusalem to meet it. This is true without doubt, for Wieseler's interpretation of "received up" as meaning Christ's reception by man is entirely too forced. The expression points to the end of Christ's earthly career. But what does the vague expression, "the days were being completed," mean? Does it have to mean only a few weeks? May it not include as much as six months? For we know that Jesus had been instructing his disciples on this very subject expressly and pointedly, and at the Transfiguration he had spoken of his "decease." Henceforward this was the uppermost subject in his mind. So the interpretation is correct, but the inference is not necessary. This journey in Luke 9:51 need not be either just before the Passover or the Dedication. It could be as early as Tabernacles and be thus described.

(b) It is insisted that this is Jesus' final departure from Galilee, the one described by Matthew and Mark. No place is allowed for a return to Galilee after the departure in Luke 9:51. Robinson urges that Luke 9:51 naturally means a final departure from Galilee. But it may simply mean that he left it as a sphere of activity, not that he never entered Galilee again. And then Luke 17:11 expressly says that Jesus went "through the midst of Samaria and Galilee." This means more than going on the border between the two countries, as McClellan argues. He went through some portions of Samaria and Galilee. In order for McClellan to carry out his scheme he has to resort to the artificial device of referring part of John 10:40 to the departure from Galilee, and the other half to the Perean ministry after a diversion of considerable length into Samaria and back into Galilee. So the effort is not convincing to place all the material in this large section of Luke in one last journey to Jerusalem.

3. The combination of Luke's narrative with that of John. Wieseler was the first to point out a possible parallel between Luke and John. John gives us three journeys,—the Feast of Tabernacles (John 7:2 ff.), the journey to Bethany at the raising of Lazarus (John 11:17 f.), the final Passover (John 12:1). Luke likewise three times in this section speaks of Jesus going to Jerusalem, 9:51; 13:22; 17:11. Hence it would seem possible, even probable, that their journeys corresponded. If so, John 7:2–11:54 is to be taken as parallel to Luke 9:51–18:14. This plan is followed by various modern scholars.

According to John's chronology, Jesus was in Jerusalem at the Feast of Tabernacles (7:2), at the Feast of Dedication (10:22), and at the Passover (12:1). Just after the Feast of the Dedication we find him abiding beyond Jordan, where John had baptized (John 10:40). From this point he comes to Bethany near Jerusalem at the raising of Lazarus (John 11:17), whence he withdraws to a little town called Ephraim in the hills north of Jerusalem (John 11:54). Here he abides awhile with his disciples away from his enemies till he goes to the Passover. Such is John's outline of these last six months of the Saviour's life.

(a) But how is all this to be reconciled with the statement of Luke (17:11) that Jesus went through Samaria and Galilee? If Jesus went back to Galilee, John would have mentioned it, we are told. Not necessarily, not unless it fell in with his plan to do so. Hence no conflict need exist between Luke and John. Luke says he went through Galilee and John permits it by the break in his narrative at 11:54. Various points in the six months have been suggested as the point when the return to Galilee was made. The most natural point is from Ephraim, whither he had withdrawn (John 11:54). It was not far to go up through Samaria and join in Galilee (Luke 17:11) the pilgrims from his own country who were in the habit of going to the Passover through Perea, to avoid passing through Samaria. This supposition is not improbable, as Robinson and McClellan urge, but very natural; it makes Luke and John both agree, and allows Luke 9:51 to mean that Jesus then left Galilee as a field of operations. Various other theories are suggested for this return to Galilee, but none of them appear as fitting as this one. It was just before the Passover, when such a journey from Galilee to Jerusalem would be made.

(b) One other point needs to be considered. The theory we hold makes the journey in Luke 9:51 identical with the one in John 7:2–10, viz., to Tabernacles. Many hold such identity to be impossible because of apparent contradictions in the narratives. Andrews makes three objections against this identity: (1) That the Lord refused to go with his brethren (John 7:6). But it was his brothers who were not favorable to him that he refused to go with. He simply wished to avoid publicity. His face was set (Luke 9:51) all the time, but he was not going with them. (2) That the manner of the going is unlike; the one in John is secret, while the one in Luke is public. But the secrecy in John may merely mean the avoidance of the caravan routes and so through Samaria (Luke). The messengers sent before were not to herald his coming to gather crowds simply, but to make ready for him. It was needed, since the Samaritans saw that his face was as if he were going to Jerusalem. (3) That he went rapidly according to John and slowly according to Luke. He does, according to John, appear in Jerusalem before the feast is over, but Luke does not make him move slowly. Nor is it necessary to connect the sending of the seventy (Luke 10:1 ff.) with this journey. It belongs rather to the interval between Tabernacles and Dedication. So the secret going of John and the going through Samaria of Luke agree. John explains, 7:10, that Jesus rejected the advice of his brothers. This theory is held irrespective of this being the final departure from Galilee. It is not necessary to fill out every detail in this programme and show where Jesus was between Tabernacles and Dedication. The main outlines remain clear and harmonious and are fairly satisfactory. This combination of Luke and John preserves the integrity of both narratives and fills up a large blank that would otherwise exist in these closing months of the Saviour's life. Upon the whole, therefore, this view seems decidedly preferable, though nothing like absolute certainty can be claimed in regard to the question.

We do not know what special source Luke had for 9:51–18:14. Some of it may have come from the Logia (Q). Hawkins (Oxford Studies, pp. 55 ff.) calls it "the Travel Document." Burton (Some Principles of Literary Criticism and Their Application to the Synoptic Problem) suggests "The Peræan Document" and thinks that Luke may have drafted it early out of oral material. But at any rate it is a great and characteristic portion of his Gospel and adds greatly to our knowledge of Christ.

11. Did Christ Eat the Passover?

To put this question in another form, it would be, On what day of the month was Jesus crucified? For the crucifixion occurred on the same Jewish day as the eating of the meal recorded by all four Evangelists. Nearly all agree that the crucifixion occurred on Friday and the meal was eaten the evening before, our Thursday, but the beginning of the Jewish day, counting from sunset to sunset. But what day of the month was it? The Passover feast began on the 15th Nisan, the lamb being slain in the afternoon of the 14th. But the day of the week would vary with the new moon. If Jesus ate the regular Passover supper, he was crucified on the 15th Nisan. If he ate an anticipatory meal a day in advance and was himself slain at the hour of killing the paschal lamb, he was crucified on the 14th Nisan. In that case he did not really eat the Passover supper at all. So then we must seek to determine the truth about this matter, because express statements are made about it in the Gospels.

1. Some sentimental views of the question need to be disposed of first. A great controversy once raged in the early churches about the Passover.

(a) In the latter part of the second century some of the churches of Asia Minor, largely composed of Jewish Christians, kept up the Passover on the ground that Jesus had eaten it the night before his crucifixion. Polycarp, the disciple of John, expresses the persuasion that Jesus ate the Passover.

(b) But some of the churches were afraid of this example and its application to the discussion about the relation of the Mosaic laws to Christianity. So they took the position that Jesus did not eat the Passover himself, but as the Paschal Lamb, was crucified at the time the lamb was slain. He was our Passover. The Greek churches now hold this position, while the Latin churches hold that Jesus ate the Passover. But those arguments are purely subjective and do not affect the question of fact. Hence we waive this old-time controversy and come to the testimony of the Gospels themselves.

2. The testimony of the Synoptists, Mark, Matthew, and Luke. The evidence they give is abundant and explicit to the effect that Jesus ate the regular Paschal Supper on the evening after the 14th Nisan.

(a) Jesus predicted that his death would occur during the Feast of the Passover. See Matthew 26:2, "Ye know that after two days the Passover cometh, and the Son of Man is delivered up to be crucified." See also Mark 14:1 and Luke 22:1, where the fact is alluded to. Passover is used in the general sense of the feast of unleavened bread, as Luke explains. The feast of unleavened bread followed the Passover meal, beginning the next morning and lasting a week. But the one term was used to include the other. The Passover was expanded to mean the entire feast that followed, and vice versa.

(b) It is true that the Jewish authorities decided not to put Jesus to death during the feast (Matthew 26:5; Mark 14:2). But this decision was reached not because of any compunctions of conscience in the matter, but because they were afraid of a tumult among the people, owing to the great crowds, many of whom were friendly to Christ. But so soon as Judas offered his services, their fears vanished and they proceeded with their murderous designs (Matthew 26:14; Mark 14:11). The rulers did expedite matters at the crucifixion that the bodies might not be exposed on the Sabbath.

But they had often tried to slay Jesus on the Sabbath heretofore. Public executions did take place during the feasts (Deut. 17:12 f.).

(c) The Synoptists flatly say (Matthew 26:17, 20; Mark 14:12, 17; Luke 22:7, 14) that on the first day of unleavened bread Jesus sent Peter and John from Bethany into the city to make preparations for eating the Passover, and that on the evening of the same day he ate it with his disciples. Luke calls it "the hour." Now, the first day of unleavened bread was the 14th Nisan. There is no question about this. Josephus speaks of the feast lasting eight days. The lamb of the supper being slain on the afternoon of this day, it was regarded as the beginning of the feast. Besides, Mark and Luke end the whole matter by saying that on this day they sacrificed the Passover. Jesus himself calls it the Passover (Luke 22:15). It is useless to say that Jesus ate the Passover a day in advance. This could not be done, especially by one to whom the temple authorities were hostile. Equally useless is it to say that the Jews ate the Passover a day too late. If a mistake was made about the new moon, they would hardly keep the Passover on two different days, nor would Jesus be apt to make a point about the matter.

3. The testimony of John. If we had only the evidence of the Synoptists, no serious trouble would ever arise on this question. Strauss has strenuously urged that John is on this point in hopeless conflict with the other Evangelists, since he makes Jesus eat the Passover on the evening after the 13th Nisan (Wednesday), and not the evening after the 14th (Thursday). This idea has gained a foothold among many able modern writers who see a clear contradiction between the Synoptics and the Fourth Gospel. Some of these evidently do so because they hold that the Paschal controversy in Asia Minor arose from this supposed conflict of John with the Synoptists, and that this shows John's Gospel to have been in existence when that controversy began. It is not worth while to maintain that John in chapter 13 alludes to a different meal on a different occasion. The points of contact with the Synoptists are too sharp and clear, such as the sop given to Judas. But five passages in John are produced as being in direct opposition to the statements of the Synoptic Gospels. A careful examination of each of these five passages in the Fourth Gospel will show that John does not say that Jesus ate the Passover meal a day in advance of the regular time, but quite the contrary.

(a) John 13:1 f., "Now before the feast of the Passover, Jesus knowing, etc." Here, it is alleged, a distinct statement is made that this supper was before the Passover, and consequently twenty-four hours before. But several things are taken for granted in this inference. One is that the phrase "feast of the Passover" is to be confined to this particular meal, and is not to include the entire festival of unleavened bread (cf. Luke 22:1). Often by a metonymy of speech the name of a part is given to the whole. Besides, it is not certain that verse 1 is to be connected with verse 2. The best exegetes agree that a complete idea may be presented therein, either a general statement that Jesus loved his own before the Passover and until the end, or that he came into special consciousness of this love just before the Passover. And if the more natural interpretation be taken and the application of this love be made in verse 2, it is not necessary that the "before" be as much as twenty-four hours. Observe also the text adopted in the Revised Version in verse 2, not "supper being ended," but "during supper." With this reading agree the other references in 13:4, "riseth from supper," 13:12, "sat down again," 13:23, "there was at the table reclining in Jesus' bosom." So the natural meaning is that just before the meal began, Jesus purposed to show his love for his own by a practical illustration. So, after they had all reclined at the table according to custom, Jesus arose and passed around the tables, washing their feet; then he reclined again and proceeded with the meal. So nothing at all can be made out of this passage against the view that this was the regular Passover; but, on the other hand, the most natural meaning is that John is here describing what took place at this Passover meal. Else, why should he mention the Passover at all?

(b) John 13:27, "That thou doest, do quickly." The objection is made that the disciples would not have thought that Jesus referred to the feast (13:29), if the Passover meal was already going on or was over. So, it is urged, this remark must have been made a day before the Passover was celebrated. But if that were the case, where would be the necessity for hurry, as there would be plenty of time on the morrow? The word "feast" here need not be confined to the paschal supper, but more naturally refers to the whole of the feast, of which the supper was a part. So this haste was needed to provide for the feast of unleavened bread which began on the next morning. No real force lies in the fact that this day was a holy day, being the first day of the Passover festival. The Mishna expressly allows the procuring, even on a Sabbath, what was needed for the Passover. If this could be done on a Sabbath, much more could it be done on a feast day which was not a Sabbath. Hence not only was it possible for the disciples to have misunderstood the remark of Jesus on the Passover evening, but it was far more natural that such misapprehensions should arise then than a day before. So this passage, like the preceding, when rightly understood, really confirms the Synoptists.

(c) John 18:28, "They themselves entered not into the palace, that they might not be defiled, but might eat the Passover." At first sight this does look like a contradiction. For this was certainly after the feast of John 13:2, and if they had not eaten the Passover meal, why here is a clear case of conflict of authorities. But it is by no means certain that the phrase "eat the Passover" means simply the paschal supper. This phrase occurs five times in the New Testament besides this, but all in Matthew, Mark, and Luke (Matt. 26:17; Mark 14:12, 14; Luke 22:11, 15). In all of these the reference is to the paschal supper. But the word "passover" is used in three senses in the New Testament, the paschal supper, the paschal lamb, or the paschal festival. The word is used eight times in John besides this instance, and in every case the Passover festival is meant. So we may fairly infer that the usage of John must determine his own meaning rather than that of the Synoptists. This becomes more probable when we remember that John wrote much later than they, after the destruction of Jerusalem, when these terms were not used so strictly. He always speaks of "the Jews" as separate from Christians. And this very expression is used in 2 Chronicles 30:22, "And they did eat the festival seven days." The Septuagint translates it, "And they fulfilled (kept) the festival of unleavened bread seven days." See Robinson. So it is entirely possible for the phrase, "eat the Passover," to mean in this instance also the celebration of the Passover festival. Some have urged that the Sanhedrin had not eaten the Passover at the regular hour because of the excitement of the trial. But this is hardly tenable. And, moreover, since this remark was made early in the morning, how could that affect the eating of the supper in the evening? For whatever impurities one had during the day passed away at evening. Hence this uncleanness must belong to the same day on which it was incurred. If the Passover festival had begun, this would be true, for they would wish to participate in the offerings of that day. So this passage likewise becomes an argument in favor of agreement with the Synoptists.

(d) John 19:14, "Now it was the Preparation of the Passover." This is claimed to mean the day preceding the Passover festival. Hence Christ was crucified on the 14th Nisan, in opposition to the Synoptists. The afternoon before the Passover was used as a preparation, but it was not technically so called. This phrase "Preparation" was really the name of a day in the week, the day before the Sabbath, our Friday. We are not left to conjecture about this question. The Evangelists all use it in this sense alone. Matthew uses it for Friday (27:62), Mark expressly says that the Preparation was the day before the Sabbath (15:42), Luke says that it was the day of the Preparation and the Sabbath drew on (23:54), and John himself so uses the word in two other passages (19:31, 42), in both of which haste is exercised on the Preparation, because the Sabbath was at hand. The New Testament usage is conclusive, therefore, on this point. This, then, was the Friday of Passover week. And this agrees with the Synoptists. Besides, the term "Preparation" has long been the regular name for Friday in the Greek language, caused by the New Testament usage. It is so in the Modern Greek to-day. It was the Sabbath eve, just as the Germans have Sonnabend for Sunday eve, i.e., Saturday afternoon. So this passage also becomes a positive argument for the agreement between John and the Synoptists.

(e) John 19:31, "For the day of that Sabbath was a high day." From this passage it has been argued that at this Passover the first day of the Passover festival coincided with the weekly Sabbath. But that is an entirely gratuitous inference. This coincidence would, of course, be a "high day," but so would the first day of the feast, the last day, or the Sabbath of the feast. In John 7:37 the last day is called "the great day of the feast." The Sabbath occurring during the festival would be a high day likewise. Robinson's arguments on this point are quite conclusive. Nothing can be made out of the expression against the position of the Synoptists.

McClellan discusses various other passages in John which show that the crucifixion occurred on Friday, and that this was the first day of the feast (John 18:39, 40; 19:31, 42; 20:1, 19, etc.). We conclude then that a fair interpretation of the passages alleged not only removes all contradiction between John and the Synoptists, but rather decidedly favors the view that they have the same date for the Passover meal, and that Jesus ate the Passover at the regular hour and was crucified on Friday, 15th Nisan.

It is reassuring to note that David Smith (The Days of His Flesh, Appendix VIII) reaches the same conclusion as that just stated. He makes it out that Jesus ate the regular Passover meal and was crucified on Friday 15th of Nisan and that the passages in John really agree with the Synoptic account.

12. The Hour of the Crucifixion

In John 19:14 it is stated that the time when Pilate sentenced Jesus to be crucified, or rather when he began the last trial in which he sentenced him, was about the sixth hour. We read, however, in Mark 15:25 that it was the third hour when Christ was crucified. The Synoptists all unite in saying that the darkness began at the sixth hour. The Jewish way of counting the hours was to divide the night and day into twelve divisions each, beginning at sunrise and sunset. The hours would thus vary in length with the time of year. Just after the vernal equinox the third hour of Mark would be about 9 A.M., and the sixth hour of the Synoptists would be about noon. The ninth hour, when Jesus gave his piteous cry to God (Mark 15:34), would be about 3 P.M. But how can the sixth hour of John, the time when Jesus was sentenced by Pilate, be reconciled to this schedule? A real difficulty is here presented, but by no means an insuperable one, as Alford and Meyer hold. Let us discuss some of the more usual explanations. Andrews and McClellan give quite a variety of suggested solutions.

1. Some hold that "sixth" in John is a textual error for "third." This could easily happen, since the gamma and the digamma of the Greek are very similar. Eusebius said that the accurate copies had it "third" in John. But the textual evidence is overwhelmingly against it, and, besides, the difficulty would not be removed. John is evidently speaking of the time at the last trial and Mark of the time after Jesus has been led out to the crucifixion. So nothing is gained by this hypothesis. We should still be confronted with the same difficulty. The change to third in John was a mere stupid scribal correction.

2. Others would change the punctuation in John 19:14 so as to make "of the Passover" belong to "sixth hour," beginning from midnight. But there is no evidence that the Passover began with midnight. So Hofmann. This is very forced and unnatural.

3. Views that hinge on the word "preparation." Some would hold that John simply says that about noon the preparation time of the Passover begins. But Preparation here means Friday, and noon is not the hour needed to harmonize with Mark. Equally arbitrary is it to count six hours backward from noon so as to reach six o'clock.

Augustine suggested that the six hours are to be counted from 3 A.M. This would make 9 A.M., and would concur with the hour of Mark. But this is wholly arbitrary and unsatisfactory, and would not relieve the trouble.

4. Equally arbitrary is the solution that makes Mark refer to the hour of the sentence and John to the crucifixion, just the reverse of the Scripture account. Augustine also proposed that Jesus was crucified at the third hour by the tongues of the Jews, and at the sixth by the hands of the soldiers.

5. Others hold that Mark and John both speak in general terms. Hence the crucifixion may have taken place between 9 and 12 in the morning. Mark looks in one direction and John in the other without aiming at definiteness. The Jews, it is true, were not as exact in the use of expressions of time as we are to-day, but this solution hardly meets the requirements of the case. Mark puts his third hour at the beginning of the crucifixion, and John his sixth hour at the beginning of the last trial. This reconciliation does not reconcile.

6. The most satisfactory solution of the difficulty is to be found in the idea that John here uses the Roman computation of time, from midnight to noon and noon to midnight, just as we do now. Hence the sixth hour would be our six o'clock in the morning. If this hour was the beginning of the last trial of Jesus, we then have enough, but not too much, time for the completion of the trial, the carrying away of Jesus outside the city walls, together with the procuring of the crosses, etc. All the events, moreover, narrated by the Evangelists, could have occurred between dawn (John 18:27) and six or seven.

For a long time it was doubted whether the Romans ever used this method of computing time for civil days. Farrar vehemently opposes this idea.

But Plutarch, Pliny, Aulus Gellius, and Macrobius expressly say that the Roman civil day was reckoned from midnight to midnight. So the question of fact may be considered as settled. The only remaining question is whether John used this mode of reckoning. Of course, the Romans had also the natural day and the natural night just as we do now. In favor of the idea that John uses the Roman way of counting the hours in the civil day, several things may be said.

(a) He wrote the Gospel late in the century, probably in Asia Minor, long after the destruction of Jerusalem, when the Jewish method would not likely be preserved. Roman ideas were prevalent in Asia Minor. John evidently is not writing for the Jews primarily, since he constantly speaks of "the Jews" as outsiders. John is writing to be understood by the people, and this is the way it would be understood in Asia Minor.

(b) All the passages in John, where the hour is mentioned, allow this computation. John 1:39 would be 10 A.M.; 4:6 f. would be 6 P.M., counting from noon also (as we do). This hour suits best the circumstances. In the evening the women would come to get water, Jesus would have time for his journey thither, and would be tired and hungry. In John 4:52 the hour would be 7 P.M. This hour likewise suits the circumstances better. John 11:9, Are there not twelve hours in the day? is not against this idea, since here obviously the natural day, as opposed to night, is meant. The Romans used both methods and so do we.

(c) Moreover, one passage in John (20:19), when compared with Luke 24:29, 36, makes it necessary to understand that John used the Roman method in this instance. It was toward evening, and the day had declined, according to Luke, when Jesus and the disciples drew near to Emmaus. Here he ate supper and, "rising up that very hour," the disciples returned seven miles to Jerusalem and told these things to the eleven who were together. But while they were narrating these things Jesus appeared to them. Now John, in mentioning this very appearance of Jesus (20:19), says that it "was evening on that day, the first day of the week," i.e., evening of the day when Mary Magdalene had seen the Lord. But with the Jews the evening began the day. Hence John, here at least, is bound to mean the Roman day. It was the evening of the same day in the morning of which Mary had seen Jesus. This appears conclusive. John did use the Roman method here, may have done so always, almost certainly did so in 19:14. Besides, as McClellan shows, the natural meaning of John's phrase is that it was the sixth hour of the Friday (Preparation) of the Passover. But we have just seen that John in 20:19 counts according to the Roman day. Hence the sixth hour of Friday would be six o'clock in the morning.

This is the only solution that really harmonizes John and Mark. The rest make the hours agree, but the hours bring together different events.

This method harmonizes the whole narrative, and seems entirely probable, if we can assume that the Romans or Greeks employed hours in this sense, a point denied by Ramsay.

Sir W. M. Ramsay (The Expositor for March, 1893, and Extra Volume, Hastings D B) contends that Mark and John are at variance, but that it is of small moment, since the ancients had little notion about hours. He seeks to show that the martyrdom of Polycarp and Pronius, usually relied on to prove that in Asia Minor the hours were counted from midnight, took place in the afternoon, instead of the morning, the usual time. Hence the eighth and tenth hours respectively would be 2 P.M. and 4 P.M. Ramsay argues that, when hours were counted, they were always counted from sunrise. He holds that John is more accurate about hours than Mark and that hence Mark is in error. He agrees that John "stood on the Roman plane" in the use of time, but denies that the sixth hour can be our 6 A.M. But the evidence is too uncertain for such a dogmatic position.

13. The Time of the Resurrection of Christ

1. Mark, Luke, and John say that the resurrection had taken place early on the first day of the week, i.e. early Sunday morning. Mark (16:9) says that Jesus, "having risen early, on the first day of the week, appeared, etc." The position of "early" is ambiguous in the Greek and the passage is disputed. Mark (16:2) states that it was very early on the first day of the week, the sun having risen, when the women came to the sepulchre. Luke (24:1) says that the women came to the tomb at early dawn on the first day of the week. John (20:1) says that Mary Magdalene came to the tomb in the morning on the first day of the week. So then, there is no doubt that these three Evangelists mean to say that Jesus rose very early on Sunday morning, and that shortly after that event came the two Marys and some other women to anoint his body with spices.

Much objection is made to some of the details in the accounts of Mark and John especially as being inconsistent. John (20:1) says that Mary comes while it is yet dark, while Mark says (16:2) that the sun was risen. But Mark also says in the same verse that it was very early, which would agree with John's statement that it was yet dark. Hence Mark's other statement, that the sun was risen, must be interpreted in the light of his own words. Two solutions can be offered.

(a) We may suppose, as McClellan and others, that John's note of time refers to the starting from Bethany, while it was yet dark or very early (Mark). In a few minutes it would be early dawn (Luke), and by the time the women come to the tomb, the sun would be up. All this is entirely possible and looks even probable, for in the twilight of early dawn, the border line is very narrow between darkness and sunrise. A stiff morning walk would pass through all the stages. It all depends on where you take your stand in this fleeting interim. Mark covers both sides and so includes it all from the first glimmering light till the full light of day.

(b) Or the expression, "the sun was risen" (aorist participle), may simply be a general expression applicable to the phenomena of sunrise. The first gleam of daylight comes from the rising sun, though not yet completely risen. Robinson gives several examples from the Septuagint, where the same phrase is used in the aorist tense in a general way for the dawning light of day (Judges 9:33; 2 Kings 3:22; Ps. 104:22). Either of these explanations is entirely possible and removes the difficulty.

2. But Matthew seems to put the resurrection on the evening after the Sabbath, our Saturday evening. He says (28:1), "But late on the Sabbath day, as it was dawning into the first day of the week, came Mary Magdalene and the other Mary to view the sepulchre." If this passage means that the visit was made at the end of the Sabbath day (evening) and after the resurrection of Jesus, then Matthew is in plain contradiction to the other Evangelists. Some have taken the position that Jesus rose at sunset on the Sabbath day, forgetting that Mark (16:9) says that he rose early in the morning. There are several ways of reconciling Matthew with the other gospels.

(a) Greswell, Alford and others would translate "late on the Sabbath day" by "late in the week." The Greek word is the same in this verse for Sabbath and week. In both cases, therefore, the translation could be the same. But little sense would result from this translation. "Late in the week" and "dawning into the first day of the week" hardly fit well. By this explanation the latter expression is used for the first part of Sunday and the visit occurred in this dawning part of the day.

(b) Others would translate "late on the Sabbath day" by "after the Sabbath day." Godet, Grimm and others contend that the Greek idiom could mean this, and the Koine allows it (Robertson, Grammar of the Greek New Testament, pp. 645 f.). This rendering is possible, though the papyri have instances of "late on" for this preposition (opse), and it is so translated by several English translators. Thus the Greek idiom allows either "late on" or "after."

(c) Matthew does not clearly say that this visit was made after the resurrection of the Saviour although his words may mean that. Hence the words may have their natural meaning as sustained by the papyri. Late on the Sabbath day, about sundown say, the two Marys go to view the sepulchre (Matt. 28:1), having rested through the day (Luke 23:56). The women who had come with Jesus from Galilee had gone thither on Friday, after his burial, to see where he was laid and had prepared spices. If they went at nightfall at the close of the Sabbath (Matt. 28:1) "to see the sepulchre," they could have bought spices after sundown (Mark 16:1). Then (Mark 16:2) in the early morning, they rose and took the spices and went to anoint his body. It was then that they saw the angel (Matt. 28:5). Matthew does not say that in the visit of 28:1 the angel appeared to them. He speaks of the earthquake having come, and the resurrection, and then resumes. This view gains some support from the use of the same Greek word in Luke 23:54, "And it was the day of the Preparation (Friday) and the Sabbath drew on (was dawning)." Here the meaning seems to be that the Sabbath dawned at the close of the day. So Westcott, McClellan and others. However it may be about the visit of the women in Matt. 28:1, Matthew certainly does not mean to say that Jesus rose at sunset on the Sabbath. The whole course of his narrative in the rest of the chapter shows that it was the morning of Sunday when the angel appeared. While (Matt. 28:11) the women went to the disciples, the soldiers ran to the chief priests (Matt. 28:13) and said that the disciples came by night and stole him while they slept, clearly implying that it was now day. Hence Matthew does not teach that Jesus rose at sunset, but the reverse. Besides, Matthew expressly says that Jesus rose on the third day, which would not be true, if he rose on the Sabbath.

(d) Sabbath day may be used of the day followed by the night, according to a possible understanding of the language. The Jews originally counted from evening to evening, but this custom did not prevail universally. Jonah (1:17) and Matthew (12:40) speak of three days and three nights, following the day by the night. Meyer, Morison, Clark and others hold this view, and it is possible, but certainly not so satisfactory as the view given under (c). At any rate, it remains clear that Matthew agrees with the other Evangelists in putting the resurrection of Jesus Sunday morning. The chief point of difficulty is Matthew's visit of the women in 28:1, whether this was in the evening before simply "to view the sepulchre," or in the morning to anoint the body of the Saviour. The condensed account of Matthew leaves this question unsettled, and there we too shall have to leave it. And this last matter does not affect the question as to the time of the Lord's resurrection, but only the number of the visits made by the women.

14. The Length of Our Lord's Stay in the Tomb

Quite an effort is made in some quarters to show that Jesus remained in the tomb seventy-two hours, three full days and nights. The effort seems due to a desire to give full value to the expression "three days" and to vindicate scripture. But a minutely literal interpretation of this phrase makes "on the third day" flatly erroneous. A good deal of labor has been expended in the impossible attempt to make three and four equal to each other. There are three sets of expressions used about the matter, besides the express statements of the Gospels about the days of the crucifixion and resurrection. Let us examine these lines of evidence.

1. Luke settles the matter pointedly by mentioning all the time between the crucifixion and the resurrection (Luke 23:50–24:3). The burial took place Friday afternoon just before the Sabbath drew on (Luke 23:54). The women rested on the Sabbath (Saturday) (Luke 23:56), and went to the sepulchre early Sunday morning, the first day of the week (Luke 24:1). There is no escaping this piece of chronology. This is all the time there was between the two events. Jesus then lay in the tomb from late in the afternoon of Friday till early Sunday morning. The other Gospels agree with this reckoning of the time, as we have already seen.

2. But how about the prediction of Jesus, repeatedly made, and once illustrated by the case of Jonah, that he would rise after three days? Are two nights and a day and two pieces of days three days? Let us see.

(a) The well-known custom of the Jews was to count a part of a day as a whole day of twenty-four hours. Hence a part of a day or night would be counted as a whole day, the term day obviously having two senses, as night and day, or day contrasted with night. So then the part of Friday would count as one day, Saturday another, and the part of Sunday the third day. This method of reckoning gives no trouble to a Jew or to modern men, for that matter. In free vernacular we speak the same way today.

(b) Besides, the phrase "on the third day" is obliged to mean that the resurrection took place on that day, for, if it occurred after the third day, it would be on the fourth day and not on the third. Now it so happens that this term "third day" is applied seven times to the resurrection of Christ (Matt. 16:21; Matt. 17:23; Matt. 20:19; Luke 27:7, 21, 46; 1 Cor. 15:4). These numerous passages of Scripture, both prophecy and statement of history, agree with the record of the fact that Jesus did rise on the third day. (Luke 24:7.)

(c) Moreover, the phrase "after three days" is used by the same writers (Matthew and Luke) in connection with the former one, "the third day," as meaning the same thing. Hence the definite and clear expressions must explain the one that is less so. The chief priests and Pharisees remember (Matt. 27:63) that Jesus said, after three days I rise again. Hence they urge Pilate to keep a guard over the tomb until the third day (Matt. 27:64). This is their own interpretation of the Saviour's words. Besides, in parallel passages in the different Gospels, one will have one expression and another the other, naturally suggesting that they regarded them as equivalent. (Cf. Mark 8:31 with Matt. 16:21, Luke 9:22 with Mark 10:34.) On the third day cannot mean on the fourth day, while after three days can be used as meaning on the third day.

(d) Matthew 12:40 is urged as conclusive the other way. But the "three days and three nights" may be nothing more than a longer way of saying three days, using day in its long sense. And we have already seen that the Jews counted any part of this full day (day and night) as a whole day (day and night). Hence this passage may mean nothing more than the common "after three days" above mentioned, and, like that expression, must be interpreted in accordance with the definite term "on the third day" and with the clear chronological data given by Luke and the rest. They seemed to be conscious of no discrepancy in these various expressions. Most likely they understood them as well as we do at any rate.

A LIST OF SOME UNCANONICAL SAYINGS OF JESUS

Some of the more important reported sayings of Christ are given which are not found in the Gospels or Acts; whether true words of the Master or not, it is not known. Some certainly are not like the Spirit of Christ, but it will be of service to the student to compare them with the genuine Words of Jesus in our Gospels. The Apocryphal Gospels are passed by as not worth using in this list.

1. The Logia of Jesus (Grenfell and Hunt):

Jesus saith: Except ye fast to the world, ye shall in no wise find the Kingdom of God; and except ye keep the Sabbath, ye shall not see the Father.

Jesus saith: I stood in the midst of the world, and in the flesh was I seen of them, and I found all men drunken, and none found I athirst among them, and my soul grieveth over the sons of men because they are blind in their heart.

Jesus saith: Wherever there are . . . and there is one . . . alone, I am with him. Raise the stone and there thou shalt find me, cleave the wood and there am I.

Jesus saith: A prophet is not acceptable in his own country, neither doth a physician work cures upon them that know him.

Jesus saith: A city built upon the top of a high hill and stablished, can neither fall nor be hid.

2. Readings found in Codex D.

One is concerning a man found working on the Sabbath, and comes after Luke 6:4: O man, if indeed thou knowest what thou doest, thou art blessed; but if thou knowest not, thou art cursed and art a transgressor of the law.

Likewise Codex D has, after Matt. 20:28: But you seek to increase from little, and from greater to be less.

3. Quotations found in various early Fathers.

From Barnabas: Let us resist all iniquity, and hold it in hatred. They who wish to see me and lay hold on my kingdom must receive me by affliction and suffering.

From Origen and others: Show yourselves tried money changers.

Ask great things, and the small shall be added to you; and ask heavenly things, and the earthly shall be added unto you.

He who is near me is near the fire: he who is far from me, is far from the kingdom.

For those that are sick I was sick, and for those that hunger, I suffered hunger, and for those that thirst, I suffered thirst.

From Clement of Rome (Ep. II.): Keep the flesh pure, and the seal unspotted.

When the two shall be one, and that which is without as that which is within, and the male with the female neither male nor female.

If ye kept not that which is small, who will give you that which is great? For I say unto you, that he that is faithful in very little is faithful also in much.

From Justin Martyr: In whatsoever I may find you, in this will I also judge you. Such as I may find thee, I will judge thee.

From Ignatius: Take hold, handle me, and see that I am not an incorporeal spirit.

From Clement of Alexandria: He that wonders shall reign, and he that reigns shall rest. Look with wonder at that which is before you. My mystery is for me and for the sons of my house.

From Papias: The days will come in which vines shall spring up, each having ten thousand stocks, and on each stock ten thousand branches, and on each branch ten thousand shoots, and on each shoot ten thousand bunches and on each bunch ten thousand grapes, and each grape when pressed shall give five and twenty measures of wine. And when any saint shall have seized one bunch, another shall cry: I am a better bunch; take me; through me bless the Lord.

In general the Later Judean Ministry and the Perean Ministry, chiefly Luke's contribution to the Life of Christ, furnish many events and discourses similar to those described in the Galilean Ministry. Sections 102 to 127 furnish most of the so-called "doublets" or repeated sayings of Jesus or similar miracles. This is just what we should expect in a popular teacher who journeyed in different parts of the country. Some of these were real doublets, spoken by Jesus more than once. Others may be grouped by Luke in a different place. We have no way to decide the problem.
